

ADOPTABLES TOS

GENERAL RULES

- I do retain the copyright to the artwork, this means that the character is yours, but you were not the one to design it.
- If you own a design of mine, you can re-post it to other sites with proper credit.
- Unless specified otherwise in the description, I do not give unwatermarked, high resolution versions of my art, nor .psd files. If you wish to have the file sent to you by mail, you can ask me about it and I'll do it, but I generally don't do this by default.
- If you have ANY question or doubt about this ToS, or about what you can/cannot do with my designs, please ask so BEFORE claiming/purchasing.

USE

- You can use/draw a design only after purchasing it.
- You can draw your bought design as many times as you want, in any way you wish.
- You can use your bought design in comics, books and such, as long as credit is given.
- You cannot use my original art to make prints/cups/merchandise in general. However, creating your own art for this purpose is fine.
- Editing a design is possible, but ask me about it BEFORE claiming/purchasing.
- Editing my original art file in any way, including removing the watermark, is not allowed.

PURCHASING

- No refunds.
- Once payment has been sent, you cannot change your mind over the adoptable you want.
- Once you have purchased an adopt, you cannot 'swap' it with another one in my gallery, even if they have the same price.
- Pre-sets follow the rule of 'First come, first serve' for the first two days.
- Claim properly to start the adoption. 'I'll take him/her', 'I want to buy him/her', 'Can I have them?' are examples of acceptable claims. 'I'd really like him/her', 'Mine' and/or inquiries about price/status/etc are not acceptable claims. A claim starts when I have received a clear intention of purchase.
- After my confirmation of your claim, you'll be asked to either use the points' Purchase Button or I will send you a note/dm with my paypal email. You have 24 hours to complete the payment. After that time has passed, you'll get a 24 hours warning before the adoptable will be considered open again.

- After two days, holds can be put in place.
- Claims cannot be converted into Holds.
- If you have purchased an adopt made by me that is very similar to another character, please contact me. But what I can offer are the following options: Redo the design with the same palette or a custom.

RE-SELLING

- Gifting, trading and re-selling are allowed. Reselling must not be at a higher price than what was paid for it in the beginning, unless extra art is present. Older adopts have lower prices, those prices cannot be raised in case of re-selling.
- When re-selling, the old owner must warn the new one to contact me.
- If you purchased a character that has an unwatermarked/higher resolution version and you decide to re-sell it, it is your responsibility to deliver such file to the new adopter.
- Re-sold designs will not be eligible for commercial use. (Personal use in novels/comics/etc is fine, mass production is not)

As a main, though, ask before and not after. Thank you for the attention. <3
