INTRODUCTION

The introduction should be clear and provide for the issue to be discussed in the manuscript. Before the objective, authors should provide an adequate background, and very short literature survey in order to record the existing conditions, to show which is the best of previous researches, to show the main limitation of the previous researches, to show what you want to achieve (to solve the limitation), and to show the scientific merit or novelties of the paper.² At the end of the paragraph, the author/s should end with a comment on the significance concerning identification of the issue and objective of the research.³

¹ If the article is in English, then the abstract is only in English

² Muhammad Fuad Zain Durotun Nafisah, Nasrudin Nasrudin, Ahmad Rezy Meidina, "Comparative Analysis of Islamic Family Law and Normative Law: Examining the Causes of Divorce in Purwokerto, Indonesia,"

The manuscript written⁴ by the author whose English is the second language needs to be proofread. Ignore to this requirement results in the rejection of the manuscript.⁵

RESEARCH METHODS

The method is optional for original research articles. This method⁶ is written in descriptive and should provide a statement regarding the methodology of the research. This method is as much as possible give an idea to the reader.

ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION

This section is the most important section of your article. The analysis or results of the research should clear and concise. The results should summarize (scientific) findings rather than providing data in great detail. Please highlight differences between your results or findings and the previous publications by other researchers. For tables you need to sound the table.

Table 1: Table's title

No	Detail 1	Detail 2	Etc.

Source: Author, Title of the book, year of publication, page(s); or if the data taken from the analysis then you should write as :Analysed from the primary source.

For direct citation when it is more than four lines you need to write it in 10 pt with single space:

"The right to life, the right to not to be tortured, the right to freedom of the individual, to freedom of thought and conscience, the right not to be enslaved, the right to be acknowledged as an individual before the law, and the right not to be prosecuted retroactively under the law are human rights that cannot be diminished under any circumstances whatsoever."⁷
