

Current stage: Interest check

From Oct 3 - Oct 24

General rules

- You must be +18 to participate. This is an adult project with explicit themes, which means all contributors must be at least 18 at the time of application. There will be no exceptions.
- Shipping is allowed, but keep in mind it's not the main focus. Most of it should be in the background or in the character's past. The spotlight here is on their sexcapades.
- Communication is key. You don't have to be online 24/7, but you do need to be available and responsive.
- This is a non-profit collaborative zine. We're all here because of our passion and dedication to creation, so please remember to be respectful and committed.

- Sharing Policy

Please do not share your work publicly, this includes big servers, social media, or any public platform.

- Private portfolios and private servers with trusted friends are fine.
- Leaking or posting publicly your work will result in a strike, and if the content isn't removed you will be asked to step down from the project entirely. This is due to the fact that some pieces will be part of paid content, and we want to keep it fair for everyone.
- Leaking other contributors' work will result in an automatic removal from the project.

After release, you can do whatever you want with your work! It's yours to manage any way you see fit.

That said, we'd appreciate it if you kept exclusive content on more exclusive platforms (behind your own paywall, patreon, etc) rather than just dropping it for free on social media.

Content restrictions

- No incest in any way, shape or form.
- Similarly, we won't allow "stanwich".
- No minors in any capacity. Aged up versions of the minors won't be allowed either.
- No generative IA.

While we want to portray everything and give space to all kinks, to keep our readers safe we've decided to exclude a few kinks we're not confident in portraying in the respectful way they deserve.

- No non-con.
- No paraphilic infantilism.
- No bestiality.

While somnophilia can be included in the "non-con" category, it can be allowed in the zine depending on the context. It must be approved and discussed with a moderator first.

We're putting together a detailed kink list so you'll know what's allowed and what isn't. If something isn't listed anywhere, just ask. We probably just missed it!

Expulsion policy

- Three strikes means you're out of the project.
 - Strikes will be given for:
 - Missing check-ins without a warning of at least one day in advance.
 - Sharing your piece(s) publicly against the guidelines.
 - Repeated communication problems (ghosting a collab partner, ignoring mod messages, not respecting deadlines, etc.)

Things like:

- Ghosting the project for more than 5 months.
- Harassment, hate speech, or plagiarism.

Will result in an immediate expulsion regardless of the amount of strikes.

If we find out you're under 18 at any point during the project you will be immediately removed from the zine, and your work will be excluded from the release completely, regardless of how far along we are. This is a strictly adult project, and we take the safety of our contributors seriously. Please respect that this space is not for minors in any capacity.

Zine roles

Artists

- Page artists will be creating 1-2 full-page vertical illustrations or a full spread.
- Spot artists will be making a full illustration or several smaller ones (max of 3) based on the content of the fic your collaboration partner will write.
- Comic artists will create a short comic with a max of 6 pages on theme.

- Merch artists will design the extra items that accompany the zine paid version. Max number of piece merch items will be dependent on artist preference.

Writers

- Fic writers will write a piece in the format of a short story for the zine, with a max word count of 4k.

Submission guidelines

- We're a NSFW sex-centric zine, so we encourage people to apply with works of that nature, just make sure every submission has the appropriate trigger warnings.
- Written pieces for contributor applications should have a max word count of 3k, and the max number of written entries is 3. Visual submissions should consist of 2 to 5 pieces.
- All submissions must be fully made by you and relatively recent, but not necessarily created specifically for this zine. At least 2 of them should feature either Ford or Stan Pines so we can see your characterization.
- Plagiarism and AI-generated content are under no circumstances accepted.
- If you're teaming up with other creators, please list down all contributors in the form.
