

Privacy Policy for QL KHO EG

Introduction:

Hello and welcome to QL KHO EG! We want to ensure that all our users, especially children under the age of 13, have a safe and enjoyable experience while using our app. As part of our commitment to privacy and data protection, we have implemented a privacy policy that outlines how we collect, use, and safeguard personal information. Please take a moment to review this policy before using the app.

Collection of Personal Information:

We want to assure you that we do not knowingly collect any personal information from children under the age of 13 without obtaining verifiable parental consent. If we discover that a child under 13 has provided personal information without parental consent, we will take immediate steps to delete that information.

Parental Consent:

For children under 13, we require parental consent before collecting any personal information. We encourage parents or legal guardians to review this privacy policy and contact us if they have any concerns or wish to provide consent for their child to use our app.

Types of Information Collected:

When using our app, we may collect certain non-personal information such as device information, usage statistics, and analytics data. This information helps us improve our app's functionality and provide a better user experience. We do not collect any personally identifiable information from children under 13 without obtaining verifiable parental consent.

Use of Personal Information:

Any personal information collected with verifiable parental consent is used solely for the purpose of providing and improving our app's features, services, and content. We do not share or disclose personal information with third parties, except as required by law or with parental consent.

Security Measures:

We take data security seriously and have implemented reasonable measures to protect personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. Our app follows industry-standard practices to ensure the security of data.

Parental Rights and Control:

We believe in empowering parents or legal guardians to exercise control over their child's personal information. If you are a parent or legal guardian and believe that your child has provided personal information without your consent, please contact us immediately to request the removal of that information.

Contact Information:

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding our privacy policy, or if you need to provide parental consent, please contact us at vas.giacongphanmem@gmail.com.

Conclusion:

Thank you for taking the time to review our privacy policy. We are committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all users, especially children under 13. By using our app, you agree to abide by the terms and conditions outlined in our privacy policy. We reserve the right to update or modify this policy as needed, and any changes will be communicated to you.
