Raagana B.

Tutor
San Antonio Math Include

Raagana is a rising freshman and a part of the Class of 2030 at Basis Jack Lewis Junior. Raagana is deeply involved in her school community and is a part of the Debate and the UIL Math League Clubs at her school. She is passionate about mathematics and has some prior experience tutoring her own classmates. Raagana is also interested in science and engineering. Outside of her academic pursuits, she likes to draw free-form art, read retro comics and bake desserts for her friends and family.
