

1. Noun verb direct object.
 - a. Debris covered. the city.
 - b. Cats eat fish.
 - c. Mary demolished the front door
 - d. Debris choked the citizens of Gotham.
 - e. Debris showered the ocean.

2. Indefinite article adjective noun verb direct object.
 - a. An elusive player made the free kick.
 - b. A fair-minded judge listened to the trial.
 - c. A fair-minded woman spoke out loud.
 - d. A distracted boy threw paper across the room.
 - e. An elusive bunny munched on Jack's lettuce.

3. Definite article adjective noun verb definite article direct object
 - a. The colossal man shot the basketball.
 - b. The elusive robber stole the diamond.
 - c. The baseball player hit the ball.

4. Indefinite article adjective noun adjective phrase verb definite article direct object indirect object.
 - a. A huge conflagration with great momentum demolished the city of the people.
 - b. A distracted woman from Europe found the map to Michaelangelo's studio.
 - c. A tall girl from Chicago ran the Marathon for her mother.
 - d. A good baker from Stacy's Bakery baked the cake for him.
 - e. A swanky restaurant in Andrsonville catered the lamb for me.
 - f.

5. Definite article adjective noun adjective phrase verb definite article direct object indirect object
 - a. The red lobster from the Pacific Ocean hid the necklace from Ariel.
 - b. The distracted boy from Math class forgot the apple for his teacher.
 - c. The enormous white shark from the aquarium ate the fish for Henry
 - d. The bright configuration in Chicago burned the trees in front of her.
 - e. The yellow truck from downtown demolished the building for the city.
 - f. The grey limo from my Uncle Samir's shop drove the groceries for Tabitha.

6. Indefinite article noun adjective phrase verb indirect object adjective phrase definite article direct object.
 - a. A conflagration in Australia demolished Sam's home in Victoria, Australia, the city that burned.
 - b. A man with cooking skills made his mother a pizza.
 - c. A boy from town baked for his sister, who is short and young, the brownies.
 - d. A boy from town baked his sister brownies.
 - e. A boy from town baked brownies for his sister .
 - f. A man from Ali's Cyclist gave Chris from Heresy the bike.

7. Definite article adjective adjective noun adjective phrase verb definite article direct object indirect object adjective phrase
 - a. The tall, handsome man from the store bought the suit for his friend from work like a good person would.
 - b. The skinny tall girl from New York ran the relay race for her father from town.
 - c. The green colossal cyclops from Georgia threw the car at Debbie from the hill.

8. Definite article adjective adjective adjective noun verb definite article direct object adjective phrase indirect object.
 - a. The fair-minded, kind basketball player gave the ball from the game to a child.
 - b. The small, tiny, little mouse took the cheese from the kitchen and Tom.
 - c. The fair minded, intelligent, clever girl won the spelling bee from school for her parents.
 - d. The small, white, elusive fox hid the meat in the forest from a bear.

9. Noun verb direct object direct object.
 - a. Stamina creates success and winning.
 - b. Frogs hop to the lily pad and logs
 - c. Tom jumped the puddles and the mud.
 - d. I ate chicken and mashed potatoes for my momma.