

Job Title: Baseball and Softball Lessons Instructor

Location: Bloomington, IL

Company: Ks Training Academy

About Us: K's Training Academy is a rapidly growing hybrid in-person and remote training company that aims to develop Baseball and Softball athletes on AND off the field. We train athletes of all ages and skill levels in effort to support our local community, however, we are also a destination training facility for high level baseball pitchers. We are looking for coaches that are highly motivated and passionate about all things player development as it relates to player development. While we require this position to possess a baseline level of knowledge in the field, it's equally vital that this candidate possesses a growth mindset and is a life-long learner; willing to constantly challenge their beliefs backed by data-driven methodologies. In this role, you'll work directly with our Founder, Josh Kauten, as well as alongside our team of highly qualified part time staff and have extensive opportunities to apply both coaching and leadership skills.

Job Description: We are seeking a passionate and knowledgeable Baseball and Softball Lessons Instructor to join our team. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in both baseball and softball, with experience playing at a competitive level and/or coaching at various skill levels. As an instructor, you will be responsible for providing individual or group lessons to players of all ages and skill levels, focusing on fundamental skills development, advanced techniques, and game strategies.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct individual or group baseball and softball lessons for players of all ages and skill levels.
- Develop customized lesson plans tailored to each player's needs and goals.
- Teach fundamental skills such as hitting, pitching, fielding, base running, and game strategy.
- Provide constructive feedback and encouragement to help players improve their performance.
- Demonstrate proper techniques and drills to enhance player development.
- Foster a positive and supportive learning environment for all participants.
- Communicate effectively with players, parents, and guardians regarding lesson schedules, progress, and feedback.
- Stay updated on the latest trends and techniques in baseball and softball instruction.

Qualifications:

- Strong background in baseball and softball, with a deep understanding of the game.
- Previous experience playing or coaching baseball and/or softball at a competitive level.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to motivate and inspire players to reach their full potential.
- Patient, positive, and enthusiastic attitude towards teaching and coaching.
- Reliable and punctual with a commitment to professionalism.
- Willingness to work flexible hours, including evenings and weekends.
- CPR and First Aid certification (preferred).
