

Jobs and Career

37. You have received an email message from your English-speaking pen-friend Rayan:

From: Rayan@mail.uk

To: Russian_friend@ege.ru

Subject: Job interview

...This year we've got an unusual task from school. The teacher told us to find a temporary job for the holidays and then we have to write a report and share our experience with the class. Some of my classmates found an easy way out — they are going to ask parents for help. But I'm determined to do everything myself from scratch. So, what shall I write in my CV? What is the first company to place it? Do I need to dress up for the interview?

By the way, my sister Helen got that job in the telephone company...

Write an email to Rayan.

In your message:

- answer his questions;
- ask 3 questions about his sister's new job.

Write 100–140 words.

Remember the rules of email writing.

38.1 Imagine that you are doing a project on important factors in choosing a job. You have found some data on the subject - the results of a survey conducted among Zetland university students (see the diagram below).

Comment on the data in the diagram and give your opinion on the subject of the project.

Write 200–250 words.

Use the following plan:

- make an opening statement on the subject of the project;
- select and describe 2–3 facts;
- make 1–2 comparisons where relevant;
- outline a problem that can arise when choosing a job and suggest a way of solving it;
- conclude by giving your opinion on the role of jobs in our life.