

Data Protection Statement

The Maple Hall (Three Arch Bridge Community Association) uses personal data for the legal purposes of managing the hall, its bookings and finances, running and marketing events at the hall and its fundraising activities. Data may be retained for up to 7 years for accounts and other purposes and for longer where required by the hall's insurers. If you would like to find out more about how we use your personal data or want to see a copy of information about you that we hold, please contact the hall Secretary. We do not pass on any information to third parties.

4. Personal data protection

- We utilise widely accepted implementations of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse or unauthorised access, alteration or destruction.
- Please note however that while we will endeavour to protect your personal data appropriately, security can never be 100% guaranteed.
- We will notify you as soon as practicable in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to risk.

5. Third parties

- We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your consent (which you are free to withhold) except if required to do so by law, as set out in the table above or in the paragraph below.
- We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors to us for the purpose of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. printing, cloud storage, accounting). However, we would disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we will have a contract in place that requires them to keep your personal information secure and not to use it for their own purposes

6. Data retention

- We will hold your personal data on our systems for as long as your association with the Hall and for as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. We will review your personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations, e.g. compliance with the maintenance of our status as a charity, and the exercise or defence of legal claims.
- We securely destroy all financial information once we have used it and no longer need it.

7. Your rights

- You have the right under the GDPR:
- To access your personal data;
- To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed;
- To have your personal data corrected;
- To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances;
- To object to or restrict how your personal data is processed;
- To have your personal data transferred to yourself or to another business in certain circumstances.
- You have the right to take any complaints about how we process your personal data to:
