

run in conjunction with the Oxford School of Nursing and Midwifery (OSNM)

Date	Speaker	Title
Tue 27th Jan 2026 12:00-13:00	Merry Patel Learning and Development Lead for Simulation Oxford Health Foundation Trust, UK (Session postponed - to be rescheduled)	Strengthening Practice Around Early Neglect - a mixed methods service evaluation of simulation-based training to build confidence in practitioners to initiate safeguarding conversations with parents earlier.
Wed 11th Feb 2026 12:00-13:00	Dionne Sinclair VP Clinical Operations & Chief Nursing Executive Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Toronto, Canada	What Can Be Learned From Black Nurse Leaders Who Transitioned From Front-Line Clinical Practice Into Leadership Positions: A Qualitative Study
Tue 24th Feb 2026 12:00-13:00	Emma Davies Associate Professor in Psychology, OBU, UK	Mid-life and alcohol: Why it matters'
Wed 4th Mar 2026 12:00-13:00	Emma Shiel National Perinatal Epidemiology Unit, University of Oxford, UK	Optimising the use of professionally trained interpreters in maternity services of England: report of a six site ethnography.
Tue 10th Mar 2026 12:00-13:00	Dr Fortune Mhlanga Mental Health System Improvement Advisor Get It Right First Time Mental Health Team. NHS England, UK	Improvement Work in MH Inpatient pathways

run in conjunction with the Oxford School of Nursing and Midwifery (OSNM)

Tue 24th Mar 2026 12:00-13:00	Reserved for pre-viva doctoral student presentation (Session cancelled)	To be confirmed
Wed 15th Apr 2026 12:00-13:00	Tide Garnow Senior Lecturer Faculty of Health Science Kristianstad University, Sweden	Experiences of Existential Loneliness in Adolescence
Tue 12th May 2026 12:00-13:00	Dr Marion Waitte/Dr Lousie Stayt Associate Professors, OSNM, OBU, UK.	Ai-ERPP project - Prototype AI-Powered Enhanced Recovery Progress Dashboard
Tue 28th Apr 2026 12:00-13:00	Aasia Rajpoot pre-viva doctoral student presentation	An Appreciative Inquiry into the Integration of Internationally Educated Nurses (IEN) in England: Perspectives from IENs and Home-Educated Nurses (HENs).
Wed 3rd June 2026 12:00-13:00	Yuhan Zhang pre-viva doctoral student presentation	How do registered nurses make clinical decisions via remote reviews -- a mixed methods study

run in conjunction with the Oxford School of Nursing and Midwifery (OSNM)

Tue 9th June 2026 12:00-13:00	Reema D'Souza pre-viva doctoral student presentation
Tue 16th June 2026 12:00-13:00	Dr Ibrahim Aqtam or a member of his team Professor (Assistant) at Nablus University for Vocational and Technical Education, West Bank, Palestine	Emotional Intelligence and Work Engagement in Crisis Contexts: A Cross-Sectional Study of Intensive Care Nurses
Tue 23rd June 2026 12:00-13:00	Lynda Dix pre-viva doctoral student presentation	Understanding nurses' experience of decision making for the use of constant observations in the management of self-harm and suicide in forensic mental health settings.

Links are sent to those on the mailing list.

If you wish to be added to the list or receive the invite to a specific session, please email the Series Coordinator, Dr Dan Butcher (dbutcher@brookes.ac.uk)