Restaurants

Check out some of these local area restaurant options…

Gibbet Hill Grill in Groton: Reservations recommended, they book up! Known as a steak house, they also have some fish dishes and with their own adjacent farm, they use their own fruits/veggies when they can. The country-side setting and views are gorgeous! Check on outdoor seating, they have it until a certain time each year. https://www.gibbethillgrill.com/

Forge and Vine in Groton: Reservations recommended, they book up! This is also a higher-end dining experience with artisanal dishes and yummy cocktails. It's right next door to Gibbet Hill, so the views and setting are really lovely! Check on outdoor seating, they have it until a certain time of year. https://www.forgeandvine.com/

Johnson's Dairy Bar in Groton: This is a down-home diner-type experience. Picnic tables inside and out, they offer breakfast, lunch, dinner and BYOB. They also have homemade ice cream and fried seafood. http://www.johnsonsrestaurantanddairybar.com/

Oscar's Burritos in Boxborough: Mexican food on-the-go, really good tacos and burritos! They also offer indoor and outdoor seating. https://www.oscarsburritos.com/

Woods Hill Table in West Concord: Reservations recommended. A farm-to-table experience in the heart of West Concord. https://www.woodshilltable.com/

Adelita in West Concord: Higher-end Mexican food restaurant with lots of different margarita mixes! They have some outdoor seating too. https://www.adelitaconcord.com/

Karma Sushi in Westford and Concord: We usually order to-go and pick it up, but this is our favorite sushi spot around here! https://www.westford.karmaasianfusion.com/

Osawa Sushi in Ayer: A little bit closer to Harvard and still very good sushi, they don't have any outdoor seating, though. https://www.osawaayer.com/

Rapscallion Tap and Table in Acton: A micro-brewery with great comfort food and a really cute setting at an antique building. They have a pretty big outdoor patio and indoor seating with a small bar that has an old-time pub feel. https://drinkrapscallion.com/acton/

Great Rd. Kitchen in Littleton: They have oysters and a raw bar, good burgers and cocktails and also source local ingredients. They have an outdoor patio and a large indoor restaurant too. https://www.greatroadkitchen.com/

Masala Bay in Littleton: Delicious Indian food, the restaurant itself is on the smaller side, but we usually order to-go. https://masalabayik.com/
