Character Chosen:

Answer the following questions using your imagination. Using what you know of the play and your character, answer the questions. The response, "I don't know," is not allowed.

1. How does the title of the play relate to your character?
2. What strong impulse motivates your character? (This is different from what they want. This could be a flaw they have.)
3. Every character has a secret, what is your character's secret?
4. What sound might you associate with your character? (sighing, wheezing, and grunting are sounds that might be associated with a character.)
5. What are your character's two primary senses? (sight, taste, smell, touch, hearing) Also, state your reason for choosing the two you did.
6. Does your character "mask," or cover up, feelings and behaviors? If so, what does your character mask?
7. In real life, would you be your character's friend? Why or why not?
8. What is your character's most positive trait?
9. What are your character's major wants and desires?
