

Name: _____

Date: _____

What are Plants?

1. Plants are _____ that can eat breath but can rarely move.
2. Gymnosperms are types of plants that produce seedlings through what is known as a _____.
3. Angiosperms have been successful because the seedling is encased in a _____ which gives it shelter and also helps it disperse when eaten and disposed of elsewhere.
4. _____ do not produce seeds, fruit or flowers; they reproduce and disperse through spores.
5. _____ feed through an annulus which acts like an animal opening and closing its mouth taking water directly.
6. _____ are segmented plants that grow in moist dirt.

