Subject line: This changed my life forever.

It was now or never. I had 30 dollars in my bank account, not more.

I had no house, only a car, where I lived.

So I decided to do my job on time once because I was always getting late on deadlines. So when I started to work, my mind wanted to get distracted, but I had no choice but to keep my focus on distractions, or I would probably have died.

So I kept my focus and finished before the deadline. without getting distracted. This day changed my life forever. I realized I can do my job four times quicker, so that means I can make four times more money. Months go by, and I have bought a house.

I am very happy right now.
