

Public Blacklist

If you are on this blacklist it is due to:

1. Personal investigations showing morally wrong behavior / ill intent towards other people
2. Consistent suspicious behavior
3. People coming to me (Lumos1ty) about personal experiences.
4. More reasons to be listed at a later date

Being on this blacklist means you are not allowed to commission me in the future, and acts as a warning for future artists and riggers to avoid you in the future.

Alt(s): @KathirVT

Personal Reasoning:

- Lied about cousins death to back out of commission
    - $100 worth of work done, but paid for (luckily)
  - Dangled the comm in front of me for a whole year
    - Comm got exponentially larger and larger over the year
    - After stressing about workload. (13 outfits, 5 hairstyles, 50 hand drawn expressions. Animated effects, several arm poses.)
    - No hard set deadline, but wanted the whole model to be finished at launch. (Everything)
  - Lied about having a sister at all
    - Was under the impression the commission that I was working on would be paid by her Sister. (Which was under the alias, TheMistressK). She would talk about how little money her sister made, and her sister would seem annoyed that Ali was spending so much on comms in DM interactions.
    - These interactions led me to make comms cheaper out of good graces, also accounting for any price increases from me changing the price of my comms. Which meant a 8 grand commission, turned into a 3 grand comm.
  - Did not use any previously completed work for streaming
    - This includes a chibi rig that I finished
    - MistressK model was never used
    - None of the models by SnowyYuki were used, despite being purchased ready to rig.
- Lied about death of sister for refund fraud

- ◆ I was under the impression she was alive and well, but this was not the case. (Didn't even exist)
  - ◆ Refund caused the Artist to be locked out of paypal due to doing a Chargeback claim, which, unfortunately Ali won.
- Did not pay for comms

- ◆ I am emphasizing on this now. DO NOT ask them in dms what Ali did. DO NOT re-open old scars. If you read the rest of this doc and still feel the need to personally harass victims I will not work with you. The information shared publicly is what is deemed comfortable to share and should be sufficient.
