

Privacy Policy - Savills Run
Last Updated: July 15, 2025

Savills Run is an application exclusively for Savills employees, committed to protecting your personal information and data. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your data when you use the application, including integration with Strava. By using Savills Run, you agree to the terms outlined below.

1. Information We Collect

Personal Information: The Savills company email used to register an account.

Activity Data: Sports data (distance, time, speed, etc.) synced from Strava when you link your Strava account.

Technical Data: Device information (operating system, device type), IP address, and usage data to improve the application.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your data to:

Manage your account and provide Savills Run services.

Sync activity data from Strava for display and analytics.

Create and manage internal sports challenges for employees.

Send notifications or support emails related to the application.

Enhance the quality and user experience of the application.

3. Integration with Strava

Savills Run uses Strava's API to sync your sports activity data. When you link your Strava account:

We access activity data (e.g., running, cycling) with your permission.

This data is processed in accordance with Strava's Privacy Policy, available at <https://www.strava.com/legal/privacy>.

Strava may collect additional information under their policy. We encourage you to review their policy to understand how Strava handles your data.

Savills Run only uses the data provided by Strava to support application features (challenges, analytics) and does not store data beyond what is necessary.

4. Sharing Your Information

We do not share your personal data with third parties, except:

Strava: To sync data via their API, in compliance with Strava's privacy policy.

When required by law or to protect Savills' legal rights.

With your explicit consent.

5. Storage and Security

Your data is stored on secure, encrypted servers.

We implement security measures to prevent unauthorized access, loss, or misuse of data.

Data is retained for as long as you use the application and will be deleted upon your request.

6. Your Rights

You have the right to:

Access, edit, or delete your personal information.

Unlink your Strava account at any time through the application settings.

Opt out of receiving non-essential emails or notifications.

Contact savillsrun@gmail.com to exercise these rights.

7. Data Deletion

To delete your account and data, send an email to savillsrun@gmail.com. We will process the request within 30 days. Note: Data on Strava will be managed according to Strava's policy.

8. Intended Users

Savills Run is exclusively for Savills employees. We do not collect data from individuals under 13 years of age.

9. Policy Updates

We may update this Privacy Policy. Changes will be communicated via the application or email. Continued use of the application after updates signifies your acceptance of the changes.
