Transportation

The Ambassador Program –

To reduce issues on the CDTA buses, funds have been requested to put community support people on the buses. CDTA told the district that the Ambassador Program has reduced incidents on regular city routes. The hope is to put ambassadors on the Brown line, which tends to be the most crowded. The tentative date for implementation is after the Winter Recess.

Operators have been attending de-escalation training.

Students should let school resources know of any incidents on the bus as if it was happening on school ground.
