Abstract [Times New Roman 10, bold]

Written in Indonesian and English with a maximum word count of 150 -200 words (also include in English for editing purposes), consisting of only 1 paragraph. The abstract for the manuscript of the research results contains: background, research objectives, methods used, important findings, and conclusions. The abstract for the review/conceptual article contains: a short summary of the entire content of the article complete with inferred thought ideas. (Times New Roman 11, single-spaced, and upright print).

GENERAL PROVISIONS

These writing instructions were created for uniformity of writing format and ease for authors in the process of publishing manuscripts in the Journal of Agricultural Socioeconomics. The author can use Indonesian or English. The manuscript in Indonesian must comply with the applicable EYD, and if it is in English, it should meet the standard English grammar standards. The manuscript is written in A4 (210 mm x 297 mm) sized paper format with a left border margin of 3 cm, the upper, lower and right borders of 2.5 cm each. The form of the manuscript is in the form of 2 (one) columns.

INTRODUCTION

Introduction: The introduction should contain (in order) the general background, a review of the state of the art, gap analysis as the basis for the scientific novelty of the article, and research problems or hypotheses. At the end of the introduction should be written the purpose of the review of the article. In the format of scientific articles, there is no literature review as in the research report, but it is manifested in the form of a review of the previous literature (state of the art) to show the scientific novelty of the article. Write your references using APA style. Here are some examples: to cite a paper with one author (Wahyudi, 2016), a paper with two author (Anisa & Astuti, 2019), a paper with more than two author (Ghavifekr et. al, 2016). The name in the citation is only the last name. [Times New Roman, 11, space 1.1 and print upright]

RESEARCH METHODS

Methods are sufficient theoretical and technical information for the reader to be able to reproduce the research well, especially it is important to put forward about the research design, population and sample, data used (type and source), data retrieval techniques, and data analysis techniques (analysis models). [Times New Roman, 11, spacing 1.1 and upright print]

Sadar Wisata: Jurnal Pariwisata accepts manuscripts in the form of research articles, case studies, with Quantitative Research approaches, SWOT analysis, SOAR Analysis, PRISMA (Preferred Reporting Items for Systematic Reviews and Meta-Analyses), Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD), Community-Based Research (CBR), Mixed Methods.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

The results and discussions contain the results of research findings and their discussion scientifically. Write down scientific findings obtained from the results of research that has been carried out but must be supported by adequate data. The scientific findings referred to here are not the data of the research results obtained. These scientific findings must be explained scientifically including: What are the scientific findings obtained? Why does that happen? Why is the trend of such a variable? All these questions must be explained scientifically, not only descriptively, if necessary supported by adequate scientific basic phenomena. In addition, it should also be explained the comparison with the results of other researchers who are almost the same topic. The results of the study and findings must be able to answer the research hypothesis in the introduction. [Times New Roman, 11, space 1.1 and print upright]

A. Writing Format

The paper size is A4 with 210 mm (8,27") in width and 297 mm (11,69") in height. The margin limits are:

- Tops = Bottom = 25,4 mm (1,0")
- Left = Right = 25,4 mm (1,0")

Article layout using one column format. Paragraphs must be regular. All paragraphs must be aligned, that is, equally left and right. The article is written with a space of 1.5 except for the abstract and description of the image or table, which is using 1 space.

B. Number of Pages

The number of article pages submitted to the journal is between 8 and 20 pages.

C. Document Letters

All documents must be in Calibri Light type. Other types of fonts can be used if needed for special purposes.

D. Title and Author

The letter used throughout the article is Calibri Light. The title is written in bold with 16pt size, the author's name is written in bold with 11pt size, affiliation is typed in 10pt size, and email address is typed in 9pt size.

The title and author's name must be in single-column format and must be center alignment. Total of words in the title maximum in 15 words. All letters in the title are capitalized. To avoid confusion, the surname is written at the end of each author's name. Each affiliate must include, at a minimum, the name of the institution or company and the full address.

Email address is mandatory for all authors, correspondence authors (corresponding author) are distinguished by including an asterisk (*). Minimize the inclusion of detailed addresses on the title, can be shortened to only the name of the village/region and the name of the province.

E. Section Sub Chapter

Should not be more than 3 levels for Sub Chapters. All text must be in 12pt and written in bold. Every word beginning in a heading must be capitalized except for the short words described earlier.

F. Image and Image Caption

The image must be centered. If in 1 image description consists of 2 images, images can be placed side by side (right-left). The image is not bordered outside the image area. Figure captions are numbered sequentially and must be cited in the body of the text. Include a citation of the source under the description of the image if it is not your own work.

G. Figure or Graphic

Graphic images may be colored. For color graphics, make sure the colors contrast enough to differentiate one line from another. For black and white charts, use a different line type (ex. solid line, dotted line, dotted line, etc.). Remove the borderline on the displayed graphic image.

Ensure that the image resolution is sufficient to reveal important details in the image. For images sourced from JPG files, make sure they have a resolution of 300 dpi.

Image captions are placed at the bottom of the image. Captions using Calibri Light 12pt type and numbered using Arabic numerals. Image captions in one line (for example, Figure 2) are centered. Captions with image numbers must be placed in accordance with the relevant points.

H. Table and Table Description

The table must be centered. Large tables can be rotated vertically. Each table or figure should not be separated/truncated on a different page. Tables and table titles are written in 11 pt Calibri Light font. Tables are numbered using uppercase Roman numerals. The beginning of each word in the table title is capitalized except for short words. The contents of the table should be left aligned. Note that there are no vertical lines in the table. Include a citation of the source under the table caption if it is not your own work. An example of a table can be seen in Table 1.

Table 1. Characteristics of Respondents

Characteristics of Respondents		Frequency	Percentage
Years	>10 years	4	13,3
	3-10 years	26	86,7
	Sum	30	100,0
Position	Owner	29	96,7
	Organizer	1	3,3
	Sum	30	100,0
Age	<25 years	3	10,0
	25-40 years	5	16,7

>40	22	73,3
Sum	30	100,0

I. Equations

The equation is written in the center. Use the Microsoft Equation Editor or the MathType add-on. Do not copy and paste equations from other files in the form of pdf or jpg. Equation numbers are written right-aligned with Arabic numerals in parentheses. An example of writing an equation can be seen in Equation (1) below.

$$\gamma = \frac{2\pi}{\lambda} \frac{n_2}{A} \quad (1)$$

J. Page Number, Headers, and Footers

K. Link and Bookmark

All hypertext links and bookmark sections will be deleted. If the article needs to refer to an email address or URL in the article, then the full address or URL must be written.

L. References

Every document cited in this article should be included in this section. The number of cited references is at least 15, with 80% of them being primary references published at least in the last 15 years. Primary references mean journal articles, book chapters, patents, and seminar/proceeding articles. As for what is meant by secondary references are textbooks and handbooks.

CONCLUSION

The conclusion describes the answer to the hypothesis and/or the purpose of the study or scientific findings obtained. The conclusion does not contain a repetition of the results and discussion, but rather a summary of the findings as expected in the objectives or hypotheses. If necessary, at the end of the conclusion can also be written down the things that will be done related to the next idea of the study. [Times New Roman, 11 space 1.1 and upright print]

A thank you is only written if it is considered important to write such as related to funding sources, data access and guidance. other parties who help complete the writing of the paper. [Times New Roman, 11 spaces 1.1 and upright print]

Declaration of Generative AI and AI-Assisted Technologies in The Manuscript Preparation Process

Authors are required to declare the use or non-use of generative AI and AI-assisted technologies in the preparation of their manuscript. This declaration aims to ensure transparency, academic integrity, and author accountability.

1. Declaration for Authors Who Did Not Use Generative AI or AI-Assisted Technologies

If generative AI or AI-assisted technologies were not used at any stage of the manuscript preparation process, authors must include the following statement:

"The authors confirm that this manuscript was prepared entirely by the authors without the use of any generative AI or AI-assisted technologies."

2. Declaration for Authors Who Used Generative AI or AI-Assisted Technologies

If generative AI or AI-assisted technologies were used, authors must clearly state:

- the name(s) of the tool(s), and
- the specific purpose(s) for which the tool(s) were used.

The declaration should also confirm that the tools were not used to generate scientific content, analysis, or conclusions, and that authors retain full responsibility for the manuscript.

Example statement:

"During the preparation of this manuscript, the authors used [name of generative AI or AI-assisted tool(s)] to assist with [specific purpose, e.g., language improvement, organization of references, or formatting].

The tools were not used to generate scientific content, data analysis, or interpretations. All content was reviewed and edited by the authors, who take full responsibility for the accuracy, integrity, and originality of the published work."

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Library citations in the text must be in the Bibliography and arranged alphabetically in the order of author (family) name, year, essay title, magazine name, publisher and page. In the Bibliography all names (families) of authors must be written in full and are not allowed to use et al. In the Bibliography should not be included libraries that are not referenced in the text. The proportion of primary library reference sources is expected to be more (>75%) than other reference sources. Primary reference sources are reference sources that directly refer to a specific scientific field, according to the research topic and have been tested. Primary reference sources can be in the form of: writings in scientific papers in accredited international and national journals, research results in dissertations, theses, and theses. Books (textbooks), included in secondary reference sources. The number of reference sources in one article is at least nine sources with a period of at least the last 5 years, especially research journals except textbooks 10 years. The bibliography writing format uses mendeley or zotero reference applications or styles with the American Psychological Association (APA) writing style and must include the DOI/URL of the Article available Online Fersi as the following example: .
