

Privacy Policy

Updated: 05-02-2025

We respect and are committed to protecting your privacy. Publishing, selling, or renting any personal data or information to any third party without your consent is against our ethics.

The privacy practices of this statement apply to our services available under the domain and subdomains of the.recurringfreedom.in/vip. By visiting this Site, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, please do not use or access our site.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to sites maintained by other companies or organizations to which we may provide links. We are not responsible for any personal information you submit to third parties via our website. Please ensure that you read the privacy policies of such other companies or organizations before submitting your details.

This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect from you during the normal operation of our services and what may happen to that information. It is designed to inform you about our information collection and retention policies and practices so that you can make an informed decision regarding the sharing of your personal information with us. By accepting this Privacy Policy and the User Agreement, or by using the Site in general, you give your consent to our use and disclosure of your personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. This Privacy Policy is incorporated into and subject to the terms of the User Agreement. It becomes effective as soon as you access the site.

Privacy Guarantee

We agree that we will not sell or rent your personal information to third parties for their marketing purposes without your explicit consent. Occasionally, we may reveal general statistical information about our Site and visitors, such as the number of visitors, types of services used, etc. Only those employees who need access to your information to perform their duties are allowed access. Any employee who violates our privacy and/or security policies is subject to disciplinary action, including possible termination and legal action.

Information We Collect

The personal information we collect is primarily used for two purposes: to process your order and to provide you with the best possible services. Unless otherwise stated explicitly, this policy applies to personal information disclosed on any medium related to our Site.

To ensure the confidentiality of your personal information, we have implemented appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the data we collect online. We use data collection devices such as "cookies" on certain pages of the Site to help analyze our webpage flow, measure promotional effectiveness, and promote trust and safety.

"Cookies" are small files placed on your device that assist us in providing our services. We offer certain features that are only available through the use of a "cookie." Cookies can also help us provide information that is targeted to your interests. Most cookies are "session cookies," which are automatically deleted from your device at the end of a session. You are free to decline our cookies if your browser permits. Additionally, you may encounter "cookies" or similar devices on certain pages of the Site that are placed by third parties. For example, if you view a page created by a user, there may be a "cookie" placed within that page. We do not control the use of cookies by third parties.

You acknowledge that you are disclosing personal information voluntarily. We also collect your IP address to diagnose server problems and to administer our Website. Your IP address is used to help identify you and to gather broad demographic information.

Cookie Policy

the.recurringfreedom.in/vip operates a strict privacy policy, and we are committed to being transparent about how we use cookies on our website.

Why Are Cookies Important?

Cookies help make your online experience more efficient and relevant to your interests. They remember your preferences, user ID, and even the contents of your shopping basket, and they help you navigate between pages efficiently.

What Is a Cookie?

A cookie is a small file placed on your computer, phone, or other device by your browser. Cookies store snippets of text for reference by the website you are visiting. All cookies have expiration dates that determine how long they remain in your browser:

- Session Cookies: These are temporary cookies that expire and are automatically erased when you close your browser.
- Persistent Cookies: These cookies have an expiration date and remain in your browser until they expire or until you manually delete them. For example, we use persistent cookies to understand usage patterns and improve the site for our customers.

Categories of Cookies

- Essential Cookies: These are necessary for the regular operation of our website.
- Functional Cookies: These remember your preferences and are intended to enhance your experience on our website.
- Analytics Cookies: These cookies help us measure performance by understanding how many people visit our website, how they navigate, and what content is popular. This information helps us improve your experience. For instance, you can learn how Google Analytics (one of our analytics tools) uses cookie information by visiting Google's Privacy & Terms page.

- Advertising Cookies: These cookies enable us and our advertising partners to serve you relevant advertisements that we believe will interest you. They record your visit to our website and the content you interact with. They may be placed by us or by advertising partners with our permission.

To ensure compliance with our policies, we restrict the use of third-party cookies to trusted partners. We also use third-party information from reliable sources to help deliver advertising. These sources are validated by the third parties, not by us.

How to Delete Cookies

To delete cookies from your browser, please follow the steps in your browser's settings. The following instructions are indicative for Google Chrome and may vary for other browsers. Please refer to your browser's settings for more details.

You may also change other settings related to Privacy and Security in your browser settings.
