

Workshop Facility Use The Dandelion Project

The Dandelion Project is flexibly designed to meet your workshop needs, especially for workshops catering to families. Our building has two main spaces: A large gathering space perfect for hosting workshops and a separate play space perfect for kids (can be closed off with see-through glass doors) while adults convene. We are excited to invite more community organizers and organizations to share our space!

ADA Compliance: Unfortunately, our space is not ADA compliant. There are two steps to access the building. Both of our bathrooms are quite small and are not currently equipped with handrails. We are prioritizing these upgrades as our small nonprofit grows to sustain itself.

Liability Requirements:

- Organizations using our space must add The Dandelion Project to their liability insurance and provide proof ahead of their first workshop. If no liability insurance is provided, all guests and participants using the facility will need to sign our Liability Waiver form.
