

SF1 Richard C. Juedes

Location - West-N: R5, C32

After 27-months service overseas, Aviation Metalsmith First Class Robert Juedes is spending a 14-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Juedes, 239 Oak street, and other relatives. The youth was stationed 19 months in Trinidad and has also service at Puerto Rico. Upon completion of his leave he will report at a naval airbase in Maryland.

Richard C. Juedes

Richard C. Juedes, 58, of 1823 Delaware St., Oshkosh, died Friday at Mercy Medical Center.

He was born Sept. 18, 1920, in Oshkosh, the son of Richard and Albertine Juedes. He was married to Ellen Ruddy, Aug. 16, 1947, in Oshkosh.

Mr. Juedes was an assistant foreman in the welding department at Leach Co., Oshkosh. He was a member of Peace Lutheran Church and an usher in the church, and a member of Leach's 25 year club. He was a World War II and Korean conflict Navy veteran and a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Surviving are his widow; two sons, Steven and Michael, both of Oshkosh; two daughters, Mrs. Russell (Judy) Skinner, Appleton and Barbara Juedes, Oshkosh; four brothers, Herbert and Robert, both of Oshkosh, Lloyd, Neenah and Marvin, St. Cloud; three sisters, Mrs. Walter (Lorraine) Frick, Oshkosh, Mrs. Charles (Doris) Sloan, Hales Corners and Mrs. Joseph (Lois) Spanbauer, St. Cloud; and three grandchildren.

SF/1 Richard C. Juedes, 239 Oak street, was awarded the good conduct medal, Philippine liberation service ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific theater service ribbon, American theater service ribbon and victory medal. He joined the navy Oct. 15, 1942.