

1. Should the burden for disposing/recycling of resources be on the producer or consumer and why? What would the future look like to you?
2. How could a carbon limit be helpful for our country? And how could it be harmful?
3. Make a change day- what is a change that you think most people could make that would help?