Case Details / Charges:

Jack Napier was detained for attempted murder, assault on a medical professional, and possession of a weapon in a public place. After being caught causing actual bodily harm to a bystander in front of Pillbox Hospital, my client entered a car as a passenger, and when the car eventually broke down, he kicked a police motorbike that had an officer riding it. He was quickly taken into custody, though. After being searched, my client was discovered to be in possession of a blade, which led to his conviction for possessing a blade in public.

The accusation of attempted murder was contested by the defence, and the court agreed with them, finding the defendant guilty of ABH instead because there was no apparent reason. As a result, the sentence was reduced from 653 months to 100 months while taking time served into account.

Judge Signature: Court Clerk

Verdict: Not Guilty of Attempted Murder, Guilty of ABH, Guilty of Assaulting an Emergency Worker, Guilty of Offence of having article with blade or point in public place.

Punishment: 100 months
