

TTC Test Words

Despoil (v) - to strip of belongings, possessions, or value

Retinue (n) - a group of retainers or attendants

Tumbril (n) - a vehicle carrying condemned persons to a place of execution

Soliloquy (n) - : the act of talking to oneself

Cessation (n) - a temporary or final ceasing

Tremulous (adj) - exceedingly sensitive: easily shaken or disordered

Inscrutable (adj) - not readily interpreted or understood

Cadaverous (adj) - of or relating to a corpse

Emaciated (adj) very thin and feeble

Placid (adj) - serenely free of interruption or disturbance

Loitering (v) - to delay an activity with idle stops

Sonorous (adj) - producing sound

Pecuniary (adj) - consisting of or measured in money

Besmirched (v) - to cause harm to the purity/beauty of

Squalid (adj) - marked by filthiness and degradation from neglect or poverty

Modicum (n) - a small portion

Steadfastly (adv) - in a fixed manner

Spectral (adj) - ghostly

Obstinacy (n) - stubbornness

Animosity (n) - a strong feeling of dislike or hatred

Sublime (adj) - of outstanding spiritual, intellectual, or moral worth

Auspicious (adj) - suggesting that future success is likely

Plaintive (adj) - expressive of suffering or woe

Slovenly (adj) - untidy

Dissipated (adj) - lacking restraint

Blight (n) - something that impairs or destroys

Zealous (adj) - marked by fervent partisanship

Stipulation (n) - a condition

Repose (n) - lack of activity

Saunter (v) - to walk about in an idle or leisurely manne

Presumption (n) - a belief dictated by probability

Shrewd (adj) - cunning

Incorrigible (adj) - not reformable

Ostentatious (adj) overly elaborate or conspicuous

Venerable (adj) - impressive by reason of age

Feeble (adj) - markedly lacking in strength

Laudable (adj) - worthy of praise

Morose (adj) - expressive of gloom

Reproach (n) - an expression of rebuke

Remorse (n) - a distress arising from guilt

Ardour (n) - extreme vigor or energy

Ingenuity (n) - skill in devising or combining

Corroboration (n) - a confirming

Ubiquitous (adj) - existing at the same time

Ostensible (adj) - intended for display

Vivacious (adj) - lively in temper, conduct, or spirit

Infallible (adj) - incapable of error

Sallow (n) - of a grayish greenish yellow color

Assiduously (adv) - in an assiduous manner

Sagacity (n) - the quality of being wise

Fidelity (n) - the quality or state of being faithful

Oblivion (n) - the fact or condition of not remembering

Dissolute (adj) - lacking restraint

Magnanimous (adj) - showing a generous nature

Supplication (n) - humble and earnest entreaty

Unruly (adj) - difficult to control

Edifying (adj) - instruction that improves the character

Codger (n) - a mildly eccentric, usually elderly, fellow

Craven (adj) - lacking the least bit of courage

Ruffian (n) - a brutal person

Tribunal (n) - a court or forum of justice

Desolate (adj) - barren, lifeless

Impetuous (adj) - marked by vehemence or passion

Gregarious (adj) - enjoying the company of others

Culpability (n) - Culpability

Taciturn (adj) - temperamentally disinclined to talk

Ferreted (v) - to find and bring to light by searching

Avaricious (adj) - greedy of gain

Imperious (adj) - marked by arrogant assurance

Anathematized (v) - to curse

Forlorn (adj) - nearly hopeless

Engendered (v) - to cause to exist or to develop

Turbulent (adj) - causing unrest, violence, or disturbance

Swoon (v) - to become enraptured, to faint

Imbued (v) - to permeate or influence

Illustrious (adj) - notably or brilliantly outstanding because of dignity or achievements or actions