

Please Note: This timeline has not yet been fully updated for Life is Strange: True Colors. I hope to have that finished in the coming weeks. At present, I have two playthroughs of LiS: TC under my belt, so the timeline is manageable, but I still have some things I want to do with it before I'm truly ready to call it "ready."

Life is Strange Timeline

There are a few matters of protocol that I want to get out of the way here at the front. If you don't care about protocol, feel free to scroll down to the beginning of page 3 where the timeline actually begins.

There are a few events that I plan to discard generally, they would still be considered canon, but if included, could make for a very clouded timeline.

For example - and it's important that I talk about this example specifically - consider Frank's ledger recording all of the transactions in which he sells drugs. Frank's ledger records 57 separate transactions. Most of these aren't necessarily connected to our story in any way other than the fact that they appear in the ledger. We don't know Steve, Stifler, or Bruce, so it just doesn't make any sense to keep track of their transactions unless we are trying to make sense of Frank's whereabouts - and I don't see any great reason to meticulously track Frank's movements over a multi-day period. There are also a few peripheral characters that are in-game that I don't really care about. Logan for example purchases some shake from Frank at one point, but Logan is only very peripheral to the story, so I plan to exclude him.

That said, there are a few other characters that are of interest to me, but are still peripheral characters within the confines of the games. For example, Stella makes several purchases in Frank's ledger, and I want to keep closer track of her for my own reasons. I'm also going to include a few odds and ends just because of my own suspicions - for example, "Bobtail" in Frank's ledger isn't ever positively identified as anything other than "Ms. Fancycar," but there's a possibility that "Bobtail" is actually someone important to the story.

There are a few other odds and ends that probably won't be included, but with that caveat, I do still plan to make this timeline fairly exhaustive.

Another thing that I want to briefly address is the issue of canonicity. On the one hand, I would like to acknowledge that there is a debate in the fandom at present that claims that Before the Storm does not belong in the official canon for reasons relating to inconsistencies or other reasons. On the other hand, the point of this timeline isn't really to make your mind up for you on this argument, and is instead to look at the canon at face value. If you hold to this argument, you are more than welcome to treat BtS - which takes up most of the material that occurs in 2010 and the surrounding years - as if it's not canon.

Finally, it should be noted that not all texts that are listed here occur in all timelines. It is possible that a given text occurs in one timeline. The point of including these texts is to approximate the time of day that the events surrounding that text occur.

Color Codes

Dates and entries in this color denote events that occurred during the alternative timeline after Max saves William.

Entries in this color denote events that are minor timing records that aren't necessarily important to the story. For example, these will include entries from David's GPS tracking, and Frank's drug ledger. This color is going to be more prominent closer to actual game dates. October of 2013 and 2016 and May of 2010, and December of 2016. This will serve to let the player differentiate important events from less important ones. Also, events in this color don't necessarily happen in all timelines since text messages are frequently determinant based on in-game actions.

Entries in this color denote events that occur in the actual timeline if Max chooses to save Arcadia Bay.

Entries in this color denote events that occur in the actual timeline if Max chooses not to sacrifice Chloe.

Entries marked in this color denote events that occur if Victoria is announced as the winner of the Every Day Heroes Contest.

Entries marked in this color denote events that occur during S1 E5 after Max photojumps back to Monday morning to change the course of history. Times are approximate.

Entries in this color denote events that occur after Max tears apart the wall of photos self-portrait in her room around September 2nd after she photojumps into that same portrait in order to tear it. These events begin on October 10th, 2013.

Entries in this shade and highlight occur after Max timejumps into Warren's photo from the diner on Friday afternoon to outside of the Vortex Club Party on Thursday Evening.

Entries in this shade and highlight detail what Max experiences in the nightmare while Chloe is dragging her to the lighthouse on Friday 10/11/13.

Entries in this flat black color are generally considered to have happened in most conceivable in-game timelines provided that all games are considered canon.

Life is Strange Timeline

~1560-1610 - The Lonely Oak sprouts.(B.1)

~1810 - Some time around this year, lightning strikes the Lonely Oak at the center of what would later become Culmination State Park (The Overlook). It may be that the lightning strike is as early as 1797 since the placard at Culmination State Park may have been placed as early 1997 when the park was renamed and the placard stipulates that the lightning strike occurred “200 years ago.” In any case, this coincides fairly closely with the journey of Lewis and Clark’s Corps of Discovery - in real life - which took place between 1805-1806. (B.1)

1810 - Chloe hypothesizes in BtS on 5/8/2010 that a teenager got in trouble for carving faces on the Tobanga totem. (B.2)

1838-

March 14 - Ezekiel Blackwell’s expedition of Pentecostal settlers leaves Independence, Missouri. (B.1)

1839

March 3 - Ezekiel Blackwell’s expedition of Pentecostal settlers arrives at what would later become Culmination State Park. It is not totally clear what conditions were endured by these early settlers, but expeditions of this sort that didn’t reach their destination before winter began tended to be very ill-fated. The most infamous example of this would be the Donner Party. (B.1)

1867-

Templarkommando

June 21 - The city of Haven Springs, Colorado is established on this day. (TC.1)
1880

A tag board used around this time by miners in the Teller Mine as a safety check to determine who is in the mine at any given time can be found in the Black Lantern in 2019. (TC.1)

1881 - The city of Beavercreek, Oregon is established. (L2.2)

1883

Jack Henry shoots at William Porter over four aces at the Black Lantern Bar in Haven Springs, Colorado. The shot leaves a hole in the wall of the bar which is commemorated with a frame and a plaque which records the alleged event. The plaque beneath the hole claims that either Porter or Henry pays with their life. The language is a bit ambiguous to me. Does Jack Henry pay for shooting Porter with his life? Or does William Porter pay with his life for having four aces? I'm not sure. One of them dies. Alex Chen can see the hole, frame, and plaque in the Spring of 2019. (TC.1)

1889 - Amelia Rosum Goldstein - the operator of a bed and breakfast (probably in Haven Springs, CO) is born this year. (TC.1)

1897 - The Beaver Creek, Oregon Fire Department is founded. (L2.2)

In Haven Springs, Colorado a statue commemorates the collapse of the Teller Mine and the deaths of 8 miners which occurred this year. (TC.2)

1898 -

"The Blackwell Totem" newspaper is founded. This can first be seen on a copy of the paper found in Victoria's room. It is unclear if this is an inconsistency or not. The indication on Max's pamphlet on 10/7/13 indicates a date of 1910 which could be tied to Blackwell Academy's founding, and the slab above the Academy's main entrance bears the number 1910. However, even if there is no inconsistency, it's possible that the Blackwell Totem was originally not a school-sponsored paper, and later became a school-sponsored paper. (L1.1)

1901- Thomas Caledon Jr. is born this year according to a placard of him in front of the Caledon University Fine Arts building. (DE.1)

Templarkommando

1903 -

July 22 - Martin Lewis Prescott of Arcadia Bay, Oregon writes a letter to a Mr. Lyndon demanding a full payment of Mr. Lyndon's debts, ten percent interest, and a written apology letter by July 24. Martin Lewis Prescott threatens to make Lyndon's life a living hell if the debt is not paid. He signs this letter: "MLP." This may or may not be a reference to My Little Pony. It's certainly not very friendly, and thus, definitely not magical. (L1.4)

The date is unclear for this, but at some point later, the Prescott family places a placard on a bench in honor of Martin Lewis Prescott at Culmination State Park. At a guess, this happened some time around the time when Culmination State Park is renamed in the 1990s. (B1.1)

1910 -

The Blackwell Academy school pamphlet that Max has after she jumps back to the morning of 10/7/2013 bears this date - probably indicating that Blackwell Academy was founded in this year. Also, the main building at Blackwell Academy bears this date on a stone wall above the entrance. (L1.5, L1, B)

1913 -

October 7 - A meteorological expert on television in the Two Whales Diner claims that the last time that Arcadia Bay had a snowstorm of the magnitude of the snow on 10/7/13 was over one hundred years ago. This date marks 100 years before the snow fall in episode 1 in LiS. (L1.3)

1921

Amelia Rosum Goldstein - the operator of a bed and breakfast (probably in Haven Springs, CO) dies this year of influenza. She is married shortly before her death, though the identity of her husband is unknown as of 2019 according to a plaque found in the Black Lantern. (TC.1)

1930 -

A clarinet belonging to Igor Sobieski - the musical instrument dealer whose donations funded KRCT (the local radio station in Haven Springs) - is made in this decade.

1944

July 27 - An incident during a performance of P Audley's Traveling Circus allows a creature known as "The Black Beast" to escape into the mountains around Haven Springs, CO spawning a long lasting legend that will be commemorated on an exhibit at the Haven Springs Spring Festival in May of 2019. (TC.4) A News article readable by Steph mentions that the black beast kills at least two circus performers during its escape. (TC.W)

Templarkommando

1947 - Igor Sobieski moves to New York and founds Sobie's Music. Upon retirement, he will move to Haven Springs, Colorado.

1952

February 29 - Jed Lucan is born on this day (According to this non-game source)

1958

July 2 - In L2.5, Stanley remarks that his body is 59. This is 59 years before 7/2/17 - the day on which Stanley makes this statement. This probably isn't Stanley's precise birthday, but it's a rough estimate.

1964

November 1 - Eleanor Lethe is born today (According to this non-game source).

1968 -

July 1 Rocky Mountain Record Traders - the record store that Steph Gingrich is working at during April and May of 2019 is established. Before now, the record store was known as Sobie's Music. Today is its grand reopening under the new name beginning at 10 AM. (TC.W)

1970- William Price is born this year. (L1.5)

1972

A plaque on an outside corner of the Black Lantern bar in Haven Springs, Colorado says the building was established in this year. (TC.2)

Templarkommando

The Unincorporated Community of Away, Arizona is established this year according to a sign that can be found near the windmill. (L2.5)

April 11 - Mark Jefferson is born on this day. My friend Anthony, from facebook, pointed out that I had missed this date. This is observable on Max's computer in S1E2 if Max blames Jefferson and gets him suspended from teaching. (L1.2)

1976 -(12/10/16) Claire Reynolds may say that she and Stephen have been married for almost 40 years. So, presumably, Stephen and Claire are married shortly after this year. Before this, Stephen meets Claire at a disco night. (L2.2)

1978- "Very Bus America" is founded. (L2.1)

January 27 - John Nicholas Bowen is born (according to Lisbeth's records.) Is referred to as "Nicholas." (L2.4)

August 31 - Frank Bowers is born. (B.3)

1982 -

August 22 - A wooden bear statue in the back room of Bear Station has this date carved into the bottom. Hank and Doris Stamper were likely married on or around this day.

1984 -

Thomas Caledon Jr. dies this year according to a placard in front of Caledon University's Fine Arts Building (DE.1)

June 8 - Winston Smith goes missing from Arcadia Bay. This is a reference to the novel "1984" by George Orwell in which the protagonist is named Winston Smith. (L1.3)

August 22 - There is a stone in the Trout Spring Trail in LiS 2 Episode 1 that bears this date. It says "For our beloved friend Lynda King". At present, there is no indication in-game that I have seen that explains who Lynda King is. (L2.1)

Doris Stamper says in 2016, that Hank built "Minimart" thirty years ago. This is thirty years before 2016. (L2.1)

1989 -

There is a sticker on William's footlocker in the attic during Farewell referring to an Oregon Coast College. Given William's birthday in 1970, it's possible that at some point around this time, that he attends Oregon Coast College. This is not explicitly confirmed though. He may just have a college sticker on his footlocker. (B.F)

March 16 - Sera Gearhardt receives the "Fischer Award" from Winchester High School. The award is named for famous explorer Robert Fischer. It appears that this explorer is a fictional character, though it may be a reference to a few different people. It's not entirely clear who though, if it is intended as a reference. This is according to an in-game website called longbeachoracle (long beach oracle) which Chloe can search on 5/9/10 in episode 3. Possibilities include a character from the movie inception, a German politician, a Canadian politician, an American chess player, and others. (B.3)

February 13 - Charlotte Harmon is born on this day (According to this non-game source)

Unknown day - David Madsen receives a "Dallas Deer Hunter" award for downing a deer in a single shot. This may indicate that David is from around Dallas, TX which would also be indicated by his accent. However, it should be noted that there is also a Dallas in Oregon, Georgia, Arkansas, Iowa, and a number of other states. Some of those states can also explain David's southern drawl accent. (L1.?)

Unknown date - Reginald "Duckie" McCallister III becomes a member of the Haven Springs, CO city council this year. (TC.3)

William is wearing a box, and there is a design on the front that makes it look like he's going as a loaf of bread. The only one of these descriptions that I'm really sure about is that Chloe is dressed as a witch. (B.?)

u/that-internet-lover has corrected me here, and explained that this picture is likely of the Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe by C.S. Lewis with Max and William dressed as the lion and the wardrobe respectively.

Templarkommando

2003 -

Unknown Date - Jason Pike becomes a member of the Haven Springs, CO city council this year (TC.3)

September 8 - 2 PM - Patrick Hill (the owner of the cabin that Sean and Daniel found in November of 2016) is scheduled to receive chemotherapy on this day. It is not ever explicitly stated in-game, but it is implied that Patrick Hill died from his cancer without recovering. (L2.2)

July 22nd - this is the earliest date that James Amber could have taken Rachel Amber to Mount Hood. Rachel turns 10 today. On the day of the event, it starts raining, and Rachel falls and breaks her arm 3 miles from the car. She is carried down the mountain by James. (B.1)

2005

Templarkommando

Unknown date - A Newspaper article details the engagement of Charles Ericksen to Emily Wyatt (Soon to be Emily Ericksen). The article makes a note that Emily hates sports, even though Charles is a jock. It says that Charles and Emily met at the Eugene State College Library during a time period around Finals Week. Also that Charles may soon be playing for the Oregon Ducks Basketball team. The article notes that Emily's regular comic strip is "about her strange life."
(Found in the Garage at Chris's House) (A)

September 15 - Emily Ericksen receives a letter from this date from Eugene State College. My best guess is that Eugene State College is supposed to be in Eugene, Oregon, but the actual college appears to be fictional. There is a Lane Community College in Eugene though. The letter to Emily acknowledges that she has withdrawn due to her pending pregnancy. It wishes her well and asks her to return to finish her degree once she is ready as she is a promising artist and well liked by the school newspaper. (Found in the Garage at Chris's House (A)

February 8 - Chris Ericksen is born to Charles and Emily Ericksen according to Emily's obituary. (A)

March 15 or 16 - This is a probable date of birth for Sarah Lee Hackerman who is born to Robert Hackerman and her mother who is presently unnamed. This is based on Jacob's question to himself in Episode 3 of LiS - while he is writing a letter for Sarah's birthday - about whether it is on the 15th or 16th. This date isn't entirely certain since it could possibly be referring to the in-game date during episode 3. (L2.3)

Templarkommando

April 11 - Daniel Diaz is born to Esteban and Karen (Reynolds) Diaz (L2.4)

June - Unknown day - David Madsen's parents make him a video message. (L1.?)

June 15 - Arthur and Stanley complete construction on their house in the unincorporated town of "Away," Arizona around this time. This can be known due to a journal entry by Sean which says that they built their home 10 years earlier. Sean made this entry on 6/15/17. (L2.5)

July 7 - Max and Chloe go to see a band called Mimi and the Screammers at a place called "Culm Nation Park Pavillion." It seems possible that there is some link between this location and Culmination State Park, but it's not readily clear what that link is. (B.F)

July 28 - Max and Chloe draw a picture together which is entitled "Power Girls and Super Kitty."

December 2 - Alex Chen's hallucination places the hospitalization of Wendy Chen on a day when Alex is 10 and Gabe is 14. Today is Gabe's 14th birthday, and Alex was already 10 as of July 10. This is the first day that Wendy could potentially be hospitalized. (TC.5)

Unknown Date - A banner hanging in the hall of Blackwell Academy says that the Bigfoots are champions this year - since it's football season, it's likely a football championship of some kind. (L1.1)

Unknown Date - Jed Lucan becomes a member of the Haven Springs, CO city council. (TC.3)

~February 2008 - Hannah first comes to Humboldt County, California from Santa Fe, NM to work as a pot farmer. (L2.3)

Spring - At some point this season, Chloe receives a letter from the Blackwell Director of Admissions - Marco S. Gonzales - announcing her acceptance into Blackwell Academy. There is an open house at Blackwell on March 26th, and the final day for Chloe to declare her intentions to attend is April 2nd. (B.F)

In Farewell, there is a report card belonging to Chloe from Arcadia Bay Junior High while Chloe is in the eighth grade. Presumably, this is Chloe's spring report card in which she receives 5 As, and 1 B. (B.F)

July 10 - This is the last day that Alex Chen is 10 years-old. Given that Alex's hallucination places Wendy Chen's hospitalization on a day where Alex is 10 and Gabe Chen is 14, this is the last possible day that Wendy Chen could be hospitalized. The later scene where Alex hallucinates the house where they lived after Wendy died, Gabe says that Alex is 11 and Gabe is nearly 15. Therefore, the scene in the house happens after this date. (TC.5)

September - some time this month, Ray Wells sends an email to Joyce and William Price about Chloe's behavior at school. Evidently, there was some kind of fight between her and a person named Marisa Rogers. William replies that Chloe wasn't responsible for the fight despite Wells' insinuations to that effect. William then sends an email to Joyce saying that this was exactly why he didn't want Chloe at a place like Blackwell. Joyce replies saying that Mrs. Rogers left a voicemail for them on the answering machine. (B.F)

Later revelations about this come when Chloe says that Marisa was making fun of Chloe's clothes and calling her a scholarship kid. To get revenge, Chloe turned up Marisa's bunsen burner in science. (B.F)

Aaron Price sends an email to his brother - William - thanking him for the use of the pressure washer. (?)

September 21 - William Price dies after this date. William's actual date of death isn't entirely clear. This dating is based off of Max's statement that William died on a day in which she was 13. On the day that William dies, Max burns the picture that William took of Max and Chloe which allowed Max to create the Alternative Timeline. (L1.4)

September 28 - As of this date, Chloe's grandparents live in Idaho. It's not clear how long this has been the case. (?)

Templarkommando

Joyce goes to work at the Two Whales Diner. She later goes to the grocery store where she calls William to come pick her up. (B.F, LiS1.4)

William leaves to go pick Joyce up. (B.F, LiS 1.4)

According to Life is Strange Before the Storm, William died on this date. (BtS.F)

Life is Strange: Before the Storm: Farewell begins

Max helps Chloe with her cleaning. Chloe doesn't really want to get rid of anything.

Max takes a photo of herself by mistake when picking up William's camera.

Early in the day, Max decides whether or not to tell Chloe about the fact that Max will soon be leaving Arcadia Bay. Regardless of Max's decision, Max is unable to tell Chloe about her leaving at this time, because Chloe will interrupt her, if Max decides to tell.

Max and Chloe listen to a tape that they recorded back in 2003.

Chloe shows Max the manuscripts of Captain Bluebeard - Max and Chloe's old sketchbook.

Max finds the map which was ripped out of the manuscripts of Bluebeard in an old social studies textbook. Chloe goes to the garage to find the telescope and Max goes to the attic to find the amulet. Both of these will be crucial in finding the treasure.

Max navigates through the attic to reach the amulet which she retrieves. She watches Chloe from the broken window in the attic. Chloe looks up and they talk briefly, before Max goes downstairs to recover the treasure.

Max gives the amulet to Chloe. Chloe can't figure out how to attach the amulet to the telescope, so Max brings her some tape.

Max spies the treasure from her perch aboard the swing set/pirate ship, and she and Chloe dig up the treasure. They immediately realize that it doesn't look like what they buried.

Max and Chloe go inside to inspect their treasure. Chloe seizes a scratch-art pad and begins drawing a picture.

Max has another chance to tell Chloe that she's leaving. Max decides whether to tell Chloe or not about the impending move to Seattle.

Joyce enters the house accompanied by a police officer with a report of William's death. The officer looks like Anderson Berry.

Templarkommando

Joyce tells Chloe about William's death. Everyone cries.

Some time after this, William Price's funeral is held at the Arcadia Bay Cemetery. Max and her family drive away from town directly from the funeral. At a guess, this occurs on October 1st.

Joyce and Chloe return home.

Chloe walks up to her room, and stumbles into the tape player which is marked with a post-it note that says "I'm Sorry." Chloe listens to the pre-recorded tape message from Max on the player. In the tape, Max apologizes for this being the absolute worst time for her to go. Max promises that they will get good at talking to each other. She says that they will write and talk all the time. She says that even if Max never contacts her, that they are always together. That they are Max and Chloe even when they are apart. Max says that she will always love Chloe.

Chloe cries.

October

When Alex Chen hallucinates the house she lived in with her father and brother after the death of her mother, the calendar is turned to this month implying that the scene in question happens this month. (TC.5)

October 1 - The Caulfield family is originally scheduled to leave for Seattle on this day. Presumably Life is Strange: Before the Storm - Farewell concludes on this day.

November 10 - Ethan Lambert is born on this day (According to this non-game source).

November 27 - Joyce writes a complimentary note to David on the receipt for his diner meal. The amount on the receipt is $7.25. I strongly suspect that William died before this date because if not, the fact that Joyce was so complimentary of David is a lot more awkward since William would have still been alive. I also suspect William died before this date because in the Alternative Timeline, Joyce doesn't seem to know David Madsen very well at all. She knows that he's a bus driver. I suspect that, unless Joyce is lying, that she never wrote the receipt note to David in the Alternative Timeline. (L1.?)

December - A Tortoise Sports Club membership card for Karen Diaz that Daniel has in his room in July of 2016 expires this month. (L2.3)

Templarkommando

December 2 - Gabe Chen turns 15 on this day. The hallucination that Alex Chen has of a house where she lives with her brother and father is set on a day when Gabe is nearly 15. Therefore, that scene happens shortly before this day. (TC.5)

December 30 - A plaque outside the mine in Haven Springs, Colorado reports that Jed Lucan rescued his team of miners from the mine collapse on this day. An award (visible in the Black Lantern as of 2019) is presented to Jed Lucan by the Rotary Club of Haven Springs, Colorado not long afterward for his action in saving the lives of 19 miners on his mining team. (TC.1)

December 31 - William dies before this date because William died during the year 2008. This date is known due to the engraving on William's tombstone in Farewell, and Max's journal entry that says she returned to 2008. (B.F, LiS1.?)

2009

March 1 - Due date for Price family payment to Donald Clamp Lenders comes due. The day elapses without payment, and the Price family is on the hook for a bill of $12,000.(LiS1.4)

March 28 - Esteban Diaz receives a certificate from the Seattle Institute for Automotive Service Distinction as a Master Automobile Technician. As a result he is ASD certified. LiS2.1)

April 22 - 2:25 PM - On 9/28/2008, there are a set of three plane tickets in William and Joyce's room that bear the date of April 22nd. They were likely for this date, since it is the next occurrence of an April 22nd. The flight would have taken the Price Family from Portland, OR to Phoenix, AZ. There is a brochure with these tickets for the Grand Canyon. Presumably this trip never occurred since William died. This trip is exactly 4 years before Rachel disappears. (B.F)

May - Sometime around this month, possibly a little earlier or later, Chloe begins buying marijuana from Frank Bowers. This is known from Frank's statement that Chloe has been buying pot from him every month for a year as of May 2010. (B.1)

August 1 - Andrew North receives a letter from Oregon State University awarding him a full athletic scholarship for football. (B.2)

Fall - Some time this season, Justin Williams fails his algebra mid-term. After his algebra mid-term - likely in mid to late October - he is tutored by Rachel Amber. Justin finishes the semester with a C+ in algebra.(B.1)

September - James Amber becomes DA for the area around Arcadia Bay. During a possible argument between James Amber and Chloe Price on 5/8/10, Rose Amber can comment that James has been in the DA's office for 8 months. This month is approximately 8 months before that date. (B.2)

Templarkommando

November 2 - 2:14 PM - Max sends a text to Chloe apologizing for not emailing her. She says that texting is better anyway. (B.1)

November 5 - Mark Jefferson's exhibition begins at the Bean Hip Cafe` in Arcadia Bay, Oregon. (LiS1.?)

November 13 - 11:42 PM - Max texts Chloe to apologize for not texting. (B.1)

November 28 - 7:08 PM Max sends her last text to Chloe before the events of Life is Strange Season 1. (B.1)

December 1 - Mark Jefferson's exhibition at the Bean Hip Cafe' ends. (LiS.?)

December 2 - Gabe Chen turns 16 today. This makes this the earliest date possible for the scene Alex hallucinates in the orphanage. (TC.5)

December 14 - Sera Gearhardt voids a check from James Amber as part of her plan to prove to James that Sera ought to be allowed to see Rachel. It is not clear what the amount on this check is, but it could be $3000.00 as that is the same amount on the first check in the stack. (B.3)

Unknown Date - Probably in April or early May, Sean Prescott - through the Prescott Foundation - fires 307 members of the Arcadia Bay Stevedore's Association from their jobs at the Arcadia Bay Marine Corporation. The Prescott Foundation liquidates all assets of the Arcadia Bay Marine Corporation along with the Longshoremen Pension which is granted as payment for credit owed. Due to contractual obligations, these workers can't divulge any information about the workforce reduction. (B.1)

January 7 - Principal Ray Wells sends a letter to Eliot Hampden. The letter praises Hampden for his academic performance and notes that he has maintained his financial aid status. As a result, the Prescott Foundation will be providing all of his educational expenses as well as room and board. (B.2)

March 5 - Chloe writes a journal entry that was originally supposed to be a letter to Max. She passive aggressively mentions that Max doesn't communicate with her at all, and then writes that there's no way that Chloe is ever going to send it. (B.1)

Presumably on the same day, since this entry is not dated, Chloe writes another entry. In this entry, Chloe congratulates herself for getting a journal. She again mentions that Max never writes, and says that maybe some day they'll both read this journal and laugh together or that maybe she'll decide that journal Max is cooler than real Max and that journal Max will become her real imaginary former current best friend. (B.1)

March 11 - Chloe celebrates her 16th birthday. Members of the fandom that reject Before the Storm as canon tend to hold this as the date that Chloe looms at David over a 9-candled cake with a butter knife. Chloe notably has a blue stripe in her hair. If the aforementioned timestream photo occurred on this date, it is an inconsistency in the timeline because Joyce remarks that this is the first time that Chloe has ever dyed her hair blue on 5/9/10 - two months after this date. Rejectors of BtS hold this position because this photo is juxtaposed with the timestream photo of Chloe receiving a red truck for her 16th birthday in the Alternative Universe. My friend Anthony pointed out that this inconsistency should be referenced. (LiS1.3)

Thanks to u/Cuddlecuffs who pointed out that the official Life is Strange twitter account posted this tweet in March of 2016 before Life is Strange: Before the Storm ever released. This is mentioned as the first footnote on the canon inconsistencies page on the Life is Strange fandom-run wiki.

March 11 - Chloe receives a red pick-up truck for her 16th birthday. (L1.4)

March 17 - Gerald Scott signs a plea agreement - pleading guilty to sale of stolen goods and agreeing to assist law enforcement on future cases related to his own. (B.3)

March 20 - Chloe makes another journal entry complaining about Joyce wanting to take David on a road trip with them. (B.1)

April 4 - Chloe makes a journal entry saying that she hasn't been going to school. She also mentions that the last time she masturbated, that she thought about Pris (Daryl Hannah) instead of Deckard (Harrison Ford) from Blade Runner. (B.1)

April 3 - 5:43 PM - Frank sends Chloe a text letting her know "Your shit's here." Chloe asks Frank if he can hold it for a day since she's tapped out. (B.1)

April 12 - 10:31 AM - Damon sends an email to Frank letting him know that Damon saved the dog for Frank. He makes a big deal out of the fact that he just turned down $3000 for Frank to have the dog, and asks Frank to let Damon use the dog (presumably Pompidou) for breeding later. (B.2)

Pompidou probably refers to a French politician by the name of Georges Pompidou who was a member of France's Union of Democrats for the Republic (UDR). Pompidou served as President of France from '69-'74. The UDR was a center-right party in France's politics and it is one of the predecessor parties that eventually formed a party known as The Republicans (LR) in the present day. Whether this is intended as a social commentary about center-right politicians being dogs is not totally clear.

April 12 - Officer Ernie Yates of the Arcadia Bay Police Department bags two .22 casings at Tumnus Lumber Mill. The case number is listed as 3888. The victim is listed as Eli Forbin. (B.3)

Ernie Yates also bags Damon's gloves that are listed under the same case. (B.3)

Ernie Yates also bags a knife that is found at the scene. (B.3)

Since Damon's Victim - presumably Eli Forbin - was assaulted with a fire poker, presumably, the .22 casings, and the knife were found at the scene but don't necessarily have anything to do with the crime.

April 12 - 10:21 PM - Arcadia Bay Police receive a call at dispatch in regard to an aggravated assault with a deadly weapon at Tumnus Lumber Mill committed by Damon Merrick. Sergeant Alex Keller arrives on the scene at 10:38 PM, and the report says that the event occurred at 10:15 PM. After a verbal altercation, Damon Merrick assaults the victim - who is not identified in the report - with a fire poker. Damon's gloves are entered into evidence, and the victim is sent to a nearby hospital. An anonymous bystander names Merrick as the assailant.

It is not ever explicitly stated, but it seems likely that Damon Merrick was arrested around this date, and later made bail. This would explain the fact that James Amber - the local DA - seems to be looking into Merrick's case, and it would also add to the expenditures that Damon Merrick makes around this time - both in terms of payment for bail, and also financing a legal defense.

April 13 - Frank records that Stella owes him $150. This record is struck through in red ink as of 5/8/10.

April 14 - Frank records that Chloe owes him $175 which Chloe still owes on 5/8/10.

April 14 - Chloe receives a nine weeks report card. She receives 3 Cs and 2 Ds. It seems likely that the report card that Rachel has in her room the night before you can see this report card in Chloe's room was received for the same nine-week period, but not necessarily. Rachel's report card was straight As and no absences or tardies. Chloe's report card is riddled with absences and tardies.

April 18 - Frank records that Stella owes him $100. Stella still owes this on 5/8/10.

April 20 - 7:16 PM In honor of 4/20, Chloe attempts to get Frank to bring her some drugs. Frank says that he will if she has his money from last time. Chloe decides to take a rain check.

Templarkommando

April 21 - Job Fair at the Arcadia Bay Town Hall.

3:03 PM - James Amber sends a text to "unknown" (who is really Damon Merrick) stating that he hears that "unknown" can help James with a problem. Damon replies ten minutes later remarking that James is crossing the line, and says that they need to talk. James immediately replies by saying that he will call tonight.

Presumably, James' problem here is Sera Gearhardt - who James does not want to see Rachel.

April 23 - Damon loses $1200 betting on a dogfight between Argus and Bowser (receipt found in Frank's RV).

April 25 - Frank records that Drew North owes him $1050. It is still owed on 5/8/10.

On the same day, Frank records that Armond owes him $320. Who is Armond?

Sera Gearhardt voids a check from James Amber in the amount of $3000.00 in an attempt to prove to James that Sera ought to be allowed to see Rachel. The stack of checks that this one is seen with includes at least eight other checks, but the dates for most of these other checks are not visible, but they have all been voided. The only other visible date is 12/14/09.

April 27 - 9:59 PM "Unknown" (Damon Merrick) sends a text to James saying that he found who James was looking for.

11:52 PM - James texts Damon to let him know that he will call him in 15 minutes. Presumably, James calls him not long hereafter and Damon says that he will get Sera hooked on drugs if James will destroy the evidence in his aggravated assault case, and return money that was seized from Damon. At a guess, James does not want to do this, and thus doesn't talk to Damon again until 5/4/10.

April 29 - Anthony North signs a waiver authorizing the staff of Blackwell Academy to follow their best judgment in the case of an emergency for either Drew or Mikey. Anthony agrees to pay any costs that are incurred by Blackwell Staff.

April 30 - Sheldon Pike's parole officer - Oliver Rutherford - jointly sign what is probably a monthly check-in sheet detailing his employment as the shift leader for ACFC, and noting that he has been highly cooperative and has missed no check-ins.

May 1 - A poster in the front window of Rocky Mountain Record Traders in Haven Springs, CO has a poster that is viewable during episode 1 of Life is Strange: True Colors. This poster advertises for a Battle of the Bands that is due to take place on Saturday May 1st at a place called Arbor Hall Park. May 1st of 2010 is the most recent year before 2019 in which May 1st falls on a Saturday. Incidentally, May 1, 2010 occurs almost immediately before Life is Strange:

Templarkommando

Before the Storm - a time period that Stephanie Gingrich (the record store's manager) likely remembers fondly.

May 3 - Damon Merrick loses $1000 betting on a dogfight between Chewer and Goldie.

May 4 - 6:14 PM - James texts Damon asking him "Well?" Damon replies by saying that he doesn't run a charity, and if James wants Damon to work with him, that James will have to do what they talked about back on 4/27/10. James says that he can't do this. Damon says that James can do that, and that he'd better, because apparently, Sera has a big mouth.

May 5 - Arcadia Bay Police Department impounds a white pickup truck with the plates WLM WLCE. The plate refers to William Wallace - a knight that served as one of the main leaders in the First Scottish War for Independence. While this isn't explicitly said, given Damon Merrick's sudden bad run of luck, it's possible that this truck was once his property. If this is the case, it seems likely that this is the result of the recent disagreement between James and Damon.

May 6 -

6:21 PM - James Amber makes an internet search for "how to incognito tab"

6:23 PM - James Amber makes an internet search for "how to clear browser history." It's notable, that the next of James Amber's searches doesn't occur until 8:22 AM on 5/8/10 - two days from now.

9:24 PM - Joyce sends Chloe a text message asking if she will be home some time tonight.

Chloe has a vision of William in his car. They keep driving past Rachel who begins by walking toward the lonely oak, but later is standing on the side of the road. William tries to assuage Chloe's feelings about Rachel's apparent rejection. At the end of the vision, Rachel catches on fire. Raven appears briefly in this vision. The very last occurrence in the vision is William's car being hit by a semi-truck.

Rachel asks "What's stopping us?" when the question of leaving Arcadia Bay comes up.

Rachel borrows Chloe's lighter, and then lights the photo of her father which she uses to kindle a trash can into a healthy fire. She then kicks the trashcan into the Lonely Oak - simultaneously screaming - and the tree erupts into flame faster than seems natural. Rachel cries and screams a second time. With both screams, the wind seems to blow toward the tree.

He also says that "RF and that whole crew are gonna be pissed." To date, there are no characters present in the Life is Strange universe with the initials "RF" of which I am aware.

10:23 AM - Rachel sends Chloe a text about the meeting that they just had with Wells.

Templarkommando

Chloe meets David and Joyce in the parking lot at Blackwell Academy.

David attempts to make Chloe place all of her things on the car.

Chloe decides not to go home with Joyce and David, and instead goes to American Rust Salvage Yard.

Chloe spots a truck in the salvage yard with a plate that reads ANNBONNY. She decides to fix the truck. This will later turn out to be her truck in Life is Strange 1. ANNBONNY is a reference to the notorious pirate Anne Bonny an Irish pirate who escaped from her husband in order to ply the Caribbean with Calico Jack Rackham in the early 18th century.

(by an odd coincidence, Chloe once owned a goldfish named Calico Jack. Calico Jack was eventually flushed after his death. This might be an analogy to the storm that Chloe may or may not perish in order to prevent)

An interesting possibility is that in his playthrough \(at correct time\) of episode 1 with Eurogamer, Zak Garriss stated that Rachel's use of makeup to hide Chloe's black eye is a metaphor for what Rachel is doing to Chloe's life. On the other hand, it seems likely that Chloe fixing the means for Rachel to escape Arcadia Bay is a metaphor for what Chloe is doing to Rachel's life. Namely, she is turning her into a "pirate" ala Anne Bonny who can be who she wants to be without caring what others see.

11:12 AM - Joyce sends Chloe a text arguing about David's presence in the Price house and asking Chloe to forget about David and just come home.

Chloe finds a usable battery in the impounded truck with the plates WLM WLCE and puts that battery into her new truck. She tries the ignition and discovers that the truck still does not work.

11:32 AM - Rachel sends a text to Chloe. Rachel says she's going to grab something from home and meet Chloe at the junkyard.

Chloe fixes up the interior of the truck.

A radio report can be heard on this day while Chloe is working in the junkyard. This interview takes place on a station known as The STYR. In the interview, the Director of Curriculum at Blackwell - Amy Rivers - briefly mentions that Blackwell Academy is switching to an arts-based curriculum and adding a second year senior program along with a photography class. She says that they are presently interviewing two prospective teachers to take over the photography class including Gabriel Walker, and Mark Jefferson. The interesting take-away here, is that Mark Jefferson could have potentially taken the teaching position at Blackwell as early as the Fall of 2010 depending on whether he got the job at this point or later.

Templarkommando

Chloe gets a phone call from Frank. Frank says that they have some business to discuss. Chloe tells Frank that she is in the Junkyard north of town.

Chloe kicks back, lights up a cigarette and falls asleep in the cab of her new truck as a raven flies overhead.

Chloe has a vision of William and Raven roasting marshmallows inside the engine compartment of his wrecked car in the junkyard. William warns Chloe to be afraid of being blinded by fire. He speaks about a greater beauty yet to come, and as he mentions this, the sky suddenly looks like the ceiling in Rachel's room in episode 3. The vision ends with William revealing half of his face that had been thoroughly burned.

Chloe is awakened by Rachel knocking on her truck window. Rachel scolds Chloe for falling asleep with a lit cigarette. Rachel then asks if Chloe will invite her in, she then places a large duffel bag of clothing in the bed of Chloe's pickup.

Rachel leaves - presumably to get ready for the premier of The Tempest.

Chloe pulls the tin sheeting away from the door of the cinderblock "hideout."

Templarkommando

1:55 PM - Eliot texts Chloe about the consequences of Chloe's meeting with Wells.

Chloe returns with Frank's ledger, and Frank explains that Drew has some money of his, and enlists Chloe's help to get it back. In return for helping him, Frank offers Chloe a 10% cut of the money that Drew owes. 10% of the $1050 that Drew owes works out to $105. In addition, Frank cancels Chloe's debt of $175. The total reward for Chloe works out to $280.

Frank drops Chloe off at the dorms of Blackwell Academy.

Samuel begins repairing the sprinkler.

Chloe grabs Samuel's keys.

Skip is called away from his confrontation with Chloe by Mr. Wells who has spotted an unknown vehicle in the parking lot. Presumably, this vehicle belongs to Frank.

3:19 PM - Frank sends a text to Chloe asking how the process of getting his money back is going.

Chloe enters Prescott Dormitory.

4:51 PM - Arcadia Bay Fire Watch Alert system sends out a warning that notes That the "Culmination State Park Fire" has been 50% contained. It notes that there will be additional road closures.

Chloe enters Drew's room and gets the money from Drew's footlocker.

As Chloe attempts to leave, she is met by Mikey North who doesn't understand why Chloe is there.

Templarkommando

As Chloe tries to explain why she's in Drew's room, they are both interrupted by Drew who barges in and tells Mikey that they have to go. That is until he sees Chloe.

Damon follows Drew down the hall. Drew goes to confront Damon and tells Chloe and Mikey to stay in his room and not to open the door for any reason.

Damon starts beating up Drew in order to get the money that Drew owes. Chloe either gives Damon the money, or stays in Drew's room to keep Mikey safe. In either case, one of the North boys is injured by Damon. If Chloe doesn't give Damon the money, then Damon breaks Drew's knees. If Chloe does give Damon the money, Damon hurts Mikey's arm as Mikey protests that the North's need that money. It is notable that some time between now and 1:25 PM the next day, that Sean Prescott writes a letter volunteering to cover the medical expenses for whichever of the North boys that are hurt in this incident. The letter says that it was followed up on on 5/9.

Chloe goes to the Blackwell Academy Quad where The Tempest is being set up.

5:48 PM - Steph Gingrich sends a text to Chloe letting her know that she is going to the hospital with the North boys and will not be at the play.

5:59 PM - Rachel texts Chloe to let her know that she is on the way. They also talk briefly about what just happened at the dorm. Chloe says she'll explain later.

Samantha and Chloe eavesdrop on the conversation between Sean Prescott and Nathan Prescott. Sean berates Nathan and warns him not to shame the family name.

Chloe walks into the women's changing tent.

Regardless of earlier decisions, Rachel Amber ends up playing the part of Prospera. There is a good chance that Victoria gets drugged - but this is not absolutely true in all cases.

7:55 PM - Frank texts Chloe about what happened earlier at the dorm with Drew, Mikey, and Damon.

Juliet cannot make the play on time. Rachel volunteers Chloe to play Ariel. After several protestations from Chloe and a Gilligan Cut, Chloe finds herself playing the role of Ariel.

Chloe attempts to play the part of Ariel. How successful she is depends on if the correct lines are selected.

Rachel goes off script once Chloe reaches the end of her lines. Instead of following the regular course of the Tempest, Prospera denies Ariel her liberty, and instead promises to make Ariel's happiness so great that even the name of liberty is forgot - that they will fly beyond this isle, the corners of the world their mere prologue.

The play continues until finish. All the actors take a bow. Rachel brings Chloe on stage to take a bow as well. As the applause subsides, Sera Gearhardt leaves the play.

Rachel and Chloe walk down a darkened street after the play.

Rachel tells Chloe that they should leave.

Chloe says that if Rachel doesn't really mean that they are really leaving, that it will make her feel like shit that it's never going to happen.

Rachel insists on her sincerity. Rachel asks Chloe what she can do to assuage Chloe's apprehensions about leaving.

Ash from the Culmination State Park falls on the street that Rachel and Chloe are on. Rachel says the ash is a sign that Rachel and Chloe should leave tonight.

Rachel and Chloe go to Rachel's house to get some clothes and other things so that they can leave. As they sneak in, they are spotted by James Amber and subsequently, Rose invites Chloe to dinner.

Chloe assists Rose Amber in setting the table.

10:22 - Steph Gingrich sends Chloe a text about Chloe being in The Tempest.

The Arcadia Bay Beacon publishes an issue that says that the Culmination State Park Fire is the biggest in the history of Arcadia Bay.

10:46 PM - Joyce texts Chloe about Chloe's having been in the play.

10:49 PM - This is the time that is displayed on the grandfather clock before Chloe eats dinner with the Amber Family.

Chloe and the Amber Family eat dinner.

The dinner conversation escalates to an argument between Rachel and James. Rachel accuses James of kissing an unknown woman.

James reveals that the unknown woman wasn't just a fling, but is actually Rachel's biological mother.

Templarkommando

11:45 PM - Damon texts James to let him know that Sera isn't easy to deal with and says that they're going to have to be more hands-on. This might have something to do with the outro scene in Episode 2 where Sera is walking around in the ash which probably happens sometime around now. Presumably, Sera is somehow resisting Damon. In an email found on James' computer, Sera expresses shock at James sending "that man" to talk sense into her and threaten her. James doesn't receive this message until after midnight, and responds at 12:48 AM.

Life is Strange: Before the Storm Episode 3: Hell is Empty begins

James Amber tells Rachel and Chloe the story of the relationship between himself and Sera Gearhardt.

May 9 - (This is assuming that James Amber finishes telling Chloe and Rachel everything before 12 AM arrives, since dinner was just after 10:46 PM).

12:40 AM - Dana starts a group text that involves Chloe, Juliet, Hayden, and Brooke. The group invites Rachel and Chloe to a play afterparty. Chloe declines the invitation.

Chloe goes up to Rachel's room.

12:48 AM - James texts Damon and tells him not to hurt Sera.

12:52 AM - Damon texts James and says to relax, that he's got his best guy on it.

12:55 AM - This is the time that is on Rachel's bedside clock.

Chloe takes the flashlight out of Rachel's emergency kit.

12:54 AM - Joyce texts Chloe to ask her to come home. Chloe says that she can't right now. (time difference is explained by minor fluctuations between a digital clock and a cell-phone)

Chloe assembles a brighter solarium with Rachel's flashlight. Chloe gets Rachel's attention, and the two talk about stars, and the revelations from earlier. The ceiling looks like the sky from Chloe's earlier vision.

Chloe has a vision of her and William on the stage from The Tempest. Rose, James, David, Joyce, Principal Wells, Victoria, and Raven are in attendance. Chloe tries to fix a pantomime car. William says that it's not the sparkplug - and hints to Chloe that he just got that replaced. William is run over by what seems to be a real semi-truck. Also Victoria says "Boooo!"

Templarkommando

Chloe climbs into her bedroom window.

Chloe calls Frank to arrange a meeting to discuss the identity of the woman that left Frank's RV yesterday before Chloe and Frank met. Frank says that they will meet at American Rust Junkyard in two hours.

6:59 AM - Rachel sends a text to Chloe. Chloe tells Rachel to meet her and Frank at the junkyard in two hours.

7:28 AM - Chloe receives an accusatory text from Victoria in regard to the play the previous night.

Chloe showers and dyes the left side of her hair blue.

Chloe goes downstairs and is intercepted by Joyce and David. David apologizes for making Chloe empty her pockets and relates to her the story of him and a friend named Phil Becker who was killed by an IED when they both were in the military.

Chloe gathers the toolbox from the garage, and goes to American Rust Salvage Yard.

Chloe begins working on the truck.

8:11 AM - David sends a text to Chloe about him noticing that Chloe had taken William's toolbox and inquires as to what she is doing.

Chloe tightens the serpentine belt, scrapes crud off of the distributor cap, clears the fuel filter, and tightens the battery posts and investigates the spark plugs and discovers they are busted. She takes the sparkplugs that she was reminded of in her earlier vision from her father's broken car, and uses them to repair the truck.

Chloe starts the truck, and takes it for a short test drive.

Chloe goes into the cinderblock hideout and gets a sheet to wipe off her hands. Once she does so, she is greeted by Rachel who has just arrived.

Rachel and Chloe go to check out Chloe's truck now that it has moved, and run into Frank. Chloe says that Frank is early. Remembering that they agreed to meet at approximately 9 AM, it should be noted that Chloe has extensively repaired her truck in less than about 45 minutes.

Damon interrupts Chloe and Frank and demands to know why Chloe and Rachel are asking about Frank's clients. Damon eventually figures out that Rachel is the daughter of the district attorney and demands that Rachel tell him what James Amber knows about him and threatens to hurt her if she doesn't talk. During the course of this altercation, Rachel hits Damon with a board while he is not expecting it. He counters by stabbing her with a knife. It is notable for reasons that will later become clear, that the fire is still burning as this altercation occurs.

Frank confronts Damon to stop him from hurting Rachel further.

Chloe takes Rachel to the hospital, and the two rush to the hospital.

Chloe carries Rachel into the hospital and is assisted by the Emergency Room staff who take Rachel to surgery.

Chloe waits to hear about Rachel in the waiting room.

12:22 PM - Damon sends a text to James asking how Rachel is, and says that Rachel attacked him first, and that James should teach Rachel how to behave better. James does not immediately respond to this message since his secret phone is locked up in his desk, and it is first seen by Chloe when she later breaks into James office around 2:58 PM.

James and Rose Amber arrive at the Emergency Room, they briefly greet Chloe and then go to see about Rachel.

A pair of weary and singed-looking firefighters come into the emergency room.

James Amber comes and talks to Chloe about how Rachel got stabbed. He says that Rachel's brachial artery was damaged, but not cut. The brachial artery is found in the upper arm.

1:25 PM - This is the time on the clock in the hospital waiting room.

Chloe cries.

Steph Gingrich talks to Chloe. She says that Chloe should come visit Mikey/Drew.

Firefighters in the Hallway remark that the fire extinguished itself. It has been roughly four and a half hours since the fire was blazing north of Arcadia Bay.

Sometime around now, the couple from the overlook from whom Rachel and Chloe stole wine arrive at the Hospital looking for the Maternity Wing. Chloe remarks to herself that she's glad that she and Rachel stole the couple's wine.

2:02 PM - James Amber texts Chloe letting her know that Rachel is awake and ready to see Chloe.

Templarkommando

Chloe enters Rachel's room. Rachel and Chloe talk about the events of the past day, and Rachel says that she still wants to meet Sera. She convinces Chloe to break into James' office and get any information that he has on Sera and her whereabouts.

Chloe leaves Rachel's room and is met by Eliot Hampden who asks about where Chloe is going and asks for clarification about how Rachel ended up in the hospital.

Chloe leaves the hospital and goes to the Amber house.

Chloe breaks into James' office.

2:46 PM - Damon sends a text to James saying "Nothing? Guess you don't need this taken care of anymore." Presumably, this is the vibrating phone sound that Chloe hears when she enters James' office.

2:58 PM - In a possible timeline, Drew sends a text to Chloe thanking her for playing D&D with him, Steph, and Mikey. This occurs right after Chloe finds the key to the locked drawer in James Amber's office.

3:07 PM - Chloe begins texting Damon from James' hidden phone in an attempt to find out where Sera is. Damon asks if James has taken care of the evidence or not.

3:09 PM - Chloe sends a picture of the gloves to Damon asking if that's the evidence. Damon says not to just send him a picture of the gloves, but to send him a picture that shows that they are being destroyed.

Chloe sets Damon's gloves on fire and puts them in the wastebasket.

3:11 PM - Chloe sends a photo of the evidence being destroyed. Damon takes this opportunity to push his luck and have James (Chloe) reveal who snitched on Damon.

3:19 PM - Joyce sends a text to Chloe about supper. Chloe says for Joyce to not wait up. This happens right after Damon asks to know who is snitching on him.

Chloe accuses one of Damon's associates of snitching on him.

Damon texts Chloe asking for the money that the police took from him.

Chloe sends a picture of the money that James was hiding in his office. It seems to be a stack of twenties with a reddish color strap. In the real world, a strap like this contains one hundred bills, which would mean the entire stack contains $2000. Chloe speculates that the stack could contain thousands of dollars - possibly implying that this is not a regular money strap.

Templarkommando

Damon sends a picture of Sera tied to a chair at the mill. He says to bring the package (the money) and he will finish the job.

Eliot Hampden confronts Chloe inside the Amber house about Chloe's relationship with Rachel and why Chloe is alone in the Amber house. They both grab for Damon's money. Eliot manages to get the stack of cash.

Chloe calls the police so that Eliot can't see, and informs them in code of her situation. Chloe flees the scene to meet Damon.

Chloe is nearly driven off the road by a semi-truck delivering a load of logs. She stops on the side of the road and surveys the damage caused by the fire. She has a conversation with an apparently hallucinatory William Price. William attempts to defend James from Chloe's criticism and asks if Chloe would love William less if he had a deep dark secret. Regardless of how Chloe answers this, she gets back in the truck and the radio dial has been changed to a country station playing "Burnin' the Midnight Oil Again." Chloe says "No way. My Ride, my tunes." She continues to the Mill with hallucinatory William Price riding shotgun.

Chloe arrives at the now burned out Tumnus Lumber Mill. She immediately notices blood on the side of Frank's RV.

Chloe overhears Damon taunting Sera. Chloe confronts Sera. Damon knocks Chloe down and kicks her. He then hits Sera.

Damon injects Sera with whatever drug that's in the syringe. Sera tells Chloe to run.

Frank interrupts Damon's musing on what to do with Chloe. Damon kicks Chloe in the head which knocks her out. Frank and Damon brawl.

Frank kills Damon.

After some time, Chloe wakes up to a room that is empty except for herself and Sera. Chloe tries to convince Sera to go see Rachel.

Some time later, Chloe arrives at the hospital and talks to Rachel in her hospital room.

Chloe decides whether or not to protect Rachel from the truth about James.

Life is Strange: Before the Storm's gameplay portion concludes

Frank places his knife in a box with a photo of Frank and Damon together. Frank pours out a drink for Damon who is evidently dead.

Templarkommando

David proposes to Joyce.

Chloe sits outside of Blackwell Academy waiting for Rachel to get out of school. Rachel runs past Principal Wells and jumps in the truck with Chloe. The two drive off.

Chloe and Rachel watch the sun setting from the lighthouse in Arcadia Bay.

Raven flies off into the west.

(At some point later - possibly a couple of years later, Chloe dyes her hair completely blue, and Rachel signs the wall in the cinderblock hideout.

Chloe and Rachel admire each others tattoos from the top of the truck. The tattoo date is probably 7/22/12 or later (2 years from now), since it's Rachel's 18th birthday - and she would be able to legally get a tattoo. Thanks to u/PaveltheWriter for pointing this out.

Rachel and Chloe later take pictures together in a photobooth.

May 15 - Vortex Club Tempest Party at the Blackwell Swimming Pool. The poster notes that all students are welcome.

May 16 - Blackwell Varsity Awards Dinner according to Drew's calendar.

May 22 - Chloe receives a report card from Blackwell. She receives straight A's in 7 classes, 8 tardies, and 4 absences.

June 21 - Karen Diaz receives a letter from Ravensbury Press noting that she has missed her submission deadline for her Poetry Manuscript that was due June 1. According to a contract that Karen is party to, she must return her $10,000 advance. The letter is sent by someone named Alistair Moon. (L2.5)

July 10 - Alex Chen turns 13 today - the last day that she is 12. This makes this the final possible date for the scene that Alex hallucinates in the orphanage. (TC.5)

August 4 - Karen Diaz receives a post card from her room mate named Emma. Emma says that her new summer home is in Aspen. She says that she is staying with someone named Anthony in a cabin that is like a ski lodge. Emma suggests that Karen should accompany her on the next trip as a poet's retreat. Emma asks Karen to please let her know when she can pay Emma back for August's rent. Emma promises to see Karen after returning from summer vacation on September 5 instead of September 4. Emma reminds Karen to "water her babies" referring to some plants.(L2.5) The obvious guess is that the Aspen referred to here is Aspen, CO, however, there are a number of other places that are called by this name. Notably, there is an "Aspen Lake" west of Klamath Falls in Oregon.

Templarkommando

~September 1 - Given the radio report featuring Amy Rivers during Episode 2: Awake from BtS, this is technically about the earliest date that Mark Jefferson could have begun working for Blackwell Academy. This is based off the fact that Max's journal has Blackwell beginning class during the first week of September in 2013 as well, though that year has school beginning on September 2, because September 1st of that year is a Sunday. It is possible that he was hired in 2011 or 2012, but according to BtS, Jefferson was being interviewed in Spring of 2010.

September 4 - Emma is originally scheduled to return to New York from Aspen on this day. (L2.5)

September 5 - Emma reschedules to return to New York from Aspen on this day. (L2.5)

October 31 - Sean remarks that the Diaz family has had the goofy fake pumpkin in their house since he was ten. This date marks Halloween in the year that Sean was 10.

Unknown date - A banner hanging in the hall of Blackwell Academy in LiS 1 says that the Bigfoots are runners up this year. This is presumably runners up in football. (L1.1)

March 11 - Chloe celebrates her 17th birthday. This is a possible date for the timestream photo of Chloe looming over David and a birthday cake with a butter knife. In the photo, Chloe notably has a blue strip in her hair. Those that accept BtS as canon, tend to hold that this date or any March 11 date between 2011 and 2013 is a possible date for this event. If the timestream photo occurs on this date, or on one of the other two dates between 2011 and 2013, then it is not a canon inconsistency. Acceptors of BtS hold this position because Life is Strange does not specify an exact moment-for moment exchange of time-stream photos, and because Chloe's cake holds nine candles.

Templarkommando

May 17 - Ray Wells sends a letter to Emily Ericksen asking her to visit the campus at Blackwell and bragging that Blackwell Academy is proud to display works from a long list of alumni.

April 28

When Gabe and Alex Chen meet each other, he says that the two siblings are reuniting for the first time in 8 years. This day is 8 years before 4/28/2019 when Gabe says this. Presumably, the final date of contact between the Chen siblings is between this day and 12/31/2011(TC.1)

May 20 - Chloe receives a report card from Blackwell Academy detailing her failing 3 classes with 82 absences and 48 tardies.

Summer - Karen and Maggie pose together for a picture in Kissimmee, Florida. A pin in Karen's camper says that Karen worked at "Happy World Resort" during its 40th Anniversary Summer. Coincidentally, the Walt Disney Corporation is the largest private employer of people in Kissimmee, FL, and was celebrating the 40th Anniversary of Walt Disney World during 2011. Some time after this, Maggie takes Karen to live in the unincorporated community of Away, AZ.

August 8 - Chloe receives a letter from Mr. Wells reporting that she may no longer attend Blackwell Academy since the school is not able to accommodate her special needs.

August 24 - A Seaside, Oregon postcard from Rachel to Chloe while Rachel was on vacation is postmarked. Rachel wishes that Chloe was there.

October 8 - William and Joyce receive a letter from Principal Wells explaining that they will be unable to accomodate Chloe's special needs at Blackwell and that because of this, she will be unable to continue attending Blackwell Academy. He suggests that Chloe be sent to a school in Bolton. Bolton is a neighborhood in West Linn, Oregon. The school suggested is the H. West Miskatonic Institute. This may be a reference to Miskatonic University which is a fictional school in H.P. Lovecraft's Cthulhu universe. The University in Lovecraft's work is in Massachusetts which may be why the school that is recommended to Chloe is called the "West Miskatonic Institute."

December 31 - During an on-air call between Gabe Chen, and Steph Gingrich on KRCT, Gabe reports that he last spoke to Alex seven years ago. Seven years before 12/31/18 is today. So, Alex and Gabe don't speak to each other from around this time until the time just before True Colors begins according to Gabe Chen. Presumably, the final date of contact between the Chen siblings is between this day and 4/28/2011 (TC.W)

2012

Templarkommando

Unknown Date - Evan Harris takes at least two photographs of Rachel Amber for his portfolio.

Unknown Date - Jed Lucan becomes the chair of the Haven Springs, CO city council this year (TC.3)

March 11 - Chloe celebrates her 18th birthday. This is a possible date for the timestream photo of Chloe looming over David and a birthday cake with a butter knife. In the photo, Chloe notably has a blue strip in her hair. Those that accept BtS as canon, tend to hold that this date or any March 11 date between 2011 and 2013 is a possible date for this event. If the timestream photo occurs on this date, or on one of the other two dates between 2011 and 2013, then it is not a canon inconsistency. Acceptors of BtS hold this position because Life is Strange does not specify an exact moment-for moment exchange of time-stream photos, and because Chloe's cake holds nine candles.

May 10 - David Madsen is issued his concealed handgun license.

May 20-21st - In real life, an eclipse passes over Oregon on this day. It's possible that before this, Karen purchased the eclipse glasses found in her trunk in Beavercreek on 12/11/16 to view this eclipse. The only other possible eclipses in the last 40 years that passed very near to Oregon would be the eclipse from October 8, 2013 during LiS 1 and a few nearby eclipses that occurred in the early 90s. The eclipses in the 90s were not directly over Oregon.

July 22 - Chloe and Rachel probably get their tattoos after this date, since it's Rachel's 18th birthday - and she would be able to legally get one. Thanks to u/PaveltheWriter for pointing this out.

If the BtS outro is chronological, at some point after this, Chloe and Rachel probably take their photo booth picture after this as well.

Unknown date - Victoria Chase receives a rejection letter to display her work in Kroft Gallery in Eugene, Oregon. Eugene, Oregon is notably the original hometown of Charles and Emily Eriksen.

March 11 - Chloe celebrates her 19th birthday. This is a possible date for the timestream photo of Chloe looming over David and a birthday cake with a butter knife. In the photo, Chloe notably has a blue strip in her hair. Those that accept BtS as canon, tend to hold that this date or any March 11 date between 2011 and 2013 is a possible date for this event. canon inconsistency. Acceptors of BtS hold this position because Life is Strange does not specify an exact moment-for moment exchange of time-stream photos, and because Chloe's cake holds nine candles.

March 27 - William types a text message to Max letting her know that this is Chloe's new phone number.

March 28 - Vortex Club Block Party. A DJ known as Irish Bacon is the master of ceremonies. (L1.2)

30 March - The Price family receives a bill from Cronenberg Medical Supplies in the amount of $8587.00. "Cronenberg" is a reference to David Cronenberg who is a film-maker in the horror genre. Characters known as "Cronenbergs" are noted by Urban Dictionary as being twisted mockeries of human beings. This refers to Chloe's medical state in the Alternative Timeline.

April 5

5:16 PM - 7:15 PM - Alex Chen sends a text to someone named "Gene" aka "Cosmic Charlie" to ask if he is still selling. Alex says that Stacey (unknown person) gave Gene's number to her. Gene says that he is only selling to those who truly know how to surrender to the flow. Alex says that Gene should nevermind. (TC.1)

April 9 - David Madsen's security I.D. for Blackwell Academy bears this date on it. The badge is found in David's garage. This may indicate that David was hired on this date.

Unknown day - Anderson Barry writes an arrest report for Rachel Amber. At 2:35 PM, Rachel is arrested for possessing controlled substances on Blackwell Campus. She was reported by David Madsen who is noted as the head of Blackwell Security. Rachel is noted as being 18 which means that this was technically any time between July 22, 2012 and the day that Rachel Amber went missing. I suspect some time between 4/9/13 and 4/21/13 because it is during a time period where David is also head of security, though it could have been earlier if the date on David's security I.D. does not indicate his hire date. (Found on David's Computer in S1 E3).

April 22 - Rachel Amber goes missing. (L1.1)

Some time after Rachel's disappearance she is killed by either Nathan or Mark Jefferson. It is not fully clear how this occurred, but Mark Jefferson tells us that Nathan accidentally caused her to overdose and that led to her death. Presumably, Rachel died in the Dark Room, but was later transported to American Rust Salvage Yard where she was buried in a shallow grave.

Chloe calls Rachel Amber at least 17 times trying to find her.(B.3)

Life is Strange: Before the Storm's Last scene concludes

September 1 - Max moves in to the Blackwell Academy dorms.

September 2 ; 12:07 AM - Max makes her first entry in her journal from her new dorm room at Blackwell Academy. She remarks that she met some of her dorm mates but doesn't remember any names.

Because Max jumps back to a date in which her room has not been fully arranged, to take advantage of her wall of pictures self-portrait, presumably, her photojump brings her back to around this time period. This is because most of Max's things are still in boxes, and her monitor is not yet on the desk.

Max rips apart the wall of photos self-portrait.

Templarkommando

Because of this choice, Max never gives this photo to Mr. Jefferson in order to win the Every Day Heroes contest. Max does not win this contest, and thus, in the time stream before Max has a chance to do any fixing of time, Mr. Jefferson destroys Max's entire photo album on the night of October 10th. Thus the entire pink timeline does not occur.

September 3 - Max writes in her journal that "Blackwell sucks ass." She seems to have become slightly more familiar with her dorm mates who she now refers to as "KateBrookeTaylorAlyssa." Max apparently had an altercation with Victoria Chase who criticized Max's form of dress. Max also remarks that she enjoyed Jefferson's photography class.

September 4 - Max remarks in her journal that she has a lot of homework. She made friends with Warren Graham today. Mr. Jefferson apparently assigned a ton of reading.

September 10 - Chris Eriksen's height is measured on the wardrobe in Charles' room.

September 12 - Chloe receives a traffic ticket for crossing the white line.

September 15 - Max writes in her journal about the entitlement and privilege of Victoria Chase and Nathan Prescott. She writes that the Prescotts are the oldest and richest family in Arcadia Bay. Also, she speaks of how they get their way due to being high up in the Vortex Club. Max says that she's more like Kate Marsh who lives down the hall.

September 16 - A backpack containing books and a tablet with 5 GB of cat pictures is stolen from the Blackwell Academy Cafeteria.

September 20 - Nathan Prescott has an outburst in Mrs. Hoida's intro to literature class. He is sent back to the dorm for the remainder of the day.

September 21 ; 11:34 AM - Chloe receives a parking ticket for parking outside of the parking bay on Southeast Franklin Street..

September 21 - Max makes an entry in her journal expressing surprise that Victoria and Nathan gave her a beautiful straw pork-pie hat wrapped in the furoshiki style.

Templarkommando

September 23 - Max writes in her journal that she took pictures on Campus today. Max expresses anxiety about entering the Every Day Heroes Contest which she says that Mr. Jefferson told her class about today.

September 27 - Taylor Christensen sends Max a text thanking Max for taking Taylor to see her mother.

September 30 - 8:31 AM Mr. Jefferson pings at Blackwell Academy.

8:52 AM - Nathan pings at the diner.

9:44 AM - Chloe pings on David's Tracker as being at the diner.

9:44 AM - Nathan pings at Blackwell Academy.

10:56 AM - Chloe pings on David's Tracker at what is probably Chloe's house.

Max writes that she is having trouble in science class and wonders if she could clone Warren to take her place in class. Max talks about liking Mrs. Grant who explains science so that even boneheads like Max can understand it. Max then remarks that she is writing in her journal to avoid homework.

1:42 PM - Chloe pings on David's Tracker as being at American Rust Salvage Yard.

3:35 PM - Chloe pings on David's Tracker as being at the Beach.

3:40 PM - Frank Bowers gives Chloe "Bulldog" Price a loan of $3000.00

5:49 PM - Nathan pings at the gas station.

6:01 PM - Nathan pings at home.

7:12 PM - Mr. Jefferson pings at what is probably his house.

Templarkommando

9:31 PM - Nathan pings at the barn.

9:46 PM - Nathan begins a text conversation where he asks Frank for "G" and later accuses Frank of having sold him water. That conversation ends around 1:13 AM. Presumably, Nathan accuses Frank of having sold him water because the GHB was not a sufficient dosage to keep Chloe asleep. During this time period, Chloe escapes from Nathan's captivity. It is not clear exactly when or where this takes place, since Nathan doesn't accuse Frank of having sold him water until 1:03 AM the next morning. Presumably, Frank replaces the GHB that was supposedly "water" after the fact leaving Nathan with enough GHB to drug Kate later.

10:00 PM - Frank Bowers sells Nathan "Rott" GHB (gamma-Hydroxybutyric acid)

11:18 PM - Nathan pings at home.

At some point before this, Jefferson purchases a bus ticket in Nathan's name - presumably to cover up Nathan's disappearance. It seems possible that this is a modus operandi for Jefferson, and that this explains the bus ticket in Kate's locker in the gym at Blackwell Academy.

Max gets in a Taxi to the airport to go to San Francisco.

Max time jumps into a photo taken by Jefferson. - in this photo she is bound on the ground.

Max kicks the trolley in the Dark Room and wets Jefferson's photo folder with the drugs that Jefferson was injecting.

Max returns to the later time.

October 11 - Everyday Heroes Contest in San Francisco. Exhibition begins. (It is not entirely clear when October 11th begins during this sequence of events. At a guess, Max enters a Taxi at around the same time that Jefferson would have been taking photos of her, but this is not necessarily the case as a flight from Portland, Oregon to San Francisco only takes about 1 hour and 40 minutes. Security could take two hours to get through, so there are a lot of factors in determining the precise sequence of events here.)

12:13 AM - Warren sends a text to Max saying that he is leaving the party to go and search for her.

8:46 AM - Warren sends another text to Max warning about the impending storm. He continues texting information about the storm to her until 9:04 AM.

Max has a time-travel-related migraine/nose bleed and then sees another vision of the storm.

Templarkommando

10:56 AM - Max calls Chloe and receives information that the storm is ongoing in Arcadia Bay. The time is seen on Max's phone.

Max photojumps back to the day that she took the wall of photos self-portrait. This is presumably some day around September 2nd, because Max's journal explains on that day that her room is not fully set up. When Max is photo-jumped to this date, various still-packed boxes are still present, and Max's laptop is not on her desk.

At some point around this time, Max wakes up in the Dark Room still being accosted by Jefferson after Jefferson burned her diary. This is known because the storm can be heard outside.

David Madsen enters the Dark Room.

Max uses her rewind to direct David in subduing Mark Jefferson.

12:17 PM - Max tries to call Warren on her phone, but is unable to do so because there is no signal in the Dark Room.

Max goes to the Two Whales to try to get Warren's picture.

The trucker, Evan, and Alyssa are caught outside in the storm.

R. J. Macready is caught inside of a burning building.

Fuel soaked into the asphalt outside of the Two Whales snakes its way toward the diner. The fuel catches fire, but Max puts it out.

Max arrives inside the Two Whales Diner. When she arrives, Joyce, Warren, Frank, lottery ticket guy, and Pompidou are present. Frank and Pompidou may have been killed back in episode 4, so their presence is determinant.

Templarkommando

Max can hear on the radio that an “E-6” tornado warning has been issued for Arcadia Bay. Being that I’m from Oklahoma, I happen to know that the highest tornado warning level is an EF-5, and that there is no such thing as an “E-6.” This may be an attempt by the writers to communicate the intensity of the storm as being beyond the standard scale. If that’s the case, then it would outstrip the Moore Tornado of May 3rd, 1999 which recorded wind speeds of up to 301 miles per hour. This is something of an external inconsistency. First, the damage later shown after the Bae ending doesn’t match up with what a tornado of this magnitude would cause, second, you can’t walk around outside in 300 mile per hour winds.

Max talks to Warren and receives the photo

Max jumps back to Thursday night outside of the Vortex Club Party.

Some time around now, Max advises Chloe that they will be safe at the lighthouse. Presumably, this is because Max has been having visions of Max safe at the lighthouse.

Max arrives from her time-jump and finds herself still face-to-face with the storm.

Max and Chloe stand on the beach as the storm comes in to Arcadia Bay.

Max and Chloe start going to the Lighthouse.

Max has a sudden vision that takes her into what is called the nightmare.

Chloe drags Max up to the lighthouse.

Max wakes up in the nightmare on what seems to be Monday 10/7/13 in what seems to be Mr. Jefferson’s class.

Birds begin hurling themselves against the window and exploding in red splatters of blood.

Suddenly, and without warning, the windows are clear again, and Max is in Jefferson’s classroom alone. A bell rings.

Bits of the original classroom are inexplicably altered - Jefferson’s magazine shoots suddenly feature Max instead of the original model, the ground outside is completely covered with dead birds, Kate’s desk has been vandalized with the phrase “I want to die” written numerous times and so on.

Max walks toward the door, but before she can leave, is interrupted by Mr. Jefferson who suddenly appears and says “I see you Max Caulfield.”

Mr. Jefferson asks if Max wants to spend the rest of her life in the Dark Room. Max can only answer in the affirmative.

Max leaves Mr. Jefferson's classroom and instead of entering the school hallway, finds herself in the girls' dorm room hallway. The lights are dim. Kate can be seen kneeling and crying in front of her room. Dead whales sit on and under the outside awning path that leads to the main campus building.

Kate jumps out of her dorm room door which seems to be an endless fall. The door closes behind her. Max tries to follow, but instead finds herself walking in the entry to the girls' dorm again.

Max finds a key and hears a voice say "Give me back my key, bitch."

Max goes through door #218 after getting the key and suddenly is dressed in her Rachel Amber cosplay outfit. Rachel Amber missing persons posters now litter the floor. The dorm map indicates that this is the room arrangement for a semester in which Rachel Amber is attending Blackwell Academy. Several names have been removed from the original map, and have been replaced with other names.

Max goes through the door to Rachel's room #224, and again walks into the girls' dorm and finds herself transformed into Victoria Chase. The dorm room map has returned to normal. Bits of graffiti now litter the walls. They seem to have been made by Victoria.

Victoria walks through her bedroom door and suddenly turns back into Max Caulfield. The wall is filled with polaroid camera photos. Giant squirrels can be seen outside of the hallway window. The Whales are now gone from the walkway awning.

Max walks through her own bedroom door, and finds herself in the school hallway. Everyone is walking backwards. All time seems to be progressing backwards. It is dark outside. A door leads Max to the girls' restroom.

Upon walking through the restroom door, Max is suddenly transported to a bizarre esoteric plane with few walls or ground for the most part. Jefferson is chasing Max through darkness. He has a flashlight. Where walls are present, there are paintings posted on walls. Where walls are not present, there is nothing-filled abyss.

Max collects bottles while dodging various classmates and other characters from the game. She then takes a "shot" at the bottles with her camera. The bottles all shatter.

Max sits down on a bench next to a lighthouse, and suddenly finds herself in a snow globe which is sitting on the hearth at the Price household on the day that William died. William and Chloe are making pancakes. The scene transpires so that William is going to go get in a car wreck. Celluloid burns around the outside and there is a fade to black. Max wakes up in the dark room wearing just her pajamas and tied to a chair.

Max is alone, but suddenly, Mr. Jefferson and Chloe flash into the scene, and Jefferson compliments Chloe as being perfect for his series on retro-grunge. They both begin insulting Max.

The scene flashes again, and now instead of Chloe and Jefferson, Chloe and Warren are in the room. They begin insulting Max and the two begin making out.

The scene flashes again, and now Nathan and Chloe are in the scene. Nathan compliments Chloe.

The scene flashes again, and now Chloe is standing on the couch wearing her bikini and showing Max how to bust a move.

The scene flashes again and now Chloe and Victoria are making out on the couch.

The scene flashes again, and wheelchair Chloe starts blaming Max for all of her troubles.

The scene flashes again, and regular Chloe says that she wishes that Max had never returned to Arcadia Bay.

The scene flashes a final time, and Max finds herself in the bathroom at the Two Whales, and needs to find the code to the door to escape. After trying to fix the code entry, a million codes appear on the wall. Max uses the code that is visible through the mirror and escapes the bathroom and walks into the diner proper.

All of the characters that Max has met in the game are in the diner. They all beg Max not to kill them.

Max confronts herself sitting in a booth in the diner.

Max suddenly freezes and then finds herself back in the abyssal hell-scape where Jefferson was chasing her. She can see what looks like a model of her and Chloe sitting in the truck. She progresses onward and sees several scenes that have transpired over the course of the last week. These scenes all give positive views of Chloe.

Max continues traveling toward a lighthouse, when she hears Chloe say "Come on Max, we're almost there." She approaches what looks like mannequin-copies of herself and Chloe and as she arrives,

There was originally an inconsistency of names for this officer, however, a patch has since consistently shown the name of this officer to be Kindred Matthews.

He demands that Esteban build a fence, or threatens that he will take Esteban to court to make Esteban pay for damages. During the Skype call, Daniel walks past the window headed for the neighbor's yard. Daniel gets in a fight with Brett when he spills fake blood on Brett's shirt. Sean runs to intervene.

4:54:08 PM - Dispatch asks if Car 306 is available. Another officer says "240 Negative." A 240 is a police scanner code referring to an assault, which might mean that there wasn't an assault. That officer continues by saying "False Alarm on that code red near Magnolia." Magnolia is the second largest neighborhood in Seattle.

4:58:36 PM - An officer (possibly officer 303) suggests to Dispatch that they should "try that crumpet shop off of Post Alley." Post Alley is an actual street in Seattle. This may be actually referring to a donut shop since cops are supposedly well known for eating donuts due to donut shops being open for good portions of the day when other restaurants are not open. Dispatch responds by thanking 303. One interesting bit of trivia about this, is that both Magnolia, and Post Alley are within about a 15 minute drive from the Fremont Troll that Max has a picture of in L1.1. (L2.1)

Another officer cuts in and says that he needs to run a license check on a 10-? And then gets cut off before he can continue as the game skips to the next time sequence. Police ten codes could mean a number of different things. Given the context, the most that can be said is that can probably be said here is that the officer is probably checking a vehicle license plate number. (It's probably either a 10-37 (a suspicious vehicle) or a 10-92 (An improperly parked vehicle)).

5:08:16 PM - This is the time that is shown on Officer K. Matthews' dash cam as he rolls up to the scene of the altercation with Daniel, Sean, and the neighbor boy. Matthews reports that he has a 10-10 in progress. Given the context of what we know is going on, he is referring to a fight that is ongoing. He says that he is at 1542 Lewis Avenue.

Matthews, K, may be an inconsistency as in Episode 2, there is a news article in the abandoned cabin that refers to him as Phillip Matthews. This issue has been resolved since I first wrote this entry.

Sean beats up Brett and leaves him on the ground. Brett is later mentioned as being alive in an article in the Independent. Officer Matthews intervenes and tells Sean and Daniel to get away from Brett. Sean and Daniel comply with Officer Matthews' orders. Officer Matthews draws his pistol and tells Sean and Daniel to get down on the ground. Sean tries to explain the situation. Matthews repeats his new order for Sean and Daniel to get on the ground. Sean and Daniel comply by getting on the ground and putting their hands behind their head. Officer Matthews checks Brett for a pulse. Esteban Diaz runs across his front yard toward the altercation. Matthews spots Esteban and tells him to get on the ground. Esteban tries to calm his children and Matthews. Matthews repeats his demand for Esteban to get on the ground and at the same time as bellowing his demand, fires a shot at Esteban - killing him. Daniel yells and manifests a telekinetic power.

5:11:00 PM - The video on Matthews' dashcam shows the car flip at this point due to Daniel's telekinetic power. At this time, the Diaz front porch is ripped away from the house, the nearby utility pole is knocked over, and Officer Matthews is killed as he is flung across the street. Daniel falls unconscious.

Sean gets up and examines the scene. He cries for his dead father. As police sirens wail in the background, Sean picks up a still unconscious Daniel and runs away. He briefly stops to grab the bag that he packed and continues fleeing on foot.

5:14:30 PM - Another officer reports a 10-53 (probably from the blocked road caused by Officer Matthews' car.) The officer says to send backup immediately as police cars pull into view of the dashcam.

5:06 PM - (this is placed here for narrative reasons, but Lyla's earliest text in this chain occurs at this time). Lyla sends Sean a series of increasingly frantic text messages asking about what has happened. Lyla freaks out when Sean's house is on the news. She later texts that she can't sleep. Sean finally texts Lyla back at 11:52 after Lyla's most recent text at 11:47 PM. He says that he's not okay - that his dad was just shot. He says that he and Daniel left town. Lyla asks where and Sean says that he can't say.

10:15 AM - Boss texts Sean to ask him why he is missing inventory day. He later realizes at 7:41 PM after Gina tells him about the events of the 28th that Sean won't be there. He says that everyone is worried about him and suggests that Sean and Daniel turn themselves in, but says that if he needs anything to let him know.

Sean and Daniel walk along a road near Mt. Ranier in Washington State. Daniel stops walking and demands to know where Esteban is. Sean coaxes Daniel into going without explaining the events of the 28th. Daniel leaves his Zombie mask on the road.

Sean and Daniel arrive at a place called Trout Spring Trail. This trail is along the Nisqually River in Pierce County in Washington State.

Daniel asks Sean to play hide and seek.

Sean and Daniel make camp on the bank of the Nisqually River. They have supper, and spend the night. Daniel dreams about Esteban.

At some point today, a paper known as "The Northwest Post" publishes its issue number 948. The issue details protests that have been ignited as a result of the Seattle Police shooting of Esteban Diaz. Another article details the search for Sean and Daniel.

October 31 - An article written today and found on Stephen's computer says that a neighbor (probably Brett) blacked out during the Seattle incident in which Esteban Diaz and Phillip Matthews died. (Phillip is now named Kindred).

9:12 AM - Eric texts Sean to ask him to call because people are saying crazy things about Sean and Eric knows that Sean didn't do anything.

Templarkommando

Sean and Daniel walk along Washington State Highway 7.

Sean and Daniel arrive at Minimart - a convenience store owned by Hank and Doris Stamper.

Brody Holloway writes an article about a nudist colony on his laptop.

Sean and Daniel sit down to look at the map and have something to eat.

Hank Stamper pulls up to Minimart in his truck.

Brody Holloway walks out of Minimart and asks about Sean and Daniel's destination and says "Protip: Don't feed the bears."

Hank Stamper interrupts Sean and Daniel's supper/map reading session and accuses Sean and Daniel of stealing.

Sean decides whether to attack, discuss matters, or flee from Hank Stamper.

Sean falls unconscious, and Hank ties up Sean in Minimart's office. Hank then calls an Officer Burwell to report having caught Sean and Daniel, though Daniel remains uncaught.

Sean wakes up in Minimart's office. Hank asks Sean how he's doing.

With Daniel's help, Sean manages to break loose from his zip-tie restraint that is tied to a pipe in the office.

Daniel exits the office into the store, and is immediately confronted by Hank Stamper. Daniel's telekinetic power manifests again, and it knocks Hank to the ground - stunning him - and scatters various store inventory around the room. Before Sean enters, Daniel grabs the puppy(Mushroom) in the basket next to the cash register.

Sean decides whether to beat up Hank and take his stuff or run.

Sean and Daniel run into the woods and rain behind the shop.

Sean and Daniel encounter Brody sitting in his station wagon and ask him to help. With very little prompting, Brody agrees to assist, and together, they drive off into the rainy Oregon night.

Sean and Brody have an encouraging talk.

Daniel falls asleep in the back of the station wagon.

Templarkommando

Shortly after, Sean falls asleep.

Brody Holloway drives Sean and Daniel to Arcadia Bay, Oregon and they survey it from the southern cliff. Depending on player choices, the town will either be intact or a ruin.

Sean and Brody talk about the events of the last few days. Brody asks about Sean's Mom. Sean says that his Mom is out of the picture.

2 Hours Later-

Brody drives to the Three Seals Motel along the coast of Oregon and rents a room for Sean and Daniel for the night.

Mushroom chases Daniel on the beach at the Three Seals Motel.

Brody provides Sean and Daniel with some money ($20) and a spare backpack with some supplies. Brody tells Sean to tell Daniel about how Esteban died. Brody gives Daniel a handkerchief and he says it's always kept him safe. Daniel ties the handkerchief around Mushroom's neck. In the new backpack, Brody leaves a note where he says that he's sorry that he has to leave, but his mother is dying of cancer in Utah and he needs to be there.

Brody gives everyone a hug, and then leaves.

Sean and Daniel go upstairs to Room #10.

Daniel watches Hawt Dawg Man on television.

6 PM (which is probably before this) - An establishment called "The Regal Beaver" hosts a Halloween costume party on 15 Furley Lane. There are door prizes. The party is over at 2 AM.

7:12 PM - Ellery texts Sean to ask Sean to call him again. He says that he had to talk to the police.

8:35 PM - Coach Aaron texts Sean to let him know that Aaron is praying for Sean and Daniel and that the team has his back. Implying that there is some kind of controversy, and the track team has chosen a side that favors the Diaz family.

November 1 -

1:20 AM - Lyla somehow sees that Sean is online, and texts him begging him to call her. She says that the police keep asking questions, and that she doesn't know what to tell them.

Templarkommando

Sean decides whether to call Lyla or not.

Sean watches a video of the Diaz family on a previous Christmas morning. He then throws his phone off the balcony.

Daniel dances on the bed.

Sean tries to tell Daniel the truth about Esteban's death, but Daniel wants a drink first. Sean agrees to go get Daniel a soda.

As Sean spends a dollar on Daniel's coke, Daniel turns on the news and sees a report about Esteban's death. He yells "Dad!" and his power manifests telekinetically lifting several loose objects in the hotel room.

Sean runs to help Daniel. Sean tries to calm Daniel down. Daniel tells Sean not to lie to him ever again. Sean either says that he will try, or he makes a solid promise to never lie.

5:15 AM - This is the departure time listed on Sean and Daniel's Very Bus tickets. Presumably at some time around now, Sean and Daniel leave for Eugene, OR which is the destination on the ticket. The total cost of the tickets is $25.

Sean tells Daniel a story about a family of three wolves whose father is killed by hunters. This story is reminiscent of what has occurred to Sean and Daniel over the past few days.

Life is Strange 2 Episode 1: Roads ends.

November 1 - Sean makes an entry in his journal saying that he and Daniel need to find a hideout and then move on to Puerto Lobos.

An article found on Stephen's computer asks where the Diaz brothers have gone.

November 2 - Sean and Daniel go to a thrift store in a town south east of Albany. Sean says that he got layer (probably clothing) for himself and Daniel. He also says that they slept in someone's backyard shed.

An article found on Stephen's computer says that friends and neighbors mourn the loss of a local mechanic.

An article found on Stephen's computer says: "Seattle Protests: SPD to hold workshops on racial bias."

November 3 - Sean and Daniel stay at a shelter. They give fake names, and no one seems to care.

Templarkommando

November 4 - Sean and Daniel leave town. A crackhead at the shelter attempted to steal their stuff. Daniel freaks out on the crackhead, and the lights flicker.

Sean and Daniel hitchhike down Highway 20. They are picked up by a geologist on the way to Mt. Jefferson. Sean lies and says that he and Daniel are on a survivalist trip.

An article found on Stephen's computer says an Officer Tanaka holds a press conference about the Seattle incident in which Officer Matthews was killed. Tanaka says that they are considering every lead including terrorism and gang fights.

November 7 - Sean and Daniel find an abandoned house to stay in. Sean says that they used Daniel's gift to break in.

Brody Holloway publishes an article on his Blog "A Tribe Called West" in which he details in vague terms his meeting with the Diaz brothers. He says that he wishes he could have helped them more,

November 8 - Sean and Daniel settle in to their new house. Sean leaves for a while to search for a place to buy food. Sean draws a map of the area immediately surrounding the abandoned house.

Sean writes that the nearest town is 15 miles away. Sean steals some food from several stores. He thinks they can last two weeks on the food that they have.

November 9 - Sean finds his way back to the cabin. During the time that Sean was gone, Daniel broke some things around the house using his power. Sean decides to start helping Daniel with his power tomorrow.

Some time after this, but presumably before November 15, Sean tears a page out of his journal.

November 10 - The sheetrock board in the cabin says that this is the day of Daniel's first lesson.

An article found on Stephen's computer says that the Seattle incident in which Officer Matthews was killed is an unresolved mystery.

November 15 - Sean draws some pictures of various objects as well as Daniel's hand positions and facial expressions. Presumably, he is trying to help Daniel figure out how to use his power.

November 16 - Sean writes the instructions for the game "Ship, Captain, Crew" in his journal. After this entry, another page is torn out of the journal.

Templarkommando

November 17 - Sean writes "He did it" in his journal, and draws a picture of Daniel levitating a bottle. Also, he draws Daniel holding Mushroom, and records the score of a Ships, Captain, and Crew game. Sean loses again.

The sheetrock board agrees with the "He did it" comment in the journal. It says that today is the day of the flying bottle.

November 21 - The sheetrock board says "Twigs & Leaves" today. Presumably, Daniel began levitating twigs and leaves on this day.

November 23 - Sean writes that he went back to town today. He says that he walked slower through the snow - presumably because there is new snow on the ground.

November 24 - Sean scavenges through a trash can and finds a lot of usable food.

November 25 - Sean writes that Daniel is sick. He decides to go easier on outside training.

The sheetrock board says that Daniel has mastered "small rocks" today.

November 26 - Sean writes that he may need to go get medicine for Daniel.

November 28 - Daniel draws a picture in Sean's journal. Presumably as part of Daniel's having won at a game of Ships, Captain, and Crew. The picture is of Daniel wearing a crown, and a boat on the water.

Sean writes asking how Daniel keeps winning. He begins to wonder if Daniel is cheating. Sean also draws a picture of a wolf and a parrot in pirate regalia as well as three Age of Sail-era ships.

November 29 - Charles Eriksen receives a letter from Dr. Tamra Fallman of Beaver Creek Social Services to schedule a meeting with Charles and his son the following Monday (December 15 2016) at 2:15 PM.

December -

December 1 -

Life is Strange 2 Episode 2: Rules begins.

Sean coaches Daniel to help him improve his telekinetic ability.

Templarkommando

Daniel has a coughing fit.

Sean and Daniel go back inside of the cabin that they discovered.

Daniel has another coughing fit.

Sean keeps a record of Daniel's advancement on a board in the cabin. He writes "Big Rocks" and "Snowballs."

Sean then goes over the rules with Daniel after Daniel levitates a plate : 1) Hide your power. 2) Never talk about your power. 3) Run from danger.

Sean makes dinner for himself, Daniel, and Mushroom.

Sean goes outside to draw.

Sean serves dinner.

Daniel isn't hungry, he levitates his plate over to Mushroom. Daniel then has another coughing fit.

Sean gets the map to show it to Daniel. Sean resolves that they are going to leave tomorrow to find a way to get Daniel better from his coughing - their destination is Beavercreek, Oregon - the home of their maternal grandparents.

Sean and Daniel play "Ships, Captain, Crew." One of the Diaz brothers wins, and as a result draws an image on the other brother's backpack.

Mushroom begins scratching on the door to go outside. Sean takes Mushroom outside, lights a cigarette, looks up at the moon, and then tries to move a rock with his mind. This attempt fails.

Sean goes back inside and puts a log on the fire and goes to bed.

December 2 - Sean and Daniel pack to leave the abandoned cabin.

Either Sean or Daniel lets Mushroom outside.

Daniel has trouble packing his bag. Sean helps.

Daniel goes to check on Mushroom.

Sean fills up a few bottles with fresh water.

Templarkommando

Mushroom is killed by a large mountain cat.

Sean goes to check on Daniel and Mushroom.

Sean spots Mushroom's bloody bandanna. He crawls under a log to investigate.

Sean walks up on Daniel confronting the large mountain cat (possibly a Puma) that killed Mushroom.

Daniel levitates the mountain cat into the air. Sean decides whether to stop Daniel from killing the mountain cat. If Sean does not intervene, then Daniel kills the mountain cat, and is able to give Mushroom a proper burial. If Sean does intervene, then the mountain cat grabs Mushroom's carcass as Sean fights it with a stick. In this scenario, the mountain cat is able to escape depriving Daniel of the ability to give Mushroom a reverent burial.

After this, Sean and Daniel are shown making their way through a forest. Later, Sean and Daniel make their way across a wooden bridge that is in poor repair. They make their way through more forest. They make camp for the night complete with a fire. They make their way up to the edge of a road. Sean lets Daniel ride on his shoulders. Under the darkness of night, Sean and Daniel arrive in Beavercreek, Oregon.

December 3 - Sean writes in his journal that he had to carry Daniel for three miles. He says that it is burning cold, and that no one is stopping to help them.

The map notes that Sean and Daniel arrive at the Reynolds house on this day.

Sean rings the doorbell at the Reynolds house. Claire answers the door followed shortly by Steven. They ask Sean and Daniel a few questions before ushering the boys into the house. Daniel coughs, and Claire asks Sean if he knows that Daniel is sick.

The Reynolds serve Sean some hot tea. Claire gives Daniel some cough medicine. She also scolds Sean for having not taken better care of Daniel. Claire and Stephen Reynolds talk just out of Sean's earshot. They can actually be overheard during this conversation by turning up the volume which reveals that they know about Esteban's death and the mysteries that surround Sean and Daniel.

Stephen and Claire ask for Sean's side of the story about Officer Matthews' death. Claire says that the police called them a few weeks ago.

Stephen says that Sean and Daniel are going to stay with Stephen and Claire.

Templarkommando

Daniel comes around the corner and is excited to have heard that they are staying with the Reynolds family.

A little later, Sean and Daniel are upstairs. Daniel says that he's feeling way better. Claire comes in and suggests that they all pray and give thanks to God. Claire leaves.

Daniel asks Sean if they can go look at their Mom's room because Daniel doesn't know anything about their mother - Karen. Sean says no, and explains that Karen left them - abandoned them.

Sean compliments Daniel on his progress with his power. Sean asks Daniel how Daniel does it. Daniel says that he doesn't know - he concentrates and it just happens.

Sean and Daniel go to sleep. The episode doesn't actually continue until December 10.

December 4 - On December 11, Cassidy says that she and her friends have been crashing in Beavercreek for the week. If they arrived a week beforehand, then that would be this day.

December 5 - Sean writes in his journal and says that Daniel is getting better and is eating like a horse. He says that he and Daniel have been spending time with Claire and Stephen, but that it's pretty awkward since they haven't really spent time together for a long while. He says that Stephen and Claire are walking on eggshells to avoid talking about Seattle... or Karen.

December 6 - Sean draws portraits of Stephen and Claire in his journal. Daniel also draws less technical, more nine year-old/crayony portraits of Stephen and Claire - and also Mushroom.

December 7 - Sean writes down the rules for the Reynolds house:

1. Discretion - Don't leave the house.
2. Disconnection - no use of computers or phones.
3. Daily Chores
4. Daniel Homework.

Sean also writes that he is "Bored AF." He's glad to be there but really wants to get outside.

December 9 - Sean draws pictures of Stephen, a wolf, a part of a fish, and some kind of plant.

Sean tries reading one of Claire's books today. He says it's basically a telenovela with white old women.

December 10 - LiS 2 Episode 2 continues on this day.

The Awesome Adventures of Captain Spirit Takes Place today. (AAOCS)

Templarkommando

Sean wakes up in the morning. He gets dressed. Daniel and Stephen play with model trains.

10:10 AM - This is the time that shows on the clock in the Reynolds kitchen.

Sean joins Claire for Breakfast. Daniel soon joins them after Claire calls him downstairs.

Claire serves breakfast.

Claire asks if the boys are done playing. Daniel says that they had an express delivery, but that the train broke down. Quickly, Stephen enters the scene and confirms this.

Claire pulls the handle off of one of her cabinets which needs to be fixed.

Claire asks how Sean and Daniel are liking Beaver Creek. She later mentions that Charles and Chris Eriksen would just get lost in Seattle.

When Claire turns her back, Daniel attempts to stack all of the dishes using his telekinesis.

Daniel asks Claire about the locked room upstairs. Claire says that there's nothing to see there. Daniel questions why Claire was in the room earlier in the morning. Daniel continues trying to get Claire's permission to explore the locked room, but Claire finally deflects by suggesting that Sean and Daniel go outside.

When Daniel walks past, Sean suggests out of Daniel's earshot, that Claire should tell Daniel that it was Karen's room. Claire makes it clear that the rules in her house are that Sean and Daniel can't go into Karen's room.

Stephen asks Sean to hand him the glue from the cabinet. Sean retrieves the glue, but the cabinet's bad leg causes it to begin falling. Between Sean and Stephen, they manage to stabilize the cabinet.

Stephen says that he's noticed things with Daniel. Sean can either come clean about Daniel's power or not. Stephen offers to let Sean and Daniel stay with Stephen and Claire.

Stephen gives keys to the tool shed to Sean. Claire stops Sean in the hall to tell him that she needs to go run some errands. Claire also asks Sean to do the laundry and to please continue tidying up.

Sean attempts to enlist Daniel's help in cleaning.

Sean and Daniel go outside. Sean attempts to open the shed door. Sean observes that the lock is frozen shut.

Templarkommando

Daniel Diaz rescues Chris Eriksen from a fall from a tree house after Chris has an altercation with Charles.

Chris and the Diaz boys are properly introduced. Daniel and Chris immediately hit things off by agreeing that their favorite superhero is Power Bear.

Charles rushes out to check on Chris. He apologizes for what just happened. Charles and Chris leave.

Sean confronts Daniel about breaking the rule about hiding his power. He can decide to relent, or to insist that Daniel not use his power.

Sean draws a picture of Chris levitating in front of the tree house. He writes an entry about Daniel breaking the first rule. He also wants to know what Chris was running away from, and if Charles saw anything.

Sean, Daniel, Stephen, and Claire decorate a Christmas tree next to the back door.

December 11 - Sean wakes up and sees a message on Daniel's Draw-a-lot board saying that he is over at the neighbor's house.

Sean realizes that Claire and Stephen are at church.

10:10 AM - This is the time on the clock in the kitchen at the Reynolds house this morning. It may be that this is unintended, or that Sean came down for breakfast at the exact same time yesterday. One thing that Sean does say is that Claire and Stephen aren't likely to be home for at least two more hours. In my experience as a church-going person, this is generally true, but not absolutely true. Church tends to let out around noon, give or take a little bit depending on what all happens during the sermon. This would most likely be the case for a smaller community church which Claire and Stephen are likely to attend. However, if the church is much larger, it's possible that there are two or more services that begin at different times. There are still other denominations that are likely to have longer services than what is typical. At one point, in the United States (decades ago) a church service could be an all-day function with short breaks for meal times.

Sean may log into social media or call Lyla on the phone.

Sean goes to pick up Daniel from the Eriksen house. He discovers that Daniel is helping Chris pretend that Chris actually has a superpower. In this way, Daniel has led Chris into believing a lie.

Charles comes out of the restroom and introduces himself to Sean and invites Sean to go with the Eriksens to the local Christmas market to shop for a tree.

Templarkommando

Charles asks for a little bit to clean out the back seat of his truck - presumably this refers to the bed of Charles pickup. Daniel goes to the restroom giving Sean and Chris a moment to get to know each other.

Chris quizzes Sean about which of his action figures are good or bad.

Daniel is excited to see the new issue of Hawt Dawg Man in Chris's bathroom.

If Sean correctly guesses the affiliations of the action figures, then Chris gives Sean an "Interstellar Traveller" figurine. He says that he gave the other to Daniel. Chris talks for a short while about the villains and introduces Mantroid - which is a portmanteau of the street corner that his mother - Emily - was killed on (Asteroid Drive and Mantle Street)

Sean can try to talk to Chris about Chris's relationship with Charles. Depending on choices, Chris may or may not trust Sean.

Sean, Daniel, Charles, and Chris get into Charles' truck and drive to the Christmas market.

After arriving, Daniel and Sean take a quick aside away from everyone else where Sean confronts Daniel about letting Chris believe that Chris has powers.

Daniel, Chris, and Charles pick out a Christmas tree.

Cassidy plays "I Found a Way" on her guitar at the Christmas market.

After Sean gets something for Daniel, Cassidy asks incredulously about what Sean could have possibly bought for Daniel here. She talks about how she and her friends have been staying in Beavercreek for the week and how they are on their way to Humboldt County, California. Sean remarks that this is for a "stoner break," but Cassidy says that they have actual jobs there.

Daniel interjects into the conversation and compliments Cassidy's hair and introduces himself. Cassidy asks for Sean's name. Sean tells her his name, but says he thought he told her.

Finn comes over and trades a few barbs with Cassidy, and talks about their dog before the man in the turquoise hoodie confronts them about loitering and their dog not being on a leash. Finn and Cassidy leave. Daniel suggests that he and Sean should teach the man in the hoodie a lesson.

Sean and Daniel leave the Christmas market with Charles and Chris to go back to the Eriksen's house.

Templarkommando

Charles speaks vaguely about the troubles that he's been dealing with in the last few years. Sean can attempt to get a little more information, and convince Charles to get some help for himself and Chris.

Charles and Chris race back to the Eriksen house.

Sean and Daniel re-enter the Reynolds house. Daniel tells Sean that he wants to have a look around Karen's room.

Sean and Daniel find a way to get into Karen's room. Sean and Daniel read a recent letter from Karen which Claire has been hiding. The letter says that Karen knows that Sean and Daniel are innocent and asks Claire and Stephen to please take care of Sean and Daniel if Sean and Daniel show up at the Reynolds house. Sean says that Karen's requests are total bullshit. Daniel disagrees and says that Karen cares about the Diaz brothers.

Claire enters Karen's room and confronts the Diaz brothers about their snooping. Stephen gets upset during the argument and goes downstairs. Claire, Sean, and Daniel continue arguing.

Stephen goes to his workshop and opens a cabinet. The cabinet falls on him. As Sean attempts to lift the cabinet off of Stephen, Stephen protests that it is hurting his legs. Sean can either attempt to lift the cabinet through mundane means - which will injure Stephen - or he can have Daniel use telekinesis to lift the cabinet safely.

An officer from the local (Clackamas County) Sheriff's Department rings the doorbell. He is looking for Sean and Daniel. He will explain how they know that Sean and Daniel are present. Claire covers for Sean and Daniel as they sneak out the back door.

Sean and Daniel sneak out the back door, and may or may not be chased by the Sheriff depending on in-game choices. If the Sheriff chases them, Chris may run into the street if Daniel has not yet revealed to him that Chris does not have telekinetic powers. Further, depending on still other choices, Daniel will either act to rescue Chris by using his power to divert the police car, or he will not use his power to save Chris, in which case, Chris will be hit by the officer.

Sean and Daniel later rest on a log and Daniel worries about the day's events. Sean may try to give Daniel Christmas presents early, but only if Daniel is not too upset by Chris's being hit by the Sheriff's car.

Sean and Daniel hop a train that is bound for Humboldt County, California. It seems likely that they do this on the banks of the Willamette River since it is close to Beavercreek, and there is a train track adjacent to the river.

At some point, Sean gets kicked off the ranch and only gets paid half of what he is owed.

January 22 - Sean writes in his journal that they met up with Cassidy and Finn and discovered that they work at a weed farm. He agrees to work with them.

Templarkommando

February 23/ February 15, 16/March 15, 16 - Sean writes in his journal that he had a few beers, and that Daniel wants to train more, but that they can't because they have to hide.

Life is Strange 2: Episode 3 - Wastelands begins

Sean wakes up in a tent. This takes place approximately 2 months after Beavercreek. February 23rd or 24th is about that time. There is some confusion here though. On the morning that Sean wakes up in episode 3 after the flashback to July 28, 2016, Jacob is trying to send a letter to his sister and asks whether it is the 15th or the 16th. It may be that he's asking about whether or not his sister's birthday is on either of these days though. My best guess is that this happens on February 23 or 24th.

Sean has coffee with some of the camp guests.

Sean finds Daniel and Finn practicing with throwing knives.

Finn asks Sean to try his skill at throwing knives at a target.

Big Joe honks to indicate that the work day at the marijuana farm is beginning. The camp boards the truck and goes to the farm a few minutes away.

The characters in the truck talk about Big Joe. Joe tells the group to stop talking.

Merril divides the group into workers and trimmers. Daniel tries to trade jobs with Penny. Merrill stops any job trading.

Sean, Daniel, Cassidy, Ingrid, and Hannah trim marijuana bud. Merrill makes some phone calls. Whoever he's talking to says that they want all of the work done by tonight.

After the workday is over, Big Joe drives the group back to camp. Sean and Finn talk about the day's events on the walk back to camp from the truck.

Daniel washes dishes. Sean carries two large water jugs from the water tank to the sink and the shower.

Sean assists Daniel in practicing Daniel's powers at a secluded spot near the lake. Daniel is angry at Sean because Sean is spending time with people other than Daniel. Daniel lifts a massive house-sized tree stump.

Sean and Daniel return to camp where a party is taking place.

Templarkommando

The group including Sean, Daniel, Cassidy, Finn, Penny, Hannah, Ander, Jacob and Ingrid sit around the campfire. Penny claims to see a UFO. Cassidy plays a song on her guitar about Thanksgiving.

Finn offers Sean a puff on his joint, and tells him to pass it to Cassidy.

The group shares their worst memories. Penny relates the story of Jinx, and how Jinx is now missing. Penny says that he thinks Jinx loved Penny. Jinx apparently went out one night while extremely high, and then disappeared mysteriously.

Jacob relates the story of when he lost his faith. He says that he was raised in Haven Point, Nevada. He talked about an amazing and intense lady pastor that people line up to listen to. Jacob says that for some reason things happened to him, and he began to doubt himself. This doubt escalated as he couldn't get the answers that he was looking for, and he subsequently left his faith community. He says that he is looking for the truth. He says that he doesn't plan to go back to Haven Point until he gets a signal from God.

Jacob asks Cassidy what her story is. Cassidy declines to relate this story to the group.

Finn asks Sean to share a bad memory, but mentions that he doesn't have to talk about the incident in Seattle.

Side-stepping the issue of bad memories, Finn decides to tell the group about his plans for a beach house in Costa Rica. Cassidy expresses doubts about Finn's plan, and suggests that people shouldn't be tied down to things because that can lead to missing out on things.

Daniel decides that he's tired, and Sean decides whether to stay up and get a haircut or go to bed.

~February 24th?

Sean wakes up late for work, and races to the truck.

Everyone works all day in a montage.

Sean, Daniel, Jacob, Cassidy, and Finn wait outside for their pay day. They discuss what they're going to spend their money on.

Ander and Ingrid exit the main building at the farm, and flash the aforementioned group the "okay" sign with their hands.

Merril invites Sean, Cassidy, Finn, and Jacob into the house.

Templarkommando

Daniel tries to go in with the rest, but Sean warns him off.

Merril evaluates the quality of the group's work.

Big Joe catches Daniel sneaking around in the living room of the main building.

Merril decides that Daniel needs a lesson, and that everyone needs a lesson. He decides not to pay the assembled trimmigrants. Merrill fires Sean and Daniel. He threatens them to not return or that Big Joe will hurt them.

Big Joe attempts to hurt Daniel in some way. Daniel uses telekinesis to lift a nearby weight to hit Big Joe in the head. Big Joe then demands to know who did it.

Daniel displays his power to the Jacob, Cassidy, and Finn by levitating a pine cone in an abandoned section of the forest. Jacob and Finn ask about where the power comes from. Sean swears the group to secrecy. Jacob says that the entire event blew his mind, and goes to bed.

As Cassidy, Sean, and Daniel start back to camp, Finn proposes a plan to break into Merrill's house and steal from him. Cassidy opposes this plan.

The camp hosts a going away party for Ingrid, Ander, Sean, and Daniel who are supposed to leave after tonight.

Finn proposes the plan to Sean a second time.

Ingrid and Anders are arguing over whether to go to Canada or Texas. Dialogue between Cassidy and Ingrid suggests that they may split-up and go their separate ways.

Cassidy asks if Sean wants a tattoo and invites Sean to go skinny dipping with her.

Daniel and Finn are part of a break-in attempt at Merrill's house. Depending on a few factors, Sean and/or Cassidy may be present.

Merril discovers the break-in and precipitates a hostage situation. Sean must decide how to resolve the situation. Varying outcomes may lead to Finn's death. Sean loses the use of his left eye.

After this, Jacob takes Daniel and secretly goes to see Reverend Lisbeth in Haven Point, Nevada - oddly, also in Humboldt County, just in Nevada rather than California. Jacob writes a note to Sean in Sean's sketch journal in the February 23rd entry. Jacob's note says that he borrowed a few things from Sean, and that he will return them when Sean comes looking for the superwolf comic.

The map that is present in episode 4 indicates that Sean arrives at Sacred Hope Hospital on February 25, but it seems likely that this was early in the morning. Sacred Hope Hospital seems to be in Redding California in Shasta County. It is shown to be north of Tehama County, and east of Trinity County, and it's along Interstate 5.

Life is Strange 2: Episode 4: Faith Begins

Templarkommando

Sean wakes up in a hospital bed in Northern California

Sean hits the call nurse call button. Joey brings a kit for cleaning Sean's eye wound and conducts a couple of depth perception tests. He also brings Sean a cookie.

Agent Maria Elena Flores of the FBI enters Sean's room, and asks Joey to leave while she interviews Sean.

Sean remarks to Flores that He has been telling her the same story for three weeks. This matches up fairly closely with the picture of Flores that Sean drew on April 3.

Flores asks Sean about the involvement of Finn in the event at Merrill's. She asks whose idea the heist was. She mentions that they are going to track down Karen.

Flores receives a phone call. This call is difficult to hear, but some enterprising souls on the net have transcribed the text of the call for us anyway. This call is from Flores's son. Flores explains to her son that he knows the rules, and he knew that she was going to be away for a while. She then tells her son to put his grandmother on the phone. The conversation then switches into Spanish as Flores speaks to her mother. In it, she says that her plane leaves tomorrow at 9 tomorrow night. Flores also expresses that she does not want her mother to fight with "him" - presumably Flores's son - over the issue of using the Playbox.

Flores returns from her call and she and Sean discuss leads that she may have about Daniel's whereabouts. She says that the bureau is searching for Daniel in four states.

Joey returns with Sean's cleaning kit. Joey shows Sean how to clean his eye. He tries to encourage Sean. Joey receives a page on his pager. He says that it's some kind of emergency. He also tells Sean to look at the towel that he brought which contains Sean's sketch journal.

Sean looks through his journal and discovers the message that Jacob left for him. Sean realizes that Jacob has taken Daniel to Haven Point, Nevada.

Sean waits until after dark and escapes from the hospital. Sean sneaks into the staff room to recover the things that were confiscated from him. He also grabs medical supplies for his eye.

Sean breaks into an unlocked car and hotwires it and drives east toward Haven Point, NV.

May 10

Sean is scheduled to be taken to Jolena Shore - which may be a city or a juvenile detention facility.

As morning dawns, Sean crosses the border into Nevada.

As night falls, Sean finds a place to camp in his car off the road in the desert. This is an odd occurrence. A cursory look at googlemaps reveals that a trip from Redding, CA to Humboldt County, NV takes between 6-7 hours. Given that Sean crossed into NV at about sunrise on April 26, 2017, making that crossing about 6:12 AM local time, Sean should have had plenty of time to get to Haven Point (a technically non-existent town) before sunset at 8:01 PM - 14 hours later. This isn't necessarily an inconsistency if Sean gets lost or spends time taking backroads to avoid police, but it does seem unnecessarily long. At a guess, Sean should have arrived in Haven Point between 7:28 AM - 11:01 AM if he had taken a mostly direct route - not getting lost or taking back roads.

9 PM - Agent Maria Elena Flores of the FBI's flight is scheduled to leave. It's unclear from where it departs and where it is going. The only guess about her destination is that it's wherever her son and mother live, so probably her home city. Flores's card indicates that she is a member of the Seattle division of the FBI.

Sean smokes on the hood of the stolen car.

Sean cleans his eye in the dim light of the hotwired car while looking in the rear view mirror.

Sean goes to sleep.

May 11 - Midnight is around this time. It may need to be moved forward or backward a few entries, but it's not exactly clear when this is.

Sean has a dream about driving down a desert highway with his father, Esteban. The car that is being driven is notably different from the hotwired car he is sleeping in. In the dream, Sean has both eyes. Esteban and Sean talk about the car, about Jenn, and then Esteban gets a call from Lyla who is apparently watching Daniel. Esteban puts the phone on speaker.

Esteban's dream talk with Sean is interrupted by Chad beating on Sean's window, telling him to wake up.

Chad demands to know why Sean is on his land.

Chad attempts to get Sean to admit to being a thief in Spanish. During the ensuing altercation, Chad's friend, Michael attempts to get Chad to stop antagonizing Sean.

Chad tells Sean to sing something and threatens to hurt Sean if he refuses.

Sean leaves in the hotwired car.

Sean's car runs out of gas. Morning dawns.

Templarkommando

Sean walks through the hot desert during daylight.

Sean stops under a billboard and rests in the shade.

Anton drives up in his semi-truck and offers Sean a ride.

Sean arrives in Haven Point

As Sean approaches the church, Sarah Lee Hackerman exits the church with her father, Robert Hackerman, who tells Sarah to let out all of the coughing she needs to do.

Sean enters the Church at Haven Point as Reverend Lisbeth Fischer delivers a sermon.

Sean listens to Lisbeth's sermon from the second floor balcony.

Rev. Fischer introduces Daniel, and invites Daniel to display his miraculous power to the assembled congregation to cheers and gasps of awe. Daniel follows Fischer's instructions and levitates the cross at the back of the church - causing it to hover forward toward the congregation before coming to a rest back in its original location. The sermon concludes.

Nicholas solicits donations from the congregation as Daniel and Lisbeth exit to the back.

Sean sits with his back against the balcony guard rail.

After a short time passes as Sean thinks, he is greeted by Sarah Lee Hackerman who sees him as she carries an arm full of Bibles up the stairs. Sarah and Sean talk, but Sarah quickly breaks into a coughing fit - dropping her Bibles. Sean asks her if she needs some water.

Sean and Sarah Lee stack Bibles in the book case, as she asks Sean about his eye. Sean asks Sarah about whether she received Jacob's letter.

Sarah takes Sean to see Daniel.

As Sean and Sarah enter the sanctuary proper to find Daniel, Lisbeth tells Daniel that he is the living proof of the congregation's faith. Daniel sees Sean and runs to hug him. Daniel tries to explain the circumstances around the incident at Merrill's farm. Sean comforts Daniel, and tells him that it's okay. Daniel invites Sean to stay at the church compound. Sean says that they need to go to Puerto Lobos. Daniel disagrees.

Lisbeth is introduced by Daniel. Lisbeth tells Sarah and Daniel to go get the medicine kit so that they may take care of Sean.

Templarkommando

Once Sarah and Daniel leave, Lisbeth mentions that Sean has sinned in some way that requires penance before Sean and Daniel can be together. This angers Sean. Lisbeth tells Sean that they should ask Daniel what he wants to do and tries to manhandle Sean. Sean pushes Lisbeth onto the ground and out of the way.

This results in Lisbeth getting a bloody nose, and she blames Sean for spilling blood in the Lord's House. It seems likely that Lisbeth may have assisted in injuring herself in order to bloody her own nose to bring blame on Sean, but this isn't entirely clear. Daniel and Sarah re-enter and Daniel demands to know what happened.

Nicholas enters from the church foyer as Lisbeth accuses Sean of acting badly. Daniel agrees with Lisbeth and promises to pray for Sean. Sean attempts to take Daniel with him, but Daniel refuses to leave. Nicholas sneaks up behind Sean - placing him in a choke-hold - and forces him out of the church. Sarah breaks down in another coughing fit.

Nicholas throws Sean on the ground outside of the church's fence and tells him to never return. Nicholas threatens to shoot Sean with a pistol.

As Nicholas strolls back into the church, Karen Diaz taps Sean on the shoulder. Karen tells Sean that he won't get Daniel back by pounding on the chain link fence and shouting for Daniel.

Karen asks about Sean's eye. Sean doesn't answer, and instead asks to know why Karen is there. Karen says that she got a letter from Jacob apprising her of Daniel's situation.

Karen and Sean drive back to Karen's motel room at the Sand Snake Motel.

Sean takes a shower.

Sean finds the number for Jacob's phone along with Karen's note. Sean calls Jacob. Jacob says that he can't talk, but Sean asks for a time to talk. They agree to meet tomorrow at 4 PM on Brandy Highway at a junction just above Haven Point. Beneath a Wild Mice Ranch billboard. Jacob hangs up on Sean.

Sean waits for Karen on the bed. Karen returns and apologizes for taking so long. She gives Sean a cheeseburger.

Karen chides Sean for eating too quickly. Sean backtalks her sarcastically saying "Like you care." The two argue about their relationship. Karen relents, and changes the subject back to rescuing Daniel. Sean is still angry with her, so to try to calm the situation, Karen offers to answer any of Sean's questions about what she has done since leaving the boys and Esteban.

Sean leaves to go outside and "get some air." Karen follows him shortly thereafter.

Templarkommando

Karen offers to answer more questions for Sean.

Karen lights a cigarette.

Sean and Karen go back inside. Sean begins cleaning his eye.

Karen points out that they need to work as a team. She also shows Sean that she purchased walkie talkies so they can keep in contact.

Karen offers to help clean Sean's eye. Karen gives Sean a black eyepatch.

May 12

4 PM Sean and Karen wait for Jacob to arrive.

Karen expresses a desire to punch all of the assholes in the face that got in Sean and Daniel's way.

Sean and Karen meet with Jacob on Brandy Highway above Haven Point under the Wild Mice Ranch Billboard.

Jacob explains that he and Daniel were scared about the event at Merrill's, and so they grabbed some things, and left as quickly as they could.

Sean expresses his resolve in rescuing Daniel. Karen enters the conversation. The three hatch a plan to rescue Daniel. Jacob insists that they rescue Sarah Lee as well. Jacob plans to get Sarah Lee's medical record because Lisbeth knows what is wrong with her.

Sean, Karen, and Jacob drive to the outside of the church. Somewhere along the way, Sean gets into the car with Jacob as they both arrive in Jacob's car. Karen's car cannot be seen at this point.

Karen gets to a vantage point overlooking the entire compound before the scene begins.

Sean and Jacob attempt to sneak into Lisbeth Fischer's house.

Jacob attempts to enter the room with the files that Lisbeth keeps on her parishioners and finds it locked. Sean and Jacob search for a way to enter the room.

Upon entering the record room, they find Sarah Lee's records. Sarah Lee's records indicate that she has pneumonia.

Templarkommando

Sean finds Jacob's record. That record indicates that Jacob underwent conversion therapy for his homosexuality. He says that the congregation thought that he was a freak. Jacob says that this maltreatment by the congregation caused him depression and paranoia.

Karen calls Sean on the walkie talkie and says that Nicholas is on the way to Lisbeth's cabin. She offers to make a distraction to help Sean and Jacob escape.

Jacob says that they need to hide.

Nicholas enters the record room.

Nicholas leaves the record room.

Sean leaves Lisbeth's house.

Jacob goes to rescue Sarahl.

Karen and Sean enter the church.

Lisbeth prays over Daniel while Daniel levitates lit candles around them.

Daniel notices Sean.

Sean asks Daniel to leave with him and Karen.

Lisbeth offers Sean the chance to join the cult. Sean refuses.

Lisbeth and Daniel tell Sean that they are a family. Karen tells Daniel that Lisbeth is not his family, but that she is. Daniel asks who Karen is. Sean introduces Karen as their mother and explains that Karen came to Haven Point to rescue him.

Lisbeth tries to attribute Karen's arrival to the miraculous. Sean, Karen, Daniel, and Lisbeth argue. Karen apologizes to Daniel for hurting him by leaving.

Lisbeth puts the decision to Daniel on whether to stay or leave. Daniel is confused.

Sean attempts to take Daniel with him. Daniel telekinetically pushes Sean back. Karen checks to see if Sean is okay. Karen helps Sean up, and tells him that Sean can convince Daniel to leave. Sean tells Daniel that he is not going to leave Daniel alone.

Sean attempts to convince Daniel to leave. Curtains catch fire in the corner of the church dais.

Templarkommando

Nicholas pushes Sean and tells him to back off. Sean disregards Nicholas's warning. Nicholas pushes Sean who gets knocked down, but he gets up again. They're never going to keep him down.

He gets knocked down, but he gets up again. They're never going to keep him down.

He gets knocked down, but he gets up again. They're never going to keep him down.

He gets knocked down, but he gets up again. They're never going to keep him down.

He gets knocked down, but he gets up again. They're never going to keep him down.

Nicholas points his gun at Sean and threatens to kill him. Sean tells him that if Nicholas is going to kill him, then he should do it, and that Sean is not afraid. Lisbeth tells Nicholas to shoot Sean.

Daniel intervenes and stops Nicholas by telekinetically flinging him to the side. Nicholas's gun flies in the opposite direction as Nicholas.

As the church is engulfed in flames, Lisbeth attempts to block the way by locking the door. Daniel responds by trying to kill her. Daniel blasts open the door, and he, Sean, and Karen leave.

Sean, Daniel, Karen, Jacob, and Sarah Lee all meet back beneath the billboard which they met under earlier to plan the rescue.

Karen, Sean, and Daniel drive off.

June 25-30 During L2.5, Sean recalls that Karen told her she got a rattlesnake out of the toilet last week. He notes this when looking at the "rattlesnake clamp" on July 2. This is presumably the week that Karen gets the snake out of the toilet.

Sean makes a journal entry. He says that Daniel is still having nightmares about Haven Point and that Sean needs to find a way to help Daniel process this.

The opening of L2.5 says that the episode begins 7 weeks after the events of Haven Point. This is technically 49 days after May 12 - the last day that Sean and Daniel are in Haven Point. Context clues indicate that this is an approximate passage of time, and that L2.5 actually begins on July 2nd.

10:16 (not known if AM or PM, but probably AM) Karen receives an email from Ariane Klein - the manager of Desert Life Weekly - thanking her for her latest advice column. A text interchange takes place between Steph Gingrich and Gabe Chen today. Gabe observes that if he were Steph, that he wouldn't bet his future on a game that he sucked that much at. March 26

A text interchange between Gabe Chen and Steph Gingrich takes place today. Gabe tells Steph to "break a leg kid" - a way that theater nerds wish each other luck before a performance. This takes place not long before Steph enters the sound booth to begin her first day working at KRCT - Haven Springs, Colorado's number one station for independent rock... also its only station for independent rock.

Life is Strange: True Colors: Wavelengths begins

Steph Gingrich enters the radio booth at the KRCT station in Haven Springs, CO. She replays her job interview in her mind as she examines the radio equipment. As Steph fumbles her way with the booth controls, she smacks into the microphone. As Steph recalls the interview, the interviewer runs through Steph's qualifications and former experience with sound equipment, and then asks why Steph quit her band to work at a small town radio station. The interviewer gives Steph the job in her recollection.

Templarkommando

Steph reviews her task list for her first day. She introduces herself and then investigates the auto-play list. After some disappointment with the available offerings, and reading an ad or three, Steph sits down on the booth's couch and fills out her dating profile.

2:55 PM - This is the time on the radio station's sound booth clock when Steph exits in search of tasks to do in the record store.

Mikey North sends a text to Steph Gingrich today asking whether or not she received the package he sent. Steph opens Mikey's package - revealing an assortment of tabletop role playing game stuff. She then selects a new campaign to play with Mikey.

Mikey then asks Steph her thoughts about the GM stuff that was sent. Steph has the option to reply to his text here, but doesn't respond necessarily.

KRCT receives a call from Danny and his now ex-girlfriend that Steph deduced were on a path to breakup. The girlfriend is now certain that Steph is a psychic. Danny's ex-girlfriend now asks Steph about the outcome of her college choices in relation to her BFF Tara, and asks Steph to foretell the future. In order to assist her in telling the future, Steph goes and gets her newly recovered D20.

Gabe Chen texts Steph to tell her that she's doing well at her new job and asks her to call her toward the end of her shift for a debrief. Steph can respond via text here, but doesn't necessarily.

Steph Gingrich calls Gabe Chen. Steph complains that the job that Gabe got her is like 4 jobs and that she's not even qualified for one. Gabe then mentions that Steph is actually on the air as she's saying this. Steph plays this off as an advertisement gimmick with their sponsor partner: puttworkcolorado.com.

Gabe then asks if Steph has had a rough first day.

The first portion of Wavelengths cuts off here, and continues on June 30, 2018.

April 3

Ryan Lucan sends a text to Steph Gingrich letting her know that this is his phone number. He says that it will be nice to feel like he's not third-wheeling with Gabe and Charlotte. Steph says that they will both be third-wheeling with Gabe and Charlotte.

June 21

10:16 PM - 10:43 PM Isaac from the record store sends three texts to Alex Chen to invite her on a drink date after no text communication since March 16th. Alex does not respond.

June 30

Wavelengths jumps to this date from its wrap up on 3/26/18

2:55 PM - It seems that the clock in the booth at KRCT is probably dead, since it's the exact same time as it was on 3/26/18. Failing that, it's the same time, because Steph's schedule has stayed more or less the same.

In the booth of KRCT in Haven Springs, CO, Steph Gingrich finishes an announcement that this is the last day of June meaning one more day to celebrate PRIDE. She plugs the Silver

Templarkommando

Dragon's discount for donations toward the PRIDE Mural. She also makes a sarcastic prediction of answering calls during the upcoming show.

Steph leans into an oscillating fan's breeze to escape the summer heat. Steph takes a call from a distraught father who is concerned about the way that he has treated his son Grady when Grady came out. The distraught father puts in a song request for "Feelings" by Hayley Kiyoko.

Steph observes to herself that the record with "Feelings" is likely somewhere in the back room.

Steph packs up the record store's PRIDE decorations. As she does so, she remembers memories from past PRIDE celebrations.

Wavelengths breaks off here and jumps forward to October

October 7 (A copy of this event happens for the other timeline on October 11 because each day is the anniversary of the trauma in question either Chloe's murder, or the Storm).

Templarkommando

2:55 - Again, the clock in the radio booth seems to be broken, or it's just that Steph has a regular schedule. Either way, this is the time on the clock in the KRCT sound booth when Wavelengths picks back up today.

Steph remembers a conversation that she had with Gabe about being able to talk about anything. Gabe seems to be picking up on Steph's latent emotional trauma from the events of LiS 1. In the memory, Steph declines to talk about it. As Steph finishes the memory, the record ends, and Steph pulls herself out of her reverie to make a radio announcement. As Steph wraps up her on air commentary, Mikey North makes a phone call to Steph, which Steph declines.

Steph does a few chores around the record store - as she does so, she begins to have vivid audial memories of the events of LiS 1.

Steph closes up the sound booth at KRCT and calls Gabe to go drinking with him. As she hangs up, she receives another call from Mikey North. This time she calls Mikey back after reading an email from him.

Later, Steph hangs out with Mikey online as the two play a Tabletop RPG. As they play, they talk about their collective trauma. Steph asks how it is that Mikey didn't go away after she ghosted him. They continue their game.

Wavelengths jumps from this point to December 31, 2018.

October 8

Steph Gingrich texts Mikey to thank him for talking sense into her the night before.

October 11 (A copy of this event happens for the other timeline on October 7 because that was the day of Chloe's murder in the other timeline. In this timeline, this is the anniversary of the Storm)

October 31

The Haven Springs High School senior class holds an unofficial Halloween party at the old Typhon Mine in Haven Springs, Colorado. Leftovers from this party are still visible in April of 2019 including a rubber zombie wearing a T-Shirt which commemorates this day. Beer and cigarettes are evidently consumed at this party and a bonfire is lit if the leftover debris gives any indication.

November 10

Mikey North texts Steph about their Tabletop campaign.

November 11

Ethan Lambert texts Steph Gingrich to let her know that he is finished with his most recent issue. (Presumably, a Thaynor comic.)

Templarkommando

November 24

A printed email in Gabe's apartment's desk drawer from Anita Morales was received by Gabe on this day. The email says that the Morales family doesn't know where Alex Chen has gone, but that Gabe should contact Oregon's Child Protective services for which a number is provided.

Mikey North texts Steph Gingrich to ask how life is in Haven Springs, and if Steph is still thinking about leaving. Steph says that she's starting to like Haven Springs.

Life is Strange: True Colors: Wavelengths cuts forward to 4/28/19 just before 5:35 PM.

2019 -

January 19

10:14 PM - The file in Gabe's desk drawer in his apartment bears this time stamp for 1/19/2018 22:14. At a guess, this is when Gabe prints off this paper which bears an image and phone number of Loretta Vance who is a Program Manager of Child Welfare for Oregon's Department of Human Services Child Welfare Office in Portland, OR. Notes that Gabe has made indicate that Vance was unable to release (probably Alex's) location. Gabe has a list on this page of three group homes and a note which indicates that Alex was placed in a group home in Portland. He has crossed out two of these group homes, and has circled the Helping Hands Group Home which Alex was staying in.

February 27

2:21 AM - 2:25 AM - Gabe Chen drunk texts Alex Chen to ask if she would ever want to live in Haven Springs. Gabe's attempts to text Alex are frustrated by his inebriation as well as his cell phone's autocorrect which causes him to refer to Alex as "Alien" and renders one of his following messages as "DUCK!" Alex asks whether Gabe has been drinking, and advises Gabe to go to sleep.

10:43 AM - 10:45 AM - Gabe Chen sends two texts to Alex Chen. The first expressing dismay at his apparent drunk texts from early this morning, and the second explaining that the offer to let Alex come to Haven Springs still stands. Alex does not immediately respond to Gabe for a couple of weeks - until 3/16/2019, and even then, does not answer Gabe's question directly.

February 28

3:10 PM - 6:22 PM - Alex Chen sends a text to Mariela asking if she is there. Alex follows this up with a text saying that Mariela shouldn't be coy because Alex has seen Mariela naked. Mariela does not respond.

7:00 PM - 7:16 PM - Alex Chen sends a text to Isaac from the record store asking for a place to sleep in exchange for beer. This is Alex's first text back to Isaac in about 11 months. Isaac seems to be sending subtle hints here that her crashing on the couch will imply something other than slumber and beer. He does acquiesce to letting her stay the night though.

March 1

10:15 AM - Alex Chen blocks Isaac from the record store from texting her.

Templarkommando

10:37 AM - 11:07 AM Alex Chen sends a text to Chelsea (probably Alex's foster sibling) explaining that Alex is going to be moving in with her brother Gabe in Haven Springs, Colorado. Chelsea expresses well wishes and asks to hear more about it from Alex this coming weekend. This is the latest text in Alex's phone during her meeting with Dr. Lynn.

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 1: Side A Begins

- The exact day that Chapter 1 begins on is a bit elusive in the timeline. Alex and Chelsea exchange texts on April 5 - the last text being sent at 11:07 AM. The next text message that Alex receives is the one from Gabe Chen on April 27 at 1:42 PM. So, Chapter 1 begins at any time between April 5, 2019 at 11:07 AM and April 27, 2019 at 1:42 PM. That said, the 27th of April is a Saturday. Given that business hours are usually from 8 AM - 5 PM on weekdays, I don't think Alex's exit-interview from the group home with Dr. Lynn happens on the 27th, but Friday the 26th seems like a good possibility, but then again, so does every weekday between April 5 and April 27. That's as much as I have the start narrowed down at this point.

Alex Chen attends an exit interview with Dr. Lynn. Dr. Lynn asks if Gabe Chen is aware of Alex's "issues." Alex is evasive and asks if this is an official question. Dr. Lynn says that she is asking this question out of concern for Alex.

April 24

10:32 AM - Jake Asher from the Colorado Department of Land and Resources sends an email to Diane Jacobs. The email notes that an inspection is set for 4/30/2019 for the decommissioned coal shaft and another inspection is set for 5/3/2019 for the active uranium pit.

1:42 PM - 1:49 PM - Gabe Chen sends a text to Alex Chen saying that tomorrow is the "big day" (presumably, Alex's move-in day in Haven Springs) This is the earliest text in Alex's phone since she received the text from Chelsea on April 5th.

3:41 PM - A miner at Typhon mining places a call to Highbelt Plumbing about a sewage issue at the site. He notes that last week's repairs do not seem to have been adequate, and that the problem is still ongoing.

Sometime after closing the Black Lantern, Duckie and Gabe go upstairs with Duckie's rye whiskey to continue carousing. During this time, someone -probably Gabe takes a polaroid photo of Duckie who has fallen asleep on the couch.

April 28

Gabe takes Alex to the florist as the first stop on Alex's introductory tour of Haven Springs so that Gabe can buy make-up flowers for Charlotte. Gabe introduces Alex to Riley. Riley asks Alex about how to answer the "biggest weakness" question from Riley's University interview preparation.

Alex helps Gabe decide between getting sunflowers or lily-of-the-valley as make-up flowers for Charlotte.

Alex and Gabe arrive at the Silver Dragon which is a cannabis dispensary and Charlotte's place of work. Gabe goes in to make up with Charlotte. He promises to introduce Alex properly later once he has smoothed things over.

Ethan walks up and tells Alex that Gabe will likely be in the store longer than a minute. Ethan introduces himself and explains that he is Charlotte's son. Alex and Ethan bond over their mutual love of Ninth Warden comics. Ethan offers to let Alex see the comic that he is making.

As Ethan gives Alex a copy of Thaynor #5, Alex notices that Ethan's bag has an assortment of camping supplies in it. Alex asks if Ethan is going camping, and Alex explains that he is going to go explore the mines. Ethan realizes he shouldn't have told Alex about his exploring plans.

Life is Strange Wavelengths picks back up around this time for just a moment.

Steph role plays an imaginary sword fight in the KRCT soundbooth.

As the most recent song ends, Steph asks to hear from listeners on KRCT. Steph takes a call from a disappointed caller who is upset that Steph no longer tells fortunes. She then reads an email from a listener who inquires about Valkyrie the Cat.

Steph plays a new release from "The Wednesday" and scans the internet for DJ job listings in Seattle, WA.

Alex enters Rocky Mountain Record Traders. Alex observes Steph Gingrich in the KRCT radio sound booth. Seconds later, Steph sees Alex, and holds up the Zombie Parade and Unicorn Sandwich albums implying that Alex should choose between them. Steph then introduces Alex's choice of song over the radio.

Life is Strange: True Colors: Wavelengths concludes

Ryan Lucan approaches Alex from the front of the store, and apologizes, saying that the store is closed, but that it's confusing, since it's obviously open. Ryan then realizes who Alex is and introduces himself. Alex explains that she's looking for a present for Gabe, and Ryan tries to help by beginning a search for the hold list so that Alex will know what to get for Gabe as a present.

5:35 PM - Gabe sends a picture of Charlotte and himself to Alex. Gabe declares himself the "WORLD's OKAYEST BOYFRIEND." During this series of texts, Gabe explains that he also invited Alex to their neighborhood on "Myblock" which is some kind of social media site.

Alex finds the hold list beneath Valkyrie the Cat. Alex and Ryan search for a way to get Valkyrie away from the hold list. Together they find a toy, and Alex lure Valkyrie off the hold list.

Gabe makes a post to MyBlock declaring that there will be free drinks tonight at the Black Lantern to celebrate his sister's arrival in town. Jed Lucan immediately dispels this rumor explaining that drinks will not be free.

Ryan takes $20 for Alex's purchase of Kings of Leon - the record that Gabe placed on the hold list.

Steph Gingrich exits the sound booth with a red aura. She argues with someone on the phone about whether she can leave work to take care of something else, since she's at work. Ryan offers to watch the booth for her, which noticeably cools Steph's anger. As she leaves, she remarks that "organizing a LARP shouldn't be this hard."

Gabe Chen enters the record store.

5:38 PM - Steph sends a text to Alex apologizing for her need to leave so quickly and expresses her eagerness to meet Alex for real at the Lantern this evening.

Ryan mentions that Mac Loudon really wants to talk to Gabe. Gabe then realizes that he should leave as his shift at the Black Lantern begins in twenty minutes.

Alex decides whether to tell Gabe about Ethan's plans to explore the mines.

Gabe introduces Alex to Jed Lucan - the owner of the Black Lantern. Jed warns Gabe about Mac's suspicion of an affair between Gabe and Riley. He doesn't mention the reasons for this in full with Alex present though.

Templarkommando

Alex and Gabe enter the Black Lantern - quickly moving upstairs so that Alex can get settled into her new apartment above the bar.

Gabe puts on the Kings of Leon record that Alex got for him as a gift. Gabe plays "air drums" and tosses a broom to Alex which is intended as an air guitar.

Mac Loudon interrupts Alex and Gabe's jam session by knocking at the door to confront Gabe about the time that he has been spending with Riley. Gabe denies sleeping with Riley.

As Mac Loudon assaults Gabe Chen, Alex Chen's sensitivity to emotions kicks in and she channels Mac Loudon's rage into assaulting Mac. Alex beats Mac about the head causing numerous bruises.

Gabe pulls Alex off of Mac Loudon, but in her frenzied state, the overflow of her anger causes her to strike Gabe on the jaw.

Mac accuses Alex of being psychotic, tells Gabe and Alex to commit an impossible act with themselves and storms downstairs to the bar.

Alex apologizes for accidentally hitting Gabe. Gabe says that Alex shouldn't worry about it, but seems to still be angry as he storms into the bathroom and slams the door. A moment later, Gabe returns from the bathroom, and Alex tries to apologize again, and Gabe forgives her more calmly and explains that he must now begin his shift.

Alex cleans herself up at the bathroom sink.

Alex unpacks her duffle bag in the apartment of the Black Lantern. Alex adds her latest meltdown to her journal. This meltdown refers to the one she had just now with Mac Loudon.

Alex decides to finish unpacking later. As she kicks her bag beneath the bed, she discovers a guitar which Gabe has got for her. Alex tunes her guitar and begins to tearfully play the song "Creep" by Radiohead. She replaces the guitar in the case, and starts down stairs intending to set things right with Gabe.

Gabe and Ryan depart the Black Lantern in search of first aid supplies. Alex and Charlotte meet and talk about Alex's arrival in Haven Springs.

Jed gives Charlotte a beef pie special with light gravy - since he knows that Charlotte has been skipping dinner according to Ryan. He insists there will be no starving artists on his watch.

Charlotte leaves the Black Lantern to finish some pieces of art for the Spring Festival.

Templarkommando

Jed mentions that he is short staffed. He mentions Gabe's phony story about Alex working in a restaurant before, implying a job offer. Alex decides whether to go along with Gabe's story or not. Regardless of any confessions on Alex's part, Jed offers Alex a job. Alex accepts.

Jed directs Alex to check on Steph, Diane, and Duckie (Reginald McAllister III) in addition to clearing off a table near Mac in the back room of the Black Lantern.

Alex decides whether or not to call Mac out on his lie to Riley about Gabe starting the fight

Deputy Pike jokes to Alex Chen that after witnessing the altercation between Gabe and Mac, that he needs to question her. He then offers to buy her a drink after explaining that he and Gabe spend a lot of time pranking each other.

Alex Chen returns from doing her assigned tasks, and asks Jed if there is anything else. Jed Lucan says there is nothing else to worry about, and that Gabe and Ryan should be returning at any moment. Gabe Chen and Ryan Lucan immediately walk back into the Black Lantern.

Gabe asks to speak to Alex on the roof of the Black Lantern.

~7:00 PM - The Typhon Mining Myblock account makes a post which gives a two hour warning until the mining explosives will be detonated. The time is approximate since none of the posts on Myblock have an actual timestamp on them.

Alex Chen goes to the roof of the Black Lantern to speak with Gabe. Alex tries to apologize again for hitting Gabe. Gabe responds by telling Alex that he is fine. Gabe prompts Alex to open up a little about what's going on in her life - he feels that more is going on than meets the eye.

Alex decides whether to explain the fight with Mac Loudon in terms of her past or by opening up about her power and the drawbacks thereof.

Alex and Gabe share a heartfelt conversation on the roof of the Black Lantern.

Ryan walks out on the roof of the Black Lantern. He is looking for Ethan and asks Gabe if he knows where Ethan is.

Gabe and Alex Chen, and Ryan Lucan head up to the mines in search of Ethan.

7:48 PM - Duckie (Reginald McAllister III) sends a text to Alex Chen expressing his pleasure at meeting her.

Gabe and Alex Chen, and Ryan Lucan arrive at the mines outside of Haven Springs, CO.

Gabe Chen makes a phone call. He seems to be having trouble getting a response.

8:41 PM - Shortly after Alex hears Gabe Chen having trouble getting through to the Typhon safety team, Gabe manages to connect a call where he speaks to Mac Loudon and informs him of the situation with Ethan. Mac promises to halt the detonations.

Ryan Lucan and Alex Chen enter the mining complex through a hole in the wall that was caused by a tree which fell some time ago. Gabe follows not long after. He reports that he touched base with the safety team at the site who are going to postpone the blast until Ethan has been found. Alex does not technically hear this call take place.

8:43 PM - Diane Jacobs calls Leena Clark at Typhon HQ to inform her of the situation with Ethan at the pit. Leena explains that this decision is Diane's but she explains that failing to proceed with the blast will have major consequences for Typhon which will be in jeopardy if "Rhea" is discovered. "Rhea" refers to the circumstances of the cave-in incident in which Jed Lucan is credited with rescuing a number of trapped miners on his team.

Ryan Lucan, Alex Chen, and Gabe Chen gather near the locked mine entrance. Gabe mentions that Jed Lucan rescued a team of miners after a mine collapse here.

Alex Chen notices the similarities between Ethan's Thaynor #5 comic and the entrance to the mine's wrought iron gate with the Typhon logo overhead. She hypothesizes that Ethan based his comic on the mine, and that this may help them find Ethan. She points out these similarities to Ryan and Gabe.

Following clues from the Thaynor #5 comic, Alex and Ryan find their way into the main building of the mining complex. Alex then moves a sheet of corrugated metal to clear her way up the stairs. Alex opens the rear door of the silo of the main mining building. Alex and Ryan exit the building to discover that Gabe is already waiting for them on the outside. Gabe explains that "you never forget how to break a lock, it's like riding a bike." Implying that Gabe broke a lock to get to the rear portion of the building.

Alex discovers Ethan's destination after climbing to the top of the silo at the mining facility. Ryan notes that this destination is by the ravine.

As Alex, Gabe, and Ryan approach the ravine while looking for Ethan, Alex follows the purple glow of Ethan's fear in order to find him. Alex calls out to Ethan, Ethan responds that he is scared.

Ryan attempts to cross the ravine to rescue Ethan. The fallen tree which bridges the ravine begins to crack, causing Ryan to abandon his attempt. Alex worries that being too close to Ethan's fear could cause her to have another emotional episode like the one she had earlier with Mac Loudon.

Despite Alex's concerns, she allows Ryan to tie her into a harness with Gabe belaying. This ties siblings together.

Alex crosses the ravine in order to rescue Ethan. She tries to calm Ethan down. Alex reads Ethan's emotions in a way which causes her to see the world around them as Ethan does. Alex realizes that Ethan is afraid of a monster which he imagines is at the bottom of the ravine. Alex talks Ethan into crossing back over the ravine. Alex and Ethan return to the safe side of the ravine.

9:00 PM - A detonation of mining explosives is scheduled for this time at the Typhon mining pit. A siren blares briefly just before the detonation. This detonation takes place simultaneously with a second detonation at another site known as the Rhea site. The duplicity of mining detonations is undertaken in order to cover up the facts of the Rhea tunnel collapse several years ago. As a result of this blast, Gabe Chen is knocked into a ravine where he is suspended only by the safety line which connects him to Alex. Gabe's weight begins pulling Alex Chen into the ravine after him. To prevent Alex from being hurt, Ryan Lucan cuts the safety line which connects Gabe and Alex Chen. Because of this, Gabe Chen falls to his death.

21:32 (9:32 PM) - Jacobs_RheaReport on Diane's USB drive reports that this is the exact time of the blast. When clicking on the time, Alex notes that this is the precise time of the blast that killed Gabe. The apparent inconsistency is likely explained by the difference between when the event was scheduled, and when the miners actually managed to make the blast happen.

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 1: Side A concludes

9:42 PM - Diane Jacobs sends an email to Leena Clark blaming her for Gabe's death. Diane says that she's not going down for this since this isn't Diane's fault.

10:03 PM - Leena Clark sends a reply to Diane Jacobs' previous email. She says that she will overlook Diane's accusations since Leena thinks that Diane is just being emotional about the accident. Leena suggests that Diane take the night to cool off and that Leena will call in the morning and they will decide how to move forward.

April 29

6:31 AM - Diane Jacobs calls Leena Clark (presumably a higher ranking executive for Typhon Mining). During this call, Leena heavily implies that Diane will be scapegoated and blamed for the mining accident if the full story of Gabe's death becomes public knowledge. Leena convinces Diane to keep Mac Loudon in line in order to keep the story from breaking.

Templarkommando

7:08 AM - Diane Jacobs calls an investigator named Bennet of H + B Investigations. Bennet directs Diane to come by the office with details of the employee that is to be investigated. This call is presumably in reference to Mac Loudon. Diane says that she will come by tomorrow.

11:02 AM - Steph Gingrich texts Alex Chen expressing her condolences to Alex and asking if there is anything she can do to help, if Alex would let her know.

2:38 PM - Diane Jacobs receives a call from Deputy Jason Pike of the Haven Sheriff Department. Jason notes that Typhon is officially cleared to continue regular operation of the mining pit. He also notes that Typhon hasn't been cleared of any charges, but only that mining may continue.

3:14 PM - Diane Jacobs receives a call from Joe from StickToItIve Hiring in regard to a list of candidates for jobs for when the Typhon expansion goes through. Joe expresses worried to Diane about the certainty of these jobs in light of the recent accident involving Gabe. Diane smooths over Joe's worries promising that if the candidates are qualified, then she has jobs for them.

A file on Diane's USB drive notes that an agent from H+B investigations follows Mac to Gabe's wake.

8:26 AM - Alex texts Jed to thank him, and to let him know that she will be down for Gabe's memorial. Jed texts back to say that he's glad she will be able to make it.

9:00 AM - The memorial service for Gabe Chen begins at the Black Lantern Bar a few moments before Chapter 2 begins.

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 2: Lanterns begins

Friends of Gabe Chen tearfully recount cherished memories from his life.

Ryan Lucan and Mac Loudon fight over whether Gabe Chen called in to the Typhon safety team to get the detonations stopped. Alex Chen decides whether to back up Ryan's story about Gabe's call since she didn't technically hear the actual call, but did hear Gabe trying to make the call.

Jed Lucan attempts to de-escalate the fight between Ryan and Mac. As the fight between Ryan and Mac continues, Charlotte angrily interjects and explains that Gabe's memorial service is neither the time or place to sort out the blame for Gabe's death. Ryan begins to stammer, and finally says that he is not responsible for Gabe's death. Mac blames Ryan for Gabe's death. The fight re-escalates. Alex leaves the memorial service and heads up to the apartment. As the fight tries to continue, Jed calls an end to the memorial service and kicks everyone out of the bar. Alex Chen retreats to her room to try to calm down after being in the presence of such strong emotions.

An agent from H + B Investigations follows Mac Loudon to Lethe Flowers.

Mac Loudon asks Riley Lethe to leave Haven Springs with him. According to Riley, this happens right after the wake.

Templarkommando

Steph follows Alex up the stairs not long thereafter. After being greeted by Alex, Steph comforts Alex by hurling brief invective at Mac and Ryan for causing trouble at her brother's wake. She then asks how Alex is.

Alex invites Steph in. Steph notices Alex's guitar and asks if Alex plays. Steph reminisces about the past with Gabe, eventually noticing the "foosball trophy" which she seems surprised that Gabe kept. Steph is overcome with a blue sadness/anguish aura and she tearfully stares out the window. Steph says that she needs a minute.

Alex hypothesizes that she could potentially help Steph in the same way that she helped Ethan by seeing Steph's emotions. She then follows through on this plan.

After seeing some of what's bothering Steph, Alex challenges Steph to a game of foosball.

Now cheered up, Steph asks what Alex thinks about Mac's story, and whether she thinks that Mac is lying. Steph Gingrich heads back to work at the record store.

Alex goes back downstairs. She is quickly met by Jed who apologizes for the drama that occurred at Gabe's wake. He asks Alex not to pin all of her hopes for the investigation on Mac Loudon and suggests that she should speak to Charlotte at the dispensary who has been looking for Alex. He then gives Alex a key to the second floor apartment above the Black Lantern, and to the Black Lantern's main door.

11:04 AM - Alex Chen receives a text message from Ryan Lucan who apologizes for his part in the drama at the wake. He also asks to speak to Alex.

Alex leaves the Black Lantern.

11:10 AM - Charlotte sends a text to Alex Chen asking her to drop by the dispensary.

11:12 AM - Steph texts Alex Chen to ask her to stop by the record store.

Alex Chen visits the flower shop to look for Mac Loudon. Eleanor says that Mac left not long ago, and as Alex starts to leave, she notices that Eleanor is worried about her failing memory and whether Riley will discover it. Alex attempts to help Eleanor.

Alex decides whether to remind Eleanor about Gabe's wake or not.

Alex Chen confronts Mac Loudon on the bridge near the flower shop. Mac says that he can't say anything to Alex. Alex uses her power to realize that Mac is paranoid about Typhon's reach into his life and the possibility that he is being watched. This includes a memory where Mac is telling someone at Typhon that Mac told them to call off the blast because people were at the site. When Alex and Mac finish their confrontation on the other end of town, Mac explains that he told Typhon to call it off, but Typhon detonated anyway. (The H + B Investigations file on Diane's USB drive records that an agent observes this entire situation where Alex confronts Mac).

Alex decides whether to try to calm Mac down or not.

A phone call takes place between Alex Chen and Ryan Lucan. Alex inquires about Ryan's whereabouts and the two agree to meet at the ravine where Gabe died.

As Alex approaches Ryan and begins speaking about her most recent revelations about Typhon and Mac, she can see the red anger aura radiating from Ryan. Ryan shouts that Alex's new information doesn't matter. Ryan then explains that he keeps replaying Gabe's death in his mind.

Alex uses her power to discover that Ryan believes that he failed in keeping Gabe safe, and that Gabe's death is Ryan's fault. Alex tries to comfort Ryan's feelings of guilt.

Alex starts to demonstrate her abilities by asking Ryan to think about something that makes him sad, angry, or scared. Ryan starts to think about this, but ultimately ends on a joyous memory that he has of Gabe running over a Canadian goose. This is the first time that Alex sees a yellow joy aura in True Colors. Alex asks Ryan to focus on the memory that he is remembering, and Alex pieces together the experience that Gabe and Ryan had, and tells Ryan about the experience without having told Alex about it in the first place.

Ryan is astounded by Alex's apparent ability to know this story without having first been told the story. Alex explains her ability to read strong emotions. Alex further explains her investigation and that she's going after Typhon. Ryan volunteers to help. Alex decides whether to hug Ryan or give him a handshake.

Steph Gingrich plays "Hold On To" by Angus and Julia Stone on the KRCT station in honor of Gabe Chen.

9 PM - Alex Chen suggests this as a time for everyone to meet at the flower shop bridge to give Gabe a proper send off.

Gabe's friends gather at the bridge and release a sky lantern as a memorial to him. Alex makes a short speech.

Alex notices more yellow joy auras as the folk gathered at the bridge remember Gabe, and then she notices the single purple fear aura around Diane.

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 3: Monster or Mortal begins

In the Black Lantern, Steph skeptically questions the notion that Alex Chen has a super power. She then asks if Steph and Ryan are fucking with her. As Alex's power is confirmed to Steph, Steph challenges Alex to tell her what she's feeling right this moment. Ryan jokes that Steph is feeling disbelief. Alex explains that Steph is feeling that she has been left out since Ryan has known about this for quite some time. Putting two and two together, Steph realizes that Alex used the power to cheer her up with the foosball game after Gabe's wake.

Ryan changes subject to whether anyone has seen Diane today. Steph hypothesizes that if Diane felt fear about Gabe's death, that Diane may have proof of Typhon's involvement. Finishing the thought, Alex says that the trio needs to be ready with a plan if Diane comes in today, but that Alex herself needs to finish her shift.

As Alex cleans up the bar, Diane enters the Black Lantern. Alex checks in with Ryan and Steph to discuss the status of their plan. Steph and Ryan reveal their cunning plan which involves one of the two of them distracting Diane by asking her on a date while the other absconds with Diane's laptop. Alex decides whether Ryan or Steph should distract Diane. This is interpreted as Alex thinking that the selection is more attractive than the other. Alex decides that talking to Diane and trying to dredge up some emotions so that Alex can get a read on Diane is the best approach for their first step.

Alex takes a beer to Diane as she sits down across from her. Alex decides how to approach riling Diane up. Alex reads Diane's aura. Alex asks a series of questions about various items near Diane's seat which are related to memories about Gabe. Eventually, Alex has pushed enough, and is able to discover that Diane is hiding evidence of the coverup on her USB drive.

1:49 PM - Alex Chen writes a text to the group thread with Steph and Ryan to carry out the distraction plan.

Steph or Ryan perpetrate the distraction plan as Alex steals Diane's USB drive.

A file that is shown to Alex Chen later this evening in the Sheriff's Station from H + B Investigations indicates that the private investigator witnesses Alex stealing Diane's USB drive. The same file seems to indicate that H + B's observation ends some time later today.

Steph, Ryan, and Alex go up to the Black Lantern's second floor apartment to celebrate their success.

Steph plugs Diane's USB drive into Gabe's laptop and discovers that the USB drive is password protected. Ryan takes the drive and announces his plan to get Riley Lethe to assist in cracking the password. As Ryan starts to head downstairs, Steph explains that it is now time to begin the LARP which Steph has been planning to cheer up Ethan. Steph and Ryan now go downstairs together, talking about a "thing" which Ryan has been up all night carving.

Alex searches for the hat from her costume upon finding it, she realizes the feather has disappeared, and looks for that as well. Alex takes a matchbook with a single match from Gabe's footlocker. During this time she also gets her guitar to complete her bard outfit.

2:47 PM - Steph sends a text to Alex warning her that Ethan doesn't feel interested in the LARP. In addition, Ethan's dad will be picking him up shortly.

3:00 PM - A sign posted in The Black Lantern says the bar will be closed after 3:00 PM for the Spring Festival. The time is likely so early, in order to also accommodate the LARP that has been set up for Ethan.

Templarkommando

Alex convinces Ethan to give the LARP a try.

Alex (roleplaying as a bard) and Ethan (roleplaying a Thaynor) go to see King Tabor (roleplayed by Jed Lucan) at the park. King Tabor charges Thaynor and his bard to end the Age of Monsters which is now plaguing the kingdom by recovering three magical gems which have been prophesied as being related to the end of the age of monsters. Thaynor accepts this quest.

As Thaynor and his bard (Ethan and Alex) leave the park, they are attacked by a wolf (roleplayed by Ryan Lucan).

4:36 PM - Riley Lethe sends a text to Alex Chen promising to try to help get access to whatever is on the USB drive.

Thaynor and his bard recover the three soul gems after dealing with monsters, the disaster in Gullweather Tavern, and trading a magical fish scale to the Witchy proprietress of the Magpie Emporium (Roleplayed by Steph Gingrich).

Thaynor finds the skysword after speaking with Notheria the Forest Spirit (Roleplayed by Charlotte Harmon). Thaynor discovers that King Tabor's quest for him was only a clever rule to take the soul gems for himself and that King Tabor is none other than the evil Cravius/Stormwrither (Also Roleplayed by Jed Lucan). Thaynor and his bard celebrate their victory after defeating their evil foe.

5:00 PM - Mining charges are scheduled to be detonated at the Typhon mining site at this time.

Unfortunately, the celebration for Thaynor and his bard is short-lived, and a warning siren sounds to signal a mining detonation from the Typhon mining site. Alex Chen and Ethan Lambert are drawn from Steph's carefully crafted fantasy world back into reality and the realization that Gabe Chen is still dead and it suddenly seems wrong to celebrate anything.

Alex Chen sees an aura around Ethan which is first the purple color of fear, but then it quickly changes to the blue of sadness and she hears Ethan's inner thoughts blaming himself for Gabe's death. Ethan drops the skysword and hugs his knees as tears stream down his face.

Charlotte and Alex try to comfort Ethan. Alex tells Ethan that Gabe's death was not his fault.

Some time later, Alex enters the Silver Dragon dispensary. She calls out to Charlotte who is not in the front room. Charlotte answers from the back and Alex enters the back room art studio where Charlotte is working on a sculpture. Charlotte notes that Ethan's father has now picked him up, and the two have just left town.

Templarkommando

While discussing the day, and how Alex and Charlotte think that Ethan reacted to the LARP, Charlotte lashes out at Alex due to Charlotte's inner anger. Only at this moment does Alex see the red anger aura around Charlotte.

7:06 PM - Steph Gingrich sends a text to Alex Chen thanking her for participating in the LARP.

7:18 PM - Duckie (Reginald McCallister III) sends a text to Alex expressing his enjoyment for the day's LARP, and recounting a theater production he was involved in when he was in school.

Alex Chen uses her power to read Charlotte's anger. Alex views different items around the room and discovers how they are linked to Charlotte's anger. In short, Charlotte's anger is directed separately at Alex (for the way everything has been fucked up since her arrival), Gabe (for coming into Charlotte's life and teaching her to love again, but then dying), Ryan (for being unable to protect Gabe), and Ethan (for not listening to rules about not exploring the mines). Charlotte then throws her stone sculpture onto the floor of the studio, shattering it into several pieces. To this, she confesses that she hates her son.

Alex decides whether or not to use her power to take away Charlotte's anger.

A little later, Alex Chen returns to the second floor apartment above the Black Lantern where Steph Gingrich and Ryan Lucan are discussing Typhon - specifically whether Typhon is related to the Illuminati.

Alex asks about whether Diane's USB drive has yielded everything they need to know about Typhon. Ryan and Steph answer in the negative, but add that they did find Gabe's call to Mac. Before now, the official story from Typhon has been that no call was made.

8:31 PM - Ethan Lambert sends a text to Alex Chen apologizing for the way things ended at the LARP today.

Alex Chen listens to the recording of Gabe's call to Typhon which was received by Mac Loudon. Alex then listens to the recording of what happened just after Gabe's call and uncovers something about "Rhea" and decides to check Diane's email in order to reveal this secret. Checking Diane's email, Alex discovers that "Rhea" refers to another blast that went off at the same time as the scheduled blast. She then checks Diane's files to try to find out more about Rhea. Alex and Ryan discover that "Rhea" refers to the site of Typhon's 2008 mine collapse.

Alex hypothesizes that Typhon's detonation at the Rhea site wasn't about digging something up, but about burying something.

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 4: FLICKER begins

Alex Chen tells Deputy Jason Pike about the contents of Diane's USB drive. Pike tells Alex to bring the USB drive with her, and that he will meet her in an hour.

Steph Gingrich makes a radio announcement about roses for the Spring Festival and gives a brief historical overview of this tradition in Haven Springs' history.

Alex briefly ponders whether she should give away a rose. Then realizes she can decide later.

9:31 PM - Ethan Lambert sends a text to Alex Chen telling her to enjoy the festival, and he gives some hints about what's coming in the next issue of Thaynor comic.

Alex picks up Diane's USB drive.

9:38 PM - Eleanor Lethe sends a text to Alex Chen asking whether she will make it to the festival.

Alex heads downstairs and goes to the park.

Steph Gingrich tests the microphones at the Spring Festival. As this happens she comments on the fact that Alex Chen owns a skirt. Alex recalls her conversation with Deputy Pike and remarks that once Pike gets the evidence on the stick, it's all over for Typhon. Steph mentions that Alex will love the band that's playing and that Alex should be front and center for the concert.

Alex Chen explores what the Spring Festival has to offer.

10:14 PM - Ryan Lucan sends a text to the group thread asking Steph and Alex to meet him at the stage.

Alex and Steph meet Ryan over at the stage. Alex asks who is playing, and Steph indicates that she will be playing drums. Then Alex asks who else will be playing. Steph and Ryan are silent. Then Alex asks who else will be playing. Steph and Ryan are silent. Cue a Gilligan cut to Alex on stage with a guitar as she says "I hate you both" to Steph and Ryan.

Steph and Alex play Blister in the Sun by Violent Femmes on stage at the Spring Festival.

If Alex has chosen Steph as a romantic interest, Steph invites Alex to the roof of the Black Lantern. Steph tells Alex that she is going to have a chance to go on musical tour again. Alex decides whether to hug or kiss Steph. If Alex has chosen Ryan as a romantic interest, Ryan invites Alex to the roof of the Black Lantern where Alex decides whether to hug or kiss him.

On the roof, Alex speaks to Gabe as though he is present. She speaks about how she has found who she thinks is responsible for his death.

Alex walks out front of the Black Lantern where she is met by Deputy Jason Pike. He asks whether Alex has the USB drive. He says that Alex needs to come with him to the station. As Alex grapples with this new development, Pike tells Alex not to make this hard - implying that she will be arrested if she does not cooperate.

Some time later, Alex sits in an interrogation room at the Haven Springs Sheriff's office. Pike walks into the room holding a file. He begins with some small talk, and asks whether Alex wants some coffee or not. Whether or not Alex accepts this offer, no coffee is forthcoming because the Sheriff's office is out of coffee.

Alex asks Pike why she is here at the Sheriff's station. Pike explains that Diane is charging Alex with stealing the USB drive. Alex asks Pike to please tell her that he at least looked at the drive. Jason Pike responds by saying that he can't look at it and apologizes. Pike explains that he can't use evidence that has been stolen. He goes on to explain that Diane wants to charge Alex with computer fraud - a federal crime. However, he says that Diane is willing to drop the charges if Alex agrees to drop everything that she's doing to pursue Typhon. Alex says that she's not signing anything, and begins explaining the evidence that she uncovered on the USB drive. Though Pike seems concerned at this revelation, he reiterates that this doesn't matter, and asks Alex again, to please sign the agreement with Typhon. Alex declines again, and it is at this moment that Jason Pike stands up, and Alex sees a purple fear aura around Deputy Pike. He says that not signing isn't an option. Alex asks what he's scared of. Pike opens the file that he carried in and tells Alex to see for herself.

After Alex reads the file, she asks whether this is a threat. Pike sarcastically asks Alex what she expected? For Typhon to just throw their hands up and say "You got us."

Alex decides whether to sign Typhon's agreement, or to try taking Pike's fear away.

Alex Chen leaves the Sheriff's station.

As Alex enters her apartment above the Black Lantern, she discovers a note from Jed asking her to come see him when she gets a chance. She then goes downstairs to speak to him.

Jed comments that something tells him that Alex has had a more exciting Spring Festival than was expected. Jed also comments on the strangeness of Steph, Ryan, and Alex working on

Templarkommando

Diane's lunch order. He then asks Alex to explain what's going on. Alex then explains the investigation into Typhon.

Jed tells Alex that he knows what Typhon is hiding, and offers to show Alex what it is by taking her... to the mountains... in the middle of the night.

Alex and Jed arrive above an old abandoned mine ventilation shaft about two clicks (kilometers) away from the mining site that Ryan, Gabe and Alex searched for Ethan at and 5 clicks away from town. Jed tells Alex that what she's searching for is down this ventilation shaft. As Alex peeks into the inky blackness of the shaft, Jed draws a gun. At this point, Alex realizes that Jed is sad, and asks him why. Jed cocks his pistol. He apologizes to Alex. He then explains that the reason he is going to shoot her and let her fall into the shaft is to cover up a mistake that he made 12 years ago. He also says that he made a deal with Typhon to save Haven Springs and to give Ryan a normal life. He then says he never wanted Gabe to get hurt.

Alex tells Jed to go to Hell. Jed Lucan fires his pistol hitting Alex Chen. Alex falls into the mine ventilation shaft. Alex crashes through several beams as she plummets into the mine.

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 4: FLICKER concludes

Life is Strange: True Colors Chapter 5: Side B begins

Alex Chen has a hallucination of being back at the Helping Hands group home.

Dr. Lynn asks if Alex wants to talk about her time in Colorado. She then asks what Alex learned from visiting Haven Springs. Dr Lynn then asks how it feels to learn that Alex might have been wrong. Alex then experiences a flash of differing emotions that causes her to cover the source of the light by raising her hand.

Alex finds the code to open her guitar case, and finds the tuning peg for one of her guitar strings in order to solve Dr. Lynn's office puzzle. This allows Alex to play her guitar. Upon playing her guitar, several drops of blood fall onto the guitar and Alex realizes that she is bleeding.

Alex awakens in the mine ventilation shaft - seeing that she has stopped falling partway down. She looks back up at the moon above the shaft and then to a nearby ladder which she reaches for. The weight shift caused by her attempt to climb up breaks the beam she is resting on, causing her to fall the rest of the way down the ventilation shaft. (Somewhere in the course of this fall, Alex's phone breaks. This makes figuring out what time things happen a little trickier).

Alex Chen has a hallucination of being in a hospital with Gabe, her mother, and father.

Alex awakens sitting in a hospital chair next to Gabe. She tries to hug him, but then remarks that Gabe is dead. Gabe retorts that lots of people - in fact most people - are dead. Gabe then sets the scene. Alex and Gabe are definitely in a hospital. Alex is 10, and Gabe is 14. This would set the hallucination between December 2, 2007 and July 10, 2008. Their mother is sick, and so is their father, but their father has a different kind of sickness. Gabe then instructs Alex to play her part.

Gabe pushes Alex. Alex questions why he did this. Gabe protests that he didn't do anything, then pushes Alex again. John Chen exits Wendy's hospital room and tells both children to behave. John Chen then sits next to Alex and tells her to go check on her mother.

Alex enters Wendy Chen's hospital room where she greets her mother. Wendy Chen weakly turns to look at Alex. Wendy starts coughing. Then she flashes to another memory later where Wendy says that Alex is a brave girl. Gabe then walks up and inquires whether Alex thinks this is how it really went, and whether she missed anything.

The hallucination then flashes back to the scene where Gabe pushes Alex and John Chen exits to tell his children to behave. Alex again goes to check on her mother. Upon entry, Alex questions whether she missed something. Alex again greets her mother, and her mother begins coughing. From the other room, John Chen instructs Alex to get her mother some water.

Alex retrieves some water for her mother. Wendy Chen places a silver pendant and necklace in her daughter's hand. Alex holds the pendant and necklace to her chest and begins to cry. Wendy Chen asks Alex not to cry, and then asks for Alex to promise her that she will be strong for her brother and father. Alex promises that she will be. As Alex cries, a blue sadness aura erupts from her.

Alex now hallucinates the house where she lived with Gabe and John after Wendy died. Alex is wearing the silver pendant that her mother gave to her. As Alex picks up ShuShu, Gabe asks if the previous hallucination was the last time that Alex talked to her mother. Alex says that she believes that it was the last time she spoke to her mother. Gabe then asks whether Alex misses her mother. Alex asks what is going on. Gabe says that Alex is 11, and Gabe is nearly 15. This would set the hallucination between July 10, 2008 and December 2, 2008.

Gabe talks about how Gabe and John are constantly fighting with each other, and that Alex has to defuse them both. He tells Alex to play her part, and then exits to the outside of the apartment where John and Gabe begin yelling at each other. Alex sits down and puts on a record to distract from the noise of the fight going on. She puts the earphones on just as Gabe rushes into the room. John follows and the fight continues.

Gabe then interrupts Alex's listening. Alex takes off her head set. Gabe says that they are now alone and Gabe asks if Alex knows that this is not actually how everything transpired.

Alex re-hallucinates the scene. This time, however, she does not put the headphones on, and she instead gets up and looks around the room. She starts to open the door to the outside, but before she can do so, John Chen bursts through the door followed by Gabe. Gabe asks where John is going, and if he is going to tell Alex, or is that Gabe's job. Gabe tells Alex that their father has lost his job again and begins criticizing John for his failures as a father and how they're not going to be able to eat after this. Alex tries to take up for her father by suggesting that they could sell things around the house, and volunteers her guitar as a candidate.

Gabe tells Alex to stop defending their father. Gabe and John fight. John rears back to strike Gabe, but accidentally strikes Alex. As Gabe and John try to see about Alex, Alex says that everything was okay, and that it was an accident. John Chen tries to tearfully apologize - Alex is eager to forgive her father.

John Chen announces that "I can't do this" and he dumps Gabe's backpack and begins packing his things to leave. He then says the woman from Child Protective Services will come to take care of them. As Alex tries to stop her father from leaving, she throws her mother's pendant at him. John Chen picks up his wife's pendant and leaves. Gabe puts a hand on her sister's shoulder, and a purple fear aura erupts from Alex.

Alex hallucinates being at an orphanage. She awakens on the bottom bunk of a bunk bed and looks up at all the returned letters that she tried to send to her father. Gabe looks down from the top bunk and asks which orphanage they are in. Gabe says that Alex is 12, and Gabe is 16 after Gabe stole a car and wound up in juvenile hall. This date places the scene as between December 2, 2009 and July 10, 2010. Gabe tells Alex to play her part.

Alex sits on a footlocker at the end of the room. Alex then reads the emotions of two families that are standing outside of the dorm windows. Each of these would-be parents has superficial objections that prevent them from adopting Alex. Alex cries. A red anger aura erupts from Alex shattering the glass. Gabe walks nearer to Alex and apologizes. Gabe then explains how it wasn't Alex's job to keep the family together since she was as young as she was. Gabe then tells Alex that she can have the emotions she's supposed to have - be angry at me and Dad, miss mom, but don't give up. Gabe then tells Alex to fight and change the world to make it better. Gabe's call to action here brings Alex back to consciousness - ending her hallucination.

May 26

Brown Bear Diner in Haven Springs, CO has its grand reopening today.

Alex awakens covered in blood. She winces in pain from her sudden movement. She looks around the darkened mine shaft for some way to escape. She spies an old forgotten lantern which she lights with the match from Gabe's Blue Cat Cafe matchbook. Alex then stands and begins to explore the mine.

As Alex wanders into a larger cavern, the lantern goes out. However, as her eyes begin to adjust, Alex can still see by a mysterious red light in the distance. As Alex gets closer to the source of the red light, she begins to hear the memory of Jed's failed coal mining expedition from years past. Alex realizes that this is what Typhon tried to bury. Alex hears the voices of desperate miners. Jed Lucan announces that he wants to go rescue men that will drown in the cavern, but to avoid everyone dying, Jed and his remaining men abandon the dig leaving several men to die including John Chen. As Alex approaches a cave-in, she sees a nearly white-hot light beneath the debris. As she unburies it, she discovers her mother's pendant, revealing to her that her father was among the miners who died in the mine collapse. Alex then hears her father struggling against rising water, calling for Jed to return and rescue them. Alex then hears her father tearfully apologizing - not really to Jed, but to his children who he abandoned.

Alex breaks her way out of the collapsed mine shaft and walks into the light, shielding her eyes from the bright sun. Alex then turns back and faces the mine, removing a sign commemorating Jed Lucan's rescue from the mine gate. She lets the sign fall to the ground.

Alex Chen begins the long trek back to Haven Springs.

7:09 AM - Steph Gingrich sends a text message to Alex Chen inquiring as to her whereabouts.

Diane Jacobs finishes her presentation in favor of the town council accepting Typhon's proposed expansion.

Jed Lucan voices his support for the expansion vote. He then stares in horror as a bloody and battered Alex Chen limps through the door like an injured terminator.

Alex Chen makes her case against Typhon and exposes Diane and Jed's wrongdoing in the case surrounding Gabe's death.

Diane Jacobs tries to gaslight the council by calling Alex's accusations insane. Jed Lucan denies knowing anything about what Alex is talking about.

Steph and Ryan, along with the remaining members of the town council decide whether to believe Alex Chen.

Alex Chen decides whether or not to forgive or condemn Jed Lucan for his actions.

A vote is scheduled for the town council of Haven Springs, Colorado on this day. The measure will decide whether the town will sell land to Typhon Mining for Typhon's planned expansion.

Notes

During the week prior to Life is Strange Season 1, Nathan repeatedly returns to the same unknown location that is northeast of Arcadia Bay. It's not totally clear why he does this, but based on David's tracking information, he pings off of a cellphone tower there several times between 9/30/13 - 10/7/13.

The above image shows a fan's mapping of Arcadia Bay, which turns out to have its real life coordinates in Tillamook Bay. Arcadia Bay, is of course, a fictional location, and so this makes some sense, but what we can see clearly is the unknown location that Nathan returns to over and over again during the week that David tracks him. I would give credit, but I do not know the name of the fan that mapped this particular map. They've done a great job at mapping this out, but I am unable to give them the credit due them because of a lack of labels.

Now, Season 1 doesn't explicitly give us any more information than this, but it might be that BtS can give us a little explanatory power. The following map is taken from BtS:

It may not be readily apparent at first, but the area that is northeast of Arcadia Bay is labeled as the word "Rich Fucks" surrounded by dollar signs. Even further to the northeast Chloe has marked the location of "Big Foot's Cave." The earlier map suggested that the area was "forest," and I think all of that taken together gives a decent possibility that the location that Nathan returns to repeatedly is also known as Pan Estates. I'm not totally certain of that because Pan Estates doesn't really appear in Life is Strange: Before the Storm. This could be because I'm incorrect in my guess, or that this area northeast of Arcadia Bay was not known as Pan Estates until later in its development.

Another possible revelation here is that Jefferson might be the character known as "Bobtail" in Frank's drug ledger. During the time covered by Frank's ledger, there are two transactions with "Bobtail." The first of these transactions happens early on the morning of 10/1/13 at 12:50 AM. This time is a little suspect because it is entered as "0:50 AM" instead of 12:50 AM. The assumption that I'm making on this one is that when David records the location, he is thinking in terms of military time because on the list it is entered after a transaction at 11:40 PM the day before with a character named "dog" and before a transaction at 1:50 AM with Bruce who is called "Yorkshire."

The second transaction between Frank and "Bobtail" occurs at 12:20 AM on the morning of 10/5/13. Like the earlier time, this time might be suspect because it's one of the times that is preceded and followed by a PM time, so it's possible that the 12:20 AM time is actually a PM time, which is one reason why this possibility is a little shaky. We're going to take the times at face value.

The thing that is significant about these times starts with the second transaction. On the night of October 4th, Nathan abducts Kate and he meets Mr. Jefferson at the gas station at around 10:00 PM. Now, Jefferson doesn't ever have his phone ping off a cell tower near the barn, but we know that Jefferson assisted Nathan in Kate's abduction because he later says so when he's talking to Max in the dark room. Presumably, during this time, Nathan and Jefferson take their weird photos and take Kate back to Blackwell, which, since the gas station seems to be on the way to the barn, would make for a perfect opportunity for Jefferson to catch Frank at the gas station on the way back to purchase some drugs at 12:20 AM.

Now, let's look at the first transaction. This transaction happens at 12:50 AM on the morning after Chloe escapes from Nathan. At 10:00 PM, Nathan buys GHB - a date rape drug from Frank, and for the second time(first time? Maybe I need to learn how to count), Bobtail follows Nathan's purchase of GHB with a purchase of a downer.

Bobtail's first purchase is oxy, and his second purchase is a benzodiazepine. To me, this can make sense of Jefferson trying to come down off of the psychopathic adrenaline high that he gets from kidnapping people and taking creepy pictures of them. Also, it makes it funnier if Frank refers to Jefferson as Ms. Fancycar.

Locations

Arcadia Bay, Oregon - a fictional city in Oregon.

Beaver Creek, Oregon - a real hamlet in Oregon. While there is an actual Beaver Creek, OR, it should be noted that given maps available in-game, that the in-game version of Beaver Creek is not in quite the correct location. IRL Beavercreek is located to the southeast of Portland, OR. In-game Beavercreek is located near Blue River Lake near Highway 126. The closest town to this location is Rainbow, Oregon. Thanks to my friend John from facebook for pointing this out about Beavercreek!
