

CREATIVE WRITING

WRITING JOURNAL

Dear Club Member,

Another year together of being inspired! I am really looking forward to the new and exciting things we have happening this year, along with our annual activities. This journal has a writing challenge for every meeting to help you write. The activity is a part of our club meeting. Please don't work ahead. Otherwise, this journal is yours to write in as you see fit.

I look forward to working with you!

Hugs, Ms. Davis

Meeting 1

Writing Challenge: Begin each sentence or group of sentences with the phrase, "I remember..."

Writing Activity: 2-minute Stories (Click the link for the prompts)

Meeting 2

Writing Challenge: What's your earliest memory?

Writing Activity: Suspense 2-minute Stories (Click the link for the prompts)

Writing Activity: Character Autopsy Make your own copy by clicking File, Make a Copy

Meeting 3

Writing Challenge: Write about the best month of the year.

Meeting 4

Writing Challenge: Write about the worst day of the year.

Writing Activity: NaNoWriMo - Try logging into the site each day and adding to your story! The goal is 1,667 words per day, but ANY amount is perfect! The challenge is to be writing every day this month!

Meeting 5

Writing Challenge: Rant about something that has always annoyed you.

Open Mic Night

Meeting 6

Writing Challenge: Describe the first object you see in the room. What importance does it have in your life? What memories do you have with this object? What might it symbolize?

Writing Activity: Group Short Story

Meeting 7

Writing Challenge: Tell the story of a piece of trash.

Writing Activity: Archetypes

Meeting 8

Writing Challenge: Write about a food by describing its qualities, but don't say what it is.

Meeting 9

Writing Challenge: Choose a song quote, write it down, and free-write from there.

Meeting 10

Writing Challenge: Read a short poem. Then write a poem that could be a “sister” or “cousin” of that poem.

Writing Activity: April's 30 Poems in 30 Days
