Name: _____ ID#: _____ Date: _____

Week 7 Eleanor Roosevelt
Vocabulary words and Definitions

toy	Something children play with.
joy	A feeling of great happiness.
cowboy	A person who works with cattle, especially on a ranch.
coin	A small piece of metal used as money.
join	To become part of a group or activity.
noise	A sound, especially a loud or unpleasant one.
choice	A decision between two or more options.
been	Past participle of be; used in forms like "have been."
does	Third-person singular form of do.
words	Units of language used for speaking or writing.
going	Moving from one place to another; also used to talk about future plans.
nurse	A healthcare worker who cares for sick or injured people.
biography	A book or story about a real person's life.
vote	To choose someone or something in an election or decision.
views	Opinions or ways of thinking about something.

rights	Freedoms or protections that people are entitled to have.
leaders	People who guide or direct others.
wealthy	Having a lot of money or valuable possessions.
married	Legally joined as husband and wife, or as spouses.
president	The highest leader of a country, company, or organization.
travel	To go from one place to another.
people	Human beings; persons in general.
listen (to)	To pay attention to sounds or what someone is saying.
question	Something asked in order to get information.