Introspection Aikido

The Man/Woman You Are Now vs Who You Want to Be (Keep this the same daily, reminding yourself of who it is you are trying to become) :

- The man I am now:
 - Mediocre body shape (above average, but being even close to average is gay).
 - Totally incapable in all aspects of the money department.
 - Zero important connections.
- The man/woman I want to be:
 - 80 kg with 10% body fat
 - Prepared and ready for all the anomalies that happen in this world.
 - Able to protect and provide for my current family and my future wife and kids.
 - Able to generate income from anywhere in the world.

Your Reason Why (make this as compelling as possible, keep this the same and pound it into your skull, so you wake up daily with a clear reason) :

- Why it's important:
 - I have to prepare for all the chaos in this world. I am completely not ready for anything bad that might happen to me and my people. My only reason for existence is to take care of them. No matter what happens to me. Without getting 500 this week and without generating 10K for my clients, these things are not going to happen.
- Purpose:

- I want to be the best son my parents could ever have. I want to make them proud of their creation. I want them to tear up from happiness when they see me succeed.
- I never want to see my parents check the prices at the supermarket again. It breaks my heart when they do. I have to make sure this isn't going to happen again in their life.
- I want to make them feel secure in a new villa next to the beach. I want to help them enjoy their retirement and spend the rest of their lives proud, happy and relaxed. I want to take care of all of their stress and concerns.
- I want to help my clients make more money with their businesses. That's why I want to find business owners that work as hard as me and have the same values.
- I want to help my client's clients get to their dreamstate/solve their problems as quickly and efficiently as possible. That's why every copy that I write is going to be written with a positive sense.
