

Do you know your classmates?

1. Try to match a classmate with each statement. Write their name in the space provided. You can have the same name three times.

1. _____ spends a lot of money on clothes. You spend a lot of money on clothes, don't you?
2. _____ isn't afraid of heights.
3. _____ went to bed late last night.
4. _____ lives in an apartment.
5. _____ is romantic.
6. _____ would like to enter a university in Canada.
7. _____ has had a haircut recently.
8. _____ can ski well.
9. _____ studies English every day.
10. _____ doesn't have a pet.
11. _____ is interested in art.
12. _____ wouldn't like to go skydiving.
13. _____ doesn't like cats.
14. _____ has been to Europe.
15. _____ didn't go out last weekend.
16. _____ plays a musical instrument.
17. _____ is feeling sleepy at the moment.
18. _____ has been to the cinema this week.
19. _____ hasn't been abroad (except Canada) this year.
20. _____ can play soccer really well.

2. Now, ask your classmates tag questions to see if your statements are correct.

Award yourself one point for each correct statement.

Examples:

You spend a lot of money on clothes, don't you? Yes, I do. / No I don't.

You aren't afraid of spiders, are you? Yes, I am (I'm afraid). / No, I'm not (I'm not afraid).