

SL: Hey Mia! A Quick Note for You

Hey Mia!

I truly enjoyed your energetic and positive vibe in your latest video (the one where you shot the biggest oner active campaign of the year in just 3 days). Your energy brightens the day for many people.

While enjoying your content, I had a lightbulb moment - an idea popped up, and I think it would be very helpful to you.

I've seen this done by Brittany Lupton and @growwithhanna and it helped them increase their sales by 13% in the first month.

If you add compelling text to the page you're selling your 12-Week Lower Body Building Guide on, you could persuade more people to grab your guide.

If that sounds like something you'd like to achieve, simply reply and I'll tell you more.

Regards,
[my name]
