Carla Bruni-Sarkozy attracted the attention of the public even before she became the wife of the President of France. She made it because of her luxurious model looks and scandals around personal life. She dressed rather provocatively and sexually.

People started talking about her style during the first lady's tenure (2008-2012) and distinguish Karl Bruni as one of the most stylish wives of the presidents, who dresses in the elegant urban-chic style. I would note at the same time that after her husband left the presidency, Carla's style again changed towards sexuality, though more strict and restrained: leggings and tight-fitting trousers appeared, open neckline. There are three periods of Carla Bruni's style: before meeting Sarkozy, in the role of the first lady, and after the end of the presidency of her husband.

It is worth noting that a lot of experience in the modeling business, plus a model figure has already given a hundred points ahead of Carla Bruni as a future style icon. And so press started talking about her precisely after marriage with Nicolas Sarkozy.

Carla Bruni's style as the first lady contrasted with the previous period of her life. The elegant length of dresses and skirts long knee or maxi, no trousers, no prints, gathered hair. She forgot about her favorite tight styles and a demonstration of the figure. She also started wearing more gray and purple colors. She emphasized closeness and modesty. And low heel - partly due to the growth of her husband. The former model even possessed for photographers in a completely different way, the presentation of herself has wholly changed. And this is a great job!

Recently, Carla Bruni dresses in her favorite dramatic style, apparently relieved to get rid of the status of the first lady. And she instantly added elements such as loose hair, leggings and tight pants, including leather ones, to the image. Black color - became the main thing, accessories with at least one accent (for example, a snake necklace). Other colors are also concise: white, burgundy. No prints.

At the same time, Carla always wears high heels of fashionable style and has stylish bags. It is the real meaning of drama style - so concise and fashionable sexuality at the same time. Trying to repeat it, you need to understand that it is unfortunately not good for everyone. Tight-fitting styles are suitable for those who have an hourglass figure (pronounced waist - at least 25 cm difference with the hips) or a model figure, shoulders are slightly wider than the hips, while they are quite long legs.

If Carla puts on a dress, then depending on the time of day and occasion, it can be more or less tight and have a more or less deep neckline.

Like all French women, Carla loves jackets. For her looks with a base in the form of simple tops in black and the same leggings, rich in texture jackets (tweed, velvet) of an exciting accent color are the main thing that sets the tone. This technique can be used both in terms of style and for body shaping: shoes, trousers, and a top of the same color plus a contrasting jacket stretch the silhouette and look impressive.
