

The Lenniel Compact

---

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CONCLAVE OF MALIN, in order to promulgate further unity amongst its integral and sovereign territories, does issue the following reaffirmation of the loyalty of the civil government of the cities of Lenniel and Darkhaven, with special privileges and rights reserved to them for their continuing cooperation within the nation.

---

PROVISION I

On the participants of this compact and their obligations.

- The National Government of the Conclave of Malin
  - Shall recognize the unique cultural heritage of the cities of Lenniel and Darkhaven, and provide where necessary in legal statute for the preservation of their history and way of life.
  - Shall grant to the cities of Lenniel and Darkhaven the status of “Special Administrative Province,” a designation they shall hold in trust from the National Government of the Conclave of Malin until such a time that they renounce it.
  - Shall provide external protection to the Special Administrative Provinces of Lenniel and Darkhaven where necessary, and shall provide internal protection on the request of their Council.
  - Shall not allow officials of the Magistrate to enter the Special Administrative Province of Lenniel or the Special Administrative Province of Darkhaven.
  - Shall grant the Special Administrative Province of Darkhaven an adjudicator on the Tribunal of Malin, to act as their sole official representative to the National Government of the Conclave of Malin.
  - Shall grant the Special Administrative Province of Lenniel an adjudicator on the Tribunal of Malin, to act as their sole official representative to the National Government of the Conclave of Malin.
  - Shall grant to the Special Administrative Provinces of Lenniel and Darkhaven the right to create their own laws by whatever method they just most correct, and shall respect such laws provided they do not conflict with the legal authority of the Tribunal of Malin or other official bodies or entities of the National Government of the Conclave of Malin.
  - Shall provide for the maintenance of order in and defense of the Special Administrative Provinces of Lenniel and Darkhaven as any other territory of the Conclave of Malin.
- The Civil Government of the Special Administrative Provinces of Lenniel and Darkhaven
  - Shall, in recognizing the importance of unified elven nation, renounce and forsake any claim to or desire for historical or contemporary separation from such a nation, and shall never again refer to itself or any successor entity as the “Talonnii Confederacy,” the “Talonnii Union,” the “Talonnii City-State,” or any other title which shall imply or embrace historical legitimacy of independence.
  - Shall enforce the rendition of magical criminals to the capital city of the Conclave of Malin, and shall renounce any claim to the right to try or punish such criminals.
  - Shall not conduct business, trade, or diplomacy with the national or subnational governments of any foreign nation except with the express and particular permission of the Justiciar of Malin.
  - Shall maintain their own guard force for the enforcement of internal civil laws, and will accept the authority of the Tribunal of Malin to supercede the local laws of any city.
  - Shall recognize the particular cultural institutions of the Conclave of Malin as pluralistic and inclusive, and shall not declaim or attack such institutions.

