

Jimmy Jeffress

Today, I've got a fat little gnome of a so-called "person" from Mena, AR on my mind. There is not enough bile in the world to equal what I think of him at this moment in time, but, when I get the chance, he will find out what I think.

Michael Osborne I have no idea what all this is about...but I do seem to recall a day or so ago when you posted a message chastising "some people" for their ill remarks re the President. It seems to me that speaking badly about someone in public (or Facebook) reflects poorly on the speaker, regardless whether the target is the President of the United States, or just an average Joe. I know you are deeply respected on this forum and I certainly mean no disrespect, but since you held forth such a high standard for everyone else I would expect you should comply to that higher standard yourself. To quote your earlier post --"I keep being reminded of the question I once saw that asked "if you were arrested and charged with being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?"--

Jimmy Jeffress Michael, everyone that has been on this thread is in on the joke except you...now you are.

Jimmy Jeffress Michael, the postings to which I was referring yesterday were NOT jokes by any stretch of the imagination.
