0:33 its been an exciting couple of hours. Welcome to the castle super 100% cast~!

- 2:44 The structure of 13 sentinels, and on binging it vs. playing it in chunks. Pat not having played it in a while and then playing it a little every morning

- - 4:43 using spite to push through a lot of the game in one session. The pros and cons of binging 13 sentinels. Pro: Certain character's stories being easier to piece together in a binge format

- - 7:45 con: The game constantly drops plot bombs and plot antibombs left and right. Just staring at the analysis screen

- - 9:31 the VN progress gating being very impressive

- - 10:56 getting back to 13 sentinels 10 weeks later. The game is surprisingly easy to get back into

- - 13:44 this game is easy to talk to your friend about it, being able to talk about something without spoilers by just mentioning a few things

- - 14:52 a minor complaint: Some scenes only available in the all timeline.

- - 16:05 the combat is fun. Combining real-time and turn-based

- - - 19:17 the limit to the number of sentries on the battlefield, and having a wide variety of mech archetypes and customization options

WEEK OF THE BEAST LORDS

PAT

33:16 Kotor2 is great. "An assassin droid calling the sith killing the jedi cultural suicide is a level of depth we'll never get from the movies"

- 34:27 reggie's notes on 13 sentinels may be released soon. And morimura being a walking distraction

- - 36:02 set up for maximum cosplay potential

- - 37:14 but why the clothes gone in the robot? Tactical Plot Nudity

- - - 40:11 Its also a good time to get on attack on titan. It's on crunchyroll!

- 40:44 just finished Dantooine, pat discovering some stuff he did not know. There are rewards for high influence and rewards for hitting zero influence. A retread of last week's discussion

- - 42:55 aaaah my braaaaain

44:14 beating bayo 2. Pat still likes bayo 1 better. Pat dislikes the final boss fight. And the Lumen sage is more spectacle but not as good to fight as Jeanne.

- 46:34 still a bummer you can play as Rodin and the Lumin Sage in co-op but not in the not-bloody palace. And playing a bit of the co-op and wishing you could play it yourself instead of with the CPU

- - 48:04 Wanting to see them iterate with the cameo system in bayo 3. Donguri990 and SunHilegend would do some insane stuff then

- - - 50:32 they really should be hired. Have you seen the monster hunter stuff?

- - - 53:14 reminder to check out the monster hunter rise demo

53:30 go check out pat over at patstaresat on twitch and twitter! He'll be playing Resident evil VIII and Kotor 2! Also, pat doesnt understand the desire for the big vampire lady. Pat's reason: EVERY WOMAN IS TALL TO ME

- 55:18 also, woolie wants southern belle. Pat wonders if that is a character people already know since he has some suspicions on who that could be already

- 57:21 Do you know alex wesker? And this could be the revelaitons 3 instead of RE8

- 58:26 taking place in europe. And only seeing the scale now compared to seeing her in earlier images

- 1:00:21 hoping for a ms. X type deal

- 1:01:00 Pat got an email to work with capcom

WOOLIE

1:01:53 Returning to the Guilty gear rabbit hole. Pat suggests just straight-up lying. Not much time for other stuff

- 1:03:10 Kotor's vroom, characters being self-righteous, massive boomer energy, and extremes taking over instead of more moderate approaches

- 1:07:11 Kotor ruining star wars by being nuanced. And pat mistaking Mark Hamill's reason for coming back

1:10:40 Woolie also loses his train of thought before crashing it back into demon's souls. Lotta people are getting in the backseat

- 1:35:50 played some online matches, real respect for the community

- 1:36:30 on wrestling games being out of date, and anime games usually being massively out of date. Pat imagines a scenario where they ask wrestlers what their gimmicks would be in 6 months, that falling through, so now there'd be a video game with a bunch of what if gimmicks

- 1:39:13 more on wrestling games just being super out of date

- 1:40:00 arcs not fully animated games when the ninja taisen/clash of ninja games were coming out. Itachi getting an entire movelist out of the two appearances he had

- 1:42:20 narultimate hero has lee opening up 9 gates and sakura with a stand. One group doing whatever while the other group trying to stay as accurate as possible

- 2:40:31 seeing -34 frames in the corner, and the question of pushing the envelope or being accessible

- 2:43:10 needing a specific monitor to see the difference, but hardwarewise it'll run 120fps. And Tournament organizers will need 120-hertz monitors
