Officer Reports - meeting minutes, treasurers update, membership update President Sarah Harnish.

The previous meeting minutes and Treasurers Report for the month were accepted as presented with no changes or additions.

The meeting was relatively short, there is not much to report. Much of the meeting was confirming/finalizing the plans for the Junior Pheasant hunt to be held December 17, 2022.

- Jared gave a Treasurer update on membership and the insurance policy. New members in attendance were welcomed There are currently 47 members, 20 have renewed; 5 Conservation. Erie Insurance has processed the application for the Club insurance.
- CREP Update; Sarah spoke with Eugene about flower planting. Jenna would like pictures of the pollination fields.
- Finalized plans for the Youth Pheasant Hunt; Menu – Carey Specht, Pheasants – Dick and Sarah, Deer – Sarah and Jarrod
- Ducks Unlimited has reached out to ask if the club would be interested in roasting a deer for them at the Melhorn Manor, February 11, 2022. More discussion on this item will be had January meeting.
- Something to consider for future holidays; some form of community service to help local a family in need around the holiday season.
- George Dodson spoke on the importance of Protecting Boundary Waters for future generations.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Care, Secretary, Red Rose Chapter IWLA.
