- Attendees:
 - Christina (Thayer), Melissa (Pembroke), Erica (Ventress), Kerri (Thomas Crane), Janet (Tufts), Diane (Norwell), Meghan (Duxbury)
- Today's Topics
 - SSYART Meetings
 - Possibly altering the schedule (i.e. no longer weekly) to accommodate members returning to their libraries
 - Email will go out about future meetings for members to vote on possible dates
 - For those re-establishing services, how has week one (or so) been?
 - Services?
 - Duxbury = curbside started (2 people on shift at a time)
 - Thomas Crane = still discussing, pressure from Mayor to re-open
 - Janet = staff is furloughed :`{
 - Ventress = split staff until further notice, curbside pick up to start after a week of returns only; will be handing out brochures about services (online resources, summer reading)
 - Thayer = meeting about re-establishing services today; being encouraged to create take-and-make kits for pick up
 - Pembroke = curbside via appointment
 - Programming
 - Thayer = take-and-make bookmarks for volunteer hours (bookmarks will be given to kids)
 - Ventress = creating take-and-makes to "clear out the storage closet"; each week will feature a different take-and-make with possible make-along video/meeting; patrons must sign up to get a craft kit
 - Collaborative programs with Kerri/Thomas Crane - Kerri will set up a Slack to help everyone coordinate
 - Erica demonstrated Slack via screen share
 - Book talks
 - Erica & Christina suggest Libro FM - Stamped is currently available and FREE with a library membership

- Erica suggests Simmons for finding someone to talk about race relations with youth
 - Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes
 - Bruja Born - about a family of Latinx witches (“brujas”); sequel focuses on another sister of the family from book 1
 - A Game of Fox and Squirrels - J Fic magical realism
 - NetGalley suggested for getting ARCs
 - You must rate at least 80% of the titles you get (star rating and three short questions to answer)
