Mekkyz is an individual online who is in the fandom spaces for Laika's Comet, Rgeretavator, Molly's Future Mishaps, Sparklecare, and Dark Carnival. In this document we will be outing him for rampant fetish mining (in regards to fat/chubby bellies, hypnosis (vortexes and black holes as an extension of this) and storms/tornados), and sexually harassing behaviours. His actions have largely gone unchecked for years as people did not feel confident in making their experiences known at the time. However, this has led to Mekkyz being free to victimise multiple people as no one was aware that this was the kind of person he was, thus he was allowed in many closed knit spaces online such as in various discord servers.

Please do not directly harass or wish/bring harm upon Mekkyz - it is recommended he is blocked and reported on all platforms he is on for the safety of others.

Those coming forward for this document in regards to Mekkyz have requested they remain anonymous. These individuals have their actual names redacted and will be referred to by the colour of their censor. Those who do not have their own sections for testimony are bystanders/unrelated parties participating in conversations and are represented by black colour censors.

Lavender

On the 3rd of July 2025, Lavender reached out to the account Anonymous-Sparklecarer to confide they had been pressured to engage in erotic fetish RPs by someone in the Sparklecare community, a user by the name of Mekkyz. The existence of this document largely stems from this initial allegation, which will soon turn out to not only be significantly substantiated, but also something that happened to multiple people in Mekkyz's vicinity.

oh, i need to ask, do you know mekkyz? i forget their other usernames sorry. but, they're not a good person, they borderline groomed me and another person, i can provide proof of this if needed

i was 15-16 at the time, and he was 18, he borderline pressured me into erotic rps, he did the same to this other person

this person
<https://www.tumblr.com/mekkyz-dubz?source=share>

Yesterday 4:47 PM

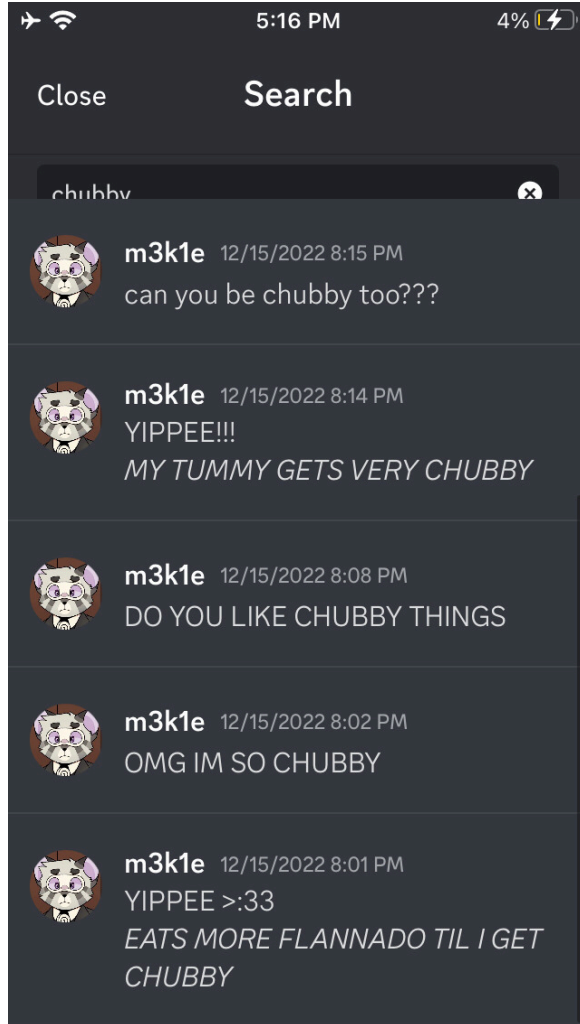

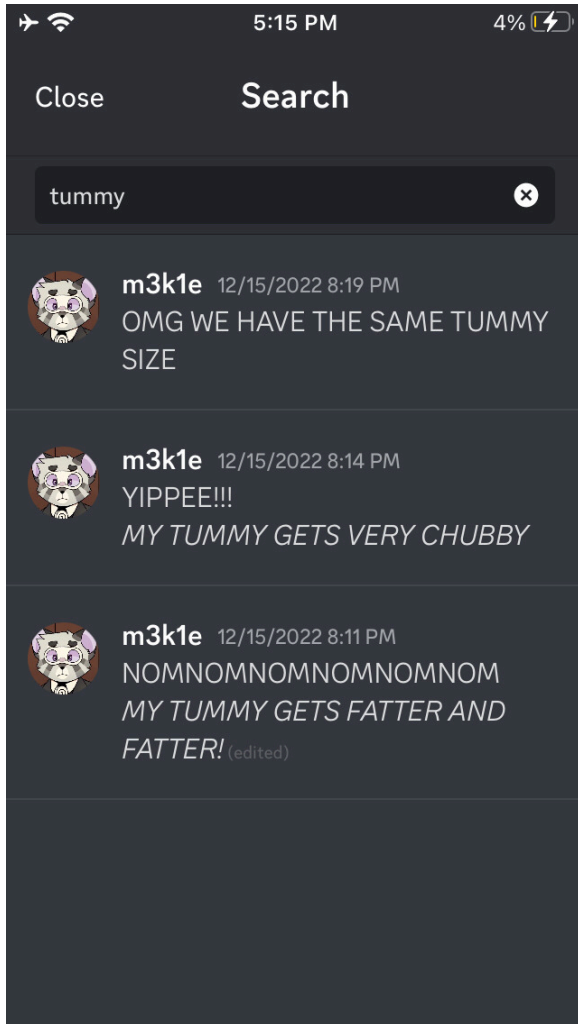

i was about 2-3 years younger than him when this happened, and he was aware of the fact

he just sort of like. continued those erps even when i said i wasn't in the mood, which is weird

if you are to publish these screenshots perhaps censor my name
i do not want him going after me

i appreciate you wanting to spread awareness of this guy, and what he did to me, even if i'm not the greatest person. it means a lot

Lavender provided the following instances of Mekkyz persistently pursuing roleplays in regard to fat/chubby belly fetishism with the then 15 - 16 year old Lavender (As Mekkyz is currently 21, during this interaction he would have been 18)

Lavender had recalled the experience to a friend at the time regarding Mekkyz projecting his fetish onto them to an uncomfortable degree.

Mekkyz had also fetish mined Lavender in regards to storms/tornadoes as well as black hole vortexes (see Indigo and Lime's sections first for more context).

Sorry to bother you, but since making the callout on Mekkyz public 8 other people have now reached out in regards to Mekkyz being creepy towards them or fetish mining them. Currently working to add that on to the doc. Just curious: Did Mekkyz ever talk to you about tornados, storms, or black holes?

Because that's a fetish things for him as well, often combined with the hypnosis and fat stuff from what people coming forward have said.

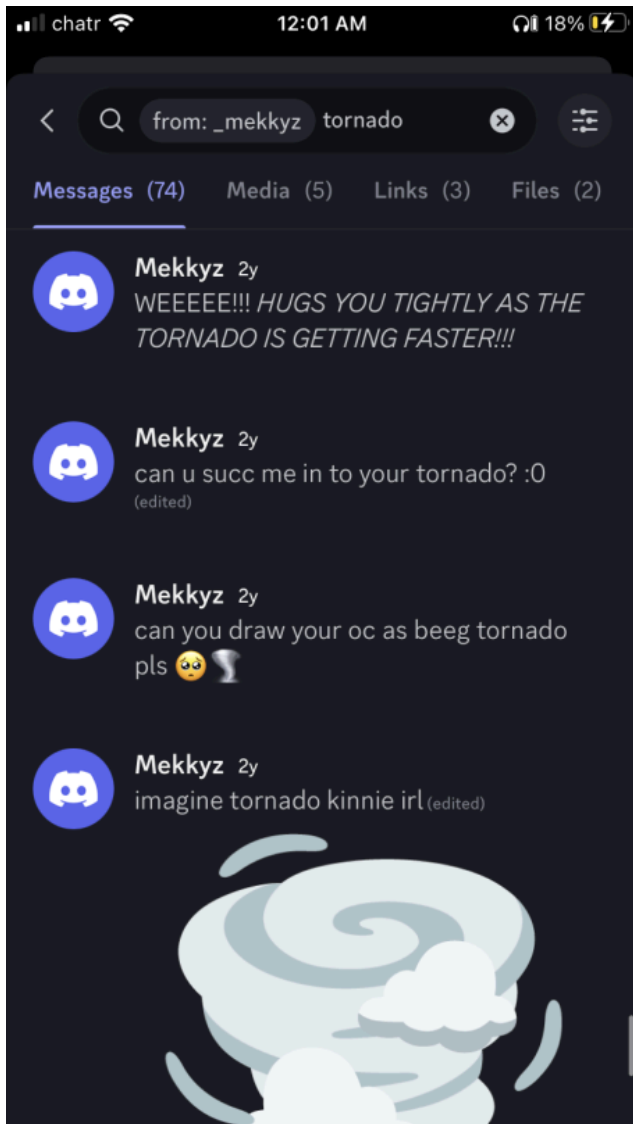

Jul 12 11:00 AM

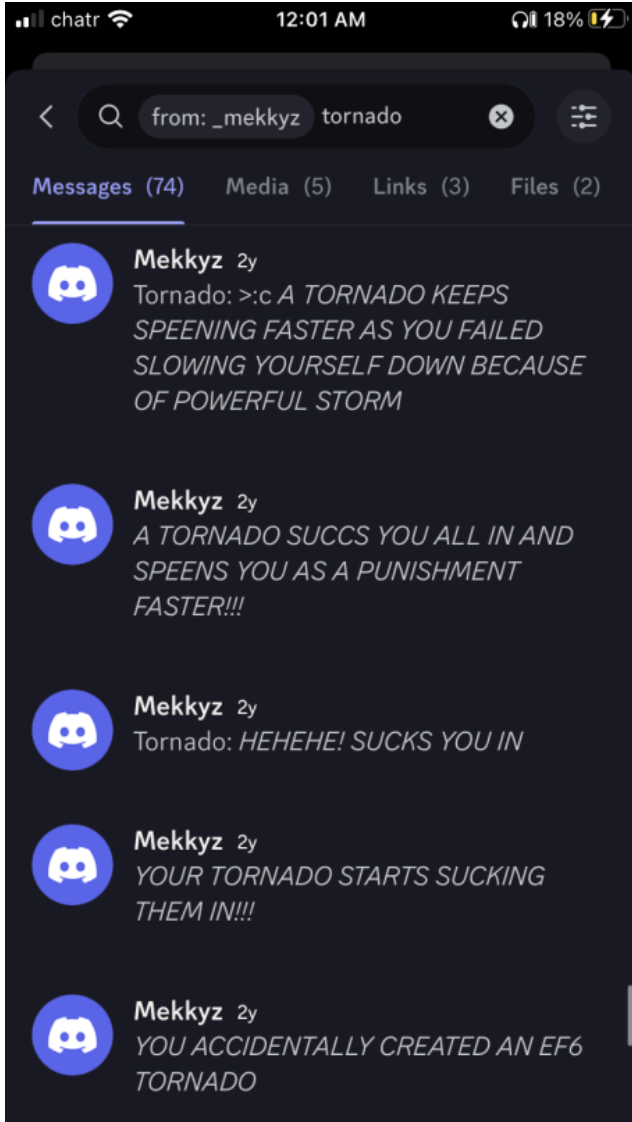

WAIT A MINUTE YES HE DID

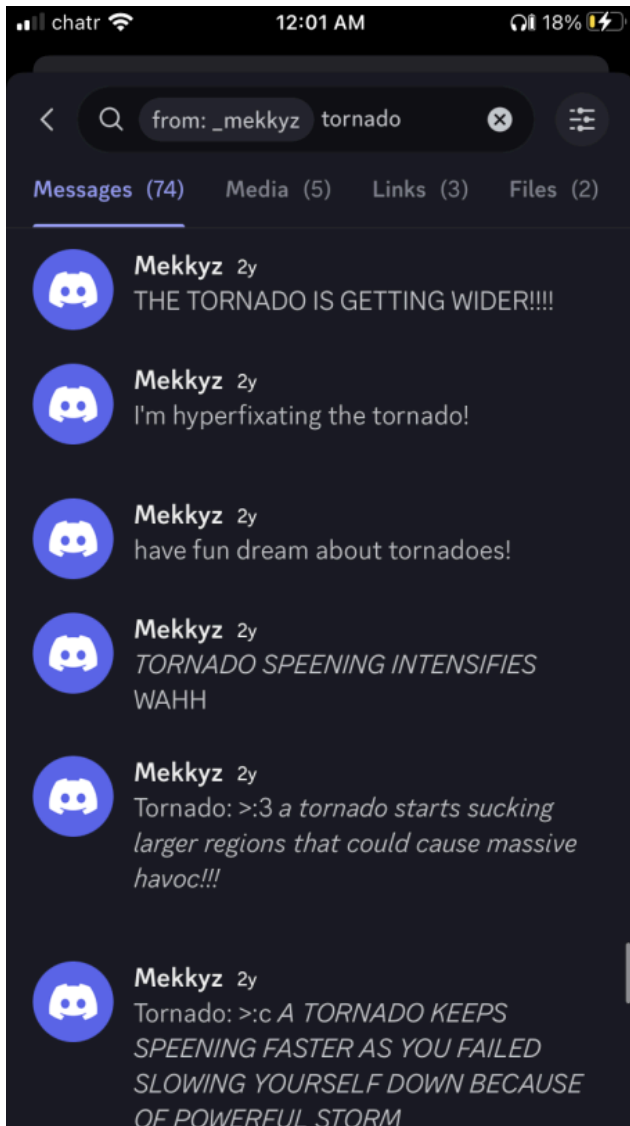

HE LOVED TORNADOS 🦴

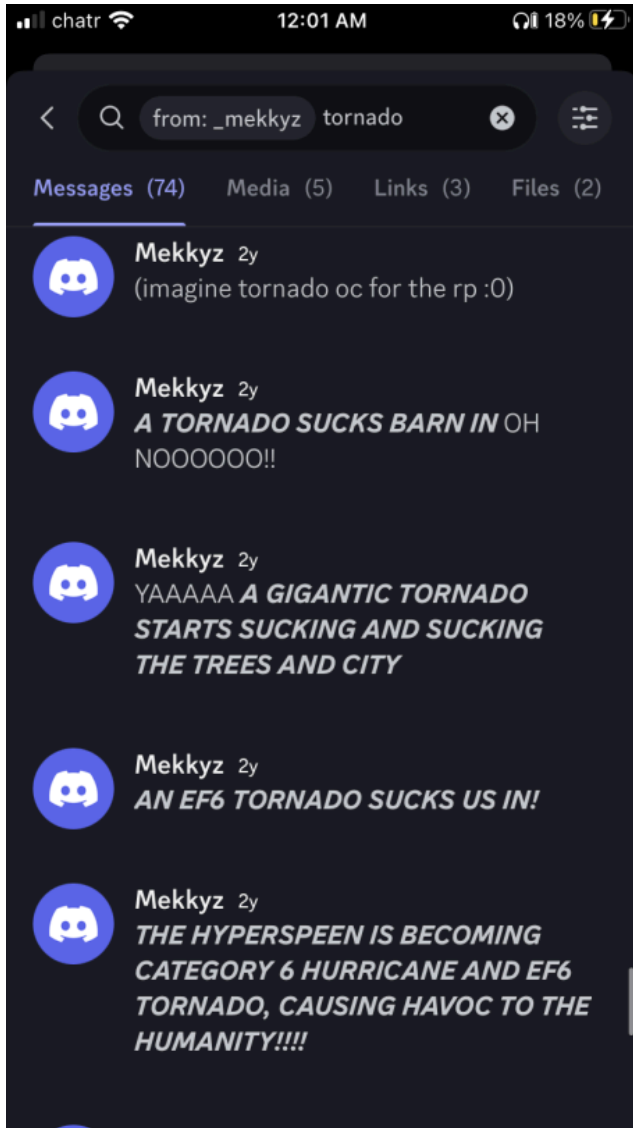

Much of what Lavender experienced from Mekkyz aligns with how he had fetish mined others. Key points of characters being sucked into a tornado, requesting Lavender spin, doing RPs related to tornados, and begging Lavender to draw their characters as tornades.

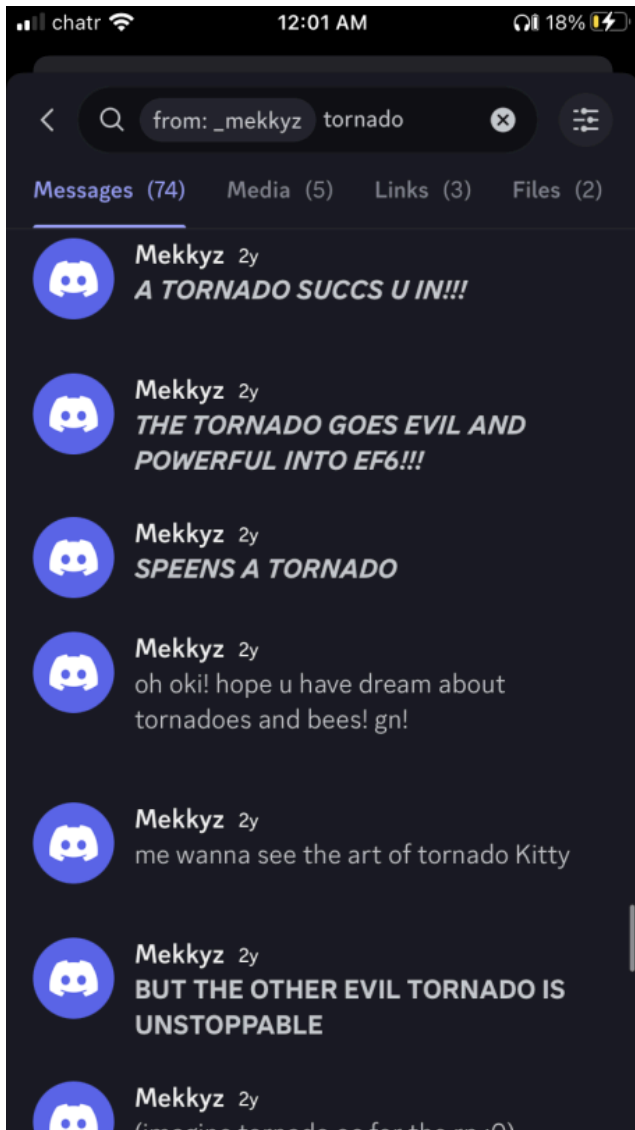

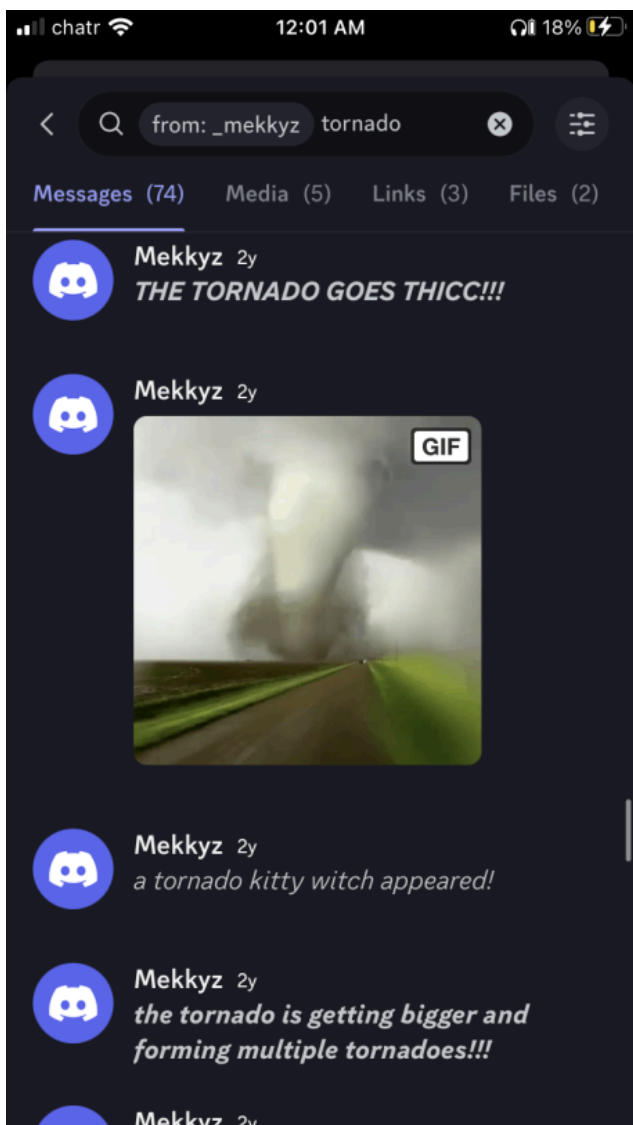

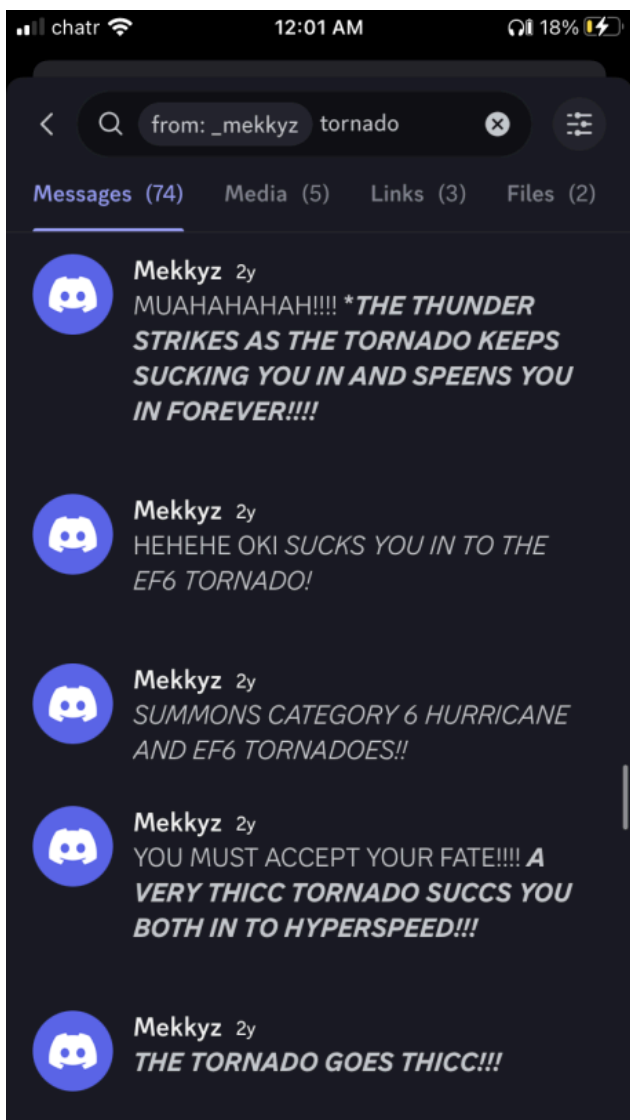

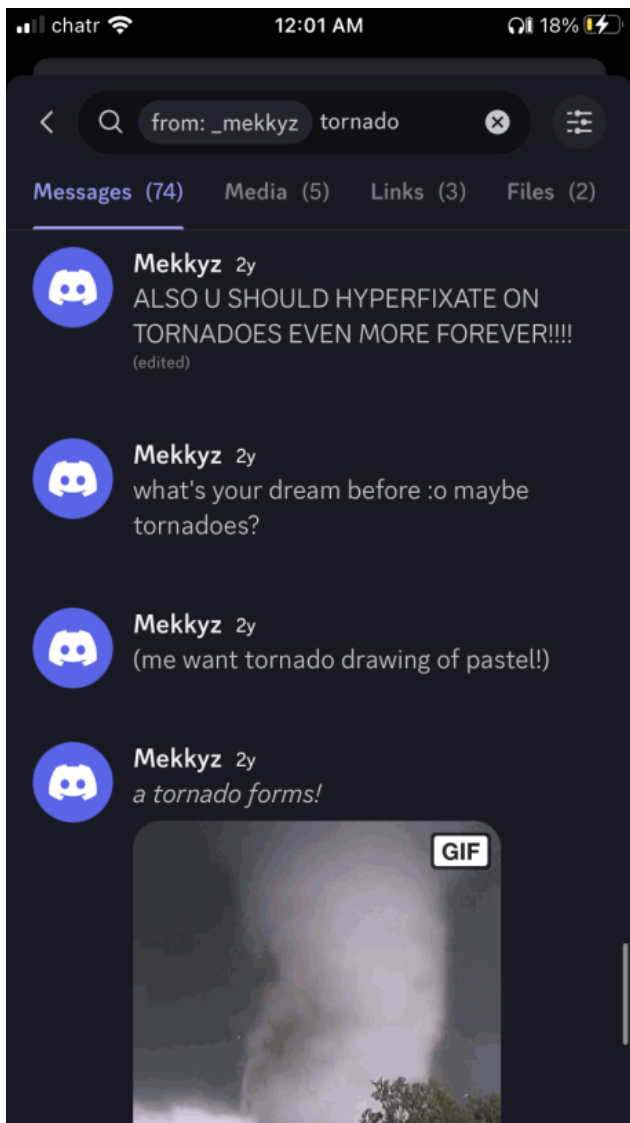

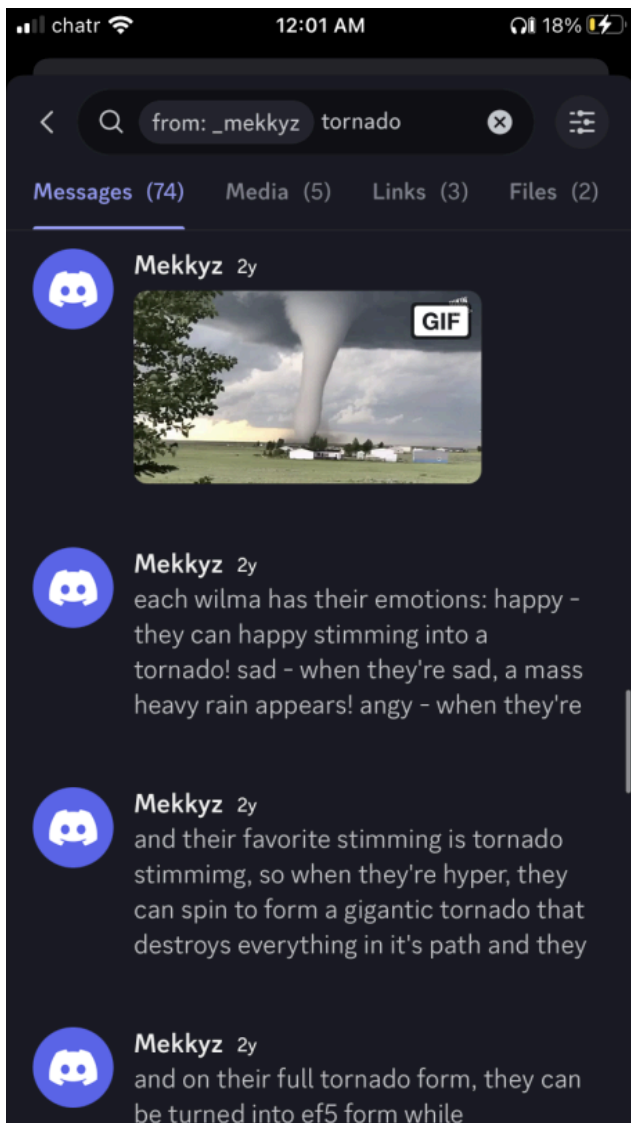

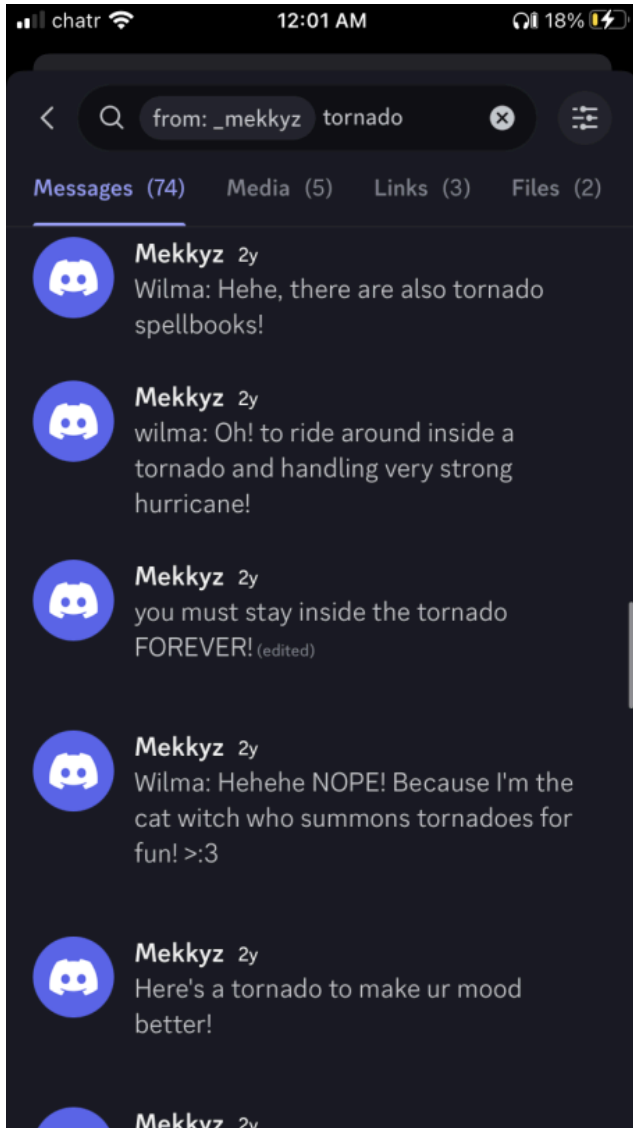

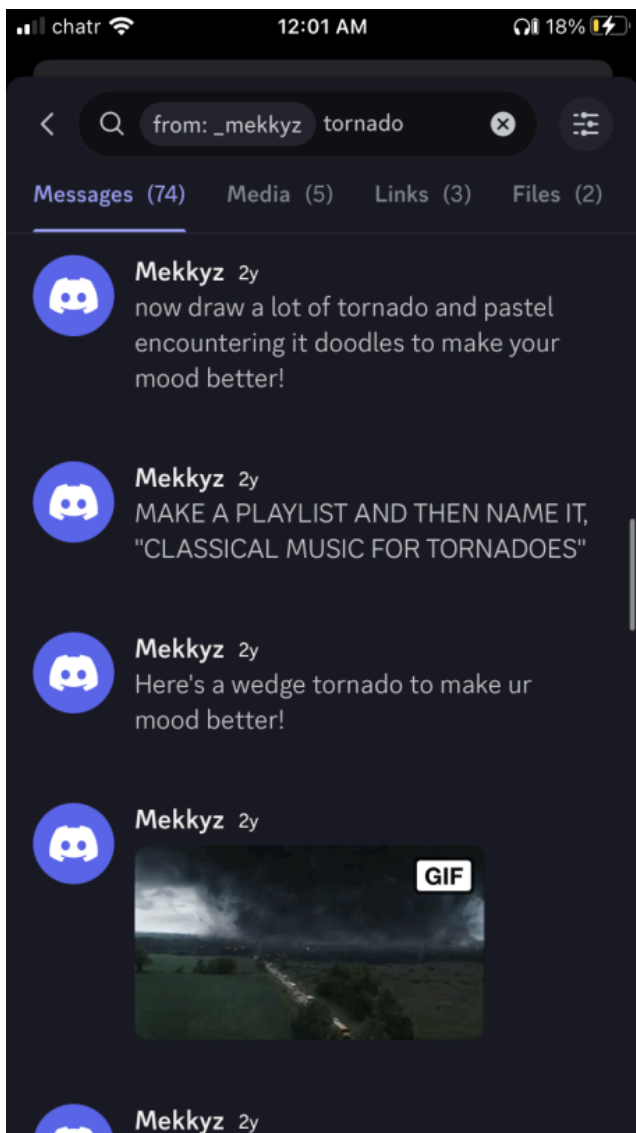

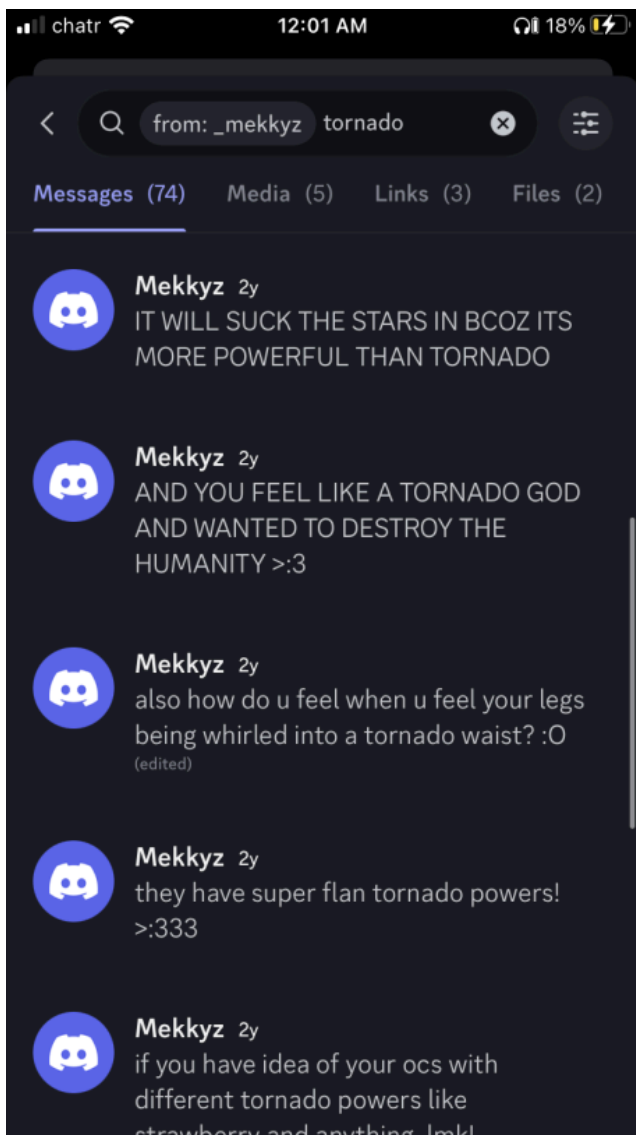

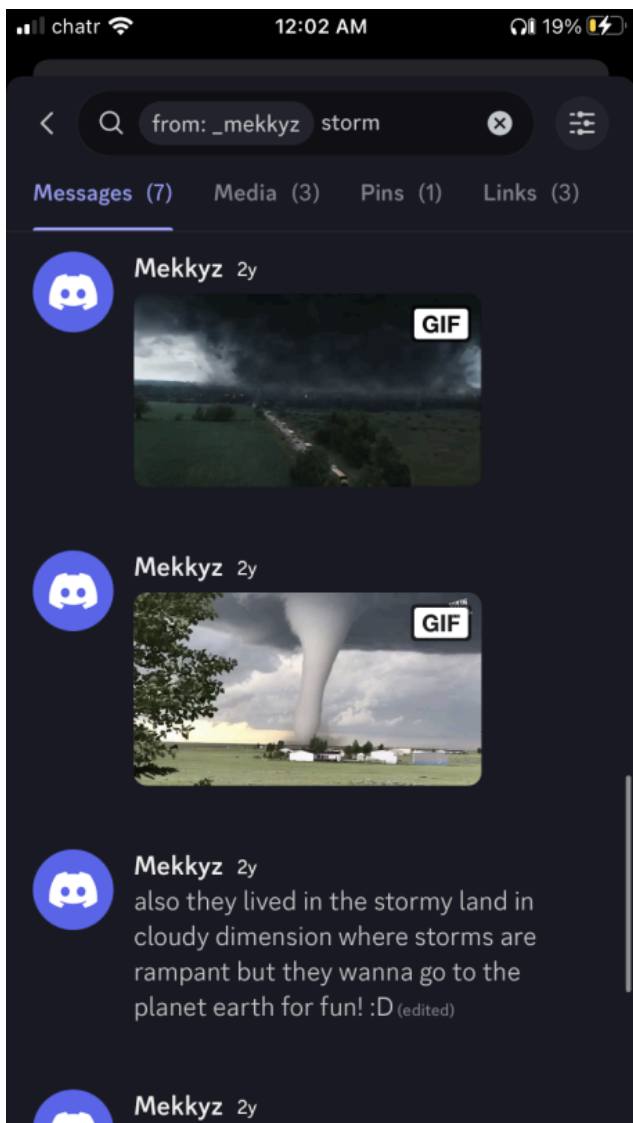

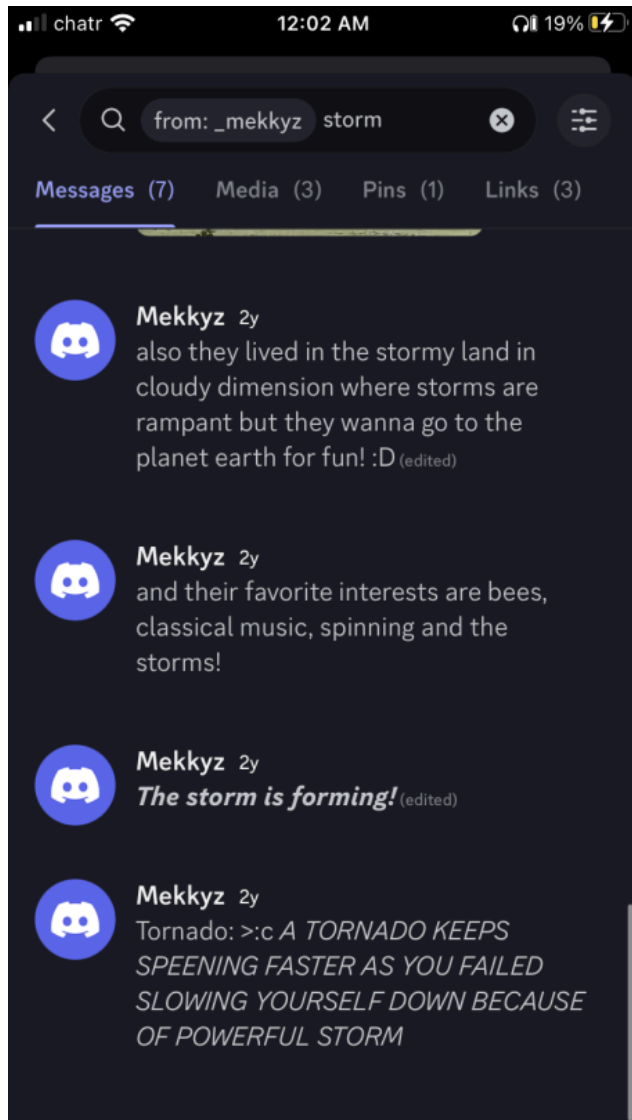

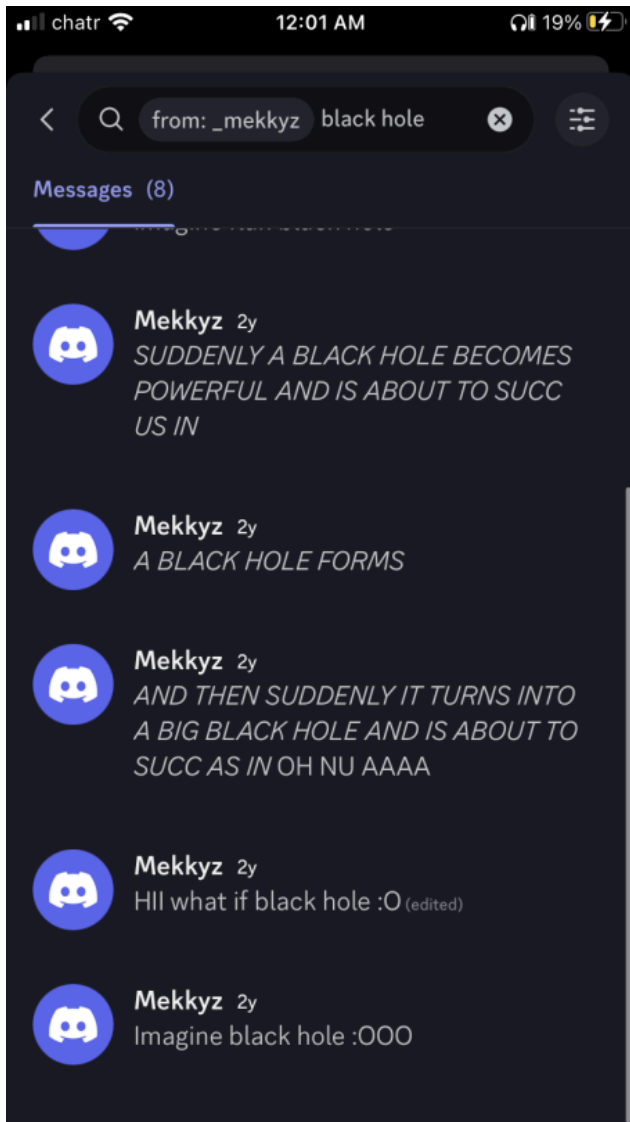

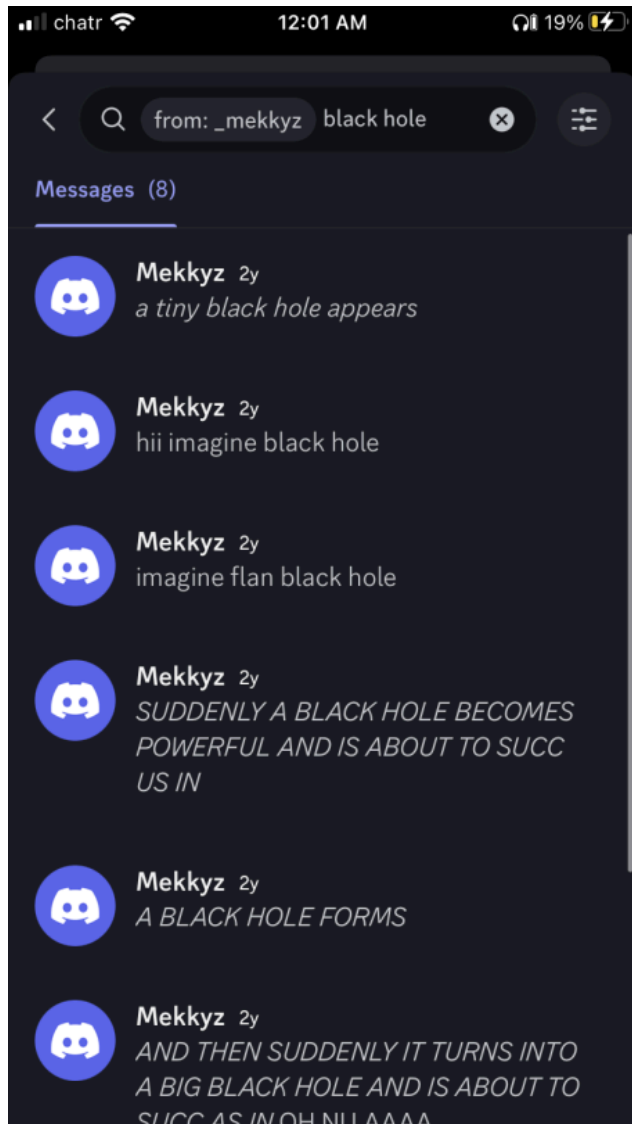

In regards to black holes, similar to his fetishism of tornadoes, a central theme is the recipients getting sucked in.

Maroon

In December of 2024, Mekkyz initiated a conversation with Maroon which soon derailed with unprompted overt sexual harassment. He suddenly started talking about sexual topics in relation to the characters from the webcomic Sparklecare, clearly making Maroon uncomfortable. In April 2025 he once again attempts to initiate sexual conversations with Maroon asking if it is okay to talk about NSFW with them, which Maroon shuts down immediately. Later in the month Maroon reprimands Mekkyz for bringing up intentionally triggering and upsetting topics around their friend, before fully cutting Mekkyz off as he had previously made them uncomfortable due to the sexual harassment. Maroon also mentions that they had also since learnt that Mekkyz had acted in a similarly vulgar way to Red.

I'm just not best at comforting her

I'll try to be careful next time because I don't have anything to say about her

Blue

In a server with those who were formerly in the Sparklecare community, Blue discussed Mekkyz conduct within the casual offshoot to the Sparklecare archive server. It was identified that Mekkyz had been fetish mining in regards to hypnosis art, attempting to sneak it into the tags of various fandoms without properly tagging for it or making people aware that is what it was. While initially a benefit of the doubt was given that perhaps this was just an autistic hyperfixation, considering Mekkyz's sexual harassment towards Maroon, and fat/chubby belly fetishism with Lavender, it is hard to take this as being innocent in any way.

6/12/25, 1:00 AM

Hey uh. Idk if this is too soon but Mekkys set off some alarms for me when I first spotted him in the sch tag when everything went down, but I decided to give him the benefit of the doubt/set it aside once I realized I was in a server with them and should probably remain civil, because I'm stupid like that and this is how I keep landing myself in messed up situations, but like now that I am no longer trying to ignore that shit and am putting all the pieces together of what was going on and letting myself see the big picture, I now realize that I have just a ton of examples of them using the people around them for fetish mining (or at least trying to). I could send some stuff but idk if thats unnecessary/I'm overstepping so please lmk.

6/12/25, 1:03 AM

The warning bells in the tag were just me noticing that their art seemed like fetish art, everything else was in .

6/12/25, 1:04 AM

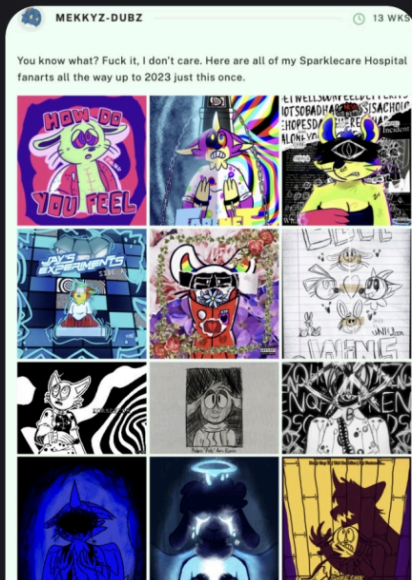

Ah, thats fair

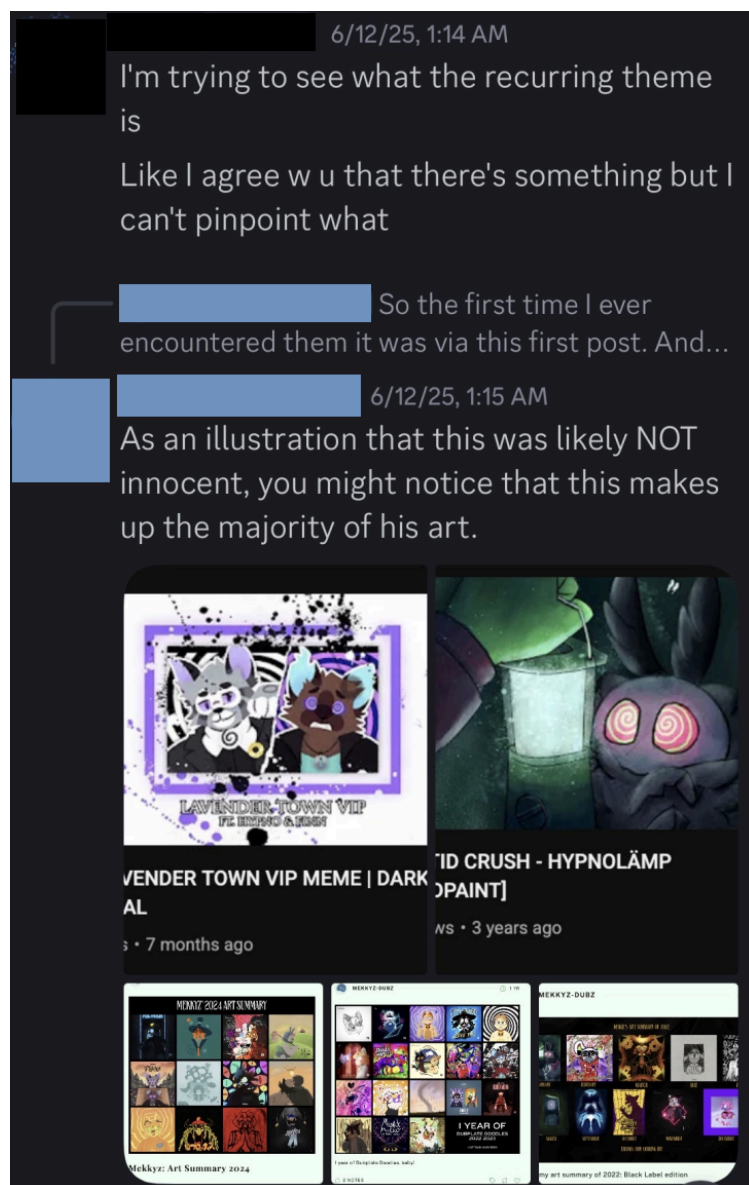

6/12/25, 1:04 AM

Thats why I didn't say anything at first because I was like well it's untagged but maybe they just aren't self aware about what's going on being acespec is weird like that sometimes but uh no I'm pretty sure he knew like I think I have some pretty significant evidence of what they were doing

6/12/25, 1:12 AM

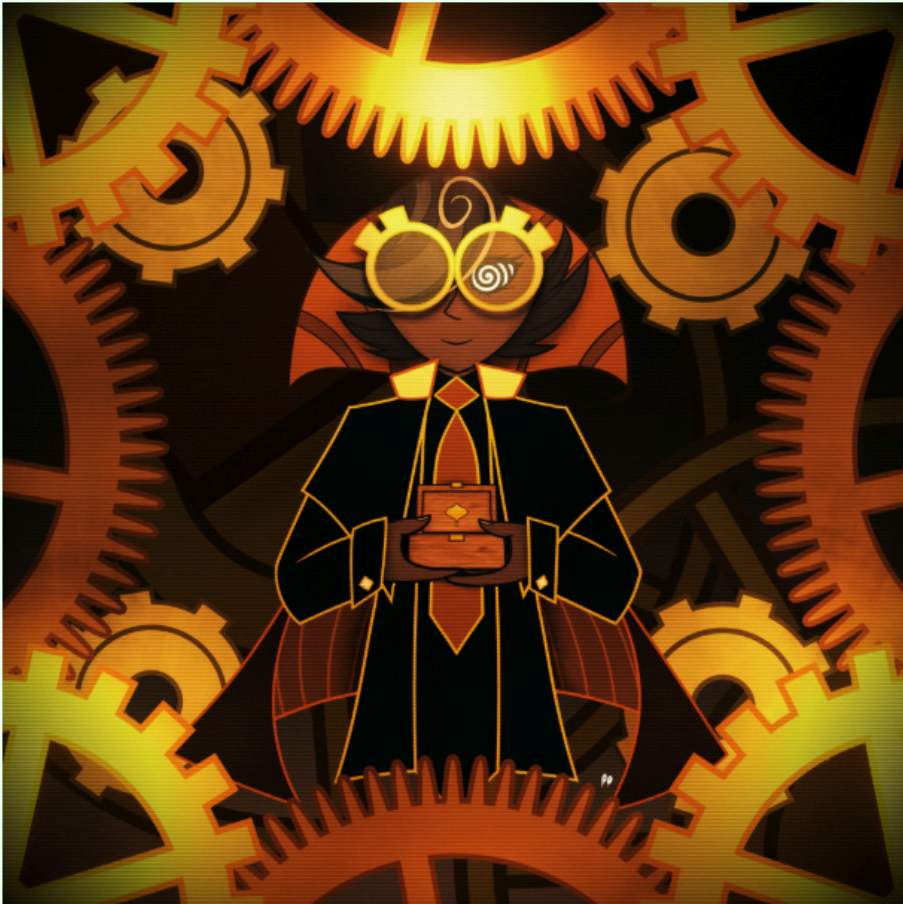

So the first time I ever encountered them it was via this first post. And I was immediately like fuck there's kind of a reoccurring motif here but it could be innocent, I have no way of knowing. This was before I had ever met him in the server. But kinda figured, if it wasn't innocent it seemed totally bizarre to post content like this in response to a situation that was literally about someone putting fetish shit in their work without telling anyone. I think at the time I just blocked him and moved on.

Only one piece of Mekkyz's art on his tumblr is tagged as hypnosis, (<https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/tagged/hypnosis> (archive)) but the reblog containing an entire short fanfiction about hypnosis, is not (<https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/post/680218828447285248/okay-to-those-cookie-run-fans-wondering-this> (archive)).

MEKKYZ-DUBZ

Okay to those Cookie Run fans wondering this artwork I made, well here's a story on how Espresso became a co-director of Time Balance Department. Not sure if my story is good but I tried my best.

Espresso was wandering in the forest on his own to find monsters to fight until he encountered an abandoned house, as he expected some monsters appearing, he enters the house.

As soon as the house going dark, Espresso lights up his hand to see the room easily. "Ugh, it's getting dark. Hopefully there's more magics in this house." Said Espresso. However, he hears a music box playing so he must find the room, the more he listens, he then enters the door who played it.

The room is mostly dark aside from the music box glowing. He approached the music box and opens it, revealing a polyphon music box with hypnotic spiral part of the golden disk.

The music box starts playing "Silent Night" along with the room entirely lit up, revealing a bunch of hypnotic spiral and golden time gears on a room. A trail of music notes start flying towards Espresso's head, hypnotizing him until he's sleepy and falling himself into the pocket dimension. Enter Timekeeper's pocket dimension

Upon finishing the music box, Timekeeper Cookie appears as if they wanted to greet someone who visited their pocket but Espresso is no different. Espresso wakes up in the pocket dimension and greeted by Timekeeper. He wonders on how he got into their pocket dimension and Timekeeper realized it was their music box playing that hypnotized him into sleeping, so that's what makes Espresso a surprise visit.

Timekeeper asked Espresso if he wanted to be their co-director of TBD, stating they were bored if they were staying in their own dimension alone so they wanted to mess around with their alternate timelines. However, if Espresso wanted to be a co-director of TBD, he'll make sure that their timelines, their friends and families are going safe and fixed if something goes wrong with it. And so, both Timekeeper and Espresso have agreed the deal.

Now look at him go, his new outfit is now fitting for a co-director.

That's pretty much it. If Madeline finds out about his love Espresso being a co-director of TBD, he'll be surprised by his outfit but who knows?

Tell me what'ya think?

In a server Blue shared with Mekkyz (which was NOT a NSFW server by any means), he would constantly bring up his fetishes (such as hypnosis, and fat/chubby bellied characters) without much prompting by anyone, and would get frustrated at the lack of engagement when everyone else thought it was incredibly weird. Others in the conversation with Blue then relayed similar experiences of Mekkyz trying to simply pass off his fetishes as 'themes', one person even being underage at the time.

he pushed that this was just a theme and not a fetish

This sort of behaviour has also been present in other servers Mekkyz has been in where he would bring up his art with hypnosis in them completely unprompted and unrelated to what was being conversed at the time in a server that was not NSFW.

that stupid

Those in the server discussed further than Mekkyz would not be upfront in regards to the hypnotism, and how he would just try to pass it off as a part of a fixation with dubstep music. This is despite the fact that a lot of his hypnosis art and the hypnosis conversations he has brought up have nothing to do with dubstep.

Pink

Pink detailed how they were also roped into a conversation adjacent to hypnotism through Mekkyz bringing up 'The Smiler' roller coaster unprompted. This roller coaster is a favourite of hypnotism fetishists for its swirly eyed logo and the machine's lore being that it brainwashes people into being joyful and submissive. Pink was completely unaware of this connection.

Red

Red has alleged that Mekkyz attempted to coerce them into hypno fetishism roleplays when they were 17, and that Mekkyz also attempted to do the same to a 15 year old.

While Red has chosen not to share the DMs they had with Mekkyz, their experiences have been corroborated by a former friend of Red's, as well as Maroon.

Yesterday at 19:14

"here's my totally not a fetish art!"

6/12/25, 1:30 AM
i checked my dms and i genuinely do not think he tried to push anything on me i don't know whether to be relieved or offended lmao

Lavender, in talking to a mutual friend of Red's, also found out that they were not the only victim who was targeted in regards to fetish mining in this way.

Yellow

Yellow reached out after the document on Mekkyz was published. Currently 16 years old, Yellow divulged that 4 years prior when he was 12 - 13 years old, and Mekkyz was 16 - 17 years old, after meeting Mekkyz in the Sparklecare fandom was frequently DMed Mekkyz's hypnosis art completely unaware of the intentions behind the work.

he/meow/pup

im 16 dont be weird...

Following you for less than a year

Hey, I'm sorry to bother you but I wanted to contribute a little to the Mekkyz doc a little? I don't know if my information is as helpful but he used to send me his art with hypno fetish undertones in late 2021 when I was like just barely 13 years old & I have screenshots of this.

I'd screen record these dms as proof but while i was screenshotting them he started deleting the tweets with the art of it in so all I have are screenshots with his username in it.

I understand if you don't want this due to it not being as severe as other victims stories but I thought i'd still offer to send them if needed or smth so i had joined the sparklecare fandom in about june of 2021 when i was 12 years old, the comic was still marked as just 16+ at the time but I didn't listen because like I was 12 man idk what else to say. I had been active on twitter for a couple months at this point and regularly posted fanart of sparklecare when mekkyz followed me and starting liking my posts.

Every so often he'd send me dms whenever he posted or was working on new art (which i will send afterwards) and being unaware it was a fetish thing i'd just say I liked the art and get along with my day, the first screenshot of the 3 i will send was just a few days after my 13th birthday we didn't talk that often nor were we overly close but i still consider us friends considering how often he'd dm me or we'd have conversations in twitter comments.

Me and him stopped talking in I'd say mid 2023? although by this point he hadn't messaged me for a while with his latest dm to me being february of 2022. We'd only stopped being friends due to me growing a distaste towards sparklecare, this was before all the gross stuff came out i just didn't like the general direction the comic was going in at the time + how bad the fanbase was

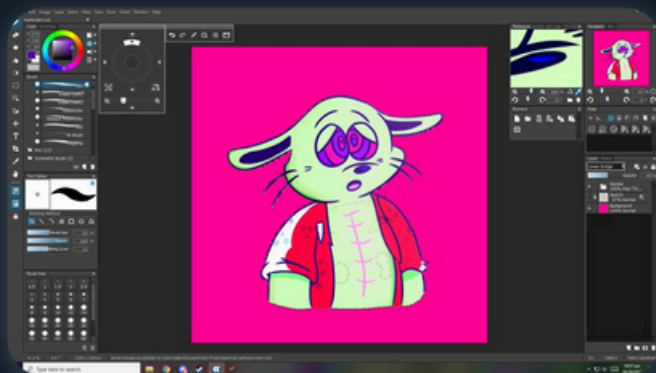

Yellow provided the following screenshots from twitter interactions he had with Mekkyz's in which he shared his hypnosis art to the much younger minor.

Dec 20, 2021, 12:21 PM

At the time, Yellow failed to catch on there was anything off about the abundance of hypnosis imagery in Mekkyz's art.

it hadn't even crossed my mind it could've been fetish content until i was stalking the tags and saw the doc came out and was like "oh my god it was for fetish reasons???"

even if we were both underage he was still so much older than me too

Purple

Much like Yellow, Purple reached out after the document on Mekkyz was published. Mekkyz first contacted Purple when he was 20 and did not check for their age at all before spamming them with a lot of unprompted hypnosis art. Purple is currently still a minor.

I was getting suspicious this guy was a weirdo already

Were there any red flags you sensed or was it just a vibe?

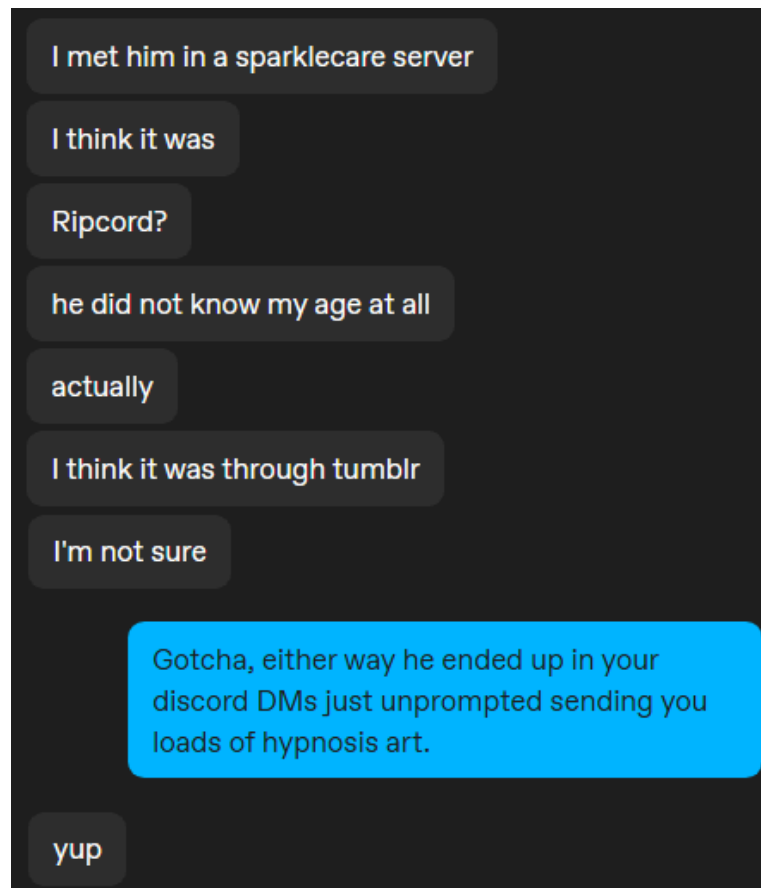

well when he mentioned the whole hipnossi thing I just felt fweird but thought it was just some artistic thing

he also talked to me pretty dry ish after a few weeks

he just amde me feel weird made.

I could just feel it

Mekkyz would almost exclusively share hypnosis art with Purple and tried to claim it was purely as an aesthetic interest.

Indigo

Indigo came forward in their own post after seeing Mekkyz's fetishisation of fat/chubby characteristic in this callout through the interactions Mekkyz had with Lavender. This prompted Indigo to look back at their own DMs with Mekkyz to see a lot of the same fixations on plus sized body types through a fetishized lens.

I'M SO GROSSED OUT I THOUGHT I FOUND LIKE A GOOD CHARACTER THAT'S SUPER COOL AND ALSO YOU KNOW JUST REALLY SWAG BUT THEN NOOO HOLY GALORE FETISH FETISH FETISH SPRINKLE IT EVERYWHETE!!!

Mekkyz did this through talking about his OC 'Venti' who was a scantily clad 'tornado goddess' that Mekyz often reiterated to Indigo was chubby/fat/thick/plus sized and made it no secret he was attracted to this OC.

Oh yeah, you were totally right btw Mekkyz specifically named the tornado fetish O...

Yesterday at 07:55

He had whole lore for it that he forwarded from somewhere

↪ Forwarded

The Howler

Bio: The Howler is a sentient creature who is made of tornadoes when the hot and cold air followed by a severe thunderstorm form together and sometimes formed in either desert, ocean or on it's own independently. They were born after they died as humans or on its own. Despite being sinister in the first glance, they are actually friendly to humans despite the sheer size and they are careful when standing close to the building or a human in order to prevent them from getting vacuumed into its path.

They are located in the greater plains of the central states and they are the most diverse species thanks to their different body shapes and different types of biomes. They are genderless but the majority can identify themselves as different genders for who they are. Their lifespan can reach up to 120 years during severe storm seasons.

The general appearance of The Howler is made of swirling tornadoes from the thunderstorm. Their body shapes from slender to fat to curvy to muscular, as well as forming masculine, feminine and vice versa. They are either naked or form a traditional dress for whenever they desired, especially during the rain.

In the religious lore, they were represented by the elder weather goddess who wanted to treat tornadoes as people in her image so she casts a heavy thunderstorm to create multiple tornadoes and tinkers around them until she finally got them right. The tornadoes became sentient and self aware and one tornado was happy when they were created, thus revealing their name as The Howler.

↪ Forwarded

They currently live in northern to southern states known as The Howler's Home. The earliest human to howler interaction was recorded in Freising in 790 AD, 2 years after the early recorded tornado in Freising.

However, they are reminded that they will be very careful when encountering the building since they're delicate to them. They've wanted to do a ballet dance for a while to keep the chasers interested. They are aware of humans getting sucked up into the tornado. When a person gets sucked into the Howler's body, they would notice something's wrong and then trying to pick them up and land them to the ground safely. Unless a person tells them they want to stay here, it's up to the Howler's decision about this scenario because they don't want to put tiny humans in danger.

For EF scale for each body types:

EF0-EF2: Skinny

EF3-EF5: Chubby

EF4-EF5: Muscular

↪ Forwarded

A goddess named Venti is a plus sized goddess and the only EF5 tornado who loves to dance for fun.

Her favorite season is spring. She adores the chasers for appreciating her dancing at farther away. She hopes for other humans to take safety. On her special occasion, she grass on an empty land and decides to do her dance as the chasers record such amazing yet powerful deity dancing like a ballet. On her physical side, the walls of a funnel are very thick unlike The Howler's wall which varies the thickness. Her wall can prevent humans from entering her body inside once sucked up.

Since she is a very tall goddess, she wishes humans to see her whole body as the mesocyclone clouds that are shorter than her have blocked her upper parts, appearing herself as a wedge shaped tornado. However in some occasions, she fully appears if the mesocyclone height is tall enough. That's why she casts the wind to expand the height of the storm to see herself. I imagined her own orchestral performance being named as "Waltz of the Wind" where classical music was performed by the storm.

Venti does have her creations as her family. Tempest is the oldest, Cumulus is the middle and Nimbus is the youngest.

- Tempest (They/Its) - They are the oldest child of the howler's family. They're smart and can look through different locations whenever they're comfortable with.
- Cumulus (It/Its) - It is the middle child of the howler's family. It shares its same trait as its sibling, as well as its curiosity.
- Nimbus (She/Her) - She is the youngest of the three. She has been wandering through its path to know what land would look like. She can be as clumsy as a klutz when she accidentally sucked up the town in its path.

However, it is important to note that Indigo was not just fetish mined for in regards to the character being fat/chubby - Mekkyz was also attracted to storms and tornadoes. Indigo was entirely unaware of this.

While objectum sexualities in and of themselves are not necessarily fetishes, Mekkyz conduct in relation to storms and tornadoes with other people is still fetish mining as the other parties were not aware that it was not just a mere hyperfixation, but a drive for his attractions.

On tumblr Mekky has posted about falling in love with a tornado (<https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/post/785757163298717696/i-kinda-fell-in-love-with-a-tornado> (archive)), as well as actively seeking out other people who were objectum for storms and tornadoes (<https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/post/776619127151427584/ok-fr-im-looking-for-objectum-oofms-who-fell-in> (archive))

#objectum #tornado #except for proship and endos. dni #storms

Mekkyz would put posts about tornadoes in the main fandom tags (for roblox children's game, Regretevator) not making those aware that this topic was an extension of his attractions

(<https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/post/784571514499497984/i-think-poob-would-like-tornadoes-because-it> (archive))

MEKKYZ-DUBZ

I think Poob would like tornadoes because it shaped like their party hat to them, but they don't like it when they get sucked in because of how loud a tornado is, so they wore earmuffs before getting dragged into such a dangerous place.

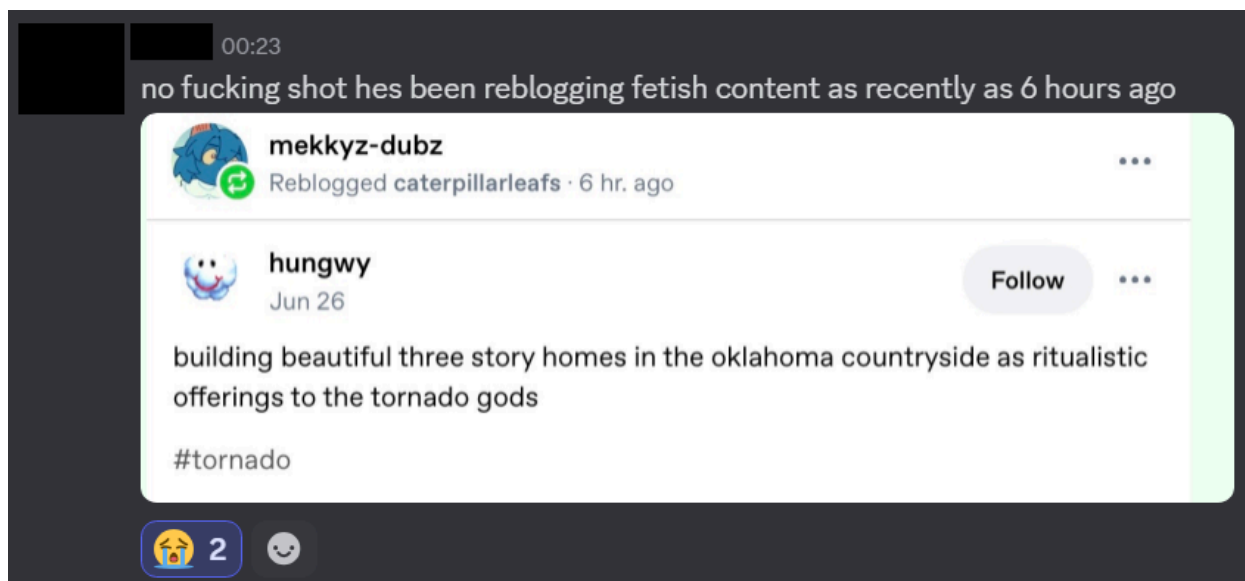

Poob would also be sad when the tornado dissipates, but hey nothing lasts forever they say! Until they were stopped by DRRETRO. In addition, they would've been brave to dive into the storm if their hat or horn got whiskered away.

Even after he had been confronted about his behaviour, Mekkyz was still shamelessly reblogging thirst posts about tornadoes (<https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/post/788704757768454144> (archive)), no doubt because unlike the fat/chubby fetishism and hypnosis fetishism, people had not caught on yet that this was another extension to what he had fetishised.

Green

Green was 15 when Mekkyz at age 17 - 18 started talking to them. Introducing Green to Sparklecare hospital, he used it as an avenue to showcase his hypnosis art. Unlike other victims, Mekkyz was incredibly overt in regards to the brainwashing hypnosis aspect of it.

favorite tornado types based on this chart?

Hourglass n Segmented are kinda epic

ooh yea

for me, cone, stovepipe, wedge and hourglass

hourglass is my favorite tornado type because of how beautiful aesthetics they were tbhh

what do you think of it :0

I think they pretty neat :3

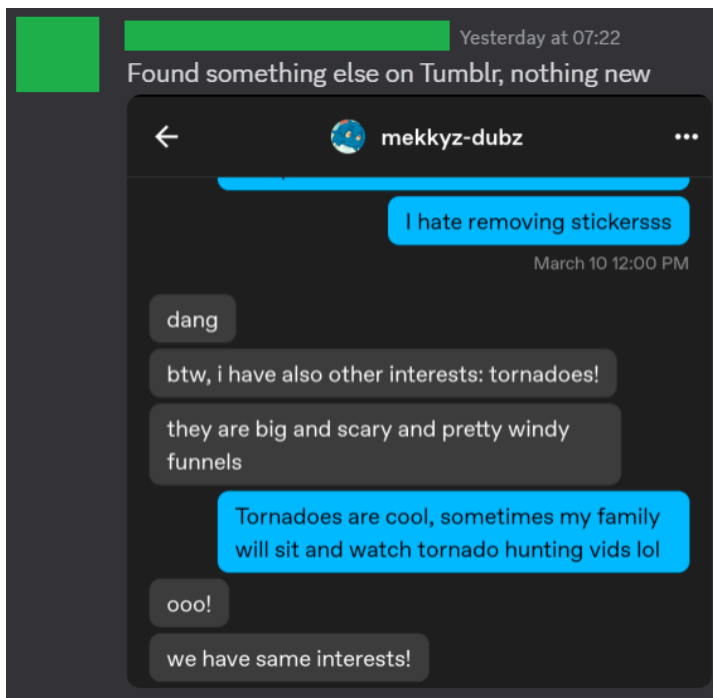

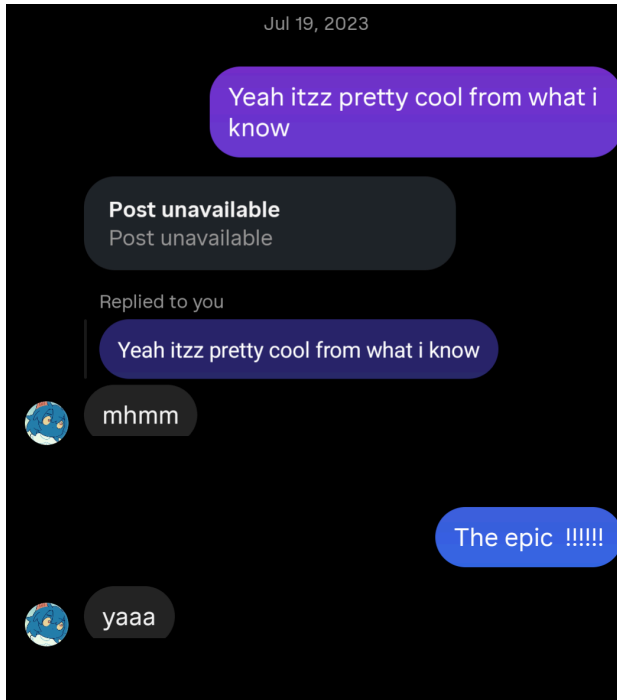

mhm :3

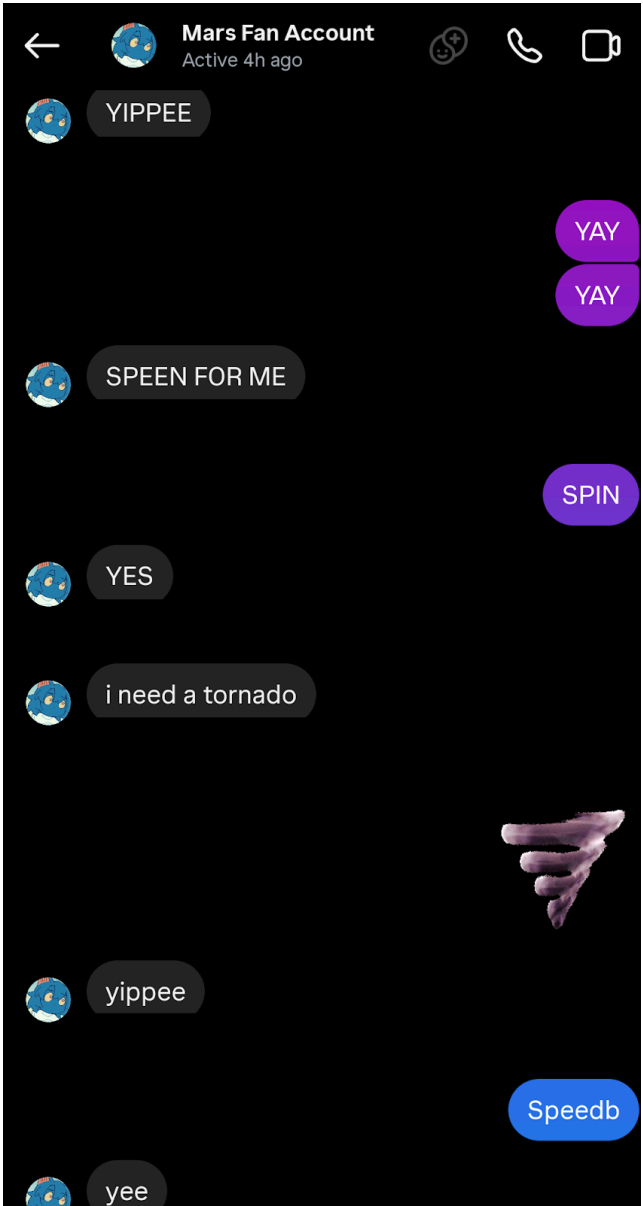

beautiful and destruction at the same time i like how diverse these weather phenomena are

This would also involve Mekkyz asking the minor to 'spin' for him.

Disturbingly, Mekkyz would also frequently DM Green about Tornado related natural disasters in which they caused destruction, and even killed people. Something that Green was extremely uncomfortable by as it was a great source of anxiety. Green also does not live in an area of the United States that was prone to tornados so it wouldn't even make sense if Mekkyz was warning Green out of concern for their safety.

Fun fact: I am scared of tornadoes and he send me messages about how much destruction tornadoes caused
Like 'oh did you see the crazy destruction this tornado did?' i don't want to hear about ruined lives thank you

Jesus christ, and I bet at no point did Mekkyz ever tell you he was attracted to Tornados. He's said as much here in this server that he has an objectum attractions towards them - that's fine but it's still fetish mining when those around him were not aware of that fact. (edited)

I'd like to add since I didn't last night that I don't live near Kentucky. I do live in the us, and i know other countries don't always realize how big the us actually is, but there was nothing tying me to that area.

and idk even if this Wasn't something gross, why would you randomly message someone about this, someone you barely know. About warnings that didn't go out and killed a bunch of people. I have anxiety listed in my bio, this is maybe one of the worst things to send to someone with anxiety.

██████████ Yesterday at 06:27
I never actually told him I had a fear but tbh I didnt expect someone to just send me news about people dying

Mekkyz also does not live in America, and is a Filipino living in the Philippines so it makes little sense for Mekkyz to be telling others about tornados occurring in America

MEKKYZ-DUBZ

Dear people outside of the Philippines

Please remember Filipinx is such a westernized term that tries to appropriate the Filipino culture. The word Filipino derives from the nationality, diaspora and it's already a gender neutral term we used today. He is a Filipino, she is a Filipino, they are Filipinos, it is a Filipino, everyone is a Filipino!

As non binary Filipino lived in the Philippines, just call me m'kay?

which is so crazy to me. homeschooling used to be seen as a way for families who were able to do so get like. a jumpstart on education. since the public school system is lacking. now parents use it for their own political gain and nothing more. no one cares about the children

22/04/2025, 00:46

I've only kinda heard of unschooling it sounds like you're.... Trying to unteach you kids shit?

This is why the anti-trans bills have always irritated me so badly, I see a new one get pass...

Mekkyz 🍷 SNKR 22/04/2025, 00:47

holy shit

i don't wanna imagine the worst, but if a trans child got prohibited from entering the storm cellar when the tornado or hurricane happened, it would've been the total piece of shit moment

I just still think it's crazy people voted for him

25/04/2025, 03:59

even wilder ppl legit voted for him are like crying about how they shouldn't have n its just like

25/04/2025, 03:59

Idk how they saw someone preaching literal bigotry over someone who wanted to try her best to atleast make an effort to give some comfort to people

Mekkyz 🍷 SNKR 25/04/2025, 03:59

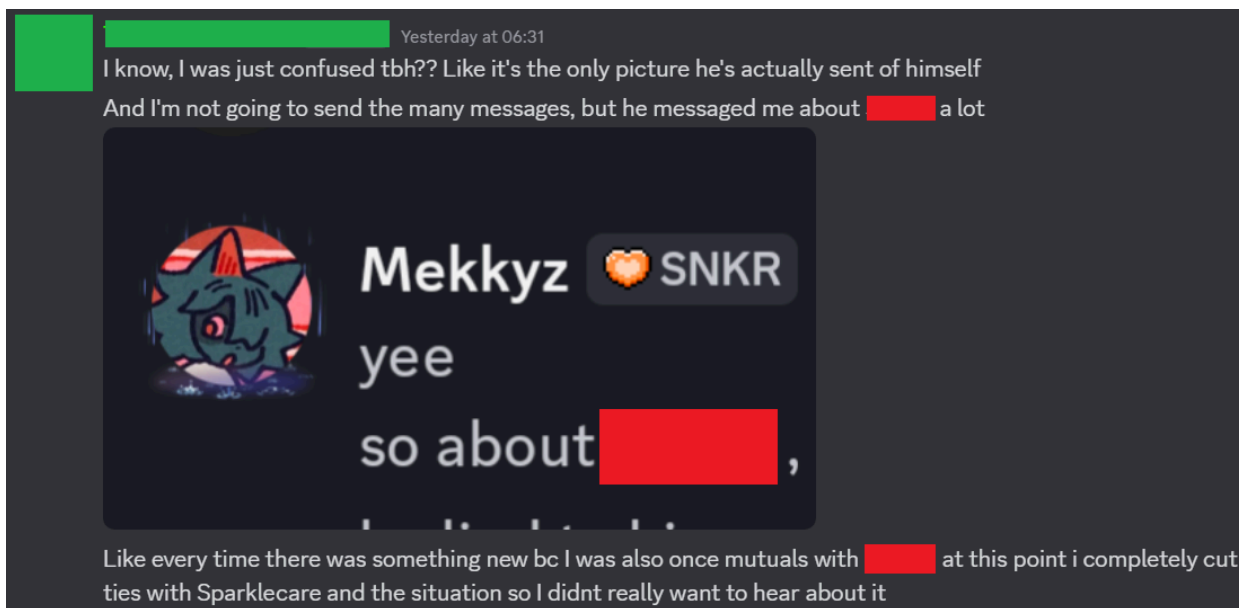

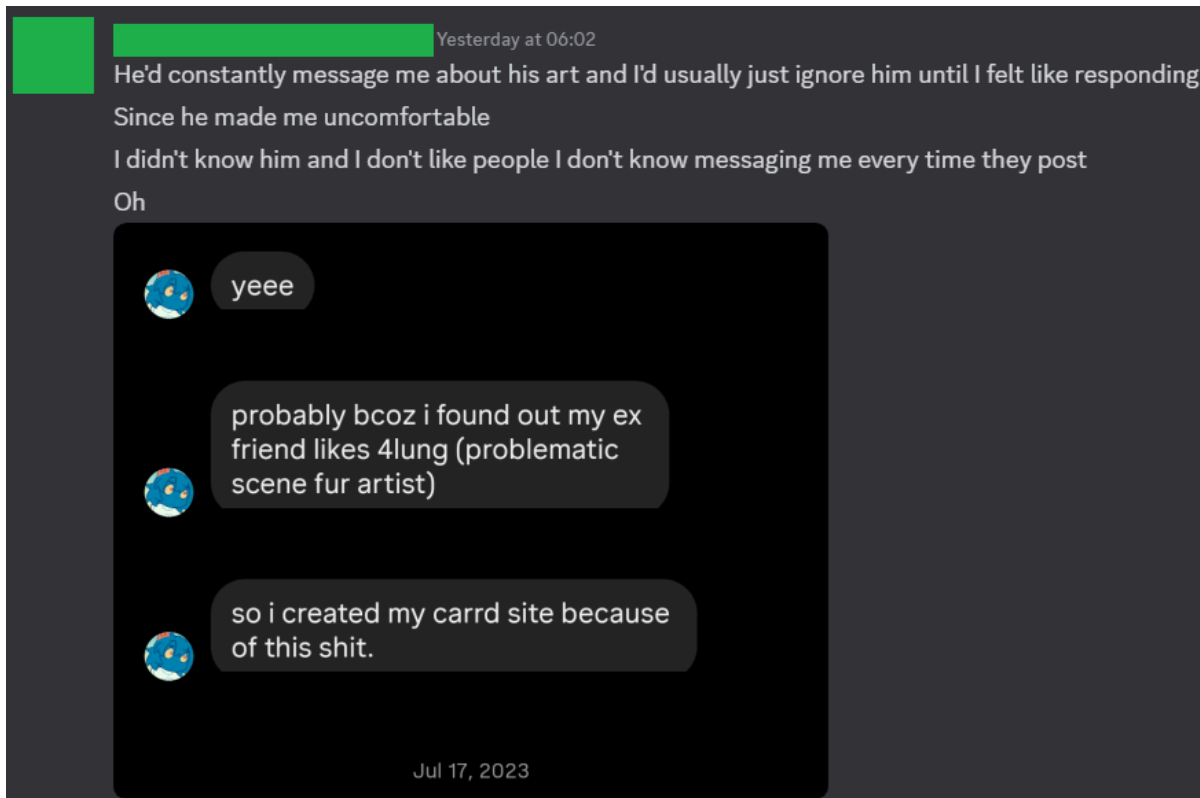

won't be surprised if someone that is not conservative, was prohibited from entering the storm shelter because that would've caused an all out protest

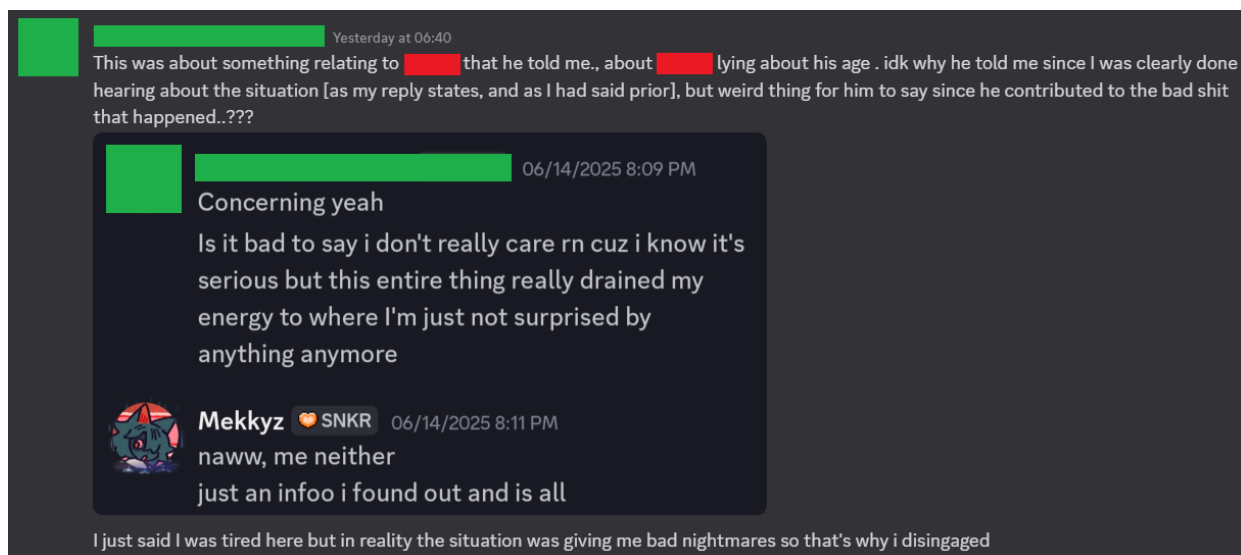

25/04/2025, 04:00

Now they are all like "heyy what's happening :(("

Mekkyz would frequently try to talk to Green about Red, despite Green not knowing Red and wanting nothing to do with any of it. This included when Mekkyz found out that Red was actually younger than he thought he was. Which would be strange to randomly bring up until you remember that Mekkyz had attempted to fetish mine Red through explicit hypnosis roleplays.

Lime

Lime recalls how Mekkyz would try and get free art out of them by requesting they draw their OCs as tornados and black holes. Something Lime had little interest in doing for an effective stranger. As another spinning vortex, black holes are yet another extension of Mekkyz fetishism through both tornadoes and hypnosis.

tbh he messaged me a lot abt tornados and black holes and would try to insert it into stuff w my ocs but I just let it slide cuz I am like. bit of a pushover. and didn't Wanna be mean. tbh thats not the worst but still weird

I hate to be that guy but tornados and black holes have that kinda swirl going on you know like the hypnotism thing

fair

he tried to like convince me to make tornado and black hole ocs liiike again not the worst but yknow I don't really take requests like no I don't wanna draw my oc as a tornado Sorry
god I sound like a dick rn I'm sorry

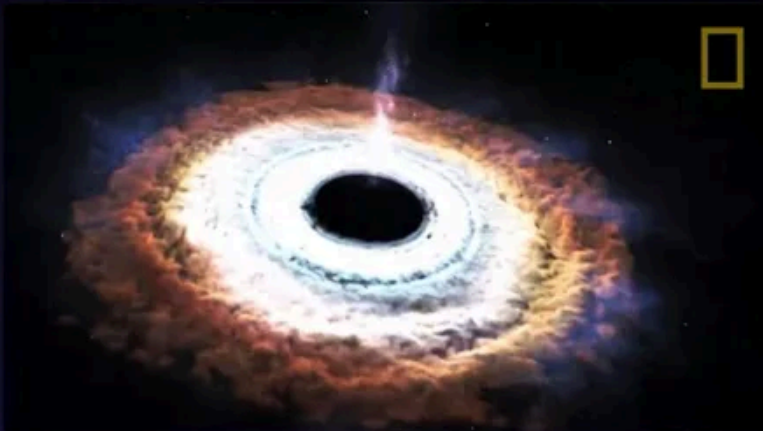

00:06
No it's not a dick thing to establish your boundaries
I think that's very reasonable actually (edited)

00:07
"no i dont wanna drawmy oc as a tornado" is a CRAZY statement of context. the fetish identifier is how insanely specific it is

00:08
I never thought it was like a weird thing I just thought it was a fixation on the stuff
I mean. I thought the persistency was weird but like I said didn't wanna be mean. but the topic of tornados/black holes themselves I was like Ok yeah probably just a fixation idk god I cannot think rn sorry if shit I say doesn't make sense

Cream had also encountered Mekkyz in their DMs, in which Mekkyz would push to ask if their OCs had wind powers, before showing Cream his tornado art to fish for engagement in regards to his attraction to them.

With the revelations that had come about through all the prior victims, Orange then joined the conversation coming forward with their own experiences with Mekkyz. Orange was fetish mined for art in relation to hypnosis, black holes, and storms/tornadoes. Much like everyone else, Orange was entirely unaware at the time that any of this was a fetish for Mekkyz or that he was attracted to any of it.

For @mekkyz-dubz Stormlass AU

Appearance of Fizz Sea Fortune are like

1. A cloudy cat/bird gryphon colored light cyan.
2. A princess gown for Stormlass kingdom, blue jacket in general
3. Has distinctive spots in her body including tornado-like spots
4. She is 5'2 tall.
5. She has big wings for her to fly and can cast her tornado magic by flapping her wings

Here's a Jaykann (Shekann + Jay) fankid that me and @m3k1e came up with in an AU called the Stormlass AU! M3k1e can give a better description of the AU than I can!

MEKKYZ-DUBZ

If you didn't know, Stormlass is a Sparklecare AU which focuses on Jay and Shekann going on adventure to a cloudy kingdom you didn't know it existed on the sky called Stormlass kingdom.

Synopsis:

After the events of Sparklecare, everyone was freed from this hospital. Meanwhile, Jay and Shekann have thoughts on each other so they decided to go to a picnic on their first date. However, the storm approaches and a tornado is coming towards them until they both get sent to the Stormlass kingdom. Who will find the true happiness from Shekann?

Basically, Jay was terrified of tornadoes while Shekann was amazed by it. This AU is inspired by The Wizard of Oz.

15 NOTES

Cyan

Cyan has provided their own document in regards to their experiences with Mekkyz (https://docs.google.com/document/d/1HgABsnHek_E1y1p6FgLmZpCV9m_CSLFA_DC_pKM_VuCM_\(archive\)//)) in which he had fetish mined them, and when confronted dodged questions. The screenshot evidence for interactions with Mekkyz in this section can be found within Cyan's document.

Cyan was the designer behind Mekkyz's OC, Cirrus, for Cyan's Alice in Wonderland inspired story, Wonderlass.

It was noted by Cyan after seeing Orange's section, that Mekkyz had copied Wonderlass with his 'Stormlass' Sparklecare AU, and that Cirrus was also derivative of an OC that belonged to Cyan's friend (Fries) that Mekkyz did not know. Mekkyz had also requested Cyan draw tornado fetish art of Fries and Cirrus being sucked into a tornado (which Cyan thankfully declined to do).

Also i just realized he had a stormlass au???
And i swear to god im pretty sure the name is based off me and my friends' oc universe

And it was the story Cirrus was designed for before he made his own story apparently

The OC universe me and my friends had was Wonderlass

ITS SO WEIRD AND ALSO THEY ASKED ME TO LIKE

Draw cirrus and my friend's oc fries (WHO NEVER EVEN KNEW ABOUT HIM OR TALKED TO HIM BEFORE) being sucked into a tornado

Then he wanted me to design cirrus with inspiration from Fries design

AND THEN HE SAYS WEIRD SHIT ABOUT
CIRRUS

Very fucked up of him

It feels so fucking weird and especially for my friend who wasnt even involved in anything

When Cyan went through a breakup, instead of consoling them, Mekkyz pestered them to finish the reference sheet for Cirrus.

This isn't as bad as what hes done to his victims, but it counts as shitty? behavior at least to me I think

Around June 25, me and my partner went through a breakup and it was a horrible experience

I vented to Mekky, and at one point he asked me to finish the Cirrus reference and redesign

He asked me to stream it to him on Discord I cried a lot before that cuz of the breakup, so I'd often say stuff like I felt dizzy

And he'd just say something like "dang"

I see

I remember actually, that when I was continuing the reference art for Cirrus he'd keep asking me to make a speedpaint version and do a bunch of stuff when it was like really late in the morning for me I'll talk about it in an organized document

He had also made several creepy comments towards Cyan.

Also i see
Also during me and my partners breakup I thought my partner didnt feel attracted to me because I was a bit chubby N for some reason, he said something about jamaican people loving chubby people ❤️
And that if i was a tornado I'd be an ef4?
Tornado

And i see
I dont think he actually made me make anything explicitly sexual but it was uncomfortable when he would tell me that thing about Cirrus becoming fatter ❤️
I'll do the document in a second

Oh
I think he didn't specifically request me to spin, but he would talk about spinning alot Like he'd sometimes just say "speen" and once sent an emoji of a tornado and said its me???

Cyan, like many of the other victims that were fetish mined, was completely unaware that Mekkyz thought of those subject matters (fat/chubby bellies, hypnosis, and tornadoes/storms) in that way.

I didn't know chubby/fat bellied characters was a part of their fetish until I read the document today, and at the time I thought they were just being silly? But now knowing that, it makes me uncomfortable

When I read the document, it said that Mekky also had a hypnosis fetish? And would send people art that he made with that fetish

This was in March 2022
(January 2022 for the screenshot with the moth character)
Which means I was around 15 because I haven't had my birthday
He's 2 years older so he would be 17 since his was in April I think and hadn't had his birthday that year either

But it was still upsetting knowing now that he had a hypnotism fetish and I didn't realize it until now

Mekkyz messaged Cyan on the 12th of July insisting that ownership be transferred to them. Mekkyz was cagey as to why, not informing Cyan that he had been outed for fetish mining and sexual harassment, with Cyan having to dig to find out for themselves online instead.

Today he messaged me this

The character he was talking about is Cirrus, the one I designed

At first i thought he was hacked or something, because it felt weird

He didn't tell me anything or why he wanted me to take the ownership and redesign
Cirrus

He only says "For some reason."

I asked him why he wanted me to transfer Cirrus into my own ToyHouse account and redesign them, in this time I didn't know about the call out document at all

He didn't tell me about it even when I asked,
he just said "I no longer want to take control of my OC because I'm going to see the psychiatrist to better myself and likely not returning to the internet"

So i searched up his account on instagram, nothing was there

Same with Twitter, he only changed his pfp
to a roblox pfp

So I checked here on Tumblr because I know he had an account on this site and found the document about him, and I read it

I confronted him about it

I asked him if Cirrus counted as a part of his fetish, because they're meant to be chubby/fat

They said they don't think Cirrus is, because they represent Mekky's body type irl
I'm not sure what he means by "It doesn't excuse to brought it up more often either"

I then asked about the time he talked about Cirrus becoming fatter/bigger and them becoming embarrassed
I asked if this was also part of his fetishes

At first he doesn't answer the question
He just says
"I shouldn't have brought it up because thats not accurate to how clouds expand"???

Mekkyz continued to hedge around the question of him having fetish mined Cyan, choking it up to the issue being that he shouldn't have told Cyan that character's lore. He then proceeded to edit his messages to seem less incriminating but Cyan caught him doing so immediately.

I asked again, and he now says Yes

He says "He went overboard" on his OC lore

(Around the time I drew the first Cirrus art in July 2023, I hadn't had my birthday for that year so i was 16 btw)

I'm not sure if I have the right to feel uncomfortable of him talking about an oc I designed and created for him as a teenager in a fetish-y way since Im currently an adult and we only had a 2 year difference
But I think I can still be upset? For the fact he never told me this was a fetish and I only found out now

"None of this would've happened if I need to be reminded"

I asked them what they meant by this

And he said he "just wanted me to remind him sooner when we talked about Cirrus"

I interpreted it as him saying its my fault
He says its not and he shouldn't have said it and he only did because "he panicked" when he tried to type on a phone so he shouldve worded it better

He says he should've told me about Cirrus and things that happened in their lore

I'm not sure how to feel about it honestly

I confronted him about his first message where he asks if I'm okay with him transferring Cirrus to my account and redesigning them "for some reason"

Because now i know that they were exposed for fetish mining, I asked why he said that instead of telling me the actual reason

He apologizes and for some reason reiterates the message?

I still asked him why he did it
And he said its because "He needs to address things sooner after the therapy session is over, but it got blown up"

Im unsure what he means because I dont really understand

I still asked why he didnt say it in the first place and just said "for some reason"
He said he had difficulty processing things and apologized

I remembered he would talk about characters being sucked into a tornado to me sometimes
So i asked him if that was a fetish too

At first, he replies to this with "No, really"

But I checked just now and he edited it

Into "Um, no? Idk"

He still says that he's unsure if its a fetish because he thought he just likes the wizard of oz types of tropes
But he also says that if it was also a fetish, he'd be dead???

I ask why he was unsure
And he first says "I did not ask them if its a fetish or not. I could've asked if I brought up something like that, but if I'm gonna be honest, I think so"

So i guess he considers it as a fetish? I'm genuinely not sure because i cant understand this well

He edits this message however

He added the words "When they answered it otherwise, I think so"

He also said his interests became "too much" as he progressed

Specifically his interests in tornadoes

I asked why he was talking in 3rd person because i genuinely dont understand why
And what he meant by his interesta for tornadoes became too much

He says "He didn't actually ask anyone"
And that he would bring up scenarios of characters getting sucked into a tornado as if entering a pocket dimension

I was still very confused and asked again

He says he has to rest and that his mom told him to "stop using the phone for good" and that he'll give me time to recover?

I'm not sure if he means he cant use a phone like literally forever
Or just for now
I'm still very confused honestly

I'm really sorry for my messy explanation

As an aside, Mekkyz also conflated real life controversy with fiction, severely downplaying the seriousness of the situation at hand.

Oh my fucking god the 4lung thing i just saw
I don't have proof of it but I LITERALLY remember him saying "4lung is worse than Dr. Cuddles"

BTW YEA ITS WILD AS HELL it was weird to compare an actual real life horrible person to a fictional character

Teal

Teal was a long time victim of Mekkyz, first being contacted when they were 16 while Mekkyz was 19 through the Sparklecare fandom. Mekkyz had effectively groomed to indulge in Mekkyz's fetishistic roleplays in regards to hypnosis and tornadoes.

Sorry to budge in, but is it okay if I can share my experience with Mekky with you?

Absolutely, feel free to.

Yesterday 12:20 AM

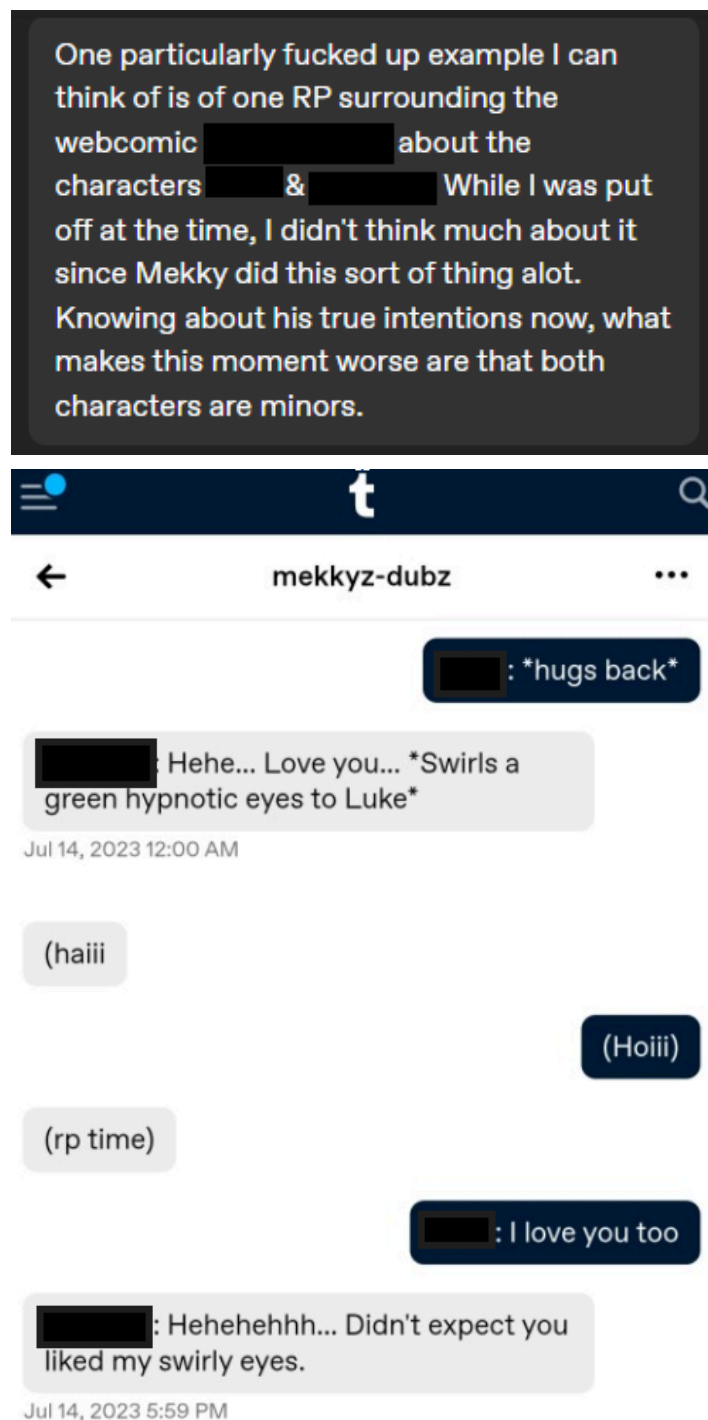

(I'm so sorry this message is so late) I was about 16 years old when I first met Mekky. I was newly part of the Sparklecare fandom back before the doc came out, so at the time I was pretty happy to find another mutual at the time. Eventually it let to us doing a lot of Sparklecare Role Plays & later branching out to other fandoms as well.

However, the more we did the RPs, the more I noticed several things that seemed... off. Like with everyone else he fetish mined, Mekky used a lot of hypnotism, tornado transformations, & unprompted sexual moments too. At the time I thought it was weird & even told Mekky to stop with the sexual stuff, but I still thought he meant nothing bad with it. I thought he was my friend...

Mekky never really talked to me after the doc came out, but I do hope going to therapy helps & he can improve as a person. Hopefully.

I'm so sorry for the amount of information here. Hopefully this doesn't cause too much trouble for you.

Some of these fetish RPs included hypnosis of characters who were underage. Character names have been censored at the request of Teal.

Mekkyz was incredibly controlling in regards to how he wanted the RPs to be, message to only engage in the fetish roleplaying and demanding the RPs start from the beginning if he did not get his way.

Mekky was also very pushy & pressurative around me, consyandky making art requests & wanting the RPs to be written in certain ways. Even starting over some RPs if I did something wrong

(i will be the only one who did the actions, and not "the two continue eating until Jay hears something" thing, promise? /gen)

(Oki, sorry about that)

(ish ok)

(remember what i said, my expectations to our RP is strictly based on my writings I sent to you earlier)

(Alright got it)

(yay :3)

(If you didn't know about me, my expectations on our RP party is solely based on what I write so I wanted to make it faithful for that. /gen)

Aug 15, 2023 12:19 AM

(and with that, I think we're gonna redo the whole RP based on what I wrote ALL OVER AGAIN because I expected our RP to be based on my writings until we kinda ruined it so I spoiled the entire thing for you. pls? /genq)

(yo you do Jay warning her to head to the shelter as they were frightened by a tornado lol at least go back like we promised)

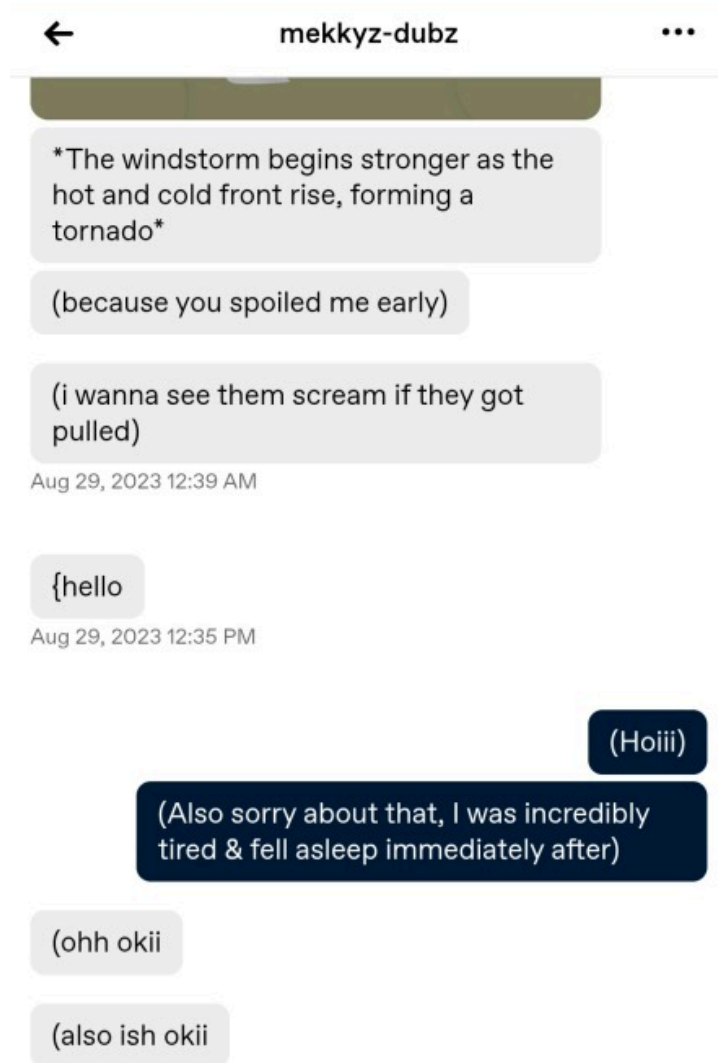

The windstorm begins stronger as the hot and cold front rise, forming a tornado

(because you spoiled me early)

(i wanna see them scream if they got pulled)

Aug 29, 2023 12:39 AM

Teal was pressured to make a discord account so Mekkyz could better control them, pressured to engage with his art saying he must reblog it, and the increasingly uncomfortable RPs revolving around his fetishes.

He also pushed me to reblog his art alot & even asked me to make a Discord account at some point. While that last part isn't inherently an issue on its own, this seemed to make everything else a lot more suspicious.

When I eventually got a Discord account, our RPs continued over there. I'll admit I'm not completely innocent in this, but I eventually started ghosting him. Both because I was getting frustrated with Mekky & because I wanted to talk with my other friends at the time.

During 2024 to earlier this year, I was getting wierded out by the content of the role plays. Such as the tornado transformations I mentioned before & the characters involved.... enjoying getting sucked in tornadoes.....

Yea, creepy as fuck shit.

(I'm pretty sure you can tell I was uncomfortable here)

Yet I continued to do these RPs because I didn't want to loose Mekky as a friend or upset him. I should have told him my concerns earlier & asked him to stop. I'm not entirely blameless in this either, so I should have done better on this.

Celadon

Celdon, timeline wise, is the last and most recent victim of Mekkyz. First contacted on July 2nd 2025, just one day before Lavender would approach anonymous-sparklecarer about Mekkyz, Celadon was fetish mined for art of his tornado OC, Venti (seen in Indigo's section).

Hey so i saw your thing on mekkyz

I really didnt know venti was a fetish thing but

I didnt know it was a fetish and now im kind of freaked out bc i drew them and i didnt know

Sorry this is out of nowhere it's probably not i has tornado ocs on my artfight

I reblogged ur card!

Unbelievably, Mekkyz continued to talk to the minor on July 9th, a day after he had been confronted privately on discord in regards to misconduct, and on July 10th the day the public callout on him was released. Similar to what he tried to do with Cyan, he attempted to push ownership of his OC to Celadon without explaining why. Celadon had to find out for themselves Mekkyz was facing allegations of fetish mining and sexual harassment.

OH MY GDO

I LOVE THEM

VENTI LOOKS OS COOL

YAYA!!!

uhh hello? just had a question about artfight but would you mind removing your art involving venti and stuff? that is all

Yesterday at 8:28 a.m.

They sent me those last messages before i saw ur post and i looked at their profile and saw their pinned thing

So i looked it up and found the doc

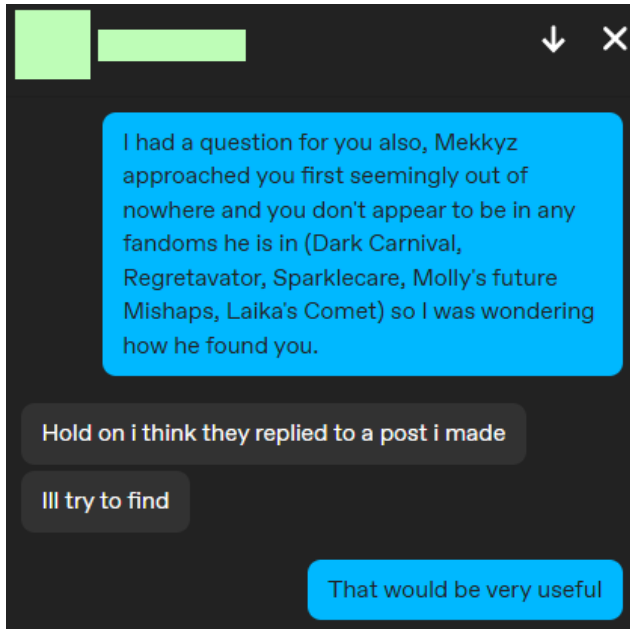

Oh my god he did the same shit as he did with Cyan and the OC Cirrus, where he tried to transfer ownership of his tornado fetish OCs to other people WIHTOUT telling them
why.

Jesus christ

You're also a complete stranger to him and a minor so it's like what the hell

Mekkyz found Celadon to approach through Celadon's post in which they state how they love tornados in regards to the 2024 film 'Twisters'. It is also the only post Celadon has on their tumblr in regards to tornados. It is highly likely Mekkyz was prowling the tumblr tags of tornados when he saw someone he could easily target.

Watching twisters right now and i have to say, im very unhappy with the original portrayal of storm chasers as thrill seeking and unprofessional. so im super happy it defies those stereotypes and changes later. It really made me think of a common issue in the weather field. It's important to know that storm chasers are incredibly important when it comes to recording tornadoes and protecting the people that may be in the path of them.

Storm chasers provide vital aid to those caught by a tornado, often seen pulling people from rubble, helping people out of dangerous situations before they are hit and livestreaming the damage.

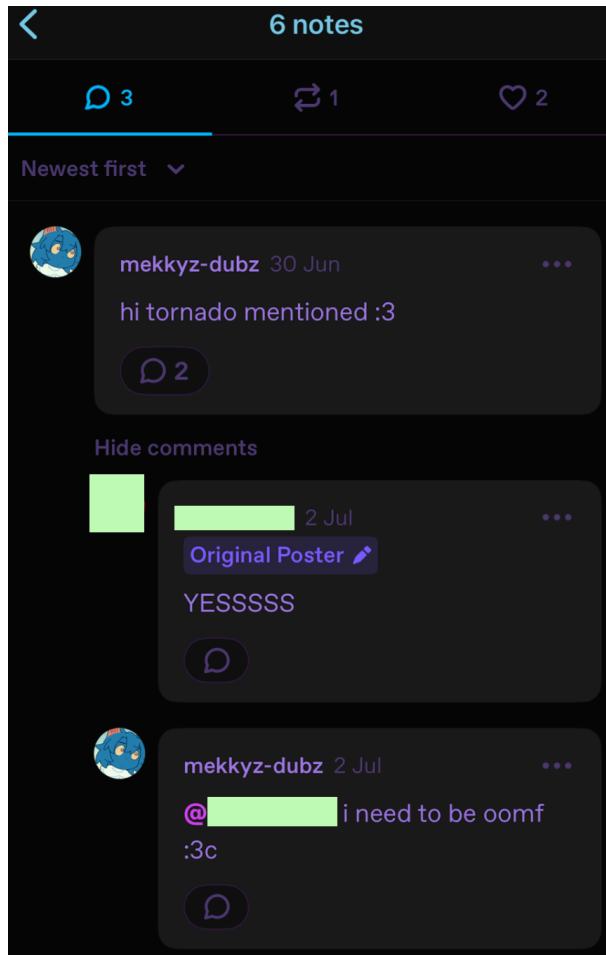

Stuff like that is incredible for those with family in the area, as it can often tell them if their family is in danger and is especially helpful for those in the path of the storm, letting them know when to take cover, when to flee and when the storm has passed. They are also very important in the scientific field, allowing us to observe the paths and behaviours of tornadoes.

The truth is, the majority of storm chasers are respectful, helpful individuals who simply have an interest in observing storms.

Theres also the huge issue of the storm chasers being portrayed as 'dumb hillbillies', further adding to many established (often classist) stereotypes about southern people.

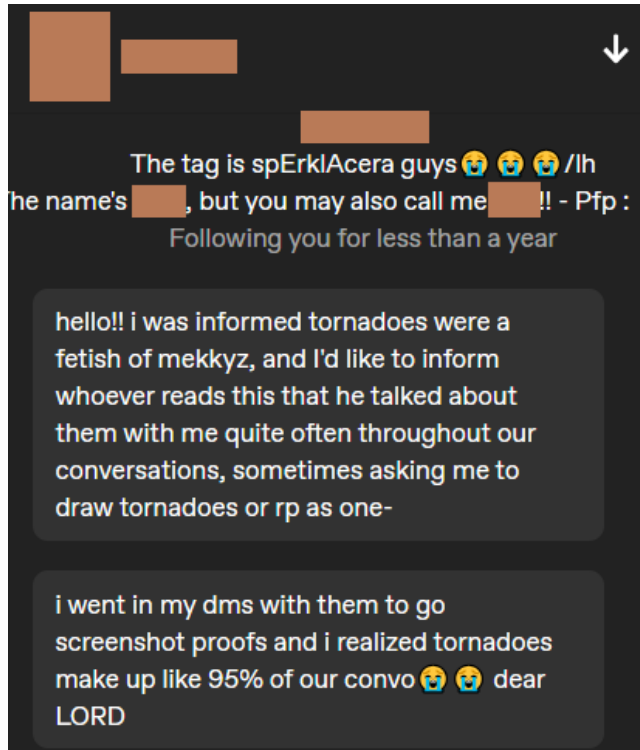

I fukcing lovveeeeeee tornadoess

Brown

Brown, similarly to other victims, had encountered Mekkyz through the Sparklecare fandom. They did not reach out about their experiences until a little while after the callout had dropped as they did not initially believe they were fetish mined as their talks with Mekkyz did not center around hypnosis. However, upon the addendum that tornadoes were also an object of Mekkyz affection, Brown looked back at their messages only to realise they had been.

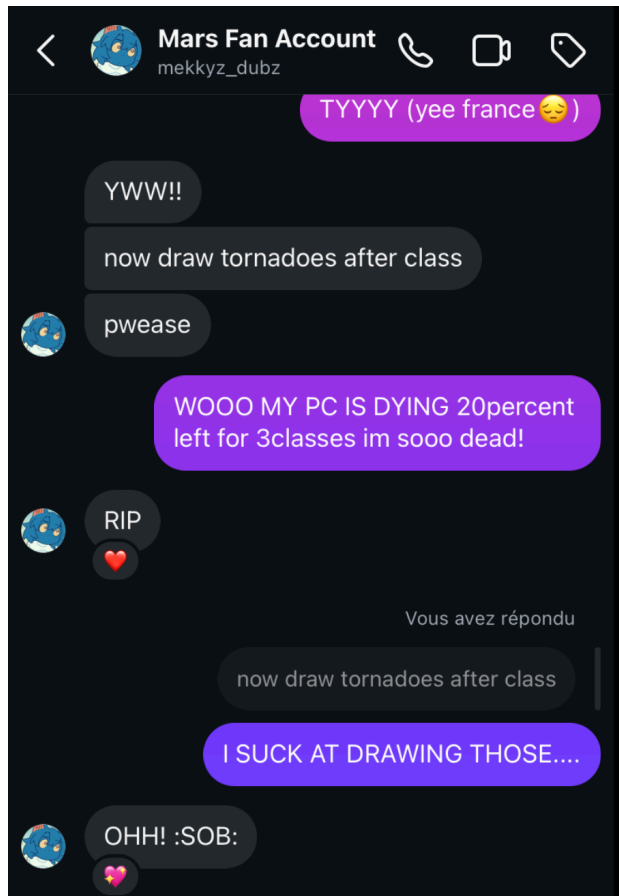

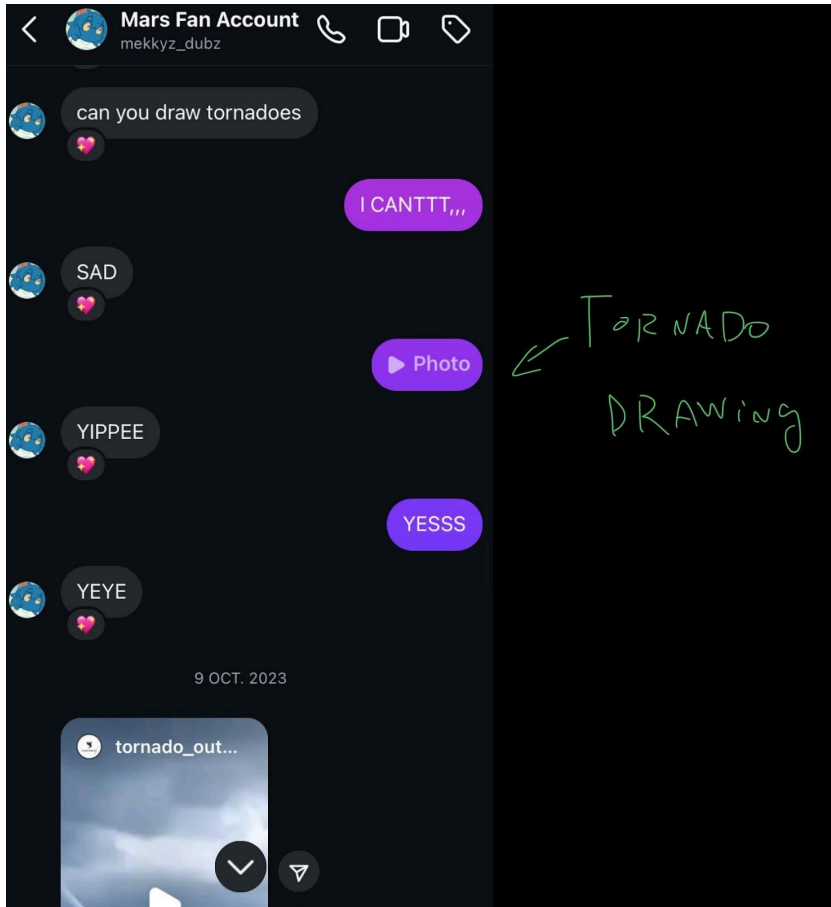

In 2023, when Mekkyz began first talking to Brown, Mekkyz was 19, while Brown was 14. Brown was unaware of the fetishistic nature of Mekkyz's interest in hypnosis and tornadoes so would indulge it at the time. They thought by doing so they were just being a good friend to someone who didn't have anyone else to talk about these niche interests with in a normal way, unaware that at the same time Mekkyz was fetish mining many others.

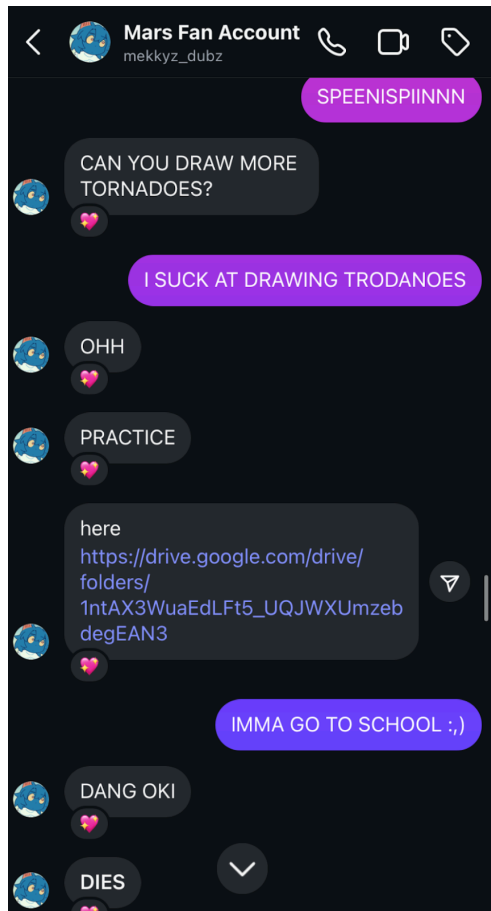

Mekkyz was fully aware that Brown was a minor who was still in school, even acknowledging this when begging for them to draw tornadoes 'after class'. Even though Brown would reiterate their struggle to draw tornadoes, Mekkyz would persist until Brown did so, even guilt tripping them at one point for free tornado art to get his fix.

Mekkyz had attempted to initiate RPs to do with tornadoes with Brown but thankfully this never materialized.

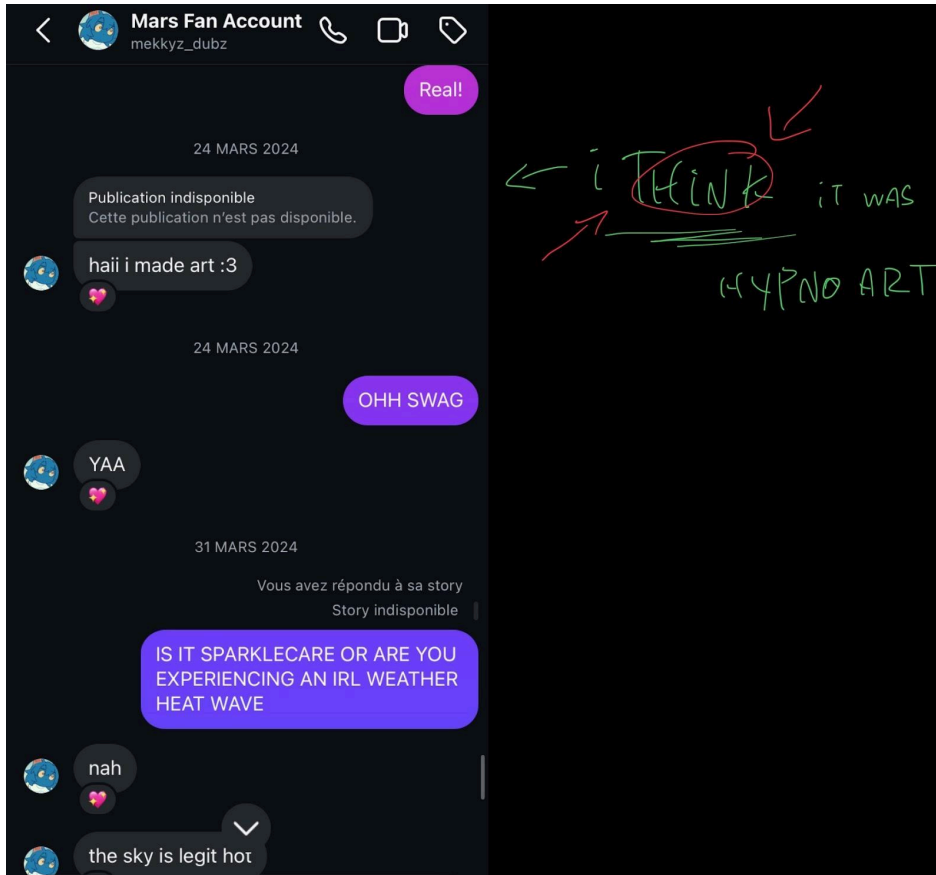

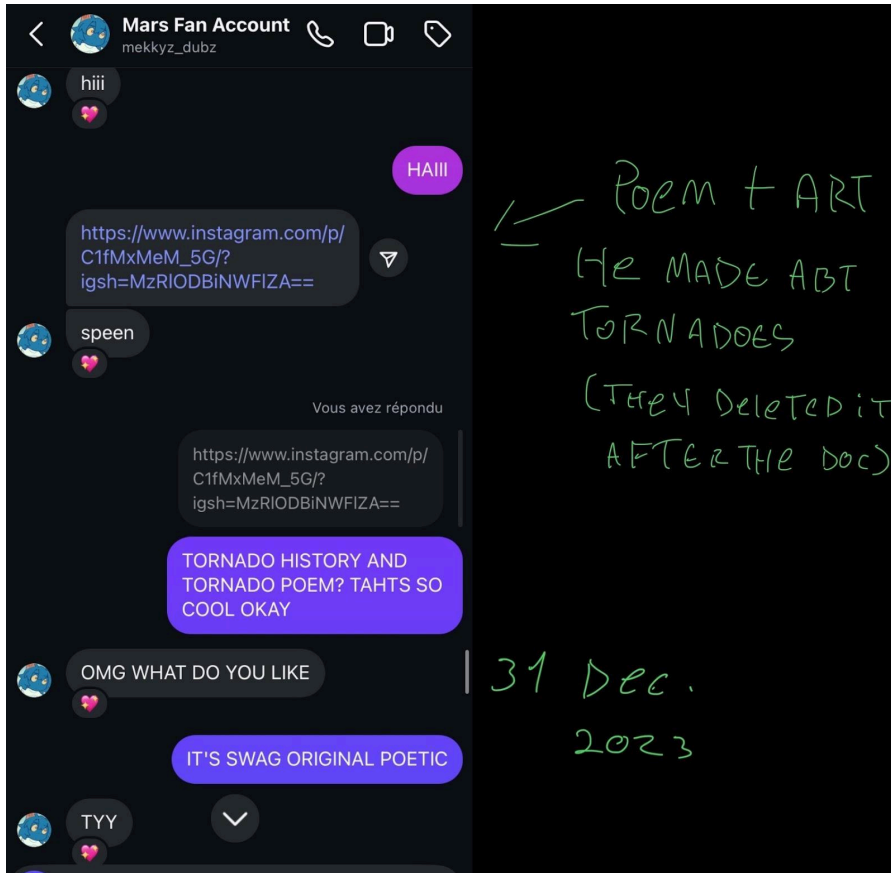

He would however hit familiar fetish mining beats as he had with other victims to Brown. Topics of conversations that revolved around tornadoes such as talking about Brown getting sucked into tornadoes, and sharing his innocuous seeming fetish art with Brown with its fetishistic connotations being all but confirmed when the art was deleted by Mekkyz after the document dropped.

Mekkyz's response

Mekkyz was confronted privately in regards to this matter on July 8th 2025, in regards to the allegations that were known at the time (Lavender, Blue, Pink, Grey, and Red's testimonies). He issued the following response:

After this document's release, Mekkyz issued a public apology 3 days after the he had issued the statement above in DMs <https://mekkyz-dubz.tumblr.com/post/788727542326657025/im-going-to-the-therapy-in-a-bout-four-days> (archive). It should be noted that Mekkyz did not apologize to any of his victims directly or individually - this 'apology to the victims privately' was only written out for the person behind the anonymous-sparklecarer tumblr account who confronted him on Lavender's behalf. Mekkyz did not apologize for the recently revealed fetish mining, and actually didn't even reveal it to anyone - victims had to find out on our own. He also didn't mention anything about the tornado related fetish mining to anyone in any apology statements. So his 'apology' post is kind of null and void in this sense.

I'm going to the therapy in about four days because I don't really like how I communicate with my friends back in 2022 and all stuff. I fucking regret my actions and I don't condone it at all.

I'm going to address it once the session is done.

#mekkyz talk

#I made an apology to the victims privately but this needs to be said publicly soon.

#I'm considered removing my art that is fetish mining.

#Just to be short to everyone in the fandom involved I'm genuinely sorry for the pain I've caused.

#I won't be likely returning to the internet for a long time once the session is complete.

Ultimately it is up to victims whether or not they forgive him, or accept his apology. People should however, still be aware of his misconduct and inappropriate behaviour going forward. Lavender issued the following statement giving us permission to make this document public:

alright, i say youre free to post the doc publicly, i'd say it'd be good to talk about what he did

i'm glad he at least feels sorry but i don't know if he's genuinely sorry and will stop

i will say, i forgave his apology towards me, but i will not forgive the behaviour he's had with other victims

On July 14th, Mekkyz was confronted again in light of the abundance of victims that have come forward following the callout's original release on July 10th. Despite Mekkyz claiming he would be offline for good, it was noticed that Mekkyz was still online as indicated by the green dot on his tumblr icon.

Hey

Today 5:54 PM

● Active in the last 3 hours

Mekkyz has estimated that he had at least 18 victims, and swears that this time for real he really would be off the internet for good (but continues to feel sorry for himself despite the fact he is not the victim here). Whether he is telling the truth when he has told nothing but a myriad of lies thus far is anyone's guess.

Tell me, how many victims do you think you made about 18 of them

Today 9:10 PM

I just wanted to write a public apology after the therapy and wanted to deactivate every online presence, but I fucked up.

If anything happens, I think I've caused a big event that changed everyone's lives forever and needs to reinvent what is right. My parents didn't help either as they said otherwise and they told me to stop using the phone so I don't get "stressed" but it didn't help either. I don't know what college courses I should take and if it isn't, I should watch TV for the rest of my life. I wish I wasn't born from the start.

I won't be returning to the internet, even if it's just browsing the news or shopping.

mekkyz-dubz

ohh god
i don't know what courses i should take as a result of this mess, originally I took fine art or multimedia art degree because a lot of jobs in my country are required to have at least bachelor's degree.

I've never take other courses because I'm never good at it.
