

What you'd know about Talis:

Female Half-High Elf Half human. Was a childhood friend of Dozaias, as they both lived in the same area for a few years (feel free to decide if this is Greenest or another town).

You stayed in touch after you parted company (Again, choose which of you moved away) for several years, but eventually the letters stopped. You can't quite remember how it happened, but the friendship just sort of tapered off as distance things often do.

A short period of time ago (it sort of depends on where you decide you're based, and how quickly your character would respond to such a thing), you learned from a mutual acquaintance that she had gone missing, captured by the Cult of the Dragon. You know she was last in Greenest.

You were good friends, but probably not like paramours or anything. Both being halfbreeds you found an odd kinship even though you were quite different, but, again circumstances intervened and you were seperated.

It's probably been 10-15 years since you've seen here and another 10 since you've heard from her. It was odd that you got this news, but it resonate strongly with you. If she's in trouble and thought to send word to you, then you need to help.
