

Refund Policy

Last Updated: December 19, 2024

At Launch Mentor, we aim to provide valuable consultation services to help our clients achieve their goals efficiently. Our refund policy is designed to be straightforward and transparent.

Consultation Booking Charges

- When you book a consultation with Launch Mentor, you are required to pay a minimal charge at the time of booking. This fee confirms your appointment and secures our time and resources to prepare for your session.
- Please note that this consultation booking charge is non-refundable once paid.

Why Is the Consultation Fee Non-Refundable?

We take time and effort to prepare for every consultation, including tailoring advice and insights to your specific requirements. The non-refundable policy ensures that our time is respected and valued. This policy also allows us to maintain a fair and consistent approach for all clients.

Additional Information

- If you have any questions regarding this refund policy or need assistance with your booking, please reach out to us at:
