What is the Kansas Public Schools Behavior Analyst Network?

KAPSBAN is a professional network designed to support behavior analysts who work in Kansas public schools!

Aims of the Network

- To create a professional learning community that provides a system of support and mentorship, networking opportunities, an appreciation of different perspectives, and increased engagement in scholarship
- To provide a framework that assists school-based behavior analysts in understanding and defining their roles and responsibilities within educational settings
- To assist school division administrators, human resource professionals, and others in understanding the complex and unique roles of school-based behavior analysts
- To provide free online continuing education opportunities to Kansas school-based behavior analysts to reduce financial costs and travel expenses to maintain licensure

Member Support

KASPBAN is dedicated to meeting the needs of its members through networking, resources, and support. Members can participate in regular continuing education events as well as opportunities to meet with and get to know other behavior analysts working in public schools.
