2. Golf N Golf Quick Verdict

Yes — Mae Jo is a genuinely scenic round set within Mae Jo University's orchards, north of Chiang Mai city. Narrow, tree-lined fairways and water hazards keep the course fair but engaging, and holes 14–15 in particular offer some of the more panoramic mountain views in the area. It's a solid, well-conditioned choice for golfers who want good golf without the longer drive some of Chiang Mai's outlying courses require.

4. Overview

Mae Jo Golf Club opened in 2004, designed by well-known Thai golf course architect Seni Thirawat, and sits within Mae Jo University's grounds in San Sai District, about 20 minutes north of central Chiang Mai. The course winds through the university's orchards and fruit groves, with narrow, tree-lined fairways over Zoysia grass and water hazards and doglegs shaping much of the challenge.

The greens — a mix of Korean Velvet and Bermuda TifEagle — carry pronounced slopes that reward accurate approach play. What makes Mae Jo stand out scenically is its setting: mountain views of Doi Suthep and the surrounding peaks run throughout the round, with holes 14 and 15 singled out as particularly panoramic. A modern Lanna-style clubhouse with a restaurant, spa, and on-site lodge rounds out the property.

While no major tournaments or awards are documented for Mae Jo, it's built a solid reputation as a well-conditioned, scenic round that's easy to reach from the city.

5. Why Play This Course?

- Convenience: about 20 minutes from central Chiang Mai, an easy half-day round.
- Reputation: a well-regarded, well-conditioned course designed by respected Thai architect Seni Thirawat.
- Experience: tree-lined fairways through university orchards, with genuine mountain views on the back nine.

- Unique selling point: holes 14–15 offer some of the most panoramic mountain views among Chiang Mai’s city-adjacent courses.

6. Course Highlights

- Championship Design: Seni Thirawat’s routing uses narrow, tree-lined corridors and doglegs to create a fair but engaging test.
- Course Conditioning: Good — Zoysia fairways with Korean Velvet/Bermuda TifEagle greens.
- Greens: Pronounced slopes reward accurate approach play — keep the ball below the hole.
- Clubhouse & Facilities: Modern Lanna-style clubhouse with restaurant, spa, and on-site lodge/resort accommodation.
- Caddies & Service: Available & Compulsory

8. Who Should Play This Course?

- First-time visitors to Thailand: Yes — a scenic, manageable introduction to Chiang Mai golf.
- Luxury golf holidays: Moderate fit — a strong secondary round alongside a bigger-name championship course.
- Couples: Yes — the scenic orchard setting and fair layout suit a relaxed round together.
- Corporate groups: Yes — accessible location works well for group logistics.
- Mid-handicap golfers: Yes — a fair, engaging challenge without being overly punishing.
- Low-handicap golfers: Moderate fit — enjoyable, though less of a championship test than Chiang Mai’s tournament-caliber courses.

9. James’ Recommendation

“Mae Jo doesn’t get talked about as much as some of the bigger names up here, but I like sending golfers who want a genuinely pretty round without a long drive out of the city. You’re playing through a university’s orchards, which is a different feeling from the resort courses, and holes 14 and 15 have some of the best mountain views you’ll get all week. Keep your approach shots below the hole on those TifEagle greens — they slope more than people expect.” — James

10. Golf N Golf Recommendation

- Who it suits best: golfers wanting a scenic, well-conditioned round close to the city without a long transfer.
- Courses to pair with: North Hill for a “two convenient city-adjacent courses” day pairing, or Chiangmai Highlands for contrast against a more championship-caliber test.
- Suggested itinerary: Day 1 arrival and rest; Day 2 Mae Jo Golf Club; Day 3 Chiangmai Highlands; Day 4 a relaxed city/culture day before departure.
