Abstract

Abstract is written in one paragraph that includes four things: (1) Research purposes, (2) Method, (3); Findings/results, and (4) Conclusion. The author can also write down things that are considered very important in this abstract, while paying attention to the maximum word limit 250 words.

Keywords: contains special concepts (3-5 words/ phrases)

Introduction (Garamond 12Pt, bold in first capital letters)

The introduction should contain (1) General academic or background anxiety. (2) Previous literature review (state of the art) as a basis for scientific novelty statements of the article to justify the novelty (there must be references to a journals published in the last 10 years. No "library review" is allowed as in research reports (thesis, thesis and dissertation), but it can be manifested in the form of a review of the previous literature.(3) Gap analysis, a statement of the gap or novelty statement or the unique difference of this research compared to previous studies, or in terms of the importance of the research or comparison of uniqueness with previous research.(4) Hypothesis (if any) (5) The approach to solve the problem or the method used in solving research problems (including analytical methods (if any), (6) At the end of the introduction, the expected results or objectives of the article/research should be written.

Discussion (Garamond 12Pt, bold in first capital letters)

The discussion contains theories that assist researchers in analyzing data to make a brief summary or synopsis of the data and relationships and to suggest trying new things or even giving birth to new theories. There are at least three functions of theory that have been agreed upon by scientists, namely: (a) describing, (b) explaining, and (c) predicting. The Arabic-Latin transliteration refers to the Arabic-Indonesian transliteration according to the 3 Ministerial Decree.

The discussion also contains sub-chapters as research results

This chapter contains research findings and discussion (can be described in sub-chapters). Write down the findings obtained from the results of research that have been carried out, and they must be supported by adequate data. Research results and findings must be able to answer questions/problems and be in accordance with the research objectives in the introduction. If there is a table, it is written in the following format:

Conclusion (Garamond 12Pt)

Closing contains conclusions and suggestions (if any). It should be written in paragraphs, not numeric or bulleted. Conclusion describes the answers to research questions/problems and/or research objectives or findings obtained. The conclusion does not contain a repetition of the results and discussion, but rather a summary of the findings as expected in the objectives or hypotheses. Suggestion presents things to be done related to further ideas from the research.

References (Garamond 12Pt)

All article text references must be listed in the Bibliography section. The bibliography must contain reference libraries originating from primary sources (scientific journals and a minimum of 80% of the entire bibliography) published in the last 10 (ten) years. Each article contains at least 10 (ten) reference bibliography.

Bibliography should be written by using a reference management application such as Mendeley, Zotero, or others. The bibliography writing format used in the ADR & Law Review Journal is in accordance with the Chicago Style format.
