

Dani/Michi has lied about how the cases involving her Sexually Assaulting someone have went, leaving out most of the information surrounding how the Sexual Assault has been a continuous on and off thing, spanning multiple years in time.

THIS IS AN ADDENDUM TO THE DOCUMENT ALREADY POSTED ON DANI. FOR MORE CONTEXT:

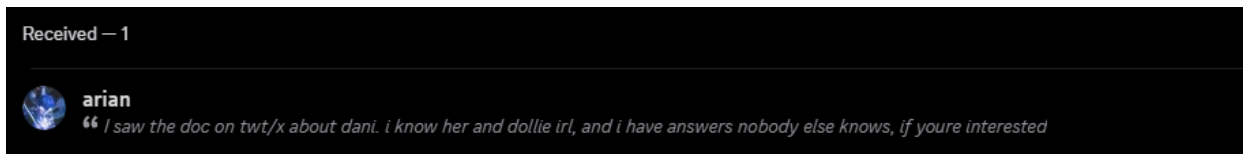

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1h3d8piPVbvc-3-DA9sFD2r_FxopU-8vl-MmsqthvDFM

EVERYTHING SHOWN HERE IS WITH PERMISSION, AND HAS BEEN TALKED ABOUT WITH THE PEOPLE INVOLVED BEFORE INCLUDING ANYTHING HERE.

Conversation 1

Around the same day I posted the document compiling every accusation made against Dani/Michi, I have been reached out to by someone calling themselves an IRL friend of Dani/Dollie, Arian, wanting to provide extra information regarding Dani.

Below is an image of Dani, Dollie and Arian to prove their credibility as their IRL friend:

They've proceeded to explain themselves as a partner of Dani's ex friend, who is one of the people Dani has sexually assaulted before, and how Dani has not been honest about how that went down in the first place. (Sidenote, the victim's preferred pronouns are she/him. The reason they're referred to strictly as he/him was for clarity on who they are in this situation)

idk what proof to show that wouldnt dox dani directly would it be sufficient that i had her added as a friend on her old discord account (and currently being friends with dolie) ?

Im on an alternative account, as to protect myself and the three victims (of which i know personally and are close to me)

Also thank you ❤️ ive been having a pretty okay morning

my hands are shaking though, i never thought someone would reply and its a little nerve wracking to speak out like this, especially against someone with a large following

I fully understand you, going up against a person like dani for a while seemed impossible due to her following as whether she admits to it or not, they pretty much got a cult following which is really dangerous.
thankfully the tides have changed, and most people seem to be fully against them now, they are also writing a response but in my opinion its not gonna change much.

 arian Yesterday at 21:22
Okay, I guess I'd like to preface something:

Dani is in the process of making a long last response, i've known about this since before she announced it, since Dollie told me directly via text

I don't want anything related to this conversation to be leaked or published without my permission, I wanted to wait to see if Dani would take full responsibility in her response before outing her

no worries on that

 ellesare honestly I just have to ask first, how is that friend doing now?

 arian Yesterday at 21:39
He's doing better, but it wasn't like that previously

He and I got into a relationship in 2024, a year or so after the last time Dani ever touched him

He used to get so sick whenever I touched him anywhere, and would see Dani's face instead of mine whenever we got any sort of intimate

He couldn't even touch me, because he would think about what Dani did and think he was the same

He's cried to me many times about how his body doesn't feel like his own anymore, how he knows its not his fault but he just can't help but feel sick

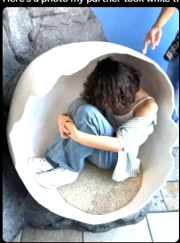

It got to the point where they were put into the same class in our first year of college, and he couldn't attend class because everytime he saw her he would feel sick
It's 2026, we've been dating almost two years now and he's definitely opened up and recovered from the trauma

It still makes him feel sick to the stomach to see or even talk about Dani, but he's been facing it much more bravely, and I'm so proud of how far he's come

Also, I guess I can provide proof now

I know Dani's shown parts of her body or like mirror selfies before

Here's a photo my partner took while they were hanging out together while they were still friends. Her face is obviously covered but i believe everything in this photo ties with the photos shes taken and posted before another question I got, do you have a general timeline of the events?

like when they met, when everything started happening etc.

arian

Yesterday at 21:46

They as in my partner and Dani?

ellesare

Yesterday at 21:47

yes

arian

Yesterday at 21:51

I'm asking him right now for clarity so I'll correct myself later on once he replies

But from what I remember, they've been friends since 4th grade. They had a general friend group of the two of them and a few others (one of which was a victim at one point according to him)

My partner's recollection of events is rocky, a mix of trauma and ADHD I presume

I don't believe he's ever told me the first time it's happened. He just told me that the first time it happened they were at a sleep over with the friend group

And then the whole assault thing happened

But he can't recall everytime it happened, just the fact that it was on and off

But I will highlight something

Dani and I were friends starting 9th grade, she was dating a primary school friend at the time (not my best friend)

When they broke up, she started dating my best friend (whom she coerced into sex acts) and when they broke up, she started dating Dollie

My partner told me that the last time it ever happend was in between her breakup with my best friend and her getting into a relationship with Dollie
I played detective a little bit, and I have a theory that Dani would use my partner as some sort of "filling the hole in her heart" while she wasn't dating anybody

Since Dani and my partner did not interact that way since she and Dollie started dating

And apparently did not do anything while she and my best friend were dating

The details are rocky, but my partner might be able to share more information personally through me, since we're meeting up today

I have full permission from him to share his story, he just doesn't want to get involved on his accounts since he has an audience of his own on Instagram

ellesare

Yesterday at 21:56

I understand that they don't want to get involved with their account, but regardless I am grateful that he is willing to share the full story, I am open to hear everything

I'd also want to say a few things about Dollie, since she's technically a victim as well:

Dollie has bpd and bipolar disorder, she's had a strong history of people abusing her and taking her for granted that she can't trust most if not all men

She met Dani in her freshman year while Dani was a junior, and they started dating pretty quick after that

Dollie ended up becoming trauma bonded to Dani, a mix of her mental disorders and the fact that Dani has treated her the best out of all her romantic partners

She knows Dani is a bad person

She seems to deny it on twitter

And the screenshots don't make it look any better

But she comes to me in our private messages and says how sick and disgusting she feels to be dating a sexual assaulter, but she loves dani too much that the thought of being away from her drives her to the brink of self harm and suicide

I want to clear Dollie's name a little bit, i don't defend her actions, especially when they hurt others, i cant say i see her as a friend fully either

But she's also still a minor, 17 and being harassed by people who only know her from a psychotic breakdown

Just thought i'd shed a bit of light on Dollie as well, since she's also part of the "drama"

@arian I'd also want to say a few things about Dollie, since she's technically a victim as well. ellesare Yesterday at 22:10 this honestly explains a lot about her behavior, and why she sticks around with dani despite being uncomfortable with what she has done what do you suggest we should do in order to help dollie? is there anything we could do?

Here's a reply from my partner, I asked the same question you asked (when he and dani met and the earliest recollection of assault)

ummm

i met dani in 5th grade and the earliest was middle school i think??? maybe late elementary

elementary not high school

Can i send this screenshot to the person?

I've been monitoring the drama and people's reactions on x and reddit

The conversation reveals that the "sexual encounter" was 6 YEARS of on and off Sexual Assault, from 5th to 10th grade, and it would only be possible due to the victim coming from a very religious family, wanting to avoid the idea of covering possible sexual acts for a good while. Needless to say, does not at ALL align with Dani's initial response regarding the situation, calling it something that has only happened during 2022(which also happens to be an incorrect date, as proven earlier by a date mismatch from Dollie's words).

what dollie is talking about here is a sexual encounter with an ex friend i had back in 2022, ive talked about my experiences with nsfw shit and exposure to sexual things as a kid previously and publicly and I'd like to note that similar things also had a hand in what happened, me and my ex friend were at a sleepover and we engaged in a sexual thing, this was not anything new as we had done it multiple times before, initiated by both of us previously, so it was "normalized"

its on me for not knowing that they didn't want to keep doing what we were doing, but it had been happening in our friend group pretty much since 5th grade

i don't agree with dollie's statements that it happened because i am autistic, but rather because i simply didn't know that something that became normal for so long should stop, "reputation" and "instances" are words thrown around a bit too lightly here, especially when taking all your "evidence" from screenshots of somebody breaking down after some time i did try to get into contact with my ex friend and apologize for what happened but i couldn't get ahold of them, so i just let them move on and did the same, i still am sorry to them and i wish we were able to communicate better when all of that was happening in order to avoid it i wont force anyone to feel any sort of way about this but I've moved on from it after years, but however anybody wants to feel about it is their choice idc but don't act like i did anything out of malice or intention

 I'm speaking on behalf of my romantic partner

He was the one that Dani assaulted for 6 years. From 5th grade to 10th grade. They were friends in primary school, dating back to 4th grade, and we recently cut her off together in our last year of highschool. The reason why they stayed friends for so long was because, according to him, he didn't understand the concept of sex or sex acts

His parents are religious and conservative and have always aimed to avoid things like that

It wasn't until our final year of highschool where it clicked for him that it was assault

In addition, Dani's explanation of it being "mutual non-verbal agreement" is flat out False, because not only does it Not classify as consent(as it Needs to be verbal and enthusiastic to count as that), a lot of the time Dani would be the instigator when the victim was Tired, not gaining any kind of verbal or enthusiastic consent and still going for sexual acts with the victim.

My partner then messaged me privately

Saying "I think I was assaulted by Dani when we were younger"

Describing times where back when they used to have sleep overs when they were younger, Dani would "platonically" lean against him

My partner didn't think any of that was weird at all, since they've been friends.

But he cited that multiple times while he was falling asleep or half asleep, Dani would touch him there (handjobs and all), put her hands up his shirt, and performed oral All without verbal and enthusiastic consent

My partner says they didn't understand or know what was happening at the time. He was half conscious, and thought because Dani (a trusted friend) was doing it, it must be okay And so I believe that's how it became "normalized" between the two of them, because my partner never said no, and because Dani continued to do it

The conversation would end off here and be forwarded to another person(due to Ellesare being unavailable), which has covered the situation in a lot more detail. They will be kept anonymous.

9/27/26, 3:35 PM

Hey hey

I hope today hasn't been too overwhelming for you

arian 9/27/26, 3:35 PM

Hello!

The overwhelming stuff has passed

9/27/26, 3:35 PM

That's good

arian 9/27/26, 3:35 PM

The first 2-3 days when the screenshots were leaked were the most stressful

Especially because of Dani's responses

9/27/26, 3:36 PM

Yeah I bet, it happened so suddenly

arian 9/27/26, 3:36 PM

Which were flat out untrue or so vague they might as well have been false

I'm sure the other person I was talking to has told you about everything?

Or should I recap?

arian 9/27/26, 3:40 PM

It really is, if it sound sickening and terrible from my personal recollection, just imagine how it felt in person

He's mostly recovered from the trauma, my partner, but the rise of the drama recently has been forcing (?) him to face his demons again

My partner is on his way to pick me up, he can share his story once he arrives

But for now, are there any questions or anything you'd like cleared up from me?

I know Dani made some vague and inconsistent statements

I've answered some of them

But if you have more I'd be happy to tell you what I know

9/27/26, 3:42 PM

We have all that we'd have liked to know now honestly, I mainly asked LSR to direct him to me since he was getting really tired because of time zones and such

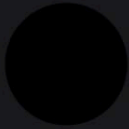

I'm just here in case you still need support or someone to talk with, that's all

But of course I am also willing to wait for the proper story once you're able to get it

arian 9/27/26, 3:43 PM

Thank you, I'm glad to have someone here to listen

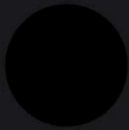

9/27/26, 3:36 PM

I know everything no worries

arian 9/27/26, 3:36 PM

Oh but before that, thank you for taking the time to listen and I hope your day's been well

9/27/26, 3:37 PM

its been fine... i have to study up on midterms sadly buuut i can make time for this its important after all

I always figured that the sexual assault topic must've been sensitive and graphic but hearing it all laid down like that really showed the full extent of it It is things that no person should go through, and the fact that your friend initially believed it was normal is sickening

9/27/26, 3:43 PM

hey, feel free to ramble to your heart's content

arian 9/27/26, 3:43 PM

I reached out to people on twitter a day ago but I never got a reply from them, I took my chance with messaging LSR when i saw their @ on the doc

I was shocked to get a reply so fast

But im glad i could reach out to the two of you

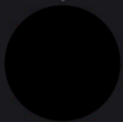

I never wanted to make my own response via my own account

Im not part of the exe community

I only know about Dani's artwork and her involvement of Self Paced because she showed my partner and I when we were still on good terms

@arian I was shocked to get a reply so fast

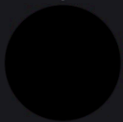

9/27/26, 3:45 PM

Yeah you messaged right after the doc went up so you caught us at a good time

@arian I only know about Dani's artwork and her involvement of Self Paced because she showed my partner...

9/27/26, 3:45 PM

I'm sure you were aware of their high standing in the community previously

arian 9/27/26, 3:45 PM

I knew people wouldn't be able to trust a nobody that doesn't even have a single connection to the community, so i was looking for someone who could speak for me

 I'm sure you were aware of their high standing in the community previously

arian 9/27/26, 3:45 PM

Very aware

I was actually aware of their first doc

It was our junior year of highschool, and my friend told me about the doc and about Dani being a groomer and sending nsfw to minors as a minor

I made the mistake of being ignorant, and I never read the doc

I stayed acquaintances with Dani, i never really considered her a friend since she was just dating people who WERE/ARE my friends

@arian I made the mistake of being ignorant, and I never read the doc

9/27/26, 3:48 PM

Gee, that's dangerous

That's like staying willingly ignorant

but at least you've matured past that now but I can understand being afraid to speak up previously

Its dangerous to try to go against someone with a big following, not because of the person themself but their potentially rabid following who may try to endanger you for petty reasons

so i would say you waited to do this at the right time now that there's an opportunity since everyone has turned against them either way tho, not an easy thing to do in the first place

arian 9/27/26, 3:51 PM

It really isn't

Ive talked to Dollie about wanting to speak out

She told me not to

I didn't listen to her, obviously

But I also wanted to listen to her

Not because I care about Dani

9/27/26, 3:52 PM

But because you care about Dollie

arian 9/27/26, 3:52 PM

But because I care about Dollie, and the victims
Yes

Again, I don't see myself as Dollie's friend anymore
She's said hurtful things
Things I don't condone

If you think what she says on twitter is bad, she says
worse behind closed doors

9/27/26, 3:52 PM

Hey, good on you for still being the bigger person
and understanding her circumstances

Even if I dislike Dollie as well

Two things can be true

Hey, good on you for still being the bigger person
and understanding her circumstances

arian 9/27/26, 3:53 PM

I always feel bad thinking about her circumstances

She's not a good person, my friends and I know that

But she's mentally ill and shouldn't deserve people judging her on a psychotic break

She's still a mean person, rooted in always have defenses and her trauma bond with Dani

But when she's not being an a-hole, she can be really sweet

@arian I always feel bad thinking about her circumstances She's not a good person, my friends and I ...

9/27/26, 3:54 PM

It's complicated

Maybe its not particularly fair for people to judge her for that but it still holds true that she should not be in these circles in the first place, people will naturally be off-put by that behavior

I can't say anything as if I knew what it's like but mental illness is something I'm sure is not easy to handle or control at all

Maybe she's not a good person sure, but this is just a result of the cycles of abuse being perpetuated, its a tragedy in itself its never a simple topic, there's always nuance to it

arian 9/27/26, 3:56 PM

I agree

My partner is here now, I'm going to show him my conversation with LSR and he can talk to you next

9/27/26, 3:57 PM

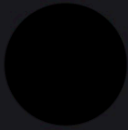

All good

I am ready at any time

arian 9/27/26, 4:16 PM

I'll be texting for my partner since he's driving
He's asking what you want to hear from him

9/27/26, 4:17 PM

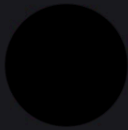

Well, you said you wanted to confirm some details with him right?

I feel like this would be a good time to do that

arian 9/27/26, 4:18 PM

I think it would be easier if you were to ask questions directly, it's easier for him to recall events that way

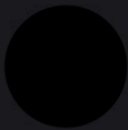

9/27/26, 4:18 PM

Alright

arian 9/27/26, 4:18 PM

Idk what to ask him that I haven't told you already

9/27/26, 4:19 PM

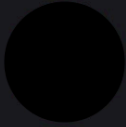

I'm fine with asking questions but I don't want to accidentally overstep and touch a particularly soft spot you know? (edited)

So its good to have you as a mediator

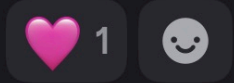

arian 9/27/26, 4:19 PM

Don't worry, I'll let you know if a question is too sensitive, but don't take it in a bad way, you're not wrong if you do

9/27/26, 4:20 PM

Thank you for your understanding

I guess I would just like to listen, from his own perspective, how Dani groomed him over time and what eventually caused him to realize that everything she had normalized wasn't okay at all

Because I know that it was through it being normalized, but something crucial must've happened to give him that realization

Does that make sense?

I am mainly trying to see how this lines up with past incidents with other people in terms of repeated behaviors and patterns

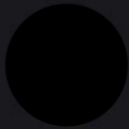

arian 9/27/26, 4:24 PM

It does

He felt disgusting that he was letting his body be used in that way. In his words "it felt like I was wronging my body by letting her do those things to me. I was mainly just scared."

As in he realized he never gave his full consent and that he felt uncomfortable when everything happened but he didn't speak out

9/27/26, 4:25 PM

So it was a realization he eventually made on his own is what I'm hearing?

Because I presume that this went on for quite some time

So it was a realization he eventually made on his own is what I'm hearing?

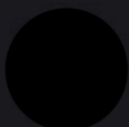

arian 9/27/26, 4:26 PM

Yes, with my help (because he asked me questions about it)

As I told LSR, he grew up in a religious and conservative household, he didn't understand sex or sexual assault until he was older

He didnt understand he was being sexually assaulted until I told him

Which I heard is common in SA victims, especially male victims

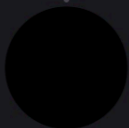

9/27/26, 4:28 PM

Right

@arian Yes, with my help (because he asked me questions about it)

9/27/26, 4:29 PM

He is so fortunate to have someone like you by his side, I hope you realize that

Truly

You helped save this man from his abuse

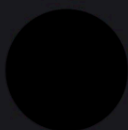

arian 9/27/26, 4:30 PM

Awww thank you

He tells me that a lot, and I don't like to take too much credit because he really fought his traumas himself

Im glad he can grow now though

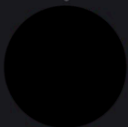

9/27/26, 4:30 PM

Absolutely

@arian Awww thank you He tells me that a lot, and I don't like to take too much credit because he really fough...

9/27/26, 4:30 PM

True, but everyone needs a guide right?

But I see that with him, he wasn't trauma bonded to Dani unlike Dollie

He realized the position he was in and was able to back out

We also have a general timeline of events now, but do remind me again how long the sexual assaults went on for? When was the first and last time?

He realized the position he was in and was able to back out

arian 9/27/26, 4:33 PM

He said breaking it off was really hard. The idea of someone who he considered his best friend and was good to them actually being a bad person really hurt

● We also have a general timeline of events now, but do remind me again how long the sexual assaults went...

arian 9/27/26, 4:34 PM

He said the first time he thinks was 6th grade and the final time was in late 2023 or early 2024

9/27/26, 4:35 PM

that's a lot of years wow

May I ask his current age?

arian He said the first time he thinks was 6th grade and the final time was in late 2023 or early 2024

arian 9/27/26, 4:36 PM

Dani and Dollie got together in February of '24 i believe, and that was when they stopped

arian 9/27/26, 4:36 PM

He's 20

Since June '26

9/27/26, 4:36 PM

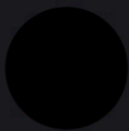

so same age as me

arian 9/27/26, 4:36 PM

Mhm, he's older than Dani too I believe

By almost a year

9/27/26, 4:37 PM

Shit, that would mean that went on for roughly almost a decade

jesus

sixth grade to late 2023/early 2024 is approximately 7-8 years

Hmm, I mean I guess that that's everything for now honestly. I don't see what else we need to verify or have concrete info on

sixth grade to late 2023/early 2024 is approximately 7-8 years

arian 9/27/26, 4:39 PM

Im fact checking the time period right now

Because I thought it was 6 years

But it sounds like it was a decads

Okay I got it

He was 12 in 6th grade, and then he thinks that 2023 sounds more accurate than 2024

So from 6th grade to his sophomore year in highschool

About 6 years

Maybe 5-6

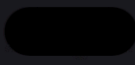

The timeline is rough, but 5-6 years seems to be what he can remember

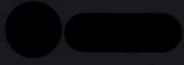

9/27/26, 4:42 PM

Its kinda sick to think that while Dani was posing as a content creator they were sexually assaulting people huh?

 @arian The timeline is rough, but 5-6 years seems to be what he can remember

 9/27/26, 4:42 PM

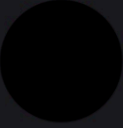

That sounds about right

 Its kinda sick to think that while Dani was posing as a content creator they were sexually assaulting people ...

 arian 9/27/26, 4:42 PM

Wow I didnt even think of that

I knew dani was a creator but i completely didnt even realize that she couldve been working on her biggest projects while assaulting my partner

 9/27/26, 4:43 PM

Well if this timeline lines up then yeah that's absolutely what was going on

Geez

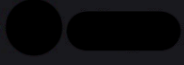

At least we have a timeline verified now

Hey, tell him that I appreciate him coming forward about this and that he's really brave

And also that I'm proud of him

Other than that... I think that about covers it?

Its a timeline and explanation of the events that occurred, that's more than enough I believe

 And also that I'm proud of him

 arian 9/27/26, 4:55 PM

He says thank you

Other than that... I think that about covers it?

arian 9/27/26, 4:55 PM

I believe so, but if you have any other questions feel free to message me anytime

9/27/26, 4:56 PM

Same to you, if you ever just feel like talking about this or even in general, I'm here too

Either way though, Dani is done for, you don't need to worry about that Either she fully admits to the sexual assault herself or she doesn't and we end up publishing this information, but I don't see a scenario where she gets out of it

Of course, if/when we do publish it, it will be to your exact preferences

So no worries, we will work together every step of the way

arian 9/27/26, 4:59 PM

My timezone is PST (UST-7), you can message me if your time lines up with that

9/27/26, 4:59 PM

I'm only three hours ahead, its good enough

Hey, thanks for making that first contact

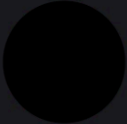

People will listen to your story now

And no one will come trying to tear you down for it like they might've before all this

arian 9/27/26, 5:01PM

I don't plan to make this story public yet though
Not until Dani makes her statement

[REDACTED] 9/27/26, 5:02 PM

I know, I'm talking generally

arian 9/27/26, 5:02 PM

Oh okay I understand

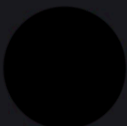

[REDACTED] 9/27/26, 5:02 PM

Oh well... its rough honestly
But that's just life

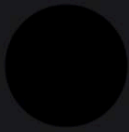

arian 9/27/26, 5:08 PM

Yeah, that makes a lot of sense
Thank you so much for listening

[REDACTED] 9/27/26, 5:09 PM

Of course
Once again, we will only act if/when YOU say so,
that's all Regardless of how things end up going down, I'm just happy to have been able to lend an ear

9/28/26, 3:45 PM

Hey just to be clear, Dani is 100% 19 years old and not lying about her age right?

I'm almost certain that's the case but I just want to verify that she's not actually like 21 or something

Actually nevermind, based on the convos we already had there's no way she's not 19 if the timeline is right

arian 9/28/26, 11:09 PM

Hi! Sorry for the late response, again this is an alt account, I don't check it often

Yes, Dani is 19

2007

I believe

Younger than my partner

Dani's idea of consent seems to be extremely warped, because in no way, shape or form has it ever been initiated by both the victim and Her, with her being the sole initiator of every sexual act they've ever had.

what dollie is talking about here is a sexual encounter with an ex friend i had back in 2022, ive talked about my experiences with nsfw shit and exposure to sexual things as a kid previously and publicly and I'd like to note that similar things also had a hand in what happened, me and my ex friend were at a sleepover and we engaged in a sexual thing, this was not anything new as we had done it multiple times before, initiated by both of us previously, so it was "normalized"

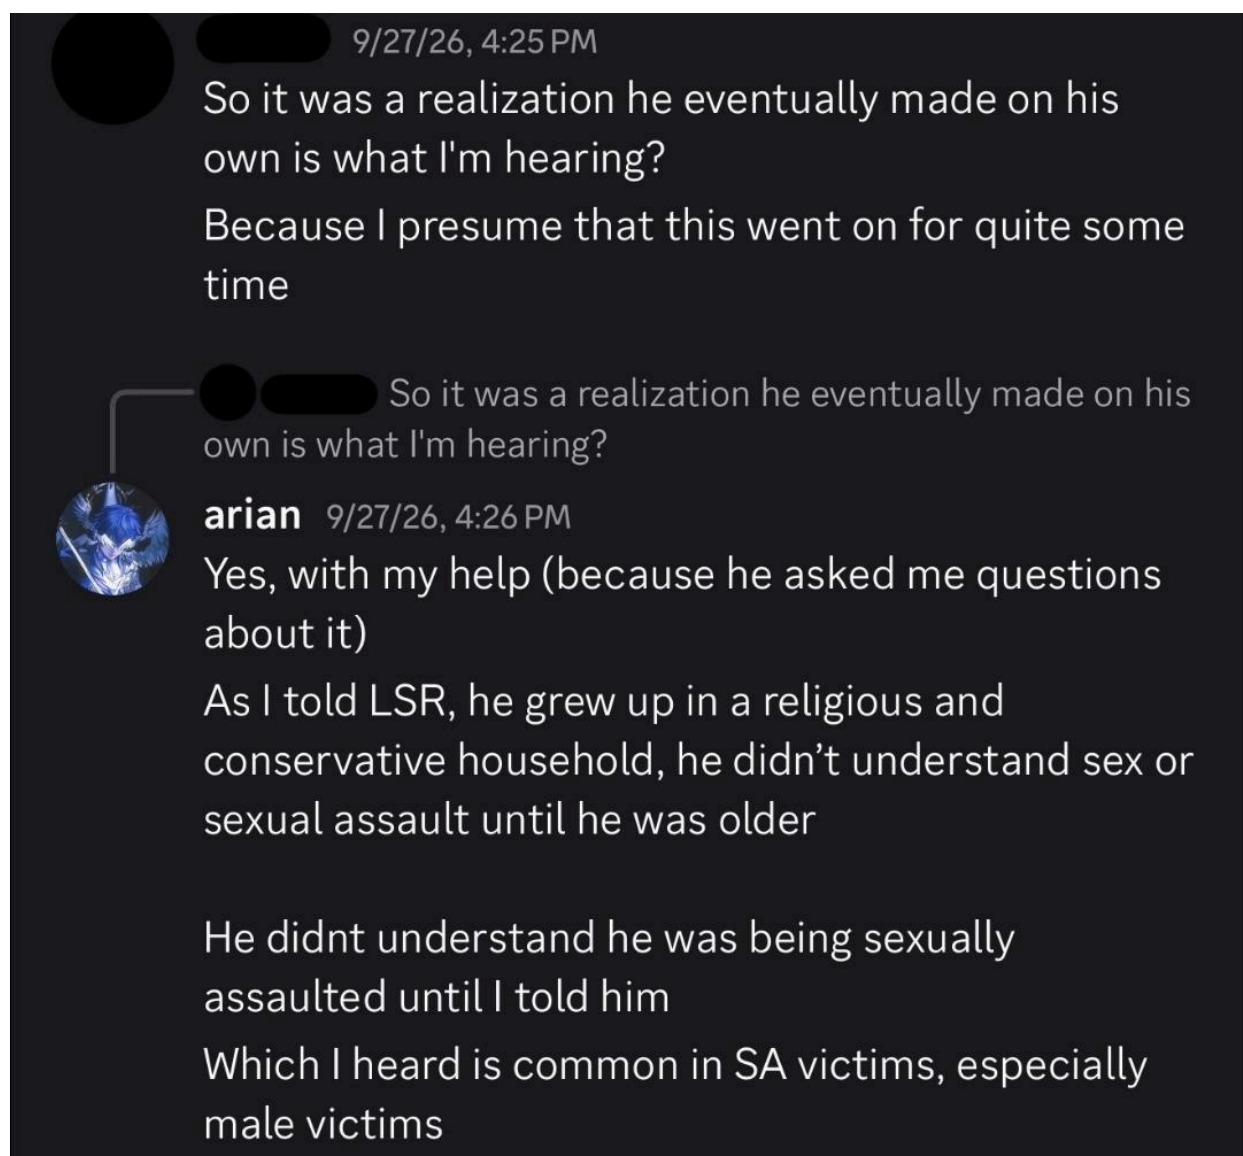

arian 9/27/26, 4:24 PM

It does

He felt disgusting that he was letting his body be used in that way. In his words "it felt like I was wronging my body by letting her do those things to me. I was mainly just scared."

As in he realized he never gave his full consent and that he felt uncomfortable when everything happened but he didn't speak out

It's reinforced more that the victim didn't quite have an understanding of what was happening and why it's wrong, yet even then did not like what was happening, being too scared to say anything because it's done by someone they've considered a close friend.

The total time of Dani sexually assaulting said victim winds up to be 5-6 years, a Sickening amount of time.

Okay I got it

He was 12 in 6th grade, and then he thinks that 2023 sounds more accurate than 2024

So from 6th grade to his sophomore year in highschool

About 6 years

Maybe 5-6

The timeline is rough, but 5-6 years seems to be what he can remember

It feels rather strange how Dani says she "didn't know they were uncomfortable" whilst never once receiving verbal consent from them.

engaged in a sexual thing, this was not anything new as we had done it multiple times before, initiated by both of us previously, so it was "normalized"

its on me for not knowing that they didn't want to keep doing what we were doing, but it had been happening in our friend group pretty much since 5th grade

In addition, I would like to request that you do not harass anyone involved in this situation. It gets you nowhere, and despite how serious this situation is, harassment is NOT warranted. Thanks.
