

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS IN COMPLETE SENTENCES.

After section 1:

1. In your own words, what do we know so far about the setting and character introduced above?

ANSWER HERE:

After section 5:

2. In your own words, explain the justice system described in paragraphs 2-5.

How does the system work, and what is the possible consequence that has been described thus far?

ANSWER HERE:

After section 7:

In your own words, explain the other possible consequences of the “trial” (paragraphs 6-7).

Why is this method of judgment believed by their culture to show “perfect fairness” to defendants? Explain.

ANSWER HERE:

After section 8:

Why did people in this society enjoy watching the “trial”? Why did they accept the results?

ANSWER HERE:

After section 10:

Describe the new characters that have been introduced and explain the new conflict (9-10).

Who is next to stand “judgment” and why?

ANSWER HERE:

After section 14:

In your own words, explain the princess’ conflict and the decision she must make.

What knowledge does she have about one of the possible consequences that makes it personally more terrible?

ANSWER HERE:

After section 18:

Explain the unspoken communication between the princess and her lover (15-18).

How does she respond to him, and how does he react to her cue?

ANSWER HERE:

After section 26:

How does this story relate to the idea of justice? Think of choices BOTH characters make.

What factors must the princess consider in her decision? What must her lover, knowing her, consider?

ANSWER HERE: