WESTFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

English Learners

Advanced ELD (1010)

Prerequisites:None
For Student who score a 4+ on the WIDA

This course is a 1-semester intensive English language course based on the WIDA English Language Development (ELD) Standards. English learners (ELs) with a WIDA score of 4+ will receive targeted instruction to increase their proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, writing, and comprehension of standard English. This course will teach critical thinking skills and their application to content area coursework and prepare students for regular or advanced Speech and English courses to further prepare them for higher education.

Beginner ELD (1010)

Prerequisites:None
For Student who score a 0-2 on the WIDA

This course is a full year supplemental English language course based on the WIDA English Language Development (ELD) Standards. English learners (ELs) with WIDA scores 1-2 will improve their proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, writing, and comprehension of standard English so that they can succeed within the regular school setting and an English-speaking society. Beginner ELD provides students with individualized or small group instruction to support success in completing coursework in content-area classes.

English as a New Language "ENL" (1012)

Prerequisites:None
A Full Year Course

This course focuses on providing language learners with a foundation in reading, writing, listening, and speaking in English. In addition to learning essential grammar, students will be introduced to narrative structure and essential literary elements through a careful analysis of novels, short stories, and poetry. Students will learn to write for specific audiences and purposes as they compose narrative, argumentative, and informative responses. A special emphasis will be placed on helping students develop confidence as English speakers through a number of informal and formal class presentations.

Intermediate ELD (1010)

Prerequisites:None
For Student who score a 2-3 on the WIDA

This course is a 2-semester supplemental English language course based on the WIDA English Language Development (ELD) Standards. English learners (ELs) with WIDA scores 2-3 will improve their proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, writing, and comprehension of standard English so that they can succeed within the regular school setting and an English-speaking society. Intermediate ELD provides students with some individualized or small group instruction to support success in completing coursework in content-area classes.
