

I want to write a complete SCAD code for a keychain I will use it at Maker Lab on MakerWorld and upload it to the community, including Arabic translation for the notes on the customizable parameters (not in the code), and add a description in Arabic and English for the print profile The top layer will be text that is customizable and adjustable text parameters : text needed, Font, Size, thickness, Height, color The bottom layer will be offset for the text letters customizable parameters : thickness, Height, color, corner radius keyring and keyhole to be attached to the bottom layer customizable parameters : outer diameter, inner diameter, and position of the ring in different axes x, y, and z keep every thing simple and clear