

Hi [Business Owner's Name],

I'm a fellow student in [town/city], studying marketing and have to help a local business for a project.

I've conducted some research and have 3 good ideas that I'd like to share with you. They can help you attract new clients to your {Chiropractic business}.

If you're interested in my offer, I have created some ads/promotional post for your social media.

It's also worth mentioning that my main goal is to gain experience in the industry.

Would you be willing to do a ZOOM call or meet in person on Sunday, between 12 pm and 11 .

Thanks,

Tyler Smith
