

Hello, and welcome to this google document, created by Nascarboy. Before you check out the links below, here's a few things I want to say.

Not all of these documents were made by me, but some are. I take no credit for the docs I didn't make. This is simply a compilation of documents tied to the truth about Mineplex. You don't have to read them all, but at least read a few of them.

Mineplex has been around since the beginning of 2013. It started off peaceful, until the owner tied with community interaction (Spu_) left and Chiss took his place. So far, Chiss has had very negative outbursts with the community, seen here:

Just a quick update here.

We've decided to remove Disagree and Flame Inducing from the post votes.

The reason for this, is that there are large groups of trolls going around on the forums, Disagree-bombing posts for no reason other than to try to cause drama. This is giving the forum an overall negative vibe, and it not something we want around.

Quite simply, the Dislike button is being used a tool for bullying and harassment, and is causing hate and conflict. This is not something we want on our forums.

A large problem with the DISAGREE button was that it was not constructive. Our rules state that criticism/feedback needs to be constructive. If you disagree with someone, you should politely and maturely explain why.

Thread link to see how many people disagree:

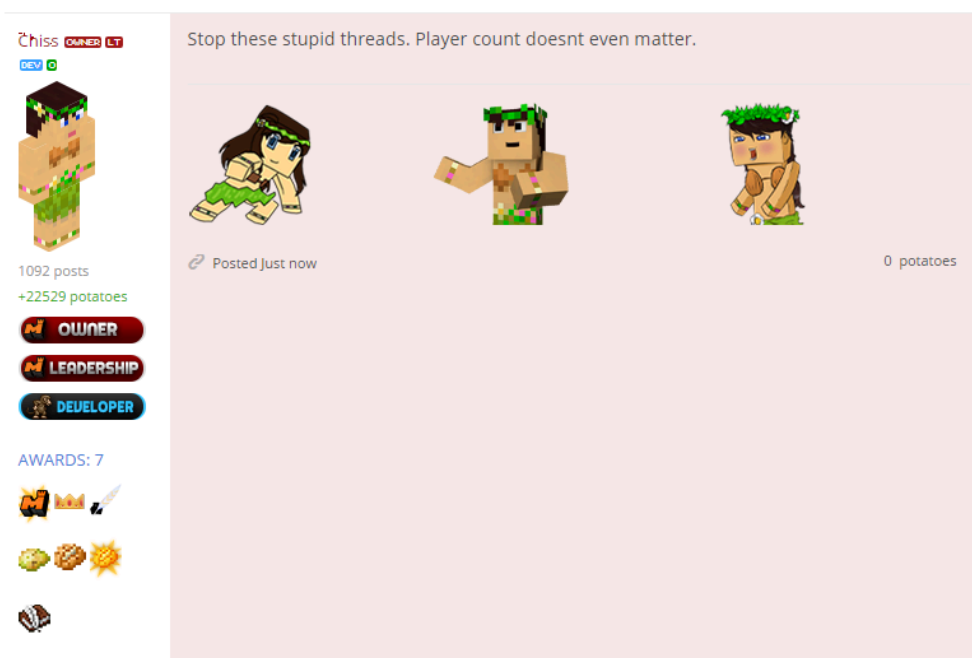

<http://www.mineplex.com/forums/page/1/m/11929946/viewthread/25661348-removal-disagree-flame-inducing>

He also decided to block out banned users walls and received large amounts of opposition, seen here:

(Sorry about the red pen, it's the only image I could find of this post, but it does point out Chiss making a rule up and then later adding it to the rules, but not before he used it on this post).

Chiss also has had moments where even he breaks his own rules and has shown he is incapable of running a community:

All in all, Chiss isn't very good at his job, which is where we dive into the main part of this doc, the actual docs. Chiss's inability to interact with the community has lead to the creation of some of these docs, as most of these problems can derive from Chiss molding the forums how he likes it, and not how the players like it.

So let's start off with Doc #1, which is a compilation of docs in itself, mostly about corruption in Mineplex.

https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/16nGpn5TvC_oJKVxRhO98VA-16uUMU3qpyQi9QN_cxPE/edit?pli=1#slide=id.p

Doc #2 isn't a doc at all, but it is good to show nonetheless.

[2:08:20 am | edited 2:11:06 am] Lizzy <3 : Also their group started giving Encc crap when he came to me with evidence I made the mistake to tell Tony that he told me stuff 5 min later he got kicked from their group chat: <http://gyazo.com/24f948290505604e8028258bec2cfbd7> first thing Sorgie did after resigning was report Encc:

because me and Cigam recommended him until Tony went to Aaron and told him that he can't be trusted so Aaron told Spu not to accept him - might want to ask Aaron about that Doc #10 is also not a doc, but it's about Redwarfare.

Today, I bring you a conspiracy around the Mineplex server of Minecraft
It's come to my attention that the recent "merge" between the servers Mineplex and Red Warfare are a bit sketchy.
When the servers joined forces, the owner of RW, libraryaddict, joined the Dev Team. However, the most popular game on RW was lost, Search and Destroy. Not only this, but the entire server is gone, because of Mineplex. Lots of the RW members joined MP, to play in-game and to join the online forums.
The thing that brought me to write this was the fact that Mineplex censored a former RW player, banning him from the forums for talking about the old server. His first post was an attempt to reach out to library, but it was deleted. He made a new thread, to defend his rights and talked about the deleted thread. This was also removed....
Due to that last thread, he received "Warning Points", something used on the MP Forums. He got half the required amount needed for a ban, due to "Staff Disrespect". Finally, he made a goodbye thread, saying he was leaving because of the points, saying he didn't even know why he got them. He said one brief statement to lib, and then the goodbye came.
Forum banned for "Continued Staff Disrespect"....
I then gathered several pieces of history about the merge, and drew up this list:
Reasons why Mineplex purposely killed Red Warfare
-One less rival server
-New games
-More players
-More players = more donations
-More donations = more money
-Mineplex is silencing a member who kept asking questions.
These all happened too. As said before, RW is no longer a server to play on. It had potential to become a very large server too. Mineplex received many new players from RW, and lots of them donated. This gave MP more money. Also, they recently released a new update, which added more stuff to the shop. They also banned the member trying to talk about RW and Search and Destroy, along with several of his friends who did nothing but agree with him.....
This is not the first time Mineplex has done something corrupt, they've done it many times before. If we just sit back and let this all happen, RW could die off completely. Luckily, several people have hyped up the forums about S&D, and eventually, we may see it's return...
But not if we sit around and do nothing. We must help too....

Doc #11 is another resignation doc:

Dear Nascarboy,

I would like voice my opinion on this whole matter to you.

I personally believe that this whole thing started out really bad, and I absolutely against you. However, as time went on, and a lot of you were banned, I have come to see that your side started making sense. Yesterday, I was thinking to myself, and I now believe in your cause. As a staff member, I will tell you favoritism is how you get by, unless you are buddy-buddy with the admin of the team you want, you will not join the team. The best you can do without being a favorite is where I am now, a normal mod, on no sub-teams. You guys are also correct in this deal with Sven, I would like to tell you one thing. He is an idiot. I think he deserved to be demoted a long time ago, and I also agree with the fact that he is a favorite. He did worse than underscore (and me, by being on your side, but that is a secret shsh). So, I am now on your side, I have joined Nasclub, and I am willing to raise hell if needed 😊. I also would like to let you know that I am going to be demoted for having a brain soon.

Also, if you wish to quote this message, you may. Do not mention my name please, because I wanna see them try to figure out who this is 😊
