

Lore:

Ean is a mutant statue created after the dead corpse of his human form was combined with the marble from The Statue of The One Who Seeks, flowing mana from Limbo and infections from Seek. Ean can extract power from all the Architects in Limbo, even if the power is harmful. He is the 5th Architect as of 2011 (2025 in our timeline) and the official peace-keeper. Ean previously existed in timeline B7, but due to Hell spreading fast, Ean and the Architects have moved to A5.

B7:

B7 is the first timeline to include humans after humanoid monkeys replaced humans. B7 was the breaking point for this multi-dimension's god, god disappeared from the multi-dimension after B7 failed like the other 100 timelines. B7 was the first timeline to be fully consumed by Hell and destroyed by Earth's Final Stand before it was inhabitable.

Notes:

- The lore is very unfinished.
- A3-B6 are basically the SinCastermon's BTDD universe but with other things shoehorned into it.
- Earth's Final Stand was inspired by an entity from an analog horror that really scared the shit out of me. I don't remember the name of it though. It was about celestial bodies destroying humanity through uranium, I think.
- DOORS and Pressure are the 2 main inspirations for Ean and the entire storyline.
- Dot was an OC I made when I first played DOORS floor 2 and he has lived on as an inside joke.
- Ean was originally a clone of Seek with lots of differences. But was remade into what it is today.
- Viridis Light is not my OC, I was an OC created by a user in the DOORS unofficial Discord server, but the creator entirely forgot about Viridis. So, Viridis was revived and is still unknown.
- Ean and Guiding Light are dating.
- Even though Sebastian is hated in every way possible by myself, my friend and some guy in the Discord said to keep him in since he's a staple of the Pressure lore.
- Vanilla and Strych are canon in A5, just never in the most known arc.
- All the Architects are depicted in their GoG renders.
