

Return policy

Cash refunds are not allowed for card payments. The refund procedure is governed by the rules of international payment systems.

The consumer does not have the right to refuse a product of good quality if the specified product can be used exclusively by the person buying it;